The Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC)

begins its 48th year of intercollegiate competition with the 2017-18 academic school year. Located in Norfolk, Va., the MEAC is made up of 13 outstanding historically black institutions across the Atlantic coastline: Bethune-Cookman University, Coppin State University, Delaware State University, Florida A&M University, Hampton University, Howard University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, Norfolk State University, North Carolina A&T State University, North Carolina Central University, Savannah State University and South Carolina State University.

The MEAC sponsors 15 Division I (FCS) sports with automatic qualifying bids for NCAA postseason competition in baseball, bowling, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's track & field, softball, volleyball and men's golf. The MEAC's football champion is pitted against the champion of the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in the Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl, which debuted in December 2015.

MEAC student-athletes excel on and off the field, and several have been recognized on ESPN the Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-America and All-District teams. The conference sponsors All-Academic teams in each of its sports and awards two post-graduate scholarships of $5,000 each annually to one male and one female student-athlete who have excelled academically and athletically and are in their final season of intercollegiate athletics eligibility and competition under MEAC and NCAA regulations.

HISTORY

In 1969, a bold ad hoc group of innovators long associated with intercollegiate athletics met in Durham, N.C. to discuss the feasibility of organizing a new conference. From these discussions, they formed a steering and planning committee to fully investigate the idea, presented a detailed report with recommendations to interested collegiate institutions, and constructed a workshop to outline proposals.

After selecting a proposal and adopting a program, seven institutions (Delaware State College, Howard University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, North Carolina A&T State University, North Carolina Central University and South Carolina State College) agreed to become the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. Their major objective was to establish, organize and supervise an intercollegiate athletic program among a compact group of education institutions of high academic standards with a sound philosophy of co-curricular activities. The conference agreed to seek Division I status for its sports.

The conference was confirmed in 1970, kicking off its first season of competition in football in 1971.

In 1978, the MEAC reached a milestone when it selected Kenneth A. Free to be its first full-time commissioner. Free served the conference for 18 years before stepping down in May 1996. In July 1996, Charles S. Harris was named commissioner, and he served in that capacity until April 2002. On Sept. 1, 2002, Dr. Dennis E. Thomas was named commissioner and has served in the position for 15 years.

The conference's first expansion occurred in October 1979, when Bethune-Cookman College and Florida A&M University were voted into the MEAC as new members. Original members Morgan State, North Carolina Central and Maryland Eastern Shore withdrew from the conference at the end of the 1979-80 fiscal year; Maryland Eastern Shore was readmitted in 1981 and Morgan State returned in 1984. Florida A&M opted to resign in 1984, but rejoined the conference in 1986. Coppin State College was granted admittance in 1985, becoming the ninth member institution.

The MEAC expanded again in the 1990s with the inclusion of Hampton University (1995) and Norfolk State University (1997). The conference grew once again in 2007, adding Winston-Salem State University. Winston-Salem State, a MEAC provisional member, did not meet the qualifications for Division I and withdrew from the conference following the 2009-10 academic and athletic season.

On July 1, 2010, the MEAC made its most recent expansion with the admittance of North Carolina Central and Savannah State University. On Sept. 10, 2014, the MEAC admitted Augusta University (formerly Georgia Regents University) as an associate member for men's golf.

On June 8, 1980, the MEAC was classified as a Division I conference by the NCAA; prior to that year, the conference had operated on the Division II level. The month after achieving Division I status, the MEAC received automatic qualification to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship. Currently, the conference has automatic qualifying bids for NCAA postseason play in baseball (since 1994), men's basketball (since 1981), women's basketball (since 1982), men's golf (since 2014), softball (since 1995), men's and women's tennis (since 1998) and volleyball (since 1994).

The MEAC declares champions in eight men's sports – baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field and tennis – and eight women's sports – basketball, bowling, cross country, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, softball, tennis and volleyball.

The MEAC initiated cross country in 1980, and North Carolina A&T State earned the inaugural men's crown. The first women's cross country championship took place a year later, with Howard winning the first of its seven titles. Indoor track & field was also added in 1981, with South Carolina State winning the men's title and Howard taking the women's crown.

Tennis and golf returned as MEAC-sponsored sports in 1981 after a five-year hiatus. South Carolina State won all seven of the conference's golf championships from 1972-83 before the sport was discontinued following the 1983 championship.

In wrestling, Morgan State won 13 of 24 conference championships before the sport was discontinued in 1995.

Baseball, which began in 1972, was discontinued following the 1977 season. It was brought back as a MEAC-governed sport, along with women's volleyball, in 1983. Women's softball became a MEAC-sanctioned sport in 1992.

Bowling was officially sanctioned as a MEAC sport in 1999. The MEAC was the first conference to secure NCAA sanctioning for women's bowling by adopting the club sport prior to the 1996-97 school year.

Men's golf returned as a MEAC-sponsored sport in 2014, with six teams participating in the conference championship. Bethune-Cookman was crowned the 2014 champion; the Wildcats also won the 2014 PGA Minority Collegiate Championship. Associate member Augusta University earned its first MEAC golf title in 2015, the institution's first year of conference competition, before repeating in both 2016 and 2017.

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS

The MEAC has enjoyed tremendous athletic success over the years. In 2008, Maryland Eastern Shore defeated Arkansas State 4-2 to win the NCAA Women's Bowling National Championship, a first for both the conference and the institution. With the victory, Lady Hawks head coach Sharon Brummell became the first female head coach to win an NCAA bowling title. The Lady Hawks repeated the feat in 2011, winning the school's second NCAA bowling title; during that same season, Maryland Eastern Shore won the United States Bowling Congress (USBC) Intercollegiate Team Championship (ITC), becoming the first team to win two national championships in the same year.

In 2012, Maryland Eastern Shore captured its third NCAA bowling championship in five years with a 4-2 win over Fairleigh Dickinson. The Lady Hawks became the second team in NCAA bowling history to win three championships and the first to make four appearances in the championship finale.

In men's basketball, Maryland Eastern Shore became the first historically black college/university (HBCU) to participate in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT), doing so in 1974. The Hawks defeated Manhattan 84-81 in the first round before falling to Jacksonville in the second round. Before the Jacksonville loss, the Hawks had the nation's best record at 27-1. That same year, Morgan State won the NCAA College Division II National Championship and junior center Marvin "The Human Eraser" Webster was named the Division II Player of the Year.

Howard became the first school to play in the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championships in 1981, taking on Wyoming and falling 78-43 in the first round.

Coppin State, Hampton and Norfolk State have each made history in the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament with first-round victories. Coppin State, the No. 15 seed, defeated No. 2 seed South Carolina in 1997, before Hampton repeated the No. 15-over-No. 2 upset feat in 2001 against Iowa State. Both victories have been ranked among ESPN SportsCenter's top 10 greatest tournament upsets. In 2012, Norfolk State became the fifth team in NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament history (and the third MEAC team) to upset a No. 2 seed; the Spartans upended Missouri in the round of 64 that year.

In 2015, Hampton defeated Manhattan in the first round of the NCAA Div. I Men's Basketball Tournament and advanced to face top-ranked Kentucky in the second round.

In women's basketball, South Carolina State won the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) Division II National Championship in 1979. In 1982, Howard became the first MEAC school to play in the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament. In 1983, South Carolina

State won the MEAC's automatic NCAA bid and became the first conference team, male or female, to win an opening-round game in the NCAA Division I Basketball Tournament.

In 2010, North Carolina A&T State defeated Wake Forest and Charlotte before falling to Miami in the third round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT). The Lady Aggies became the first MEAC team – and first HBCU – to win two consecutive basketball games in a national postseason tournament.

Hampton earned a No. 13 seed for the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament in 2011, at the time the best seed for a MEAC school in the 64-team format (in effect since 1994), and faced No. 4 seed Kentucky in the first round. The Lady Pirates, who in 2014 became the first MEAC women's program to win five consecutive conference tournament championships, earned a No. 12 seed that season, taking on Michigan State in the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament.

In football, the MEAC was instrumental in constructing the Freedom Bowl All-Star Classic, the Heritage Bowl and the Gold Bowl. Prior to Division I competition, the MEAC competed in the Gold Bowl, held in Richmond, Va., which matched the MEAC champion against the champion of the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA). South Carolina State represented the MEAC in 1976 and 1979, winning both outings over Winston-Salem State and Norfolk State, respectively. In addition to the 1976 and 1979 crowns, South Carolina State won MEAC football titles in 1974-78, 1980-83, 1994, 2004, 2008 and 2009. The Bulldogs were also named co-champions along with Bethune-Cookman and Florida A&M in 2010. During the 1981 and 1982 seasons, South Carolina State reached the second round of the NCAA Div. I-AA championships.

