This is the Mid-American Conference

g leadership in education and diversity, in 2018 the Mid-American Conference moves into its 73rd year of service to our s inception in 1946, the Mid-American Conference has progressively grown and developed into one of the most aggressive n I conference's in the country. One of only 10 football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conferences, the MAC named Dr. Jon A. echer as its eighth commissioner in March of 2009.

ague hosts championships in 23 sports, including neutral site events at some of the finest facilities in the nation – football ield, Detroit), men's and women's basketball (Quicken Loans Arena, Cleveland), softball (Firestone Stadium, Akron) and ll (Sprenger Stadium, Avon, Ohio). The MAC secured a two-year contract extension with Ford Field to host the MAC Football iampionship Game through the 2021 football season, anchored a six-year contract extension for the MAC Men's and Women's all Tournaments at Quicken Loans Arena through the 2023 season, and stabilized a five-year contract extension through 0 season for the MAC Baseball Tournament at Sprenger Stadium in Avon, Ohio.

In addition to growing its commitment to MAC championships, Steinbrecher has been aggressive in pursuing NCAA Championship events. The MAC served as the host for the 2015 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Midwest Regional at Quicken Loans Arena in Cleveland as well as the 2018 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, which set NCAA Wrestling three-day Championship total attendance and single-session attendance records. The MAC will also be hosting the 2020 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament First and Second Rounds, also at Quicken Loans Arena. The MAC has previously hosted both the 2012 and 2014 NCAA Women's Bowling Championships and will also host the 2019 NCAA Women's Bowling Championships under Steinbrecher's direction.

In the summer of 2014, the MAC and ESPN announced a historic 13-year rights extension deal through the 2026-27 season for expanded national television and digital distribu- tion. This is the largest and most extensive agreement in the history of the Conference and brings long-term security for the MAC through the 2026-27 academic year.

For the second time in Mid-American Conference history a member institution played in one of the prestigious New Year's Six Bowl Games, as 2016 MAC Champion Western Michigan faced Wisconsin in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic on Jan. 2, 2017 at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

During the 2017 NFL Draft, Western Michigan wide receiver Corey Davis was the fifth overall selection by the Tennessee Titans. Davis' selection was the highest ever for the Broncos program and tied the second-highest ever draft selection by a student from the MAC. It also marked the third MAC football student selected in the top five of the NFL draft over the last six seasons. In the 2014 NFL Draft, Buffalo Bulls linebacker Khalil Mack was the fifth overall selection by the Oakland Raiders. Mack's selection was the highest-ever for the Buffalo program and the second highest ever selection for a MAC student. In the 2013 NFL Draft, Central Michigan offensive tackle Eric Fisher was selected as the first overall selection by the Kansas City Chiefs, making Fisher the first-ever football player from the MAC selected first overall in the NFL Draft.

The MAC witnessed former Akron Zips defensive lineman Jason Taylor inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a member of the 2017 Hall of Fame Class. Taylor, who spent 13 of his 15 seasons in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 5, 2017 in Canton, Ohio. Taylor is the first Zips player elected to the Hall of Fame and was a third-round pick out of Akron in the 1997 NFL draft. Taylor ended his career in 2011 as the Miami Dolphins' all-time leader in sacks and forced fumbles. A six-time Pro Bowl selection and three-time AP All-Pro first-team choice, Taylor was named the 2006 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and was selected as the Walter Payton Man of the Year in 2007.

Joining the list of MAC alum heading to Canton, former Marshall wide receiver Randy Moss will increase this number to three, as Moss will be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a member of the 2018 Hall of Fame Class. Moss, who was named MAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1997, posted 78 catches for 1,709 yards and 28 touchdowns with Marshall in 1996 and added 96 receptions for 1,820 yards and 26 touchdowns in 1997. Moss was selected in the first round, 21st overall, of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

Toledo capped a historic 2017 MAC football season with a resounding 45-28 victory over Akron at Ford Field in Detroit on December 2nd to claim their 11th MAC Championship and first since 2004. Toledo quarterback Logan Woodside threw for 307 yards and four touchdowns in leading the Rockets with MAC Championship Game MVP Honors.

