ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

MEN'S TRACK

Luis Romero, Texas A&M University - Commerce, JR, El Paso, Texas, Montwood HS

Romero made his first foray of the season into the 800 meter run at the Don Kirby Elite Invitational, ensconcing himself immediately onto the national scene with a third place finish on the strength of a 1:52.30 (adjusted to 1:51.67 for altitude), which is currently the 14th fastest time in Division II, and the second fastest time in the conference. Romero's time broke the previous A&M-Commerce season high by over seven seconds, and earned him a provisional qualifying mark.

MEN'S FIELD

Masoud Moghaddam, Texas A&M University - Commerce, SR, Mashhad, Iran, Shahid Beheshti

For the third consecutive meet, Moghaddam broke the LSC record in the weight throw at the Don Kirby Elite Invitational, smashing his previous high (63-1.87, 19.25m) with a lob of 66-11.25 (20.40m). Not only that, his toss won the event outright against a field full of some of the top NCAA Division I programs in the country, including No. 24 BYU. Moghaddam's newest provisional qualifying mark is currently the best in the Lone Star Conference, and sixth best in the country.

WOMEN'S TRACK

Ewa Zaborowska, Harding University, SR, Wejherowo, Poland, King's Jan III Sobieski Secondary School

Zaborowska won the 3,000 meters at Samford Multi and Invitational in 9:23.01, the fastest time on record in NCAA II. The automatic qualifying effort tops her previous conference record (9:46.39).

WOMEN'S FIELD

Holly Cunigan, West Texas A&M University, SO, Wills Point, Texas, Wills Point HS

Cunigan continues to roll in her standout sophomore season as she crushed her own school and LSC record in the women's shot put competition at the ASU NCAA Qualifier on Saturday in Alamosa, Colo. Her 46-10.25 (14.28m) throw would win the her the title at the meet as well. She leads the LSC in the event by over 3 full feet and ranks 13th nationally. Cunigan would also place third in the weight throw with a new PR of 50-4 (15.34m), a mark that also leads the LSC.
