MEAC Players of the Week

The MEAC will name players of the week each Monday throughout the regular season in the following categories: offensive, defensive, rookie, offensive lineman, and special teams. Nominees are submitted to the conference office through the institution's sports information offices. Winners will be made available via email and the conference website.

Postseason Awards

Following the conclusion of regular season play, the MEAC will conduct a vote for all-conference teams. The teams will be voted on by the conference's head coaches and sports information directors. Each body will vote on a first, second, and third-team all-conference team in addition to an Offensive Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year, Rookie of the Year, and Offensive Lineman of the Year. Head coaches will also vote on the conference's Head Coach of the Year award.

MEAC Football Tie-Breaker System

The tiebreaker system is use to determine which team will receive the conference Automatic Qualifier for the NCAA Playoffs or the specified Bowl game, whichever is applicable.

Two-Team or Multiple-Team Tie – If the tied teams played each other, head-to-head competition will be used to determine the representative. For multiple ties, head-to-head record vs. all teams tied.

1.) If a tie still exits then the following shall be used:

A. six (6) points for a win against a Division I-(FBS) team;
B. Count four (4) points for a non-conference Division I-(FCS) win;
C. Subtract (4) points for a loss against a none Division I opponent;

The team with the highest point total shall be the Automatic Qualifier for the NCAA Playoffs or the specified Bowl game, whichever is applicable.

2.) If a tie still exits then the following shall be used:

A. Teams with the highest Sagarin ranking.

2016 MEAC Football Television Schedule

The Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) announced its 2016 football schedule featuring eight regular season matchups scheduled to be televised on ESPN, ESPNU, and ESPN Classic, as well as carried on ESPN3. The nationally televised games are a part of the MEAC's ongoing partnership with ESPN.

"We are excited about the 2016 football television schedule that offers our fans many ways to stay tuned into their favorite MEAC football team," said MEAC Commissioner Dennis Thomas. "Our partnership with ESPN continues to showcase our talented student-athletes, coaches and institutions through multiple ESPN platforms and further illustrates this tremendous partnership we have built over the years with the Worldwide Leader in Sports."

The 2016 television schedule kicks off with the 12th annual MEAC/SWAC Football Challenge featuring Bethune-Cookman and the Southwestern Athletic Conference's Alcorn State. The game will be televised live on Sunday, September 4 beginning at 1 p.m. ET on ESPN.

The ESPNU Thursday night lineup includes matchups featuring Hampton at North Carolina A&T State on Sept. 29, Norfolk State at North Carolina A&T State on Oct. 6 and North Carolina A&T State at Bethune-Cookman on Oct. 13. All three games are slated to start at 7:30 p.m. and will air live on ESPNU and WatchESPN.

The Saturday slate begins with Bethune-Cookman visiting South Carolina State on Oct. 8 and Bethune-Cookman at Norfolk State on Oct. 22. Both games will air live on ESPN3 and replayed later on ESPNU.

The 2016 MEAC schedule wraps up with the Florida Classic featuring Bethune-Cookman and Florida A&M. The game will air live on ESPN Classic and ESPN3 on Nov. 19. There will be one game determined for the final week of the season between two teams in contention for the MEAC Championship that will also air live on ESPN3 and replayed later on ESPNU on Nov. 19.

The MEAC will participate in the second annual Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl pitting the champion of the conference against the champion of the SWAC in a post season bowl game on Saturday, December 17 in Atlanta, Georgia at the Georgia Dome. The matchup will be televised live at Noon on ABC.

All games can also be viewed via live stream on computers, smartphones, tablets, Xbox and Apple TV via the WatchESPN application.

HISTORY OF THE MEAC

The Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) enters its 47th year of intercollegiate competition heading into the 2015-16 academic school year. Located in Norfolk, Va., the MEAC is made up of 13 outstanding historically black institutions across the Atlantic coastline: Bethune-Cookman University, Coppin State University, Delaware State University, Florida A&M University, Hampton University, Howard University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, Norfolk State University, North Carolina A&T State University, North Carolina Central University, Savannah State University and South Carolina State University.

