NOTEWORTHY

In addition to the league's Player and Newcomer of the Week selections, several conference players had notable performances, including:

Vanessa Markert (BRAD) - Markert scored a team-high 19 points on 8-for-14 shooting and led the Braves with seven rebounds and three blocks in 25 minutes as she helped Bradley to a 69-56 season-opening victory over Omaha. She was limited four points and three rebounds in seven minutes in the first half due to foul trouble as Bradley held a slim 23-22 lead at the break. In the second half, Markert made six of her final eight shots from the field and collected 15 points, four boards and three blocks over the final 20 minutes to help the Braves pull away down the stretch for the victory.

Sara Rhine (DU) - Poured in a team-high 19 points on 9-of-11 shooting and added eight rebounds in season opening win over Milwaukee ... first action for the Bulldogs since December 2017 after missing most of 2016-17 season due to injury ... added one steal against the Panthers ... scored a team-high 14 points in loss at No. 11/11 Oregon ... made 6-of-14 from the field ... added career-high three steals against the Ducks ... 2015-16 MVC Freshman of the Year ... 2015-16 All-MVC First Team.

Simone Goods (ILS) - Simone added a double-double in her first official game as an ISU Redbird with 22 points and 11 rebounds. She went 8-for-16 in the field and 6-for-9 at the free throw line. Despite Goods' efforts the Redbirds dropped to Oakland 64-43.

Ashley Taia (INS) - Taia paced the Sycamores in their season-opening game against Saint Louis with 22 points on just 6-of-9 shooting. The Brisbane, Australia product drained 3-of-4 shots from behind the arc in the game and collected two rebounds, two assists and a steal in the loss.

Kylie Giebelhausen (SIU) - Kylie Giebelhausen scored a game-high 25 points to lead SIU to an 84-72 season opening win over UT Martin on Friday, Nov. 10. Giebelhausen shot an efficient 10-of-14 (71.4%) from the field, including 3-of-5 from three-point range in the win, and added four steals, three assists and a blocked shot in 38 minutes. Her 10 field goals tied a career-best, while it marked the sixth time in her career that the Preseason All-MVC selection has scored 20-plus points. All told, it was the third-highest scoring output of her career.

Shunseere Kent (BRAD) - Kent had a big impact in her Bradley debut with the junior college transfer helping highlight Bradley's 69-56 season-opening victory over Omaha with 17 points, six boards and one assist. With the Braves holding a slim one-point lead at the half, Kent made 6-of-8 from the field in the final 20 minutes and scored 13 of her 17 points in the second half. She also had four rebounds and one assist after halftime. Kent's 17 points were the most by a Brave in their debut since Kelly Krumwiede had 22 points in the 2005-06 season opener against Illinois-Chicago.

Katie Van Scyoc (DU) - Scored a career-high 11 points on 4-of-6 shooting in just 10 minutes against No. 11/11 Oregon ... knocked down a career-best three three-pointers ... added one rebound and one assist ... had two points against Milwaukee.

Kailyn Strawbridge (LUC) - Loyola freshman guard Kailyn Strawbridge turned heads in her collegiate debut as the Ramblers opened the 2017-18 campaign on the road at Fort Wayne on Sunday afternoon. Strawbridge poured in a game-high 32 points, the most by a Rambler since 2015, on 12-of-22 shooting. The Rockford, Ill. native, who also grabbed three rebounds, knocked down four shots from beyond the three-point arc.

Makenzie Silvey (SIU) - Makenzie Silvey scored 15 points in her collegiate debut to help the Salukis earn an 84-72 win over UT Martin on Friday, Nov. 10. The Glen Carbon, Ill. native shot 50% (5-of-10) from the floor and 57% (4-of-7) from behind the arc. She also added an assist and a steal in 21 minutes of work.

Back on Campus

In its first game on campus since 2000, Evansville posted an 89-81 season-opening victory over Murray State on Sunday in Meeks Family Fieldhouse. The win is the Aces seventh season-opening win in the past 11 years.

Noes How to Score

In her first game for the Purple Aces, Hannah Noe put together one of the better offensive performances in Evansville history. The SEMO graduate transfer scored 33 points, four shy of the program single-game record, knocking-down six threes and going nine-of-nine from the charity stripe. The 33 points is a career-best for Noe, whose previous career high was 29 points. BRADLEY (1-0)

Looking for 2-0 Start

Bradley heads into Wednesday's matchup with Lincoln University with a 1-0 record after posting a 69-56 victory over Omaha to open the season. The Braves have not opened a season with back-to-back wins since 2013-14 and the last time Bradley started a season with consecutive home victories was 2008-09 (21-10 overall).

Home Court Advantage

Last week's season-opening home victory against Omaha improved Bradley to 30-13 (.698) all-time in home openers, which includes a 7-3 record in home openers over the last 10 years. The Braves have won six of their last seven games at Renaissance Coliseum dating back to last season and Wednesday's game will mark the 99th contest for Bradley in the facility. During that seven-game stretch, the Braves are 6-0 when committing 15 or fewer turnovers after just 11 turnovers against Omaha.

