

Scots Place 3 Players on All Conference

MONMOUTH — Monmouth College placed three men — Tackle Laird Willson, Guard Gary Allen and Halfback Barry Frakes — on the All-Midwest Conference football team announced today at the regular fall meeting of the conference.

Only the league champions, St. Olaf of Northfield, Minn., with five men on the first honor 11, had more men honored.

Monmouth placed fourth in the conference race.

Paul Stalker, Knox end, was named to the second team.

The first two teams are as follows:

First team: ends—Charles Cianciola, Lawrence, and John Gustafson, St. Olaf; tackles—Ted Thompson, St. Olaf, and Laird Willson, Monmouth; guards—Gary Allen, Monmouth, and Ronnie Frank, Grinnell; center — Paul Quan, St. Olaf; backs — Clint Sathrum, St. Olaf, Roger Ole, St. Olaf. Ed Grosse, Lawrence, Barry Frakes, Monmouth, and Cas Passalino, Coe.

Second team: ends—Wayne Fisher, Coe, and Paul Stalker, Knox; tackles — Jim Overby, Lawrence, and Bob Funston, Cornell; guards — Douglas Olson, St. Olaf, and Steve Swanson, St. Olaf; center—Tom Johnson, Coe; backs — Jack Elgin, Coe, Jim Galloway, Cornell, Don Hager, Grinnell, Carl Stumpf, Lawrence, Dick Werdahl, St. Olaf.

W
L
A

E Ret
is ing
in day
of tion
cal
?
bac
Er
wh
Ra
nie
ma
wa
cle
Pr
he cal

P
W

m tic
he hi
E