In 2015, the MEAC combined with the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) for the Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl in Atlanta, Ga. North Carolina A&T State defeated Alcorn State in the inaugural Celebration Bowl to determine the Black College National Champion in a game pitting the MEAC and SWAC champions. North Carolina Central represented the MEAC in the 2016 Celebration Bowl, taking on Grambling State.

In 2003, Florida A&M became the first MEAC school to win a volleyball match in the NCAA Championships with a first-round victory over Winthrop. In 2004, the Lady Rattlers became the first HBCU to rank in the Top 25 of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) national poll.

On the track, Hampton's Francena McCorory set an American record in the 400m dash with a time of 50.54 and defended her indoor national title at the 2010 NCAA Indoor Championships. McCorory was named the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) Division I National Athlete of the Year for the 2010 indoor track & field season. For her collegiate career, McCorory won three NCAA championships.

In outdoor track & field, North Carolina Central won the first three MEAC titles. In addition, the quartet of Melvin Bassett, Robert Ouko, Julius Sang and Larry Black set the world record in the sprint medley relay with a time of 38.19 in the 1972 Olympics. The Eagles finished fourth in the 1974 NCAA Division I Men's Outdoor Track & Field Championship. Women began outdoor track & field competition in the MEAC in 1980 – and in 1982, South Carolina State won the AIAW Division II Outdoor Track & Field National Championship. The MEAC has showcased over 30 athletes in the Olympics over the years, and 13 of them have earned medals during the Summer Games.

South Carolina State, at No. 72, became the first MEAC women's tennis team to finish the season ranked in the 2005 Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Division I final poll. In 2012, South Carolina State's Maria Craciun became the first tennis player in school and MEAC history to receive a berth to the NCAA Individual Singles Championship.

In softball, Bethune-Cookman earned the MEAC's first-ever at-large bid to the NCAA Softball Championship in 2005. The Lady Wildcats defeated Florida, Central Florida and South Florida in the Florida Regional to become the first MEAC program to win an NCAA Division I Softball Regional. Bethune-Cookman ended the 2005 season with the conference's first-ever national ranking, reaching No. 18 in the season's final NFCA/USA Today Coaches poll and No. 23 in the USA Softball/ESPN.com poll.

Florida A&M was the first MEAC baseball team to advance to NCAA postseason play in 1994. The Rattlers took on Southeastern Louisiana in a best-of-three play-in series, falling 11-10 and 8-7 in two games. During the 2002 season, Bethune-Cookman advanced to the Gainesville Regional and became the first MEAC team to win in the NCAA Tournament with a 7-4 victory over Florida International. This past season, the Wildcats became the first MEAC school to advance to a regional final, winning three games in the Gainesville Regional – including a 6-2 win over national No. 3 seed Florida.

Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Announces All-Sports Award Winners

Florida A&M took the 2017 Mary McLeod Bethune Women's All-Sports Award, while Norfolk State won the Talmadge Layman Hill Men's Award. The All-Sports Awards are indicators of the overall strengths of the conference's men's and women's athletic programs. Each institution was presented with a $20,000 check during a reception at the Vinoy Hotel in St. Petersburg, Fla.

The University of Maryland Eastern Shore was recognized during the reception as the 2017 recipient of the MEAC Highest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) award for the eighth consecutive year. In addition to the recognition, MDES was presented a check for $25,000 from the conference. Maryland Eastern Shore's 81-percent GSR is the highest among MEAC institutions spanning the 2006-09 cohorts.

Florida A&M, which had shared the Mary McLeod Bethune Women's All-Sports Award the previous academic year, won the award outright for the first since 2001, totaling 95.5 points – highlighted by the Lady Rattlers' fifth straight conference championship in cross country and fourth straight softball championship. Florida A&M also captured divisional titles in volleyball and softball, while finishing second in indoor track & field.

On the men's side, Norfolk State won the Talmadge Layman Hill Men's All-Sports Award for the 11th time in school history – and its first since winning nine straight from 2005-13. The Spartans won a divisional title in baseball, and they finished second in cross country, indoor track & field, basketball and tennis.

Cross Country

The Maryland Eastern Shore men and Florida A&M women won the 2016 MEAC cross country titles at the Delaware State University Outreach and Research Center in Smyrna, Del. The Hawks picked up their third straight title, as Khalil Rmidi Kinini was again named the men's Outstanding Performer after posting a top time of 24:27.88 on the 8K course. MDES head coach Ernest Barrett was named the men's Outstanding Coach. On the women's side, Judith Kibii of Florida A&M finished at the top with a time of 18:02.60 on the 5K course and earned the Outstanding Performer honor. FAMU's Darlene Moore was named the women's Outstanding Coach after leading the Lady Rattlers to a record fifth straight MEAC crown. The Maryland Eastern Shore men recorded 38 points to win their seventh overall crown, while the Florida A&M women registered 53 points to earn their ninth overall title.

Volleyball

The Howard Bison (12-0) and Florida A&M Lady Rattlers (10-0) each won their respective divisions in regular-season play. Howard's Khaila Donaldson was named MEAC Player of the Year, while Bison coach Shaun Kupferberg earned Coach of the Year honors. Bethune-Cookman's Alana Handy and Florida A&M's Nicole Abreu split Rookie of the Year honors. Howard then defeated Florida A&M 3-1 for its second straight MEAC Tournament championship; Donaldson and Kupferberg were named the tournament's Outstanding Performer and Outstanding Coach, respectively. The Bison earned the conference's automatic NCAA bid, taking on Wisconsin in the first round. Howard finished the 2016 season with an overall mark of 26-6.

Football

North Carolina Central took the 2016 MEAC crown in football after going 8-0 in league play and defeating rival North Carolina A&T State in the regular-season finale. The Aggies' Tarik Cohen was named MEAC Offensive Player of the Year, while Darius Leonard of South Carolina State earned Defensive Player of the Year honors. Brandon Parker of North Carolina A&T State was named Offensive Lineman of the Year, while teammate Elijah Bell was named Rookie of the Year. North Carolina Central's Jerry Mack was named Coach of the Year. The Eagles went on to play in the second annual Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl, falling 10-9 to SWAC champion Grambling State in Atlanta, Ga. North Carolina A&T State, meanwhile, earned an NCAA FCS Playoffs at-large bid, falling to Richmond in the first round.

Indoor Track and Field

North Carolina A&T State swept the men's and women's titles at the 2017 MEAC Indoor Track and Field Championship at the Prince George's Sports and Learning Complex in Landover, Md., where the finals were broadcast live on ESPN3 for the first time in conference history. The Aggies claimed their first women's title in program history, racking up 145 points, while the men won their first indoor crown since 1996 after scoring 146.5 points. Duane Ross was the meet's Outstanding Coach for both the men and the women; on the women's side, North Carolina A&T State's Anisa Toppin was named Outstanding Field Athlete and Norfolk State's Martha Bissah was named Outstanding Runner. For the men, Coppin State's Steven Thomas and Maryland Eastern Shore's Khalil Rmidi Kinini were named Outstanding Field Athlete and Outstanding Runner, respectively.

Women's Basketball

The Bethune-Cookman Lady Wildcats went 15-1 in conference play to win the MEAC regular-season title and take the top seed into the conference tournament for the second straight year. Te'Shya Heslip of Howard was named the MEAC Player of the Year, while Coppin State's Chance Graham earned Rookie of the Year honors. B-CU took home the Defensive Player of the Year (Kailyn Williams) and Coach of the Year (Vanessa Blair-Lewis) honors. Bethune-Cookman advanced to the championship game of the MEAC Tournament, before falling to No. 3 seed Hampton 52-49. The Lady Pirates won their sixth tournament title under David Six, the tournament's Outstanding Coach, and Hampton's Jephany Brown was named the tournament's Outstanding Player. Hampton made its sixth NCAA Tournament appearance in eight seasons, falling to Duke in the first round, while Bethune-Cookman appeared in the Women's NIT, falling in the first round to Wake Forest.

Men's Basketball

By going 13-3 in conference play, North Carolina Central won the regular-season title and clinched the top seed in the conference tournament. The Eagles boasted the 2016-17 MEAC Player of the Year in Patrick Cole and the Coach of the Year in LeVelle Moton. Howard's Charles Williams was named Rookie of the Year, while Phillip Carr of Morgan State earned Defensive Player of the Year honors. The Eagles went on to claim the MEAC Tournament championship with a 67-59 win over Norfolk State; Cole and Moton were named Outstanding Player and Outstanding Coach, respectively. North Carolina Central squared off against UC Davis in the First Four of the NCAA Tournament, falling 67-63. Norfolk State competed in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT), falling to Liberty, and Hampton faced Coastal Carolina in the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) to give the MEAC three teams competing in postseason tournaments.

