Camp Director
Brittany Simpson

One of the most successful head coaches in Mines women's basketball history, Coach Simpson begins her 8th season as the head women's basketball coach at Colorado School of Mines in 2019-20. During her tenure, the team has qualified for the RMAC tournament five times, finishing in the top four of the conference four times. Simpson led Mines to the best season in program history in 2015-16 as the Orediggers finished 21-7 overall record with a 19-3 mark in league play which earned them its first ever outright RMAC Championship. Coach Simpson was also named RMAC Coach of the Year and the Orediggers had 3 all-conference honorees. Prior to taking over as head coach, Simpson served in the role of assistant coach at Mines for four seasons. She was a member of the coaching staff that took Mines to its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division II Tournament during the 2009-10 season, in addition to helping lead the Orediggers to a share of the RMAC East Division Title in 2008-09. Prior to her arrival at Mines, Simpson was a graduate assistant at UC-Colorado Springs during the 2006-07 season. In addition, Simpson has served as Assistant Camp Director/ Camp Director at Mines since 2009, as well as the Assistant Director/Lead Coach at the UC-Colorado Springs Women’s Basketball Camp in 2007 and a Lead Coach at the Mesa State Individual Camp in 2005-06.

Assistant Camp Director
Ashleigh Ackerman

The 2018-2019 season marks the 5th overall season with Mines Women’s Basketball for Coach Ackerman. Ackerman spent her first season in Golden while working for Denver Public Schools. Before Mines, Ackerman spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Colorado College. Ackerman undertakes individual player development, practice planning, recruiting and statistical analysis. Ackerman has also coached at the high school level and has worked as a camp staff member at the University of Colorado, UC-Colorado Springs, Colorado State University-Pueblo Colorado School of Mines Men’s Basketball and the University of Texas. In addition, Ackerman organizes an annual girls basketball camp with a focus on character development in her hometown of Trinidad, CO.
