MEC TOURNAMENT NOTES ...

• The Mountain East Conference will crown its first women's basketball champion this week-end in Charleston, W.Va., at the Charleston Civic Center.

• The quarterfinals will be played on Thursday, March 6, the semifinals will be played on Saturday, March 8, and the tournament will conclude on Sunday, March 9.

• Four teams received byes to the quarterfinal round: regular season champion Glenville State, along with West Liberty, Charleston and West Virginia State.

• Charleston enters the tournament with the longest winning streak in the league at five games.

• Glenville State and West Liberty are 9-1 in their last 10 games coming into the tournament.

• All games from the Charleston Civic Center will be broadcast live via the Internet on MountainEast.org.

• The media-only live stat link for all games at the MEC Tournament is:

<http://mec.statbroadcast.com>

• The MEC All-Tournament team will consist of eight players, including the Most Valuable Player. The team will be selected by members of the media and the MEC office.

... MORE MEC NOTES

• As of Feb. 28, the Mountain East Conference had the highest scoring average of any league in NCAA Division II with 74.21 points per game.

• Also as of Feb. 28, Glenville State led the country in scoring offense, assist/turnover ratio, steals, three-point field goals and turnover margin. West Virginia State's 7.3 blocks per game are the second most in the NCAA.

• Shepherd had the toughest strength of schedule of any team in the MEC with its opposition having a winning percentage of .550

• Three teams from the MEC were in the top 10 in the NCAA Atlantic Region rankings released on Feb. 26. Glenville State was ranked second, Fairmont State was sixth and Glenville State was 10th. Teams ranked in the top eight in the region at the end of the regular season receive a bid to the NCAA Tournament. The NCAA Tournament selection show will be Sunday, March 9, at 10 p.m.

• The MEC was 8-9 against teams from the PSAC and 6-4 against teams from the CIAA in 2013-14. The league was 22-32 in all non-conference games.

• Charleston and UVa-Wise were 4-0 in non-conference play, while Glenville State went 5-1.

ABOUT THE MEC

• On July 1, 2013, 12 charter members officially moved to the Mountain East Conference: Concord University, Fairmont State University, Glenville State College, Notre Dame College, Shepherd University, the University of Charleston, Urbana University, West Liberty University, West Virginia State University, Wheeling Jesuit University, West Virginia Wesleyan College and the University of Virginia's College at Wise.

• The Mountain East Conference sponsors championships in 16 sports: football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball, volleyball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's tennis, and men's and women's track and field.

• The conference offices are located in Bridgeport, W.Va., less than half a mile off of Exit 124 on Interstate 79. Located in north central West Virginia, Bridgeport offers a centralized location for the 12 institutions, which spans throughout West Virginia, and stretches into central and northern Ohio as well as southwestern Virginia.

MEC TOURNAMENT NOTES...

• The Mountain East Conference will crown its first men's basketball champion this weekend in Charleston, W.Va., at the Charleston Civic Center.

• The quarterfinals will be played on Friday, March 7, the semifinals will be played on Saturday, March 8, and the tournament will conclude on Sunday, March 9.

• Four teams received byes to the quarterfinal round: regular season champion West Liberty, along with Charleston, Glenville State and Fairmont State.

• All games from the Charleston Civic Center will be broadcast live via the Internet on MountainEast.org.

• The media-only live stat link for all games at the MEC Tournament is:

<http://mec.statbroadcast.com>

• The MEC All-Tournament team will consist of eight players, including the Most Valuable Player. The team will be selected by members of the media and the MEC office.

... MORE MEC NOTES

• Six teams from the MEC were in the top 10 in the NCAA Atlantic Region rankings released on Feb. 26. Charleston was fourth, Shepherd was fifth, Glenville State was eighth, Fairmont State was ninth and West Virginia Wesleyan. Through two weeks, MEC teams have held 10 of the available 20 spots in the regional rankings.

• As of Feb. 28, the Mountain East Conference had the highest scoring average of any league in NCAA Division II with 80.50 points per game.

• Also as of Feb. 28, West Liberty topped NCAA Division II in scoring margin (+22.0) and scoring offense (104.7).

• UVa-Wise is in its second year of NCAA Division II candidacy and not eligible for NCAA statistical recognition, but no one in NCAA Division II has more double-doubles (24) than Deon Boyce. Boyce would also be the national leader in rebounds per game with 15.0 per game.

• WJU's Eric Siefert leads the country in minutes played averaging nearly a full game at 39:23.

• GSC's Lamar Mallory makes 68 percent of his shots from the field, which is second in NCAA Division II.

• Three teams from the MEC were in the top 10 in the NCAA Atlantic Region rankings released on Feb. 26. Glenville State was ranked second, Fairmont State was sixth and Glenville State was 10th. Teams ranked in the top eight in the region at the end of the regular season receive