Bowling

Delaware State won the Northern Division regular-season title with a mark of 20-4, while North Carolina A&T State went 14-4 in league play to claim the Southern Division crown. But Maryland Eastern Shore claimed the top seed in the MEAC Championship, riding that to its ninth overall title – and fourth in five years – after a 4-1 defeat of North Carolina A&T State in the title match. Thashaina Seraus of MDES was named Bowler of the Year for the second straight season, while MDES' Cayla Hicks and Delaware State's Alexis Neuer shared Rookie of the Year honors. Kayla Bandy was named Coach of the Year, and she was also the Outstanding Coach of the MEAC Championship. Seraus was the Outstanding Performer. MDES then competed in both the NCAA Championships and the United State Bowling Congress (USBC) Intercollegiate Team Championships. In addition, sophomore Jacqueline Rhoda competed in the USBC Individual Nationals.

Women's Tennis

Hampton (6-0) and South Carolina State (5-0) both went undefeated in league play to win regular-season titles and their respective top seeds in the MEAC Championship. Hampton swept the individual awards after the season, with Kristina Titova taking Player of the Year, Haley Mullins earning Rookie of the Year and Rush Cole winning Coach of the Year accolades. The two top seeds met in the championship match, which South Carolina State won 4-3 for its 12th title in the last 13 seasons. Marketa Marcanikova was named Outstanding Performer and Hardeep Judge was the Outstanding Coach. The Lady Bulldogs took the MEAC's automatic bid to the NCAA Championships, where they fell 4-0 to Georgia.

Men's Tennis

Morgan State captured the Northern Division crown with a perfect 5-0 mark in conference play, while South Carolina State took home the Southern Division regular-season title after going a perfect 4-0 in conference play. Hampton's Juan Araoz was named both MEAC Player and Rookie of the Year, while South Carolina State's Hardeep Judge was named Coach of the Year. The Bulldogs advanced to the championship match, before falling to Southern Division No. 2 seed Florida A&M 4-2. The Rattlers won their first men's tennis title since 2000; Walner Espinoza was named Outstanding Performer, while Rochelle Goldthreate was the Outstanding Coach. Winning the MEAC's automatic NCAA bid, Florida A&M squared off against Georgia in the first round, falling 4-0.

Men's Golf

Augusta University captured its third consecutive MEAC Golf Championship, shooting a 43-under 821 over the three-day tournament held at the Crosswinds Golf Club in Savannah, Ga. Augusta claimed four of the top five spots on the individual leaderboard, led by Outstanding Performer Emmanuel Kountakis – who fired a 15-under 201 and shot in the 60s in all three rounds. Jack O'Keefe was again named the tournament's Outstanding Coach, and the Jaguars advanced to the NCAA regional in West Lafayette, Ind., falling just three strokes shy of advancing to the NCAA Championships. Bethune-Cookman came in second in the MEAC Championship with a 7-under 857.

Outdoor Track and Field

Like they did during the indoor season, the North Carolina A&T State men's and women's track & field teams swept the MEAC Outdoor Championships on their own campus at the Irwin Belk Track in Greensboro, N.C. It marked the first time since 2003 that one school had swept both the indoor and outdoor MEAC titles on the men's and women's sides. Duane Ross was named the meet's Outstanding Coach for both the men and the women, while Andrea Aaron of Florida A&M and Hampton's Faith Keitany were named Outstanding Field Performer and Outstanding Runner, respectively, for the women. On the men's side, Coppin State's Steven Thomas and Maryland Eastern Shore's Khalil Rmidi Kinini were named Outstanding Field Athlete and Outstanding Runner, respectively.

Softball

Hampton and Florida A&M won the Northern and Southern Division titles, respectively, with the Lady Pirates going 17-1 and the Lady Rattlers going 14-2 in league play. Ryan Jackson of Bethune-Cookman was named both the MEAC Player and Rookie of the Year, while Morgan State's Amy Begg earned Pitcher of the Year honors and Florida A&M's Veronica Wiggins was named Coach of the Year. FAMU then rallied to win its fourth straight MEAC tournament title, defeating rival Bethune-Cookman 2-1 in Ormond Beach, Fla. Kenya Pereira of FAMU was named the tournament's Outstanding Performer, while Wiggins was again named the Outstanding Coach. FAMU won the MEAC's automatic bid, competing in the Gainesville Regional of the NCAA Div. I Softball Championships.

Baseball

Norfolk State (16-7) and Bethune-Cookman (15-8) both won the Northern and Southern Division regular-season titles, respectively, to claim the two top seeds and first-round byes in the MEAC Baseball Championship. The Spartans' Alex Mauricio was named MEAC Player of the Year, while teammate Devin Hemmerich earned Pitcher of the Year honors. Corey Joyce of North Carolina Central was named Rookie of the Year and North Carolina A&T State's Ben Hall was named Coach of the Year after leading the Aggies to the Southern Division's No. 2 seed. Bethune-Cookman defeated Norfolk State 11-1 to win its 19th MEAC baseball title; Danny Rodriguez was named the tournament's Outstanding Performer, while Jason Beverlin earned Outstanding Coach accolades. The Wildcats competed in the Gainesville Regional of the NCAA Div. I Baseball Championship, becoming the first MEAC school to advance to a regional final – and boasting a 6-2 win over national No. 3 seed Florida that forced a decisive seventh game in the regional.

Howard will seek to defend its MEAC Tournament title as it opens the 2017 season Aug. 25-26 at the District of Columbia Volleyball Challenge.

Dr. Dennis E. Thomas will enter his 16th year as Commissioner of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) on Sept. 1, 2017. Under his dynamic leadership, the MEAC has ensured its financial stability, strengthened institutional compliance and bolstered the attendance of the annual MEAC Men's and Women's Basketball Tournament.

A revolutionary, Commissioner Thomas led the MEAC to become the first Division I FCS conference to institute instant replay during its televised regular season football games in 2011. In 2010, Commissioner Thomas realized one of his goals with the purchasing of the conference's first building. The official headquarters, located in Norfolk, Virginia, marks the first time a FCS conference has owned its headquartered property. In addition, his diligence to increasing Corporate America's investment in the MEAC led to the conference's unprecedented partnership with international marketing agency IMG Collegiate. The collaboration with IMG Collegiate aims to grow the MEAC's corporate partnerships, as well as implement branding and multimedia initiatives.

Thomas' mission to increase the conference's corporate resources has led to multi-year partnerships with Russell Athletic Corporation, Coca-Cola, State Farm Insurance, Nike, Wells Fargo, ESPN, Jostens, United States Marines, and Colgate Palmolive.

Commissioner Thomas proved instrumental in negotiating a bowl-like football game experience with ESPN for conference football playing institutions. In 2005, the MEAC/SWAC Challenge arose and provided MEAC institutions with a cross-conference game with the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) featuring national television exposure and financial guarantees. Thomas negotiated an extension to this contract with ESPN in 2011. The MEAC has continued the contest and boasts a winning record of 8-2. Thomas played an important role in the pending Celebration Bowl, pitting the champions of the MEAC and SWAC together in a bowl game, slated to begin at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Georgia on Dec. 19, 2015. The game will telecast live on ABC.

Under his guidance, Commissioner Thomas has been a proponent of MEAC student-athletes being strong on the field as well as in the classroom. His vision to reward academic excellence was implemented with the start of the Highest Graduation Award for member institutions with the best graduation rate for the academic year. The institution that achieves the honor is awarded $25,000. In addition, each year the MEAC recognizes the Commissioner All-Academic team which highlights student-athletes who achieve a 3.0 or better grade point average for the academic year.

In 2006, Thomas implemented the MEAC Woman of the Year honor. The award celebrates the achievements of female senior student-athletes who have excelled in academics, athletics, community service and leadership. In 2012, the MEAC introduced and recognized the MEAC Man of the Year award in collaboration with the Woman's top honor.

Thomas brought a wealth of collegiate administrative and higher education experience to the MEAC. Prior to becoming Commissioner, Thomas served as Director of Athletics at Hampton University (Va.). In his twelve (12) years of service Hampton excelled on and off the field of competition. In addition to guiding Hampton from the NCAA Division II to Division I, Thomas demonstrated a strong commitment to student-athletes during his tenure by developing the athletic academic support unit to increase graduation rates.

Under his leadership Hampton won 17 Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) Division II championships from 1990-1995 and 11 MEAC championships from 1996-2002. Hampton was awarded the MEAC's top honors with the 1999 Talmadge L. Hill All-Sports Award and the 2002 Mary McLeod Bethune Women's All-Sports Award symbolizing the overall strength of the athletics program.

Thomas' term at Hampton also marked the Pirates men's basketball teams' remarkable win over Iowa State University, 58-57, in the first round of the 2001 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. The historic win was accentuated when the Pirates returned to the NCAA tournament the following year. No other 15 seed winner had returned to the tournament in consecutive years after accomplishing the feat.

Thomas served as the Head Football Coach at South Carolina State University from 1986-1988 and compiled a record of 15-18.

