THE WEEKEND IN REVIEW

Despite MacMurray's bye week, the rest of the Upper Midwest Athletic Conference was in action on Saturday.

St. Scholastica held off Westminster, 23-20, to remain perfect in UMAC play.

Thanks to a late touchdown pass, Minnesota Morris picked up their first win of the season -- a 13-7 margin over Iowa Wesleyan.

Martin Luther racked up 711 yards of total offense in a 63-28 rout of Greenville.

Holding Crown to negative rushing yards, Northwestern defeated the Storm, 38-18.

THE WEEK AHEAD

In addition to the MacMurray-Northwestern matchup, there are three other UMAC games scheduled for Saturday afternoon. Minnesota Morris has a bye.

Crown (0-4, 0-2) visits Iowa Wesleyan (0-2, 0-4) as both teams look to pickup their first win of the season.

Martin Luther (2-2, 2-0) looks to stay hot as the Knights host St. Scholastica (2-1, 2-0).

Both Greenville (0-4, 0-2) and Westminster (1-1, 1-2) are coming off losses last week. The teams will look to regroup in Fulton.

In the MacMurray game, the Highlanders will try and spoil Northwestern's homecoming.

LOOKING BACK AT 2017

An early lead was enough for the MacMurray College football team to edge out Northwestern, 22-9. The Highlanders racked up 13 TFLs, limiting the visiting Eagles to just 157 yards of total offense.

With three minutes to play in the first, Noah Sandoval kicked a 22-yard field goal for an early lead.

Midway through the second quarter, Nathan Randall found Devonta Preston in the end zone for a 10-yard score. Sandoval's PAT gave the Highlanders a 10-0 advantage.

An 8-yard run by Chazz Middlebrook inflated the MacMurray lead to 16-0. The PAT failed, but the Eagles did not get on the board in the first half.

A field goal by UNW in the third would not faze Mac, as Middlebrook responded with his second touchdown of the day in the fourth. The 2-point conversion failed.

On the ensuing possession, Northwestern scored with just under six minutes to play. The spark was too little too late for the visitors as Mac held on for the win.

Sophomore Demetrius Curry hauled in six catches for 96 yards. Middlebrook led the ground game with 150 yards and two TDs.

Javon Muhammad, London Gulley and Marcus Atkinson all recorded seven tackles. Muhammad added 5.5 TFLs for 27 yards and picked off a pass.

Devonta Preston rushes for a 56-yard touchdown, untouched, in the 41-0 win over UMM

JAVONDERFUL

- Following the win over Minnesota Morris, Javon Muhammad was named the UMAC Defensive Player of the Week
- The senior recorded 13 tackles, including 5.5 for loss on the day
- Currently, Muhammad leads all of Division III with 3.8 TFLs/game

THE PRICE IS REISCHE

- Junior tight end Zach Reische has had an impressive start to the 2018 campaign
- In both games, Reische has caught a touchdown and is currently averaging a team-high 62.0 receiving yards per game

I LOVE THE 80s

- Devonta Preston #83, Ian Leib #84 and Zach Reische #87 are all receiving weapons for the Highlanders
- The trio has combined for 301 receiving yards and has accounted for all five of MacMurray's receiving touchdowns

LIGHTS, CAMERA, 'MAC'TION

- A full slate lies ahead for the MacMurray athletic teams
- On Thursday, volleyball hosts Greenville for a SLIAC match
- VB will travel to Spalding for a Friday night game
- Men's and women's cross country will race Friday evening at the H. W. Wright Classic
- Both the men's and women's soccer teams will commence conference play this weekend at Webster
- The women will take on the Gorloks at 1 p.m. Saturday with the men's game to follow
- Men's golf rounds out the weekend with a two-day tournament hosted by Millikin on Sunday and Monday
- Earlier this week, MacMurray hosted the SLIAC women's golf championships

WITH A WIN, MACMURRAY WOULD...

- Remain perfect in conference play, improving to 2-0 in the UMAC
- Record its first road win of the season
- Win its third straight game over the Eagles
- Win its 16th of 19 games, dating back to 2016
