

LONE STAR CONFERENCE

Long known as a leader in intercollegiate athletics, the Lone Star Conference™ (LSC) is an innovative athletics conference that aims to provide a superior competitive experience for member institutions and to allow for comprehensive development of student-athletes through academic services and life skills programming. The LSC continues to build upon its proud history while aiming to be recognized as the premier NCAA Division II conference in the nation.

The league's mission is to foster student participation and success among member institutions in NCAA Division II intercollegiate athletics as an integral part of each institution's total educational program. The LSC shall pursue student-athlete development with highest regard to the principles of academic excellence, graduation success, sportsmanship, ethical conduct, resourcefulness, community service, gender equity, and diversity.

The LSC - founded on April 25, 1931 - has developed from a five-team conference of Texas-based schools to a 17-member league that spans four states (Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Arkansas).

The league continues to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of intercollegiate athletic programs that are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.

Throughout the league's 91-year history, various institutions have competed under the LSC banner. The conference was formed in 1931 when North Texas State, Southwest Texas State, Sam Houston State, Stephen F. Austin, and Texas A&M-Commerce (then East Texas State) withdrew from the old Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

The membership alignment has changed over the years, with current members added from 1954 to 2019. Texas A&M-Kingsville (formerly Texas A&I) joined in 1954, and Angelo State in 1968.

Conference membership remained within the Texas borders until 1984 when Eastern New Mexico was admitted. Since then, the LSC has included members from Arkansas and Oklahoma.

Cameron (1988, 1996) was added near the outset of an expansion phase, while Texas Woman's (1989) and previous member West Texas A&M (1986, 1993) joined the league soon after.

Midwestern State was admitted early in 1995. Harding reconnected with the league as an affiliate member in track and field from 2013-15, and McMurry was an affiliate member in indoor and outdoor track and field and football in 2014.

In 2016, UT Permian Basin and Western New Mexico were added to the league, while Lubbock Christian joined as an affiliate member in indoor and outdoor track and field that same year. Oklahoma Panhandle State was an affiliate member in football in 2016.

DBU was an affiliate member in indoor and outdoor track and field in 2019.

On July 1, 2019, the LSC added eight schools as DBU, Lubbock Christian, Oklahoma Christian, St. Edward's, St. Mary's, Texas A&M International, Arkansas-Fort Smith and UT Tyler joined the league.

Central Washington University, Simon Fraser University, and Western Oregon University joined the league as affiliate members in football on July 1, 2022.

Past members of the LSC include Trinity, Houston, Lamar, Howard Payne, Sul Ross State, McMurry, Harding, Ouachita Baptist, Central Oklahoma, East Central (Okla.), Northeastern State (Okla.), Southeastern Oklahoma, Southwestern Oklahoma, Abilene Christian, Incarnate Word, Tarleton State, and Texas A&M-Commerce.

While the LSC has maintained a long-standing tradition of competitive athletic programs for its members, many teams and individuals have gone on to distinguish themselves on the national stage. Entering 2022-23, LSC member institutions have collected 77 NCAA team national championships since the league joined the Division II membership in 1981.

The LSC conducts conference championships in 18 sports (nine men and nine women). Men's championships include football, soccer, cross country, basketball, baseball, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, golf, and tennis. Women's titles are determined in volleyball, soccer, cross country, basketball, softball, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, tennis, and golf.

The conference office is in Richardson, Texas, a northern suburb of Dallas. Jay Poerner serves as Commissioner, with assistance from Melanie Robotham (Championships and Communications), Danielle Anderson (Compliance and Internal Operations), Brandon Tripp (Digital Media and Communications) and Christy Martiny (Business).

PRESEASON POLL AND AWARDS

LSC Football preseason poll revealed

Angelo State is the favorite to win the 2022 Lone Star Conference football championship in the LSC preseason poll announced Thursday.

The league's preseason poll reflects the opinions of LSC head coaches, sports information directors, and various media representatives from throughout the region.

ASU earned first-place votes on 15 of the 27 ballots for 257 total points.

Midwestern State, the defending champions, finished second with 236 points and nine first-place votes, while Central Washington was picked third with 207 points.

West Texas A&M was fourth with 198 points and one top vote. UT Permian Basin (150 points and 2 first-place nods), Texas A&M-Kingsville (143), Western Oregon (108), Eastern New Mexico (97), Western New Mexico (57), and Simon Fraser (32) rounded out the poll.

The season kicks off Thursday, September 1 with 10 LSC teams set to compete in 2022. Each team will play nine conference games to determine the LSC Champion.

CWU, SFU, and WOU joined the league as affiliate members in football on July 1, 2022.

LSC Football preseason honors announced

Angelo State's Nathaniel Omayebu III and West Texas A&M's JT Cavender were selected as the 2022 Lone Star Conference Football Preseason Players of the Year league officials announced Thursday at media day.

The Rams Omayebu III received Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Cavender claimed Defensive Player of the Year recognition.

The league's preseason awards were selected by a vote of LSC head coaches, sports information directors, and various media representatives from throughout the region.

Omayebu III, a 5-11 junior running back from Sherman, Texas, led the LSC in rushing yards with 1,085 with 10 touchdowns. He had a season-best 170 yards to earn LSC Offensive Back of the Year and first-team honors.

With 14 votes, Omayebu III was the top choice in front of seven others who received votes.

Cavender, a 6-0 sophomore linebacker from Midlothian, Texas, led the league in tackles with 104 in 11 games. He had a season-high of 20 tackles and was named Linebacker of the Year and Defensive Freshman of the Year, in addition to first-team recognition.

Cavender received seven votes for preseason honors over 10 others that collected votes.

Additionally, 18 players - nine offensive and nine defensive - were selected for the inaugural LSC football preseason players to watch list. The student-athletes were nominated by their member institution for recognition.

NCAA DIVISION II FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

LSC continues to host DII football championship

The Lone Star Conference in conjunction with McKinney ISD is set to host the 2022 Division II Football Championship game.

Additionally, the LSC and McKinney ISD will host the next three title games. The NCAA chose McKinney Independent School District Stadium in McKinney, Texas, as the host site of the 2022-25 Division II football national championship games during the most recent NCAA championship bid process.

McKinney ISD Stadium and Community Event Center, a 12,000-seat facility built primarily for football, will host the Division II Football Championship games on Dec. 17, 2022; Dec. 16, 2023; Dec. 21, 2024; and Dec. 20, 2025.
