THE CONFERENCE

MEAC HISTORY

In 1969, a bold ad hoc group of innovators long associated with intercollegiate athletics met in Durham, N.C. to discuss the feasibility of organizing a new conference. From these discussions, they formed a steering and planning committee to fully investigate the idea, presented a detailed report with recommendations to interested collegiate institutions, and constructed a workshop to outline proposals.

After selecting a proposal and adopting a program, seven institutions (Delaware State College, Howard University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, North Carolina A&T State University, North Carolina Central University and South Carolina State College) agreed to become the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. Their major objective was to establish, organize and supervise an intercollegiate athletic program among a compact group of education institutions of high academic standards with a sound philosophy of co-curricular activities. The conference agreed to seek Division I status for its sports.

The conference was confirmed in 1970, kicking off its first season of competition in football in 1971.

In 1978, the MEAC reached a milestone when it selected Kenneth A. Free to be its first full-time commissioner. Free served the conference for 18 years before stepping down in May 1996. In July 1996, Charles S. Harris was named commissioner, and he served in that capacity until April 2002. On Sept. 1, 2002, Dr. Dennis E. Thomas was named commissioner and served in the position until retiring on Dec. 31, 2021.

The conference's first expansion occurred in October 1979, when Bethune-Cookman College and Florida A&M University were voted into the MEAC as new members. Original members Morgan State, North Carolina Central and Maryland Eastern Shore withdrew from the conference at the end of the 1979-80 fiscal year; Maryland Eastern Shore was readmitted in 1981 and Morgan State returned in 1984. Florida A&M opted to resign in 1984, but rejoined the conference in 1986. Coppin State College was granted admittance in 1985, becoming the ninth member institution.

The MEAC expanded again in the 1990s with the inclusion of Hampton University (1995) and Norfolk State University (1997). The conference grew once again in 2007, adding Winston-Salem State University. Winston-Salem State, a MEAC provisional member, did not meet the qualifications for Division I and withdrew from the conference following the 2009-10 academic and athletic season.

On July 1, 2010, the MEAC made its most recent expansion with the admittance of North Carolina Central and Savannah State University. On Sept. 10, 2014, the MEAC admitted Augusta University (formerly Georgia Regents University) as an associate member for men's golf.

The MEAC added UAB and Monmouth in the summer of 2018, effective for the 2018-19 season, as associate members for women's bowling.

As of July 1, 2018, Hampton resigned from the MEAC. Savannah State followed suit on June 30, 2019.

On June 8, 1980, the MEAC was classified as a Division I conference by the NCAA; prior to that year, the conference had operated on the Division II level. The month after achieving Division I status, the MEAC received automatic qualification to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship. Currently, the conference has automatic qualifying bids for NCAA postseason play in men's basketball (since 1981), women's basketball (since 1982), women's bowling (since 2018), softball (since 1995), men's and women's tennis (since 1998) and volleyball (since 1994).

The MEAC declares champions in six men's sports – basketball, cross country, football, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field and tennis – and eight women's sports – basketball, bowling, cross country, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, softball, tennis and volleyball.

The MEAC initiated cross country in 1980, and North Carolina A&T State earned the inaugural men's crown. The first women's cross country championship took place a year later, with Howard winning the first of its seven titles.

Indoor track & field was also added in 1981, with South Carolina State winning the men's title and Howard taking the women's crown.

Tennis and golf returned as MEAC-sponsored sports in 1981 after a five-year hiatus. South Carolina State won all seven of the conference's golf championships from 1972-83 before the sport was discontinued following the 1983 championship.

In wrestling, Morgan State won 13 of 24 conference championships before the sport was discontinued in 1995.

Baseball, which began in 1972, was discontinued following the 1977 season. It was brought back as a MEAC-governed sport, along with women's volleyball, in 1983. Women's softball became a MEAC-sanctioned sport in 1992.

Bowling was officially sanctioned as a MEAC sport in 1999. The MEAC was the first conference to secure NCAA sanctioning for women's bowling by adopting the club sport prior to the 1996-97 school year. The MEAC is one of eight conferences to earn an automatic berth to the NCAA Bowling National Championship.

Men's golf returned as a MEAC-sponsored sport in 2014, with six teams participating in the conference championship. Bethune-Cookman was crowned the 2014 champion; the Wildcats also won the 2014 PGA Minority Collegiate Championship.

Former associate member Augusta University earned its first MEAC golf title in 2015, the institution's first year of conference competition, before repeating in 2016, 2017 and 2018. Augusta's Broc Everett won the 2018 NCAA individual championship in a playoff, the first such victory in Jaguars history.

Dear Coaches, Student-Athletes, and Supporters:

It is my honor and privilege to welcome you to the 2025 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Softball Championship.

I would like to give special congratulations to the student-athletes for their achievements in the classroom and in the realm of competition. Handling the demands of athletics and academics shows your commitment to excellence through hard work, dedication, and discipline.

Additionally, I would like to recognize the coaches for doing an outstanding job with your student-athletes.

I would also like to thank our fans for your support and encouragement of the MEAC, our institutions, and our student-athletes. It is an important component to our success.

Best wishes to all of the competitors and their coaches. May the best team win.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

2024 CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

SOFTBALL

After running through the consolation bracket to reach Championship Saturday, the top-seeded Lady Bears of Morgan State (MSU) defeated No. 3 Coppin State twice to win the 2024 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Softball Championship title.

With the win, top-seeded Morgan State brought home their second conference title in program history. MSU earned the MEAC's automatic bid to the 2024 NCAA Softball Tournament where they faced Duke in the opening round.

The Lady Bears held the Eagles scoreless in game two while posting one run in the bottom of the first inning and a five-spot in the bottom of the fifth.

Morgan State got on the board initially in the bottom of the first inning after Melissa Paz hit an RBI single to center field that drove in Amber Rivas.

Three scoreless innings pursued between the teams before the Lady Bears struck again in the bottom of the fifth inning as Victoria Fletcher hit an RBI single to right center that sent Chandler Mitchell across home plate. With the bases loaded, sophomore Gianna Ettore hit a grand slam over the left field fence that nearly hit the NSU baseball outfield wall to put Morgan State up 6-0. Scoring on the play was Mia Ewell, Cassie White and Maia Wilkins.

Ettore led the Lady Bears with four RBI going 1-of-3 at the plate with one hit and run. Rivas, Fletcher and Ky'Anah Lake all recorded two hits, while six other MSU players recorded a hit in the game. In the pitchers circle, senior Emily Raubuch threw a complete game, one-hitter while striking out four batters with 15 fource outs on 22 batters faced.

Head Coach Larry Hineline was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Coach while Victoria Fletcher was the tournament Most Outstanding Player.