The MEAC sponsors 16 Division I (FCS) sports including baseball, men's and women's basketball, women's bowling, football, men's golf, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's tennis, softball and volleyball.

MEAC student-athletes excel on and off the field and several have been recognized on ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-America and All-District teams. The conference sponsors All-Academic teams in each of its sports and awards two post-graduate scholarships of $5,000 each annually to one male and one female student-athlete who have excelled academically and athletically and are in their final season of intercollegiate athletics eligibility and competition under MEAC and NCAA regulations.

MEMBERSHIP HISTORY

In 1969, a bold ad hoc group of innovators long associated with intercollegiate athletics met in Durham, N.C., to discuss the feasibility of organizing a new conference. From these discussions, they formed a steering and planning committee to fully investigate the idea, present a detailed report with recommendations to interested collegiate institutions, and construct a workshop to outline proposals.

After selecting a proposal and adopting a program, seven institutions (Delaware State College, Howard University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, North Carolina A&T State University, North Carolina Central University and South Carolina State College) agreed to become the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. Their major objective was to establish, organize and supervise an intercollegiate athletic program among a compact group of educational institutions of high academic standards with a sound philosophy of co-curricular activities. The conference agreed to seek Division I status for its sports.

The conference was confirmed in 1970, kicking off its first season of competition in football in 1971.

In 1978, the MEAC reached a milestone when it selected Kenneth A. Free to be its first full-time commissioner. Free served the conference for 18 years before stepping down in May of 1996. In July 1996, Charles S. Harris was named commissioner and served in the capacity until April 2002. On September 1, 2002, Dr. Dennis E. Thomas was named commissioner and has served in the position for 13 years.

The conference's first expansion occurred in October 1979, when Bethune-Cookman College and Florida A&M University were voted into the MEAC as members. Original members Morgan State, North Carolina Central and Maryland Eastern Shore withdrew from the conference at the end of the 1979-80 fiscal year. Maryland Eastern Shore was readmitted in 1981 and Morgan State returned in 1984. Florida A&M opted to resign in 1984 but rejoined the conference in 1986. Coppin State College was granted admittance in 1985, becoming the ninth member institution.

The MEAC expanded again in the 1990s with the inclusion of Hampton University (1995) and Norfolk State University (1997). The conference grew once again in 2007 with the addition of Winston-Salem State University. Winston-Salem State, a MEAC provisional member, did not meet the qualifications for Division I and withdrew from the conference following the 2009-10 academic and athletic season. On July 1, 2010, the MEAC expanded again with the admittance of North Carolina Central University and Savannah State University.

Georgia Regents University Augusta joined the conference on September 10, 2014 as an associate member for men's golf.

On June 8, 1980, the MEAC was classified as a Division I conference by the NCAA. Prior to that year, the MEAC operated as a Division II conference. The month after it achieved Division I status, the conference received an automatic qualification to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship. Currently, the conference has automatic qualifying bids for NCAA postseason play in baseball (since 1994), men's basketball (since 1981), women's basketball (since 1982), men's golf (since 2014), softball (since 1995), men's and women's tennis (since 1998), and volleyball (since 1994).

SPORTS HISTORY

The MEAC declares champions in eight men's sports – baseball, basketball, cross country, football, men's golf, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and tennis - and eight women's sports - cross country, basketball, bowling, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, softball, tennis and volleyball.

The MEAC initiated cross country in 1980, and North Carolina A&T State earned the inaugural men's crown. The first women's cross country championship took place a year later, with Howard winning the first of its seven titles. Indoor Track and Field was also added in 1981, with South Carolina State capturing the men's title and Howard winning the women's crown.

Tennis and golf returned as MEAC-governed sports in 1981 after a five-year hiatus. South Carolina State won all seven of the conference's golf titles from 1972-1983 before the sport was discontinued after the 1983 championship.

