MINES GAMEDAY
#5 COLORADO SCHOOL OF MINES VS. REGIS
OCT. 21, 2018 • STERMOLE SOCCER STADIUM

With the RMAC regular-season championship in sight, #5 Mines hosts crosstown rival Regis on Senior Day this afternoon.

SENIOR DAY
Prior to today’s game, we will honor our nine seniors as they play for the final team at home in the regular season: Acacia Ortiz, Kortney Descamp, Peyton Sanders, Jennifer Kendall, Riley Stein, Emily Townsend, Dominique Rivera, Taylor McRae, and Hannah Stoner. The group has been incredibly successful at Mines, going 66-13-5 (.815) over the last four seasons with three NCAA Tournament appearances (including the 2016 Elite Eight and 2017 Sweet 16), two RMAC regular-season, and two RMAC Tournament titles - with more to come. Since 2015, they have been nationally ranked in 33 out of 41 weekly polls, reaching a high of #5 in 2016 and #4 this season.

HOME SWEET HOME
Mines has won 12 straight games at Stermole Stadium and conceded only one goal in that span, which dates back to a 1-0 overtime win against Western State on Oct. 15, 2017.

MINES CRUISES PAST BHSU 7-0
Nicole LaTourette’s hat trick helped Mines beat Black Hills State 7-0 on Friday. The Orediggers dominated the game as they also had goals from Kaylee Kennedy, Jennifer Kendall, Taylor McRae, and Eliot Edwards.

IN THE POLLS
Mines dropped one spot to #5 in this week’s latest United Soccer Coaches poll. More importantly, Mines topped the first NCAA Regional Rankings released this week, a key indicator of NCAA Tournament selection and seeding.

COMING UP
Mines will end the regular season at Colorado Christian next Saturday at 1:30 p.m. Mines will host an RMAC Tournament quarterfinal on Tuesday, Oct. 30 at a time to be announced.

EYING THE PRIZE
A win today would clinch Mines at least a share of its fifth RMAC regular-season championship in six years, giving the Orediggers a three-point lead over UCCS with one game remaining and the tiebreaker over the Mountain Lions. A loss by UCCS today at MSU Denver would also clinch the title for Mines, regardless of this game’s result.
