Abilene Christian and Central Oklahoma take LSC Tennis Team Titles; ACU's Hutton Jones and UCO's Francis Baxter named Coaches of the Year

RICHARDSON, TEXAS -- Abilene Christian University won its second consecutive Lone Star Conference men's tennis championship this spring, and head coach Hutton Jones has been voted the LSC Men's Tennis Coach of the Year. ACU then hosted the NCAA Division II Midwest Region Tennis Tournament and won that by defeating Cameron, 5-1, in the finals. On the women's side, the University of Central Oklahoma won the LSC Championship by defeating Northeastern State, 5-4, in the conference tournament finals. UCO head coach Francis Baxter has been named LSC Women's Tennis Coach of the Year.

The LSC Men's and Women's Tennis All-Conference teams were selected from results during the LSC Singles and Doubles Championships on September 29-30, 1997, in Edmond, Okla. Finalists from the three flights in the men's and women's competitions have earned first team All-Conference honors. Players who lost in the semifinals are second team All-Lone Star Conference.