In wrestling, Morgan State won 13 of 24 conference championships before the sport was discontinued in 1995.

Baseball, which began in 1972, was discontinued following the 1977 season. It was brought back as a MEAC-governed sport along with women's volleyball in 1983. Women's softball became a MEAC-sanctioned sport in 1992.

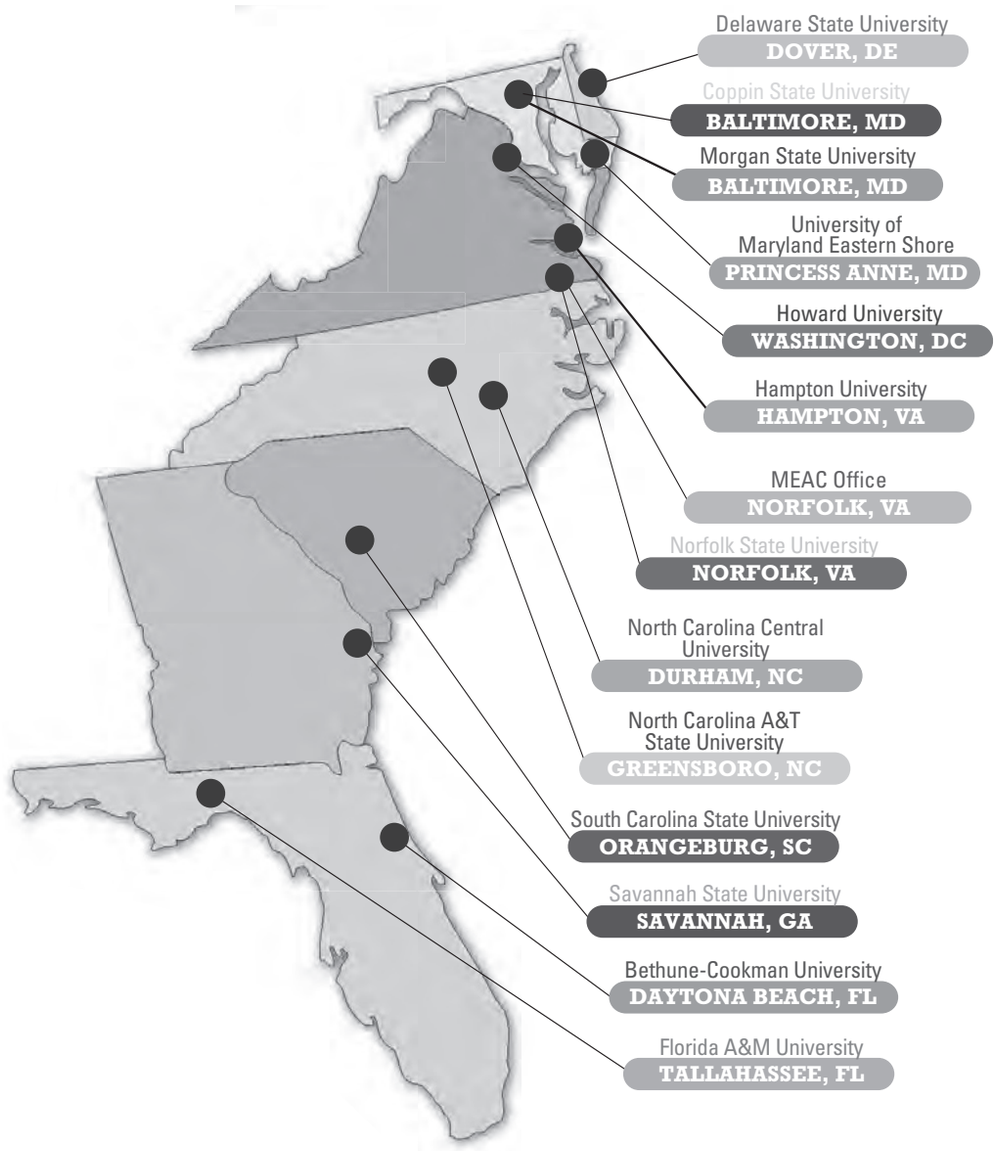

Bowling was officially sanctioned as a MEAC sport in 1999. The MEAC was the first conference to secure NCAA sanctioning for women's bowling by adopting the club sport prior to the 1996-97 school year.