His leadership and managerial skills among national organizations has not gone unnoticed. Thomas was awarded the National Association of Collegiate Director of Athletics (NACDA) Athletic Director of the Year Award for the Southeast Region (I-AA/AAA) in 2002. In 2001, he served as Chair of the NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) Football Committee. He also served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee and is a former board of director member of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

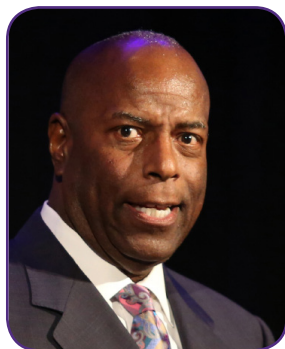

Thomas has served as a member of the NCAA Division I Leadership Council, the NCAA I-FCS Governance Committee and chaired the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions and the NLI Policy and Review Committee. Thomas has also served as the chair of the NCAA Division I-AA (FCS) Commissioner Association and served on the NACDA Executive Committee. Currently Thomas serves on the board of directors for the Advocates for Athletic Equity (AAE) and the Walter Byers Scholarship Committee.

For his years and dedication and service to Hampton University and its athletic programs, Thomas was inducted into the institutions inaugural Athletic Hall of Fame Class in 2009. Thomas has also been enshrined in the Alcorn State University (Miss.) Hall of Fame (2010) and the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) Hall of Fame (2003).

The Heidelberg, Miss., native was a four-year letterman in football and track and field in high school, and at the age of 16 he embarked upon a collegiate career that is still in the SWAC's record books. In 1973, he made history as the first and only offensive lineman to be named the conference's Offensive Player of the Year. He finished his collegiate career as a three-year letterman at Alcorn State, a two-time Pittsburgh Courier First Team All-American, First Team Black Mutual Sports Network All-American, and the Outstanding College Athlete of America (1974). While at Alcorn State, Thomas coached and played under the legendary coach Marino "The Godfather" Casem. During his playing and coaching tenure at Alcorn State, the Braves won SWAC Football Championships in 1970 (as a player), 1976, 1979, and 1984 (as a coach).

In 1978, the state legislative of Mississippi proclaimed April 8 as the Dennis and Johnny (brother) Day in the state for their achievements in scholarship, athletics and leadership.

Thomas earned his bachelor's degree from Alcorn State University. He earned his master's from University of Louisiana at Monroe and his doctorate degree from the State University of New York at Buffalo. He was selected Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities as an undergraduate and as a graduate student. He is also a proud lifetime member of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

HOWARD'S DONALDSON NAMED PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Howard and Florida A&M predicted to win Northern and Southern Divisions

Howard senior outside hitter Khaila Donaldson was selected as the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Volleyball Preseason Player of the Year, the conference announced. Howard was predicted to claim the Northern Division, while Florida A&M was chosen to win the Southern Division.

All awards are voted on by the conference's head coaches and sports information directors.

Defending MEAC tournament champion Howard garnered 22 first-place votes to receive the top spot in the Northern Division. The Bison recorded a 26-6 overall record last season, including an 12-0 MEAC mark, under the direction of head coach Shaun Kupferberg. Donaldson, the tournament's Most Outstanding Player last season, led the team in points (508.5) and kills (436, 3.89 per set).

Setter Tamia Dockery returns for her junior season and joins Donaldson on this year's Preseason All-MEAC Team. Dockery led the conference in assists last season with 1,061 (9.65 per set).

Florida A&M received 20 first-place votes after posting an undefeated 10-0 record in the Southern Division and a 17-12 overall mark last season. The Lady Rattlers boast three members of the 2017 Preseason All-MEAC team: reigning MEAC Co-Rookie of the Year Nicole Abreu, as well as sophomore outside hitter Maria Yvette Garcia and junior libero Valentina Carrasco.

Maryland Eastern Shore was picked to finish second in the Northern Division, receiving three first-place votes. Morgan State was predicted to finish third in the Northern Division, followed by Hampton, Norfolk State, Coppin State and Delaware State to round out the division.

Bethune-Cookman nabbed five first-place votes en route to being picked to finish second in the Southern Division. The Lady Wildcats are led by reigning MEAC Co-Rookie of the Year Alana Handy, who is on the Preseason All-MEAC Team alongside senior middle blocker Rakaya Neely.

North Carolina A&T State and North Carolina Central were chosen to finish third and fourth in the Southern Division, while Savannah State and South Carolina State were slated fifth and sixth, respectively.

Alana Handy was named MEAC Co-Rookie of the Year in 2016.

BETHUNE-COOKMAN UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

Last year saw Bethune-Cookman play the role of a travelling team with historic Moore Gymnasium first undergoing renovations, then recovering from Hurricane Matthew. The Lady Wildcats played home matches at two local high schools and commuted to a nearby training facility for practices.

Despite the obstacles -- B-CU was playing a road match literally when Hurricane Matthew was striking the campus -- the Lady Wildcats finished the season strong, going 7-3 in conference play (10-21 overall) and advancing to the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Tournament semifinals for the second straight year -- the first time that's happened since 2009.

Third-year coach Brittany Williams will guide the Lady Wildcats as they try to get back to the MEAC Tournament championship match for the second time in three seasons.

To do that, she'll have to replace two stalwarts who were key factors in Bethune-Cookman's rise to a MEAC championship contender.

Phylecia Armstrong graduated after providing leadership both on and off the court. Last year, she set a program single-season record with 108 blocks to finish as the all-time blocks leader with 317. She also made her mark with the single-match hitting percentage record, posting a .750 (15 kills in 20 attempts with no errors) in a signature five-set victory at Tulane.

Normarie Rolon also graduated after a four-year run as the best defensive player in program history. She finished as the all-time digs leader (1,364), with 371 digs or more in each of her final three seasons.

B-CU will build around a promising young roster led by sophomore Alana Handy, the 2016 MEAC Co-Rookie of the Year. Handy ranked fifth in the MEAC in kills per set (3.34) and seventh in points per set (3.52) last season. A three-time MEAC Rookie of the Week honoree, she recorded 10 double-doubles in kills and digs. She also registered a season-high 27 kills against rival Florida A&M and 19 digs against McNeese State.

Also returning are Alondra Bautista, who was second on the team with 217 kills, and senior Rakaya Neely, who posted 190 kills and was third in the MEAC in hitting percentage (.325). Setters Phalen Clark and J'Nai Higgins also return.

Newcomers include Courtney Blanton (Stony Point HS, Round Rock, Texas); Micaiah Hill (Forest HS, Ocala, Fla.); Tynesha Adams (Prattville HS, Prattville, Ala.); Meraiah Hill (Sante Fe College, Gainesville, Fla.); Jordan Jefferson (Brandeis HS, San Antonio, Texas) and Faith Landreneaux (Carthage HS, Carthage, Texas).

Bethune-Cookman will open its 2017 season on Friday, Aug. 25 against the Atlantic Coast Conference's Clemson as part of the Clemson Invitational along with Lamar and Jacksonville. Other tournament trips will be to Georgia Southern, South Florida and Florida Atlantic.

The home opener takes place on Sept. 22 against Florida Gulf Coast. B-CU opens conference play the following Friday at Savannah State, and Florida A&M comes to Daytona Beach on Oct. 6, with the Tallahassee tangle set for Nov. 6.

The 2017 MEAC Championships will be held Nov. 17-19 in Princess Anne, Md. on the campus of Maryland Eastern Shore.

Glorines Rosado comes into 2017 fourth in Coppin State's all-time career digs list.

COPPIN STATE UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

Coppin State volleyball returns nine student-athletes from the 2016 season and introduces a new head coach entering the 2017 campaign. Timothy Walsh takes over at the helm of the Eagles after spending two seasons at Div. III Marywood University in Pennsylvania.

Despite a disappointing overall record last season, Coppin State hopes to return to the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) volleyball tournament with the bulk of its roster returning, mixed in with the knowledge and experience from the new coach.

"I believe that serving and serve-receive win games," said Walsh. "Therefore, we will dedicate a lot of time to those specific skills, which in turn will allow our offense and hitters to excel."

Coppin State volleyball captured a pair of wins in the month of October on the road over Delaware State and Norfolk State last season. The Eagles went 2-24 overall with a 2-10 MEAC record during the 2016 season.

"We will continue to progress towards establishing a culture of being a sustainably great volleyball program, both on and off the court," Walsh said. "As a new coach, my expectations, leadership and coaching style will be different than in the past, in hopes to create different results. Last year's team is not the same team this year, even with the same players."

The Eagles ranked fourth in the conference in digs with a total of 1,239, averaging 13.32 digs per set in 2016. Libero Glorines Rosado led Coppin State with 349 digs, ranking fourth in the MEAC. She also had a team-best 24 service aces and was named to the 2017 MEAC All-Academic Team, while notching 20+ digs three times during the season.

