Mines continues its young season with a dual against Northeastern JC tonight. The Orediggers won their opener a week ago vs. Otero JC.

LAST WEEK
Mines got its new season off to a terrific start, taking bonus points in eight matches to beat Otero JC 46-3 in the season opener last Thursday. The Orediggers collected five falls in the match, four coming in the first period thanks to Matt Lavengood, Noah Ottum, Skyler Lykins, and Robert Gambrell. The match was also notable for the returns of several Orediggers as Lavengood and Gambrell notched wins coming off redshirt seasons a year ago, and Lykins hit the mat in a Mines singlet for the first time since 2014-15.

On Saturday at Wyoming’s Cowboy Open, Mines had four placewinners as Connor Ventura was the runner-up in the Elite 184 bracket and Jake Stogdill second in the Amateur 125 class, while Ryan Fidel and Drew Hinkle earned third-place spots at Ama-

Ottum went 6-3 in duals with four majors, three falls, and three tech falls to generate 26 team dual points. In tournament action, Ottum was fifth at RMAC Championships and third at the Hastings Cusatis Open.
