Orediggers chasing first win of 2019 as they host Dixie State inside Lockridge Arena.

LAST NIGHT
The Colorado School of Mines Women’s Basketball team hosted Westminster Friday night and a defensive battle ensued inside Lockridge Arena. Despite six total blocks and outrebounding the Griffins, Mines eventually fell to WC which remains tied for first in the RMAC standings. Raven Herrera led the way for Mines with 16 points. Nicole Archambeau added 13 points and nine rebounds.

SCOUTING DIXIE STATE
Dixie State’s women traveled more than 600 miles (621 according to Google Maps) before losing Friday evening, 59-54, at UCCS. DSU now sits 6-4 overall and 2-4 in the RMAC. The Trailblazers have four double-digit victories with one win coming in triple overtime against St. Martin’s. Similar to Westminster, Dixie State carries three players on its roster averaging double-digit scoring numbers. The leader of that trio is Mariah Martin with 13.7 per game. Lisa VanCampen is a force on the glass with 7.4 rebounds per contest. She also has 14 steals and 13 blocks. In the national statistical rankings, DSU is #23 in DII in three-point field goals per game and #25 in steals per game. It would appear Dixie State loves the long ball and digs defense.

TRAILBLAZERS, REBELS & BISON – OH MY!
The nickname Trailblazers is relatively new for Dixie State. Originally known as the Rebels, DSU attempted to adopt the nickname Red Storm in 2009 in an effort to distance itself from deep South associations. The change was unsuccessful and the University made the change to Trailblazers in 2016. The name is defined as, “a person who makes a new track through wild country,” while the bison image is a carryover from the Red Storm era and is claimed as, “an authentic and worthy nod to southwestern Utah’s hardscrabble history. The bison’s name is Brooks which is a reference to the school’s first student, Samuel Brooks. And now you know.

SERIES HISTORY
There is none. Saturday marks the first-ever meeting between Mines and Dixie State. However, the rivalry may not last long as rumors have DSU eyeing a jump to NCAA Division I.

LOOKING AHEAD
Mines hits the road next to face Adams State and Fort Lewis Jan. 11-12. Live stats and video of the game will be available at www.minesathletics.com.