Rosado continues to climb up the Coppin State career charts in digs. She has 693 as an Eagle, putting her in fourth place. In the Coppin State single-season records, Rosado finished with the seventh-most digs in a season with 344.

Setter Dominique Madarang ranked eighth in the MEAC in assists with 626, averaging 7.03 per set last season. She was second on the team in digs and eight times she garnered double-doubles in both assists and digs. Madarang earned MEAC Rookie of the Week honors twice in 2016.

Madarang joins the single-season record book with 626 assists after her first season, setting the ninth-highest mark in a season in program history.

Also returning to Coppin State will be outside hitters Asia Stennis, Marlana Guice and Bailee Jackson. Middle blockers Valiyah Barnes and Christa Johnson, along with setter Angel Jamerson and libero Jennifer Gell, will all add depth to the Eagles lineup.

The Eagles will compete in four tournaments to open the season, beginning with the Crosstown Invitational on Aug. 25-26 against Radford, Marist and host Lehigh. Walsh and the Eagles face their first MEAC opponent, Norfolk State, on Sept. 29 on the road.

DELAWARE STATE UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

Delaware State is hoping the 2017 season marks the beginning of a turnaround for its volleyball program. The Hornets are counting on several solid veterans and an athletic group of newcomers in their quest to return the program to respectability in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) this season.

Third-year head coach Whitney Johnson's squad is expected to return nine experienced players from last year's team, including four starters.

Topping the list of returners is senior defensive specialist Alliyah McBean, who led the team and was third in the MEAC in digs at 4.09 per set (376 total) in 2016. She was also second on the Hornets with 15 service aces last season. McBean has recorded 809 digs in her three seasons with the Hornets.

Delaware State has a reliable setter in senior Gabriella Enriquez, entering her second season with the team after transferring from New Mexico Military Academy in 2016. Enriquez was the Hornets' leader and ranked 10th in the MEAC in assists at 6.19 per set (446). She was also one of the team's top servers, collecting 14 aces in 2016.

The Hornets are also counting on another 2016 JUCO transfer, senior outside hitter Sabina Szmajdych, to emerge as a bigger threat this season. Szmajdych was No. 1 on the Hornets with 157 total kills in 2016 (2.21 per set).

The 2017 Hornets will also rely on versatile middle blocker NaKia Jones. She was fourth on the Hornets with 94 kills (1.42 per set) and second in blocks with 43 (0.65 per set) as a junior last season. Delaware State is also expected to be bolstered by the return of a healthy Sydney Armbrister, whose 2016 season was cut short by injury. Before the injury, Armbrister was second on the team in kills per set at 1.72 (86 total). She also had 70 digs and 22 blocks in her abbreviated 2016 season.

Senior Morgan Tennant, listed as a setter, became the Hornets' most consistent server in her first season with the team in 2016. Tennant led the Hornets with 23 services aces (0.31 per set) and chipped in with 135 assists in part-time duty last season. Junior outside hitter Danyelle Tucker also returns after recording 53 kills, 83 digs and 14 blocks in 2016.

The 2017 newcomers include two middle blockers, a setter, an outside hitter and a libero.

Junior Leimaluhia Taula, a former teammate of Enriquez's at New Mexico Military Academy, is a newcomer at the libero position for the Hornets this season. She helped lead NMMA to a regional championship in 2016. Taula was also a high school and club/AAU standout in Utah before her junior college career.

Outside hitter Mayah Ngundam, a freshman, helped lead Bowie (Md.) High School to a better than .900 win percentage, along with four county and regional championships, during her four-year scholastic career.

Freshman middle blocker Kiera Holtzclaw joins the Hornets this season after a stellar career at Arundel (Md.) High School. During her scholastic career, Holtzclaw was an All-County First Team selection and helped lead her team to two regional championships.

The Hornets also welcome incoming setter Jade Williams to the team after a standout career at Bishop McNamara High School in Maryland. She was the conference leader in digs and ranked in the state in service aces as a senior in 2016.

Junior Aleksandra Bilic, a 6-foot-1 outside hitter and another New Mexico Military Academy product, is also new to the Hornets. A native of Croatia, she posted a .400 attack percentage during her sophomore season at NMMA in 2016.

FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

The Florida A&M volleyball team has one main goal in 2017: winning the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) championship.

For a program that has won 13 league titles since 1988 and appeared in five finals since its last championship in 2009, getting in championship position hasn't been the problem.

Closing the deal has -- such as last season, when FAMU lost in five sets to Howard, another frustrating end to a promising season. In fact, all of the Lady Rattlers' finals set-backs were in five sets.

So close, but so far.

However, confidence is high once again at FAMU, as the 2017 squad lost just one starter from last year's 17-12 group which won the MEAC Southern Division with a perfect 10-0 mark.

The one constant for FAMU volleyball for the past two decades has been head coach Tanio "Tony" Trifonov, who has led the Orange and Green to 10 of those 13 MEAC titles, including a stretch of nine straight crowns between 2001 and 2009.

Trifonov is getting closer to the 400-match win plateau with each passing campaign. He has a 361-211 overall record in 19 seasons, while spinning a nearly flawless 190-8 record in MEAC play.

FAMU will sport a roster with just one senior -- setter Valeria Lopez -- while the bulk of the team will be sophomores or juniors.

Maria Yvette Garcia was a 2016 First Team All-MEAC selection, averaging 3.37 kills, 0.38 blocks and 1.81 digs per set. She was second in kills (313) and digs (168), and fourth in blocks (35). Garcia was also a member of the 2016 MEAC All-Rookie Team.

Abreu was named the MEAC Co-Rookie of the Year and Second Team All-MEAC in 2016 after leading the team in kills (315), averaging 3.18 kills per set, and digs (273), averaging 2.76 per set. She had a season-high 22 kills against North Florida, and she had a season-high 22 digs to go with 18 kills against Bethune-Cookman.

Valentina Carrasco was a Second Team All-MEAC selection in 2016 after leading the MEAC in digs (4.11 per set). She had a season-high 29 digs against Arkansas-Little Rock, 23 against North Florida, 22 against Bethune-Cookman and 21 against Howard in the MEAC Tournament finals. She was also third on team in assists (56) and service aces (29).

Nair Canessa led the MEAC in service aces with 0.49 per set and averaged 1.16 kills, 0.71 digs and 0.41 blocks per set.

Elena Dimitrova was a 2016 MEAC All-Rookie Team selection, finishing third in the MEAC in assists (8.37) per set. She had a season-high 49 assists against Bethune-Cookman and 41 assists against Howard in MEAC Tournament title match and against South Carolina State.

As usual, FAMU will play a challenging non-conference lineup to open the season, beginning with four tournaments -- at Ole Miss, North Dakota State, University of Florida and the FAMU-FSU Tourney.

HAMPTON UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

Entering his second year as head coach at Hampton University, Brandon Duvall returns 11 letterwinners from the 2016 season as the Lady Pirates look to re-establish themselves among the leaders of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC).

A strong returning corps of Lady Pirates is highlighted by the top five in kills from 2016 in Reeana and Ravyn Richardson, Micah Leavell, Lena Washington and Kyn-dall Nicholas. Reeana Richardson, a 2015 Third Team All-MEAC selection, had 225 kills last season, including nine double-digit efforts and four matches of 20 or more kills. She had season highs of 25 kills against Loyola (Md.) in the George Mason Invitational, 12 digs against Morgan State and three service aces against Radford.

Leavell, from Muncie, Ind., had a stellar rookie season, finishing in the top eight in the MEAC in hitting percentage (fourth/.290), kills per set (eighth/2.89) and points per set (eighth/3.31). She recorded the most kills in a match in the conference in 2016, with 30 against Norfolk State on Oct. 14. She earned MEAC All-Rookie team honors.

Washington, from Washington, D.C., was third on the team in kills last season, averaging just under two per set. She was also among the team leaders in service aces, digs and blocks. Washington closed her season with a flurry, averaging 10 kills per match in the final five matches, a stretch that included a season-best 15 in a home win over Coppin State.

Nicholas, from Severn, Md., was second on the team in hitting percentage (.210), topped the team in blocks (53) and was fourth in kills (91). She had a season-high nine blocks against Norfolk State and nine kills against Coppin State.

Ravyn Richardson was fifth on the team in kills (80), third in hitting percentage (.141), and fourth in blocks (30). In both contests against Delaware State last year, she had six kills and a hitting percentage of .600. Her season best was nine kills against East Tennessee State in the Liberty Invitational.

A talented nine-person recruiting class should help push the Lady Pirates at all positions. According to Duvall, transfers Maja Petronijevic, Megann Delgado and former Grafton High standout Sydney Sumner could push their way into the lineup.

A tournament-heavy schedule awaits the Lady Pirates this year, as they start off in pre-conference tournaments in Buffalo, N.Y., Harrisonburg, Va., Greenville, N.C. and Fairfax, Va. The tournament run will close out with the first MEAC North-South Challenge in late September.

