LAST WEEK
Mines faced one of its toughest tests of the season, but got away from an upset-minded Azusa Pacific in a 42-27 non-conference win last Saturday. The unbeaten Orediggers improved to 8-0 for the first time since 2004 with an important regional win against the Cougars (5-3), who were receiving votes in last week’s top 25 poll. Mines did it behind Cameron Mayberry, who ran for 186 yards and three touchdowns, and Isaac Harker, who was an efficient 29-of-40 for 316 yards and three touchdowns. Mines got defensive stops early in the game, but its biggest came late in the fourth quarter when Logan Bock’s fourth-down sack stopped a charging APU team down a single score. Mayberry’s 25-yard touchdown run with 1:15 left in the game sealed the victory.

OREDIGGERS IN CONTROL OF THE RMAC
Mines remains the only unbeaten team in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference at 8-0 overall and 7-0 in league play. The Orediggers are a game ahead of CSU-Pueblo (6-1 RMAC), who they beat in week 3, and two games ahead of their next two opponents, Dixie State and Chadron State, who are both 5-2 in the RMAC.

OFFENSIVE FIREWORKS
Today’s game features the top two total offenses in NCAA Division II with South Dakota Mines (1st, 555.3 ypg) and Colorado School of Mines (2nd, 539.6 ypg). Both have relatively balanced attacks with the ability to throw and run, and both teams rank in the national top-five in first downs and third-down conversions.

IN THE POLLS
Mines remained at #6 in this week's AFCA top 25 poll for the second straight week. The Orediggers are one of five Super Region 4 teams in the top 10 along with #1 Minnesota State, #5 Minnesota-Duluth, #8 Tarleton State, and #10 Midwestern State. Mines also debuted at #3 in Super Region 4 the NCAA regional rankings; the regional rankings are a key indicator of NCAA Tournament selection, with the top seven ranked teams in SR4 making it in.

OREGINS VS. SDSMT SERIES
This will be the 20th meeting of the Mines ... The Orediggers lead the all-time series 19-1 ... SDSMT got their first win in the series last year in a 37-29 victory in Rapid City ... It has been a remarkably high-scoring series, with the Orediggers averaging 54.2 points per game over their last 10 meetings ... The Hardrockers have played at Marv Kay Stadium twice, with the Orediggers winning 63-28 in the stadium’s inaugural game in 2015 and 56-28 in 2016.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME
With last week’s win over Azusa Pacific, Mines ran its home winning streak to 13 games. The Orediggers have not lost at Marv Kay Stadium in 770 days, since falling to Colorado Mesa in week 3 of the 2016 season, and are 18-2 overall since the facility opened in 2015.

OLIVER NEARS MINES RECEIVING YARDS RECORD

MINES GAME DAY
MinesAthletics.com | @MinesAthletics | #HelluvaEngineer from surpassing Justin Gallas, who caught 3,561 yards between 2002 and 2005. Gallas’ mark stands fifth in RMAC history, as well.

SAFETY FIRST
Colorado School of Mines has scored three safeties this year, a program record since the season statistic was first compiled by the NCAA beginning in 1992. Logan Bock is responsible for two of those and James Kohlschmidt has the other; Bock also has a defensive touchdown to his credit this year, as does Luke Jeter, both coming on fumbles.

STOPPING THE RUN
Mines’ run-stopping success has been key for the defense this year, as the Orediggers lead the RMAC allowing only 105.8 yards per game on the ground. They race off this week against the nation’s #3 rusher in SDSMT’s Connor Silveria (1,151 yards). Averie Mansfield leads the team and the front seven in tackles with 43 total tackles and 6.5 for a loss; Logan Bock is third on the team with 39 total tackles and leads Mines with 9.0 tackles for loss. Mines has held opponents to 75 or fewer yards on the ground four times this year, including 25 vs. Adams State and 53 vs. Western State.

RICIEST GAME IN FOOTBALL?
Today’s game might not feature huge sponsorships and million-dollar payouts, but it may very well be the richest game in NCAA Division II taking into account the players on the field. Both Colorado School of Mines and South Dakota School of Mines and Technology routinely rank among the top universities in the nation in terms of graduate salaries; according to PayScale.com’s annual study, the average Oredigger will earn $74,100 right out of school and $139,300 at mid-career, with the average Hardrocker earning $65,800 in their first year and $113,700 at midcareer. With their rosters combined, the two teams’ student-athletes stand to make $14.6 million a year right out of school and $26.6 million a year at mid-career.

LOOKING AHEAD
Mines visits Dixie State next weekend before returning home Nov. 10 to host Chadron State. The Chadron State game will be Senior Day and Military Appreciation Day.