Northern Illinois defensive end Sutton Smith garnered national spotlight after his breakout 2017 season. Along with being named 2017 MAC Defensive Player of the Year, Smith was honored as a Consensus All-American by the NCAA while also earning FWAA and Walter Camp First Team and Associated Press Second Team All-American honors. Smith started all 12 games at defensive end for NIU posting 16 sacks, 28.5 tackles for loss, and ranked fourth on the Huskies' with 56 tackles. The sophomore set a new Huskie record for quarterback sacks in a single season (16) and the school record for tackles for loss in a single season (28.5).

The MAC had six draft selections in the 2018 NFL Draft, along with 35 former MAC football student athletes who either signed NFL rookie free agent contracts or received invites to rookie mini-camps with various NFL clubs.

In men's basketball, for the third time in the last four years, Buffalo was crowned MAC Champions following a 76-66 win over Toledo. The Bulls became the first team since Kent State nearly 20 years ago to win three MAC titles over a four-year span. Buffalo recorded its first NCAA Tournament win in school history, routing No.4 seeded Arizona of the PAC-12, 89-68. Eastern Michigan (CIT), Central Michigan (CIT) & Miami (CBI) all joined Buffalo in post-season play.

Toledo senior Tre'Shaun Fletcher was named Associated Press All-America Honorable Mention. The last Rocket to be named to an All-American squad was Steve Mix, who earned a spot on the Helms Foundation All-American Team in 1969.

In men's soccer, both Akron and Western Michigan received bids to the 2017 NCAA Tournament. The Broncos and the Zips each made impressive runs, with Western Michigan reaching the Sweet Sixteen and Akron advancing to the College Cup Final Four. This marks the first time in MAC history two teams have made it to the round of sixteen. Western Michigan's Zack Bock and Brandon Bye were named Academic All-Americans. Bye was also tabbed a First-Team All-American and Division I Men's Soccer Scholar Player of the Year by the United Soccer Coaches.

This is the Mid-American Conference

Akron's Joao Moutinho joined Bye in receiving All-American accolades. Moutinho was named Freshman of the Year by Top-DrawerSoccer.com. He was also the first overall selection in the 2018 MLS Super Draft by the Los Angeles Football Club.

In wrestling, Missouri won its sixth consecutive MAC Tournament Championship and finished the regular season 19-0. Prior to the MAC Wrestling Championship, the MAC had two programs ranked in the Top 20 in the USA Today/NWCA Coaches Rankings as Missouri was ranked No. 3 in the nation, while Central Michigan was ranked No. 20. The MAC sent 34 wrestlers to represent the MAC during the 2018 NCAA Championships in Cleveland, which was the fifth most of any conference in Division I Wrestling. At the NCAA Championships, the MAC finished with six All-Americans as Kent State's Kyle Conel finished third at 197 lb. weight class.

Eastern Michigan claimed its eighth consecutive and 22st MAC title in men's cross country. EMU was the first school since Miami (1949-1956) to claim the Conference title eight years in a row. Eastern Michigan's Hlynur Andresson, Lahsene Bouch-rikhi, Abel Flores and Mitchell Lenneman each received USTFCCA NCAA Division I Cross Country All-Region accolades.

After falling to Eastern Michigan in the MAC Championship by a single point in 2016, the Missouri State Bears returned with a vengeance in 2017, capturing their second MAC Swimming & Diving Championship. Three men were invited to the 2018 NCAA Championships, including Missouri State's Blair Bish, Antonio Thomas and Artur Osvath. Missouri State's Blair Bish qualified for the championships and finished 24th in the 200 Breaststroke at the national meet.

In men's tennis, the Western Michigan claimed its 12th MAC Tournament title, defeating host Buffalo, 4-2, and earned the league's automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament. After going a perfect 7-0 during the Conference regular season, the Broncos improved to 22-4 overall and were winners of their last 11 matches before the NCAA Tournament. Western Michigan's Jannik Opitz was named to CoSIDA's Academic All-District Team for District 5, with a perfect 4.00 GPA as a pre-business student-athlete.