Men's golf returned as a MEAC sponsored sport in 2014 with six teams participating in the conference championship. Bethune-Cookman was crowned the 2014 men's conference champion. The Wildcats also won the 2014 PGA Minority Collegiate Golf Championship.

Associate member Georgia Regents University Augusta earned its first MEAC golf title in 2015, the institutions' first year of conference competition.

Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Announces All-Sports Award Winners

Bethune-Cookman and Florida A&M shared the Mary McLeod Bethune Women's All-Sports Award, while Bethune-Cookman took its third straight Talmadge Layman Hill Men's Award. The All-Sports Awards are indicators of the overall strengths of the conference's men's and women's athletic programs. Each institution was presented with a $20,000 check during a reception at the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Naples, Fla.

The University of Maryland Eastern Shore was recognized during the reception as the 2015 recipient of the MEAC Highest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) for the seventh consecutive year. In addition to the recognition, UMES was presented a check for $25,000 from the conference. UMES' 88-percent GSR is the highest among MEAC institutions spanning the 2005-08 cohorts.

Bethune-Cookman and Florida A&M's women's program totaled 92.8 points to share top honors in the All-Sports tally. The Lady Rattlers won conference titles in Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field, while the Lady Wildcats had top finishes in Volleyball, Basketball, Tennis and Softball. North Carolina A&T State finished third with 86 points, while Hampton (85.5) placed fourth.

On the men's side, Bethune-Cookman continues to strengthen its programs, totaling 94.6 points for its third straight overall All-Sports trophy. The Wildcats earned a share of the football title and finished first in Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field along with a second-place finish in Golf. North Carolina A&T State placed second on the men's side with 74.3 points to edge out Norfolk State, who was third with 74 points.

Cross Country

The Maryland Eastern Shore men and Florida A&M women won the 2015 MEAC Cross Country titles at the Delaware State University Outreach and Research Center in Smyrna, Del. The win was the second straight title for the Hawks men as Khalil Rmidi Kinini was named the men's Outstanding Performer after posting a top time of 25:00.50, on the 8k course. UMES head coach Ernest Barrett was named the men's Outstanding Coach. On the women's side, Cynthia Chelego, of Florida A&M, finished at the top, with a time of 17:49.60, on the 5k course, and earned the Outstanding Performer honor. FAMU's Darlene Moore was named the women's Outstanding Coach. The Maryland Eastern Shore men recorded 25 points to win its sixth overall crown, while Florida A&M women registered 22 points to earn its fourth consecutive title.

Volleyball

The Howard Bison finished at the top of the conference standings with an 11-1 record in the north to clinch the regular season division title. Bethune-Cookman finished with a 10-0 mark to earn the divisional crown in the south. Cindy Okpegbue, of Coppin State, was named Player of the Year, while Maryland Eastern Shore's Zuzana Ondruskova earned Rookie of the Year accolades. DR. DENNIS E. THOMAS

COMMISSIONER

Dr. Dennis Thomas enters his 15th year as Commissioner of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) on September 1, 2016.

A revolutionary, Commissioner Thomas led the MEAC to become the first Division I FCS conference to institute instant replay during its televised regular season football games in 2011. In 2010, the MEAC purchased the official headquarters for the MEAC, located in Norfolk, Va. This marked the first time a FCS conference has owned its headquartered property.