With the league schedule pushed back a week, it opened up opportunities for teams in both divisions. Hampton will host a pair of matches on Sept. 22, concluding with the Lady Pirates taking on South Carolina State at 7 p.m. in Holland Hall. The next day, teams will compete at the Tidewater Volleyball Center in Virginia Beach, Va., as Hampton will face North Carolina A&T State at 11 a.m. and Savannah State at 4:30 p.m.

Conference action will open the following weekend, as Hampton will host the Baltimore schools in Morgan State (Sept. 29) and Coppin State (Oct. 1). A three-match road swing follows as they'll go up Route 13 to take on Delaware State (Oct. 6) and Maryland Eastern Shore (Oct. 7), before going to Washington, D.C. to face defending MEAC champion Howard (Oct. 13).

After a home match with Maryland Eastern Shore (Oct. 19), the Lady Pirates will again tackle a three-match road swing, starting off at Norfolk State (Oct. 20) before a weekend in Baltimore facing Morgan State (Oct. 27) and Coppin State (Oct. 28).

November will give the Lady Pirates three straight at home to close out the regular season, facing Howard (Nov. 5), Delaware State (Nov. 10) and Norfolk State (Nov. 12).

The MEAC Championship will be Nov. 17-19 in Princess Anne, Md.

LADY PIRATES TIDBITS

▲ Brandon Duvall is entering his second season as head coach of the Lady Pirates.

▲ Hampton looks to continue to improve after doubling its win total in 2016.

▲ The Lady Pirates return five starters and 10 letter-winners, including 2016 All-Rookie selection Micah Leavell.

▲ Leavell was fourth in the MEAC in hitting percentage in 2016; she also ranked eighth in both kills per set and points per set.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

Howard University volleyball is entering its sixth season under head coach Shaun Kupferberg. He was named the head coach in 2012, taking the Bison from winning one match and missing the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Tournament in his first year to making the tournament semifinals in 2013, the MEAC championship match in 2014 and winning the conference title in 2015 and 2016.

During that span, Kupferberg -- the 2014 and 2016 MEAC Coach of the Year -- has led Howard to three 20-win seasons, at least a share of the MEAC Northern Division title three years in a row, over two dozen All-MEAC and All-Academic honors, back-to-back MEAC championships and NCAA Tournament appearances.

After going a perfect 12-0 in MEAC play last season, the Bison will get ready to face each of their Northern Division opponents twice again this year. The slate features 12 conference matchups via home-and-home series with each member.

Howard will begin the 2017 season in its own backyard with the D.C. Challenge against Georgetown, American and Santa Clara. The Bison will host two of the three matches in Burr Gymnasium. The squad will then hit the road for three tournaments hosted by opponents from three different leagues. The team will take part in the Fullerton Classic at UC Riverside, the Jefferson Cup at Virginia and the D.C. Classic.

The Bison will play 15 non-conference matches against 14 different opponents. Part of the tough schedule will include contests against American, Washington State and Princeton, which all participated in the 2016 NCAA Volleyball Championship.

Howard returns nine letterwinners from last year's 26-6 squad that claimed the MEAC championship and made its second straight NCAA Tournament appearance. The team has four seniors and three juniors coming back this season.

The Bison are looking to senior Khaila Donaldson to pick up where she left off last season. She used the 2016 campaign to cement her place in Howard's history books, becoming the all-time leader with 1,228 kills on her way to being named the 2016 MEAC Player of the Year.

She was also the 2016 MEAC Tournament Outstanding Performer, along with an All-MEAC First Team and All-Tournament Team selection.

Howard's nine returnees will be joined by nine newcomers to the program. The balanced crop of fresh faces includes middle blockers Sydney Jackson (The Woodlands, Texas) and Indira Dandridge (Miami, Fla.), defensive specialists Abby Morrow (Detroit, Mich.) and Fola Wilson (Minneapolis, Minn.), outside hitters Jurnee Tipton (Ypsilanti, Mich.), Maya Dingle (Westampton, N.J.), Marie Begel (Pacific Palisades, Calif.) and Marcelle Butler (Canton, Ga.) and setter Christian Patton (Houston, Texas).

Toby Rens and Maryland Eastern Shore will look to contend in the MEAC Northern Division again in 2017.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EASTERN SHORE

2017 Season Outlook

When Maryland Eastern Shore head coach Toby Rens rejoined the program in 2014, those in the know assumed it would not be long before the Hawks volleyball team returned to contention in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC).

Three seasons into his second tenure, the team is back in the hunt, advancing to its first MEAC semifinal in four years last season and winning 18 matches along the way. In addition, the Hawks went 10-2 in league play, finishing second in the Northern Division standings.

Now a seasoned group of student-athletes, combined with a fresh crop of newcomers, will look towards taking the next critical step: winning a conference title.

All of the pieces are there for a title run, starting on the outside. All-MEAC Second Teamer and rising junior Lucia Babic (Sisak, Croatia) will lead a talented group, including All-MEAC Rookie selection Iva Vujosevic (Bar, Montenegro) as she enters her sophomore season and fellow rising junior Rachel Kayongo (Northridge, Calif.), who exploded on the scene during MEAC play last year with 2.82 kills per set.

In the middle, Mere Serea (Suva, Fiji) was granted another year of eligibility after an injury sidelined her as a junior. She led the MEAC with 1.11 blocks per set as a senior, and she will look to be a presence once again as a graduate student. Senior Alana Polk (Houston, Texas) and redshirt freshman Sola Okesanjo (Chicago, Ill.) will also play vital roles in the middle.

Rising sophomore Ivana Blazeovic (Zagreb, Croatia) impressed in her freshman season at setter, and she will look to improve at that position. Koya Sowells (Missouri City, Texas) -- notorious for lifting the team's energy on the court -- will provide support as a defensive specialist, and rising senior Kirstin Fink (Tucson, Ariz.) can aid almost any position on the court, either starting or coming off the bench.

Joining these Hawks are five newcomers. Most will provide depth where it lacked one year ago: the defensive end. Others will support on the outside. The recruits range from regional standouts to international students, and several will compete for starting positions when practice opens in August.

Currently, the schedule features 33 matches during the regular season, with 11 of those taking place at the William P. Hytche Athletic Center on campus. There will be five tournaments during the non-conference season, including one at home Sept. 15-16. MEAC play begins on Sept. 29 and will conclude on Nov. 12.

The postseason begins Nov. 17, as the Hawks once again play host to the MEAC Championships in the Hytche Athletic Center.

MORGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

Following the loss of six seniors, the 2016 campaign was a rebuilding year for the Lady Bears, who finished 7-21 overall and 7-5 in the MEAC Northern Division. Despite the loss of experience with all the departures, Morgan State still made its third consecutive conference tournament appearance after finishing third in the Northern Division, a spot down from the previous season.

However, Morgan State suffered a three-set loss to Bethune-Cookman for the second straight year in the tournament, this time falling to the Lady Wildcats in the quarterfinal round.

Morgan State returns eight letterwinners in 2017, including five starters from a year ago, whom head coach Ramona Riley-Bozier, who enters her 30th season at the helm, will lean upon heavily this season.

Leading the way for the Lady Bears are their five returning starters in senior Keana Browne (Virginia Beach, Va.), juniors Natasha Barker (Phoenix, Ariz.) and Monette Daniels (Detroit, Mich.), and sophomores Jasmine Hubbard (Sparks, Nev.) and Roi Wallace (San Dimas, Calif.).

Browne, who has been a starter since the start of her sophomore season, was named the team's MVP last season. Browne totaled 225 kills, which was tied for the team lead with Barker, while adding 33 digs, a team-leading 59 blocks, 12 service aces and three assists. The 6-foot-2 middle blocker finished the season ranked sixth in the MEAC in hitting percentage (.267).

Barker, a 5-foot-10 outside hitter, transferred to Morgan State a year ago from Texas Southern. In her first season with the Lady Bears, she averaged a team-leading 2.47 kills per set and was second on the team in digs at 2.44 per set. Barker totaled 225 kills, which was tied for the team lead with Browne, and finished second on the team with 222 digs. Barker would also add 14 service aces and 22 blocks.

Daniels, who is coming off her best season as a Lady Bear, was named the team's Most Improved Player in 2016. The 5-foot-11 middle hitter finished with 54 kills, seven service aces, 37 blocks and 20 digs, all season-bests.

Hubbard, a 5-foot-7 libero, averaged a team-leading 3.54 digs per set for Morgan State last season. She racked up 276 total digs and ranked seventh among MEAC leaders in that category.

Wallace returns as the team's starting setter after a productive freshman campaign in 2016. The 5-foot-8 Wallace totaled a team-best 688 assists, which ranked fifth in the MEAC at 7.73 assists per set. She also added 133 digs, 23 kills, 22 service aces (which ranked second on the team) and 16 blocks to her resume.

