

1955

Knox Selects Co-Captain Coaches Pick Midwest All

CHICAGO (AP) — Six places went to Coe College, undefeated champion of the Midwest Conference, on the 1955 All-Conference football team selected by the loop's coaches at a meeting in Chicago Thursday.

Four holdovers from the 1954 team were end George Cilek, quarterback Elliot Day and halfback Wayne Phillips, all of Coe, and tackle Dick McAuliffe of Carleton.

Cilek and his teammate, fullback John Rosenberg, were the only unanimous choices.

First Team

Ends—Ervin Mikkelson, St. Olaf and Cilek; tackles—McAuliffe and Hovold Helseth, St. Olaf; guards—David Bolstorff, St. Olaf, and Roger Higgins, Coe; center—Dennis Armstrong, Coe; quarterback — Day; halfbacks — Donald Voss, Carleton, and Phillips; fullback—Rosenberg.

Second Team

Ends—Ralph Hagberg, St. Olaf, and Tom Tubbs, Ripon; tackles—Charles Machacek, Carleton, and John Kohl, Coe; guards—John Lawren, Grinnell, and Robert Meyer, Lawrence; center — Paul Quam, St. Olaf; quarterback — Mark Reinertson, St. Olaf; halfbacks—Bernard Von Wald, St. Olaf, and Frank Stanicek, Knox; fullback—Duanne Brekken, St. Olaf.

KNOX CO-CAPTAINS—George Olson (top) and Frank Stanicek (bottom) have been chosen co-captains of the College football team. Olson, who comes from Elmhu

2 Games Hold Key to Rose

D I D . I