In men's golf, Kent State captured its 25th MAC title in spectacular fashion coming back from 10 strokes down in the final round. Kent State was ranked No. 29 and booked its ticket to the 2018 National Championship with a fifth-place finish at the Kissimmee Regional at 20-under par 844 (280-280-284). Kent State finished its run at the NCAA National Championship with a 10th place finish, as senior Chase Johnson finished in a tie for 15th at even-par 288.

Also in men's golf, Miami's Patrick Flavin received an individual bid to the Columbus NCAA Regional. The senior finished T60th and earned DI PING All-Region honors from the Golf Coaches Association of America. Ball State's Timothy Wiseman qualified for the 118th U.S. Open, becoming the 18th Cardinal to make an appearance in the tournament since 1970.

Eastern Michigan men's track and field team won its 15th Mid-American Conference Indoor Track and Field Championship in the 2017-18 season. The Eagles notched six event titles on the second day of the competition, ending with a team score of 179 points. Akron's Matt Ludwig and Jordan Latimer along with Kent State's TJ Lawson and Craig Stevens Jr. represented the Conference at the 2018 NCAA Indoor Championships. Ludwig registered a fourth-place finish in the pole vault, while Latimer finished ninth in the long jump. Lawson recorded a fifth-place finish in the heptathlon and Stevens, Jr. finished 14th in the triple jump. All four student-athletes received All-American honors.

Eastern Michigan continued their success in outdoor track completing the MAC Triple Crown for just the fourth time in program history. A total of 41 student-athletes qualified for the NCAA East Regional Meet in Tampa, Florida. From there, nine placed in the top- 12 earning a spot at the 2018 NCAA Track & Field Championship in Eugene, Oregon.

Akron's Jordan Latimer (long jump) and Matt Ludwig (pole vault) each earned First Team All-American honors with their second-place performances at the championships. Additionally, Miami's Chris Torpy (23rd, 1500m), Kent State's Riak Reese (14th, 100m) and Craig Stevens, Jr. (19th, triple jump) and Akron's Terrell McClain (11th, long jump) and Rodrigo Iglesias (21st, javelin) all garnered All-American status.

In baseball, top seeded Kent State claimed the 2018 MAC Tournament Championship with a 14-0 win over No. 2 Miami. Kent State senior left-hander Eli Kraus twirled a complete game, two-hit masterpiece in the Championship Game and was later named Tournament MVP & National Player of the Week. The win over the Redhaws gave Kent State their 12th MAC tournament title in program history. Kent State's Joey Murray set the MAC Single-Season Strikeout record (141) at the Golden Flashes' NCAA Regional opener. The junior was named a First Team All-American by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. Ball State's Drey Jameson, Kent State's Collin Romel, and Toledo's John Servello were named to the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper's Freshman All-American team.

A total of 15 MAC students were taken during the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft led by Zach Spears, LHP, Miami – Pittsburgh Pirates (8th Round – Pick 234); Joey Murray, RHP, Kent State – Toronto Blue Jays (8th Round – Pick 236); and Ross Adolph, OF, Toledo – New York Mets (12th Round – Pick 350).

Women's athletics continued to shine for the MAC this past year. In women's basketball, For the first time since 1996, two MAC teams were selected for the NCAA Tournament – MAC Champion Central Michigan and Buffalo with an at-large invitation. Both were ranked as No. 11 seeds in the Tournament and Central Michigan and Buffalo both advanced to the Sweet Sixteen. This marked the first time in MAC history for two programs in the Sweet Sixteen. Central Michigan won its first-ever NCAA Tournament games with wins over No. 6 USF (78-69) and No. 3 Ohio State (95-78), before falling to No. 2 Oregon. Buffalo also won its first-ever NCAA Tournament games with wins over No. 6 USF (102-79) and No. 3 Florida State (85-65), before falling to No. 2 South Carolina. This also marked the first time for a MAC program to reach the Sweet Sixteen since 2007.