Other Lady Bears returning are senior Michaela Collins (Sacramento, Calif.), junior Milan Amos (Owings, Md.) and sophomore Nnedi Oguayo (Beltsville, Md.).

Collins is coming off her best season at Morgan State, finishing with 31 kills, 29 digs, seven service aces, two assists and two blocks, all season-bests. The 6-foot-1 outside hitter recorded a career-high six kills against No. 7 Florida and set a career-high eight digs at defending MEAC champion Howard.

Amos, a 6-foot-1 outside and middle hitter, saw action in 17 matches and made five starts for Morgan State last season. She totaled 30 kills, 37 digs, nine service aces, two assists and a block. Amos recorded a career-high seven digs and a career-high three service aces at Delaware State.

Oguayo saw limited action in 2016, appearing in four matches for the Lady Bears. The 6-foot-2 middle hitter recorded her lone kill and dig of the season against Saint Francis (Pa.) during the La Salle Invitational.

The Lady Bears will welcome six newcomers this season with the additions of junior transfers Christa Brown (Winston-Salem State), Cristen Coryatt (Monroe College) and Deja Lester (Arizona Western College), as well as freshmen Shadae Debraux (Bishop McNamara HS), Mykaela Ross (North Farmington HS) and Triniti Smith (Cass Technical HS).

Clarke Tyler is one of just three seniors on the roster for Norfolk State in 2017.

NORFOLK STATE UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

Losing your top hitter and one of just two all-time 1,000-kill players in school history is not easy for a program to overcome. Losing three of your top four players in terms of total kills from a season ago makes the task that much harder.

That is where the Norfolk State volleyball program and second-year head coach Dave Albaugh find themselves heading into the 2017 campaign. Gone are Jessica Johnson, a Second Team All-MEAC honoree last year, as well as hitters Dominique Parker and Sydney Dailey. Together, the trio combined for 68 percent of the team's kills last year, and Johnson set the school record by averaging 3.66 kills per set.

As the new season inches closer, Albaugh and his assistants will determine who takes over the offense this year, especially with so many new or unproven hitters on the squad. The most proven returning hitter is senior Clarke Tyler, who averaged 1.35 kills per set and was the team's top blocker last year at 0.62. She and junior Lexi Brown (1.10 kills, 0.51 blocks per set) are the most prominent offensive options back. Both will also serve as prominent anchors for the team's frontcourt defense.

Where it goes from there on offense will not be sorted out for a while. That's because Norfolk State brought in six new players, including five in the frontcourt who can all vie for time at either the hitter or blocker positions.

Junior college outside hitter Anna Rupertova joins freshmen Clara Kick, Jazmine Craig, Taylor Eichelberger and Quiana Griffin, all of whom stand 5-foot-10. Kick, a middle blocker from Germany, will be the tallest player on the team at 6-foot-2. All can provide offense, as evidenced by their careers at their previous schools. Rupertova brings the most experience after averaging 2.30 kills per set last year at Odessa College while earning league MVP honors.

After relying on Johnson for a lot of offense last season, the Spartans have the potential to spread the offense around this year and prevent teams from keying on just one player.

Norfolk State not only has a lot of unknown to work through with its new players, but with Johnson, Parker and Dailey gone, there is plenty of unknown with returning players as well. Sophomores Jessica Radford, Ashley Patterson and Daiysa Burrell, the latter two walk-ons, all saw limited time last season sitting behind the more experienced players. With spots opening up, the trio will have more opportunities to impress as the pecking order on offense shakes itself out.

One more player looking to do bigger and better things is freshman Jannel Ezeagwu, who sat out last season as a member of the team. A middle blocker and hitter with some size at 5-foot-11, Ezeagwu impressed enough during practice that she could serve as a key player on defense this season along with Tyler and Brown.

Two more key returning contributors are sophomore setter Jill Aquino and senior libero Melvina Brown. Aquino averaged 7.02 assists per set while holding down the job full-time, and Brown served as a capable team leader after also tallying 3.72 digs per set. They will help make up for the loss of graduated defensive specialist Alex Irizarry (1.68 digs) and serve as solid foundations with so many new players in front of them.

Also in the mix are seniors Hope Forsythe and Tori Tulensru. Forsythe began her career as a hitter, but has transitioned more to the back row with some spot setting thrown in -- although she did tally 53 total kills a year ago with the sixth-most attempts on the team. Tulensru averaged 1.33 digs as a sub and part-time starter on defense, with both players making seven starts. With only one new back-row player, Forsythe and Tulensru could play more significant roles this year.

The last aforementioned newbie is junior Ciana Tankelewicz, who arrived from NAIA member Our Lady of the Lake University for the spring semester. She averaged 2.27 digs last year with 61 assists and joins Forsythe and Tulensru in helping to anchor the backcourt defense along with Brown.

Rounding out the roster are walk-ons Sabrina Ross, Jada Bolden and Destine Hooker. Ross and Bolden practiced but did not play last year, while Hooker appeared in three matches. All three add depth to the backcourt, and Bolden also has the ability to set if the need arises.

Samara Brown (No. 1) looks to help the Aggies take the next step in 2017.

NORTH CAROLINA A&T STATE UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

The North Carolina A&T State volleyball team will look impressive and experienced at the net this season. The Aggies hope their defensive wall at the net, along with an improved passing game, will help the Aggies win their first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) tournament match since 2006. The Aggies were 9-15 overall and 6-4 in the MEAC Southern Division in 2016.

While making the conference tournament in each of the past five seasons, the Aggies want to advance once there. The strongest component to making that happen are three towering seniors in Samara Brown (6-1, OH, Raleigh, N.C.), Jasmine Lindor (6-0, RS, Cornelius, N.C.) and Alyssa Pitt (6-1, MB, Farmville, N.C.).

Brown became the first Aggie to earn First Team All-MEAC honors when she was voted to the team as an outside hitter in 2016. Brown's career year included averaging 3.54 kills, 2.02 digs and 0.40 blocks per set over 89 sets played. Brown led the team in aces (40) and she posted a .167 hitting percentage. In 19 of 24 matches, Brown recorded double-figure kills and she posted six double-doubles. She finished the season third in the MEAC in kills.

Meanwhile, Lindor led the Aggies at the net defensively, recording 85 total blocks and averaging 0.96 over 89 sets. She was third in the league in blocks per set, while averaging 1.10 kills per set with a .177 hitting percentage. Pitt was second on the team in kills per set (2.12) and she totaled 39 blocks (0.44) over 89 sets.

Sophomore Christa Wilson (5-9, OH, Raleigh, N.C.) should also help the Aggies offensively. As a freshman, she averaged 1.87 kills and 2.12 digs in 68 sets played. With his net protectors in place, Clifton is looking to shore up his passing attack from the setter position and on serve-receive. In this area, the Aggies are young. Liz Martino, a four-year starter at setter, is gone. To replace her, the Aggies brought in freshman Edie Brewer (6-0, S, West Chester, Ohio) and junior college transfer Megan Wiggins (5-7, Jr., S, Murrieta, Calif.). Wiggins averaged 5.1 assists as a sophomore at Golden West Community College.

Libero Keniah Rivera Santiago is also not returning this season, which leaves a void in the Aggies serve-receive. The Aggies also addressed the absence through recruiting with the signing of Kayiah Haley (5-3, Fr., DS, Greensboro, N.C.) and Milanna Morgan (5-4, Fr., DS, Lee's Summit, Mo.). Carden Clark (5-6, DS, Roanoke, Va.) hopes to earn more playing time as she returns for her sophomore season.

Clifton's challenge will be getting his freshmen acclimated to those techniques. He brought in a talented offensive group, including Pitt's sister Courtney Pitt (6-1, Fr., OH, Farmville, N.C.). Pitt could go a long way in helping Brown and Wilson carry the Aggies offensively. Shabazz Fatimah (6-0, Fr., MB/RS, Cincinnati, Ohio) will help the Aggies in the middle and on the right side, while Brewer will play some right side in addition to her setter duties.

Giving the Aggies more depth are returners Leila Haynesworth (5-11, So., OH, Mechanicsville, Va.), who played 73 sets as an outside hitter in 2016, and Carena Meadows (5-9, Jr., MB, Matthews, N.C.), who played in 28 sets last season. Camille Uadiale (6-0, So., MB, Hampton, Ga.), who earned valuable playing time toward the end of last season, should also help the Aggies defensively at the net.

Head coach Jody Brown will look to guide the Lady Eagles to a MEAC Championship berth in 2017.

NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

Second-year head coach Jody Brown will be trying to build on a .500 conference record last year and become a contender in Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) with a young roster heading into the 2017 season.

The Lady Eagles went 5-5 in league play a year ago to return to the MEAC Championship after a year hiatus. NCCU was 6-17 overall, increasing its win total by one game for a third consecutive season. Their .500 ledger against the MEAC Southern Division was the Lady Eagles' best mark since going 6-4 in 2012.