Thomas' mission to increase the conference's corporate resources has led to multi-year partnerships with Russell Athletic Corporation, Coca-Cola, State Farm Insurance, Nike, Wells Fargo, ESPN, Jostens, United States Marines, Home Depot, Colgate Palmolive and the National Football League (NFL). Thomas was instrumental in forging a partnership with the NFL to improve officiating and provide access for MEAC officials to advance to the next level. In May 2016, Thomas helped broker an off-the-field partnership between the NFL and MEAC to boost opportunities for non-playing careers in pro football.

Thomas played an important role in the development of the Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl, pitting the champions of the MEAC and SWAC together in a bowl game. The MEAC won the inaugural 2015 contest as North Carolina A&T State defeated Alcorn State, 41-34, in front of over 35,000 fans, at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Ga., and a national TV audience on ABC. Out of 42 NCAA Football Postseason Bowl games, the Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl is only one of five bowl games to secure an over-the-air television slot as it will broadcast on ABC again on Dec. 17, 2016.

Thomas' vision to reward academic excellence was implemented with the start of the Highest Graduation Award for member institutions with the best graduation rate for the academic year. The institution that achieves the honor is awarded $25,000. In addition, each year the MEAC recognizes the Commissioner All-Academic team that highlights student-athletes who achieve a 3.0 or better grade point average for the academic year.

In 2006, Thomas implemented the MEAC Woman of the Year honor. The award celebrates the achievements of female senior student-athletes who have excelled in academics, athletics, community service and leadership. In 2012, the MEAC introduced and recognized the MEAC Man of the Year award in collaboration with the Woman's top honor.

He has also raised the profile of the MEAC's annual postseason football awards, as the conference recently partnered with the prestigious National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame to reveal the league's offensive and defensive players of the year as part of the festivities surrounding the annual NFF Annual Awards Dinner in New York City.

Commissioner Thomas proved instrumental in negotiating a bowl-like football game experience with ESPN for conference football playing institutions. In 2005, the MEAC/SWAC Challenge arose and provided MEAC institutions with a cross-conference game with the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) featuring national television exposure and financial guarantees. Thomas negotiated an extension to this contract with ESPN in 2011.

Before becoming MEAC commissioner, Thomas served as the head football coach at South Carolina State University from 1986-1988 and compiled a record of 15-18.

Thomas also brought a wealth of collegiate administrative and higher education experience to the MEAC. Thomas served as Director of Athletics at Hampton University (Va.). In his 12 years of service, Hampton excelled on and off the field of competition. In addition to guiding Hampton from the NCAA Division II to Division I, Thomas demonstrated a strong commitment to student-athletes during his tenure by developing the athletic academic support unit to increase graduation rates.

Under his leadership, Hampton won 17 Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) Division II championships, from 1990-1995, and 11 MEAC Championships, from 1996-2002. Hampton was awarded the MEAC's top honors with the 1999 Talmadge L. Hill All-Sports Award and the 2002 Mary McLeod Bethune Women's All-Sports Award symbolizing the overall strength of the athletics program.

Thomas' term at Hampton also marked the Pirates men's basketball team's remarkable win over Iowa State University, 58-57, in the first round of the 2001 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.

His leadership and managerial skills among national organizations have not gone unnoticed. In 2001, he served as Chair of the NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) Football Committee. He also served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee and is a former board of director member of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. In 2002, Thomas was awarded the National Association of Collegiate Director of Athletics (NACDA) Athletic Director of the Year Award for the Southeast Region (I-AA/AAA).

Thomas has served as a member of the NCAA Division I Leadership Council, the NCAA I-FCS Governance Committee and chaired the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions and the NLI Policy and Review Committee. Thomas has also served as the chair of the NCAA Division I-AA (FCS) Commissioner Association and served on the NACDA Executive Committee. Currently, Thomas serves on the board of directors for the Advocates for Athletic Equity (AAE) and the Walter Byers Scholarship Committee.