In the final USA Today Women's Basketball Coaches Poll, Central Michigan and Buffalo ranked 20 and 21, respectively. The MAC finished the season ranked eighth in RPI with five teams ranked in the Top 100 (Central Michigan 15th, Buffalo 20th, Ball State 57th, Miami 83rd, Toledo 84th). Ball State, Miami and Toledo each earned bids to the WNIT, with Ball State and Toledo reaching the second round of the tournament.

Central Michigan's Tinara Moore was named to the 2018 Associated Press (AP) All-America Honorable Mention team. Additionally, three student-athletes were named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans; Carmen Grande, Ball State (first team) - Jay-Ann Bravo-Harriott, Toledo (first team) - Jordan Korinek, Kent State (second team).

The Mid-American Conference

In volleyball, Miami defeated Western Michigan on their home floor 3-0 (25-21, 25-20, 25-18) to earn the MAC Championship Title for the first time since 2007. Miami senior right-side hitter Katie Tomasic was named Second-Team Academic All-America the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Bowling Green junior libero Kallie Seimet was named to the 2017 All-Northeast Region Team by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA). Seimet set four Bowling Green volleyball program records in 2017, in addition she led the nation with an average of 6.81 digs per set.

In women's soccer, Toledo earned their MAC-leading fifth Tournament Championship as senior forward Sophie Pohl found the back of the net with five seconds left in overtime to propel the Rockets over Bowling Green, 2-1. Ball State's Alyssa Heintschel was named to the Senior CLASS Award First Team, which honors the attributes of senior student-athletes in four areas: community, classroom, character and competition. Heintschel was also named a CoSIDA Academic All-American along with Western Michigan's Alex Ruffer, and Kent State's Paige Culver.

In women's cross country, Eastern Michigan won their third title in program history and ended the season ranked No. 25 in the country. The championship team score of 45 points tied the second-best score in program history, while the title serves as the third consecutive championship for the Eagles. While Western Michigan's Hanne Christensen took home the individual title, posting a time of 20:44.4, Eastern Michigan qualified as a team for the NCAA Championships. In the 6K, Christensen crossed in 20:36.0 to finish 84th overall. Eastern Michigan registered a 27th-place finish. McDermitt paced the Eagles, clocking a 20:38.8 (78th place). Bowling Green's Rachel Walny, Eastern Michigan's Jordann McDermitt and Alsu Bogdanova, NIU's Ashley Tutt, Toledo's Athena Welsh, and Western Michigan's Christensen all earned USTFCCA NCAA Division I Cross Country All-Region honors.

Miami captured their first MAC Field Hockey title since 2013 on the back of Junior Paula Portugal's game-winning goal in overtime over Kent State. Miami earned its first ever NCAA Tournament victory over Stanford. Paula Portugal scored her second goal of the game and 20th of the season with a minute and a half to play in the game. MAC Player of the Year Paula Portugal earned first team NFHCA honors in the West region. Miami teammate and MAC Freshman of the Year Leo Berlie earned second team honors along with Ohio's Kendall Ballard. Longwood standouts Edell Nyland and Lil-Sophie Achterwinter received first and second team honors respectively in the South region, while Kent State's Ines Delpech earned a spot on the second team as well. Portugal was named a NFHCA Second Team All-American. Portugal finished the 2017 season with 20 goals, 12 assists and 52 total points – all career-highs.

With the help of the hometown faithful in attendance, the Central Michigan Gymnastics team captured the programs 16th MAC Championship under head coach Jerry Reighard. The Chippewas tallied a winning score of 197.025, a team total that ranked third all-time. Central Michigan's Denelle Pedrick (Floor) & Bowling Green's Jovannah East (All-Around) qualified for the NCAA Gymnastics Championships in St. Louis. Overall, East finished 34th in the All-Around and Pedrick finished 80th on floor. Eastern Michigan's Kendall Valentin was named to CoSIDA's Academic All-District Team.

