CONFERENCE NOTES

MEAC OVERVIEW

• The 2022 MEAC volleyball season will all eight of the MEAC's volleyball-playing institutions competing in a fall schedule that more closely resembles a normal year of competition. There was no divisional play in 2022, as each member school faced its seven conference foes twice during the regular season -- and all eight programs competed in the 2022 MEAC Volleyball Championship, hosted by Delaware State University.

THE SEASON THAT WAS

• The 2021 MEAC volleyball regular season saw Delaware State and Howard tie for the regular season title, with both programs going 12-2 in league play and splitting their head-to-head series. The two programs then met in the championship match of the conference tournament, with Howard emerging with a 3-1 win over the Hornets to claim the program's sixth MEAC title in the last seven seasons. Delaware State set a new program record in 2021 with 26 wins and was rewarded with a bid to the National Volleyball Invitational Championship (NIVC), giving the MEAC two teams in WEEK 10 play.

2021 MEAC VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

• The 2021 MEAC Volleyball Championship was held Friday through Sunday, Nov. 19-21, in Burr Gymnasium on the campus of Howard University. Howard was the top seed in the eight-team field after winning the tiebreaker over Delaware State, and the top seeds held form throughout -- the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds, Howard and Delaware State, faced off in the championship match in front of a raucous crowd and a national ESPNU audience. The Bison -- who were making their seventh trip to the championship match in eight years -- won the match in four sets to claim their sixth MEAC volleyball title in the last seven seasons

MEAC QUICK FACTS

The Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) enters its 52nd year of intercollegiate competition with the 2021-22 academic school year. Located in Norfolk, Va., the MEAC is made up of eight outstanding historically black institutions across the Atlantic coastline: Coppin State University, Delaware State University, Howard University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, Norfolk State University, North Carolina Central University and South Carolina State University.

The MEAC sponsors 14 Division I (FCS) sports with automatic qualifying bids for NCAA postseason competition: bowling, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's track and field, softball and volleyball.

In 1969, a bold ad hoc group of innovators long associated with intercollegiate athletics met in Durham, N.C. to discuss the feasibility of organizing a new conference. From these discussions, they formed a steering and planning committee to fully investigate the idea, presented a detailed report with recommendations to interested collegiate institutions, and constructed a workshop to outline proposals.

After selecting a proposal and adopting a program, seven institutions (Delaware State College, Howard University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, North Carolina A&T State University, North Carolina Central University and South Carolina State College) agreed to become the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. Their major objective was to establish, organize and supervise an intercollegiate athletic program among a compact group of education institutions of high academic standards with a sound philosophy of co-curricular activities. The conference agreed to seek Division I status for its sports.

The conference was confirmed in 1970, kicking off its first season of competition in football in 1971.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Fans and media members are invited to follow the latest Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference football news through social media. The MEAC Twitter feed may be accessed @MEACSports and the conference's official Facebook page is available @MEACSports. The MEAC's Instagram handle is @MEACSports, as is the conference's TikTok handle.

WEEKLY RELEASE & STATISTICS

Media members may access PDF versions of the complete weekly release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, on www.MEAC-sports.com. Regular updates of the weekly release will be distributed via e-mail from the conference office. To be included on the distribution list, send an e-mail request to Jeff Cunningham at cunninghamj@themeac.com.

ANNUAL AWARDS

The MEAC will name first and second all-conference teams, all-rookie team, league player of the year, rookie and coach of the year. The awards will be announced in mid-November, prior to the 2022 MEAC Volleyball Championship.

FOR THE RECORD BOOKS

• Delaware State enjoyed its best volleyball season in decades in 2021, setting a program record for wins in a season with 26 and boasting the ninth-best winning percentage in all of Div. I. At one point in the season, the Hornets had won 16 straight matches -- also a program record -- and they were within sight of their first MEAC volleyball title since 1986.

POSTSEASON PLAY

• 2021 marked the first time since 2019, and third time overall, that the MEAC had two programs in postseason play, with Howard in the NCAA Tournament and Delaware State competing in the National Volleyball Invitational Championship (NVIC). In 2021, Howard was the MEAC's NCAA representative, while Delaware State earned a bid to the NVIC.

2022 VOLLEYBALL PRESEASON ALL-MEAC TEAM

Coppin State graduate outside hitter Miajavon Coleman was selected as the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Volleyball Preseason Player of the Year, presented by TowneBank. Defending champion Howard was selected as the preseason favorite to win the conference.

All awards were voted on by the conference's head coaches and sports information directors.

Coleman, the 2021 MEAC Player of the Year, led the MEAC with 352 total kills, 3.63 kills per set and 3.89 points per set in 2021, and she ranks eighth in MEAC history in career kills and fifth in career points. Coleman also ranked eighth in the MEAC in digs per set (3.00) and is one of just two players in the MEAC ranked in both categories.

A Div. I All-America Honorable Mention and All-East Region selection in 2021, Coleman finished the season with 375 kills, nine aces and 27 blocks. She had 18 matches with double-digit kills this past season, and she became the first player in Eagles history with a 20-kill, 20-dig match when she racked up 24 kills and 23 digs in a match against North Carolina Central.

Howard, which shared the regular-season title with Delaware State in 2021 before winning its sixth MEAC tournament championship in the last seven seasons, earned nine first-place votes and racked up 118 points in being named preseason favorite. Delaware State totaled 109 points and four first-place votes to come in second.

Coppin State was third with two first-place votes and 103 points, with North Carolina Central picked to finish fourth with 70 points. Maryland Eastern Shore, Norfolk State (one first-place vote), Morgan State and South Carolina State rounded out the predicted order of finish.

Joining Coleman on the Preseason All-MEAC team were fellow Eagles Paola Caten, Ashley Roman and Ammaarah Williams, Delaware State's Alondra Maldonado and Howard University's Bria Woodard and Cimone Woodard.

PREDICTED ORDER OF FINISH

School (First-Place Votes)	Points
1. Howard (9)	118
2. Delaware State (4)	109
3. Coppin State (2)	103
4. North Carolina Central	70
5. Maryland Eastern Shore	63
6. Norfolk State (1)	60
