Camp Director
Brittany Simpson
Brittany Simpson just finished her 5th year as the head coach after being appointed to the position in April, 2012. Simpson led the Orediggers to the program’s best season in school history winning the RMAC Championship and earning an at large bid to the NCAA tournament with a 21-7 record. Coach Simpson was also named RMAC Coach of year and the Orediggers had 3 all conference honorees. Prior to taking over as head coach, Simpson (formerly Rowley) served in the role of assistant coach at Mines for four seasons. She was a member of the coaching staff that took Mines to its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division II Tournament during the 2009-10 season, in addition to helping lead the Orediggers to a share of the RMAC East Division Title in 2008-09. Mines posted 19 total victories and 14 conference wins during the 2008-09 season with both of those marks setting program records. Prior to her arrival at Mines, Simpson was a graduate assistant at UC-Colorado Springs during the 2006-07 season. She has also worked as the Assistant Director of the Colorado School of Mines Women’s Basketball Camps for the past four seasons, and also spent time as a coach at the University of Colorado Individual Camp in 2011. In addition, Simpson also spent time as the Assistant Director/Lead Coach at the UC-Colorado Springs Women’s Basketball Camp in 2007 and was a Lead Coach at the Mesa State Individual Camp in 2005-06.

Assistant Camp Director
Ashleigh Ackerman
Ashleigh Ackerman just completed her third overall season with Mines Women’s Basketball. Ackerman spent her first season in Golden as a volunteer assistant coach where she aided in practice, game management, scouting and special events and summer camps, while working for Denver Public Schools. During her second season with the team, Mines Women’s Basketball posted the most successful season in program history. Ackerman has also coached at the high school and NCAA Division III levels and has worked as a camp staff member at the University of Colorado, UC-Colorado Springs, Colorado State University-Pueblo and the University of Texas.

Liability Waiver

In consideration of Colorado School of Mines making arrangements for and permitting and assisting Camper to take part in this Camp, the undersigned Camper and Parent/Guardian, if appropriate, agree to hold harmless, release, indemnify and forever discharge Colorado School of Mines, and its Board of Trustees, officer, directors, employees, agents, and any persons acting on their behalf, as well as their heirs, executors and assigns, from and against any and all liability, claims, demands, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) arising out of or in any way connected with any bodily injury or property damage in any way relating to or arising out of Camper's participation in the Camp, even if the liability, claims, demands, costs and expenses may arise, in whole or in part, out of the negligence or carelessness of the persons or entities mentioned above. The Camper and Parent/Guardian are aware that the Camp may include certain risks and dangers. The Camper and Parent/Guardian understand that risks and dangers can range from minor personal injuries to major injuries. To the best of their knowledge, Camper and Parent/Guardian are not aware of any mental or physical disability or health-related reasons or problems that would hinder or otherwise prevent Camper from safely participating in the Camp. Camper and Parent/Guardian understand that they are solely responsible for any costs arising out of any bodily injury or property damage sustained through or arising from Camper's involvement in the Camp. Camper's and Parent/Guardian expressly agrees that the Liability Waiver Form is intended to be as broad and inclusive as permitted by the laws of the State of Colorado, and that if any portion herein is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the balance shall continue in full legal force and effect.