NCCU will be showcasing a young and athletic squad in 2017 that will feature a new-look attack after graduating its top two offensive players from 2016 in Kelsey Murphy and Casey Curran.

However, NCCU will have the potential to fill those vacancies and strengthen the rest of its lineup with the addition of nine newcomers. Six of those nine fledgling Lady Eagles are front-row players.

Junior middle blocker Whitney White is NCCU's top returning point producer and will be looking to anchor the young attack. White, who ranked in the top 10 of the league in both blocks per set (0.74) and hitting percentage (.241), finished her second season averaging 2.05 kills per set.

Junior middle blocker Jazmine Daye (1.11 kills/set, 0.67 blocks/set) increased her playing time last season after an injury-plagued rookie year and looks to have her healthiest and most productive season yet. Classmate Kierra Shipman has already played in 39 matches over her first two seasons and is averaging just under one kill per set. Sophomore Kennedy White (0.60 kills/set) will contend for more playing time after seeing action in 20 contests in 2016.

NCCU's six newcomers on the front row all range from 5-foot-8 to 6-feet tall.

The Lady Eagles have only one senior, but she has been a program staple. Paige Phillips has played in 78 of NCCU's 81 matches over her career and will once again be setting up the attack. She has 1,253 career assists and her average of 7.25 assists per set last season ranked seventh in the MEAC. Phillips has also produced nearly two digs per set throughout her first three seasons. Junior Jordan Shipman will back up Phillips at the setter position.

Junior Bree Simmons is NCCU's lone veteran on the back row. She took over the libero position last season and her 3.12 digs per set ranked 10th in the league. Simmons has also led the Lady Eagles in service aces per set in each of her first two seasons, and Phillips will get a lot more help defending this year.

Redshirt freshmen Natasha Berrios Laguerre and Nahir Berrios Laguerre will finally see playing time in 2017 after practicing with the team last year. The second of three sets of twins on NCCU's roster (joining the Shipmans and freshmen Diana Alcox and Christine Alcox) are expected to help the Lady Eagles improve their passing.

Junior outside hitter Erika Ianovalle is NCCU's lone transfer. She averaged 2.03 kills per set last season before graduating from the State College of Florida. Joining the Alcox twins and Ianovalle at the net will be freshmen Diamond Williams, McKayla Young and Da'Nesha Miller. Defensively, freshman Braxton Wright gives NCCU four defensive specialists.

LADY EAGLES TIDBITS

▲ North Carolina Central is entering its second season under head coach Jody Brown.

▲ Before coming to Durham, Brown had guided Florida Atlantic to five winning seasons, including a 29-3 mark in 2005.

▲ The Lady Eagles reached the 2016 MEAC Championship, falling to eventual champion Howard in the quarterfinals.

▲ Whitney White was top 10 in the MEAC in both blocks per set and hitting percentage last season.

▲ North Carolina Central will return three starters and welcome in nine newcomers.

SAVANNAH STATE UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

Savannah State volleyball head coach Edric Poitier starts his second season, and 13th overall, with a team that includes 11 newcomers, including seven freshmen, three transfers and five returners. The team will have just two seniors among the 15 players on the roster.

In Poitier's first year at the helm, Savannah State broke a 54-match losing streak by defeating South Carolina State 3-1 on Oct. 17 in Wilcox-Wiley Gymnasium. The team went 2-25 overall and 2-8 in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC), the program's first time winning two MEAC matches in a season.

Savannah State is looking to replace nine letter-winners, including four starters, that accounted for 60 percent of the kills, 78.9 digs per set and 70.5 blocks per set.

Senior setter Alee Quint and junior middle blocker Charlinda Colbert are the two returning starters. Quint led the team with 473 assists (5.26 per set) and added 18 service aces (0.20 per set), while Colbert added 72 kills and 38 blocks.

Also returning are junior outside hitter Alaina Monroe (40 kills, 6.0 blocks), senior outside hitter Jade-mone Jones (34 kills, 14.0 blocks) and junior outside hitter Ayree Gallon (20 kills, 5.0 blocks).

Poitier added 11 newcomers this season, including three transfers: Jennifer Rosado, Tyran Chenault and Cortney Williams. In addition, Alexis Singleton moves from softball to volleyball this season. That leaves seven freshmen coming into the program, including three each from Georgia and Puerto Rico.

Savannah State will play a 29-match schedule this season. During the early part of the season, the Lady Tigers will find themselves on the tournament circuit.

Savannah State starts the season with the MEAC/SWAC Challenge in Montgomery, Ala., for two matches against Alabama State and a match against Alabama A&M from Aug. 25-26. After a mid-week match against North Florida on Aug. 30, Savannah State travels to Williamsburg, Va., for the William and Mary Invitational to face Morehead State University, Davidson College and the College of William and Mary from Sept. 1-2.

The Lady Tigers will play in the Bash in the 'Boro from Sept. 8-9, with two matches against host Georgia Southern and a match against Kennesaw State, before traveling to Charleston, S.C., for a mid-week match against Charleston Southern on Sept. 12.

The Lady Tigers will then head to Miami, Fla., for the FIU Invitational to face South Alabama and FIU on Sept. 16, before heading back to Charleston, S.C., to face The Citadel on Sept. 19.

The final non-conference tournament of the season will be the MEAC North-South Challenge from Sept. 22-23 in Norfolk and Virginia Beach, Va. Savannah State will face Norfolk State on Sept. 22 and Maryland Eastern Shore and Hampton on Sept. 23.

The Lady Tigers start MEAC play with the first home matches of the season against Bethune-Cookman on Sept. 29 and Florida A&M on Oct. 1.

The next four matches are on the road, as the Lady Tigers travel to Macon, Ga., to face Mercer on Oct. 4, before traveling to Greensboro, N.C., to face North Carolina A&T State on Oct. 6, Durham, N.C., to face North Carolina Central on Oct. 8, and Orangeburg, S.C., to take on South Carolina State on Oct. 13.

Savannah State will finish the regular season with four of its final six matches at home, hosting NCCU on Oct. 16 and Mercer on Oct. 25, while traveling to Florida to face B-CU on Oct. 27 in Daytona Beach and FAMU on Oct. 29 in Tallahassee.

Home dates with NCAT on Nov. 3 and Senior Day on Nov. 12 with a match against SCSU will wrap up the regular season.

The Lady Bulldogs will look to get back into the win column under a new head coach in 2017.

SOUTH CAROLINA STATE UNIVERSITY

2017 Season Outlook

The 2016 season went down as one of the worst seasons in Lady Bulldog history, as South Carolina State found itself hampered by injuries and an inexperienced team under first-year head coach Abiola Wilson-Brigmon.

As a result, S.C. State finished last in the MEAC Southern Division with an 0-25 overall record (0-10 in conference play) during the 2016 campaign.

This season, the Lady Bulldogs look to turn things around under former assistant and first-year head coach Monique Lee. With the departure of only three seniors, Lee returns a young squad with just two veterans in seniors Marcella Chestnut (5-9, UTL, Longs, S.C.) and Ashante Finnie (5-9, MH/OH, Atlanta, Ga.).

Finnie, along with junior Brianna Dafney (6-1, R, S, Conyers, Ga.), are the top returners for the Lady Bulldogs this upcoming season. Dafney led the team in kills with 251 last season, while adding 79 digs and 37 blocks, and Finnie chipped in 90 kills and 18 blocks on the season.

Along with Finnie, Chestnut and Dafney, Lee returns seven letterwinners in sophomores Tia Peeples (5-4, DS, Orangeburg, S.C.), Anissa Brayboy (5-4, DS, Sumter, S.C.), KaShunya Rooks (5-8, RH, Pendelton, S.C.), and junior Dashanique Peterson (6-4, MH, Kingstree, S.C.).

"I am very eager to get to work with the players coming back and the new additions we are adding to our team this upcoming season," Lee said. "We had a very difficult time last season, but I feel with what we have coming back and some hard work, we can make progress and get better."

The Lady Bulldogs added four newcomers to the roster during the offseason in freshmen Erin Hundley (5-6, UTL/DS) from Butler HS in Matthews, N.C.; Alexis Holt (5-7, OH) from Lassiter HS in Marietta, Ga.; Jenai King (5-6, S) from Notre Dame Academy and transfer Desiree Walker (6-1, MB) from Div. II John-son C. Smith out of Charlotte, N.C.

The Lady Bulldogs will open the 2017 season on Aug. 25-26, competing in the Charlotte Invitational.

Conference play will start on Sept. 29, when S.C. State plays host to preseason Southern Division favorite Florida A&M.

IF i LOSE

I'LL RESPOND WITH RESPECT.

Don't undo my hard work with poor sportsmanship.

RESPECT.
It's the name of the game.