For his years and dedication and service to Hampton University and its athletic programs, Thomas was inducted into the institution's inaugural Athletic Hall of Fame Class in 2009. Thomas has also been enshrined in the Alcorn State University (Miss.) Hall of Fame (2010) and the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) Hall of Fame (2003).

The Heidelberg, Miss., native was a four-year letterman in football and track and field in high school, and at the age of 16, he embarked upon a collegiate career that is still in the SWAC's record books. In 1973, he made history as the first and only offensive lineman to be named the conferences' Offensive Player of the Year. He finished his collegiate career as a three-year letterman at Alcorn State, a two-time Pittsburgh Courier First Team All-American, First Team Black Mutual Sports Network All-American, and the Outstanding College Athlete of America (1974). While at Alcorn State, Thomas coached and played under the legendary coach Marino "The Godfather" Casem. During his playing and coaching tenure at Alcorn State, the Braves won SWAC Football Championships in 1970 (as a player), 1976, 1979, and 1984 (as a coach).

In 1978, the state legislative of Mississippi proclaimed April 8 as the Dennis and Johnny (brother) Day in the state for their achievements in scholarship, athletics, and leadership.

Thomas earned his bachelor's degree from Alcorn State University. He earned his master's from the University of Louisiana at Monroe and his doctorate from the State University of New York at Buffalo. He is also a proud lifetime member of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

MEAC Announces 2016 Preseason All-MEAC Awards

North Carolina A&T State's Cohen, South Carolina State's Leonard Selected as Preseason Players of the Year

NORFOLK, Va. – North Carolina A&T State running back Tarik Cohen was selected as the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) preseason Offensive Player of the Year, while South Carolina State linebacker Darius Leonard was selected as preseason Defensive Player of the Year.

All votes are submitted by the MEAC's head football coaches and sports information directors/football contacts.

Cohen, the two-time defending Player of the Year, led the MEAC in rushing with 1,543 total yards in 2015. A two-time MEAC Offensive Player of the Week, Cohen led the conference with 128.6 rushing yards per game, carrying the ball 264 times, with 15 touchdowns in eight games. He finished first in the MEAC in touchdowns and all-purpose yards (148.8 avg./g). He helped lead the Aggies to a share of the conference title and a win at the inaugural Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl. Cohen rushed for 295 yards for three touchdowns during the nationally televised win over Alcorn State.

Leonard was named to the 2015 All-MEAC First Team, as a linebacker. A one-time MEAC Defensive Player of the Week, Leonard finished the season recording 70 total tackles, one forced fumble, one recovered fumble, two quarterback hurries, four passes deflected and two breakups. He notched two interceptions, one for a touchdown, and 13.5 tackles for a loss. Leonard was second on the team in sacks (5.0) and interceptions.

Listed below are the 2015 MEAC Preseason Predicted Order of Finish and Preseason All-MEAC teams:

MEAC Hosts the Playoffs

Bethune-Cookman (10-2) served as hosts for the second time in MEAC history when they welcomed the New Hampton Wildcats to Daytona Beach, Fla. The B-CU Wildcats had previously hosted Florida Atlantic in the 2003 playoffs. Hampton also served as a host in 2006 to the New Hampshire Wildcats while Florida A&M hosted Troy State in the first round in 1998. The 2010 season marked the fourth time in MEAC history that two teams competed in the FCS (formerly I-AA) playoffs. The MEAC has enjoyed five At-Large bids to the NCAA FCS (formerly I-AA). Playoffs including Bethune-Cookman (Hampton-automatic berth) in 1993 and Florida A&M in 1997, 1998, and 1999 (Hampton-automatic berth in 97 and 98 (North Carolina A&T-automatic berth in 1999) and South Carolina State in 2010 (Bethune-Cookman-automatic berth). The inaugural I-AA Championship was won by Florida A&M in 1978, a year before the Rattlers joined the MEAC. Prior to 1996, the MEAC only qualified for the NCAA I-AA playoffs in 1978, 1981, 1982, 1986 and 1992.