Akron won its fifth straight MAC Championship in women's swimming and diving posting a dominating 827.5 score over the four-day event. A total of eight student-athletes were selected for post-season competition. Eastern Michigan's Delaney Duncan finished 14th in the 200 Breaststroke at NCAA Championships, earning All-American Honorable Mention honors. The junior was also named to CoSIDA's Academic All-District Team. Akron's Paloma Marrero earned All-American Honors with her 11th place finish in the 200 breaststroke and Miami's Pei Lin finished fifth in 3-meter dive at NCAA Championships.

Eastern Michigan women's track and field team won its fifth MAC Indoor Track and Field Championship. The day was highlighted by 14 performances which earned medals, including seven first-place finishes. The MAC was represented in seven events at the 2018 NCAA Indoor Championships. Akron's Lucy Bryan finished seventh in pole vault, while her teammate Jackie Siefring placed fourth in the pentathlon. Kent State's Gabrielle Figueroa recorded a 14th place finish in the weight throw. Bowling Green's Aliyah Gustafson placed 10th in the shot put. NIU's Jehvania Whyte took eighth in the triple jump. Eastern Michigan's Alus Bogdanova placed 11th in the 3000m. The Eagles' DMR team of Bogdanova, Natalie Cizmas, Jenna Wyns and Jasmine Jones finished seventh. Each of the nine ladies competing earned All-American status.

In women's outdoor track and field, Akron captured the MAC Championship for its eighth overall program title. Of the 54 student-athletes competing between the East and West NCAA Regionals, 13 qualified for the 2018 NCAA Track & Field Championships in Eugene, Oregon. Akron's Lucy Bryan garnered First Team All-American honors with a sixth-place finish in the pole vault. NIU's Jehvania Whyte also received first team honors for a seventh-place finish in the triple jump.

Akron's Dara Perry (20th, 100m hurdles), Bowling Green's Aliyah Gustafson (15th, shot put) and Rachel Walny (18th, 10000m), Kent State's Gabrielle Figueroa (17th, hammer throw) and Western Michigan's Gabby Collins (23rd, long jump) earned All-American recognition for their performances along with Ball State's Regan Lewis (T10th, high jump), EMU's Alsu Bogdanova (10th, 3000m steeple), Toledo's Janelle Noe (11th, 1500m), and Akron's Patricia Ortega (15th, heptathlon), Jackie Siefring (10th, heptathlon) and Abigale Wilson (20th, discus).

In women's tennis, Buffalo defended their MAC title in 2018 as they won their 14th straight match to defeat Miami 4-2. Western Michigan's Denise Azcui was named the 2018 Intercollegiate Tennis Association Division I Midwest Regional Arthur Ashe Jr. Leadership & Sportsmanship Award winner.

In women's golf, Kent State continued its historic success as the Golden Flashes won their 20th straight MAC Women's Golf title, which is the conference record for most consecutive titles won. The Golden Flashes ended the season ranked 15th in the nation. At the NCAA Championships in Stillwater, Oklahoma, Kent State finished tied for fifth. They were the first program to ever advance to match play of the women's golf championship two-straight years from outside of the non-Autonomous Conferences. Kent State sophomore Pimnipa Panthong was named a Second Team All-American by the Women's Golf Coaches Association. Toledo junior Pinyada Kuvanun qualified for NCAA Madison Regional as an individual, where she finished just three strokes from a playoff to reach the NCAA Championships (T18th).

In softball, Ohio captured their first MAC Tournament Championship since 2014 defeating NIU, 2-0. It was the second tournament title for the Bobcats in program history and the first since 2011. The Bobcats played in the NCAA Regional Title after defeating Monmouth and James Madison. The two wins mark the first two wins in program history for Ohio in the NCAA Tournament, and marks the first time ever that Ohio played for a spot in the Super Regionals. Kent State's Holly Speers was named National Player of the Week in April 24, 2018 and a Top 25 Finalist for Collegiate Player of the Year. Speers was also named to First Team All-America by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).