Strong Debut

Junior college transfer Shunseere Kent had a strong debut, making 6-of-8 from the field in the second half as she helped highlight the 69-56 victory over Omaha to start the season with 17 points. Kent's 17 points were the most by a Brave in a debut since Kelly Krumwiede tallied 22 points against Illinois-Chicago as a freshman to start the 2005-06 season. Kent also added six rebounds and one assist in the victory.

DRAKE (1-1)

Another Opening W

Drake held off Milwaukee, 77-73, in the team's season opener Friday at the Knapp Center. The Bulldogs' victory over the Panthers in the preseason WNIT made it three straight seasons they have won the opener. It also improved Drake's all-time record against Milwaukee to 7-0.

Tough Test

The win over Milwaukee sent Drake to then No. 11 Oregon on Sunday in the WNIT quarterfinals. The Bulldogs battled the Ducks in the first two quarters and trailed by nine points early in the third quarter. However, a 13-2 run by Oregon, a 2017 Elite 8 participant, pushed them to the home victory. Oregon moved up to No. 10 in Monday's new AP poll.

Next Opponent TBD

Sunday's loss in Eugene, Ore., sent Drake to the consolation round three bracket of the WNIT. The Bulldogs will now wait to find out their third and final opponent in the prestigious preseason invite-only tournament. The Bulldogs will find out their opponent Tuesday night after Toledo plays at Louisville. They could play the loser of the Cardinals/Rockets game or Louisiana Lafayette or Liberty. Lafayette lost at Texas A&M and Liberty lost at Michigan on Sunday.

EVANSVILLE (1-0)

Stellar Debut

Graduate guard Hannah Noe recorded a career-high 33 points in the Aces' 89-81 victory over Murray State on Sunday. Noe's 33 points were the most for a Purple Ace in their debut since at least 2001-02 and the third-highest scoring output since then, as well.

Getting It Done at the Line

In their 89-81 victory over Murray State, Evansville hit 28 of its 32 attempts at the free throw line. The 28 made free throws were the most for the Purple Aces since knocking-down 33 against Indiana State on January 27, 2015.

Searching for a Milestone

Heading into Wednesday contest at Alabama A&M, the Purple Aces will be searching for the 500th victory in program history. If the Aces were to win at Alabama A&M on Wednesday night, UE would secure its first 2-0 start to the season since winning back-to-back contests to open the 2010-2011 campaign. Evansville hasn't started 2-0 with a victory on the road since 2005-2006. The win would also mark the Aces first win in a road opener since a 54-45 victory over Ball State on Nov. 9, 2012.

ILLINOIS STATE (0-1)

Top 75

Following the announcement of the 2018-19 recruiting class the Redbirds landed a spot in the top 75 by Preferred Athlete Scouting Services (PASS). The company then divided the top schools by major and mid-major conferences after more national letters of intent rolled in. Illinois State took first place within the Missouri Valley Conference schools at 13th. Missouri State followed with 14th, Southern Illinois at 28th, Valparaiso at 36th and Bradley was an honorable mention.

Goods Is Good

Simone Goods debuted as a Redbird on Saturday and shined on the court as she racked up a double-double with 22 points and 11 rebounds. The junior transfer joins ISU this year after leading Kirkwood CC to a perfect 37-0 record and an NJCAA Division II National Championship. Goods was also named as the 2017 Spalding NJCAA DII Women's Player of the Year.

Leaning On Saylor

Saylor is a newcomer to watch for the Redbirds. The freshman point guard put in the most minutes out of all her teammates on Saturday and added three rebounds, three points and two steals. Coach Gillespie on Saylor: "She is probably our best vocal leader, which is pretty cool from a coaching standpoint."

INDIANA STATE (0-1)

Back and Even Better

ISU's top scorer from a year ago returned to the floor in forward Ashley Taia. The senior scored a game-high 22 points against the Billikens on 6-for-9 shooting from the field and 3-for-4 from downtown. The Brisbane, Australia native was aggressive throughout, getting to the free throw line eight times and converting seven for the Sycamores. She added two rebounds, a pair of assists and a steal to her stat line in 36 minutes of action.

Defense as Usual

Indiana State started where they left off as the team opened against SLU Friday night. ISU held the Billikens who were tabbed second in the A10 to just 37.7 percent from the field and just 4-for-16 from behind the arc. ISU also recorded a pair of blocks and six steals as they turned SLU over 16 times in the game.

Looking Forward

Indiana State travels for the first time this season Friday to IUPUI before returning home for a return game against Florida Atlantic Monday. The team will then spend the Thanksgiving holiday in Mexico for the Cancun Challenge where the Sycamores will face a tough South Dakota squad and Montana. ISU will play five of their next seven games away from the Hulman Center.

LOYOLA (0-1)

What An Introduction

Loyola received a pair of standout efforts from freshmen Kailyn Strawbridge and Ellie Rice in a hard-fought 79-70 season-opening road loss to Fort Wayne on Sunday afternoon. Strawbridge erupted for a game-high 32 points, while Rice chipped in 20 points of her own as the Ramblers had two players reach the 20-point plateau for the first time since Feb. 21, 2016.

Winning Inside

The Ramblers outscored Fort Wayne by a final count of 36-28 in the painted area on Sunday afternoon. Loyola was outscored in all but five of its games in the category last season and its 36 points from Sunday would have ranked second amongst last season's totals.

Home Sweet Home

After opening the 2017-18 season on the road, Loyola returns home this week to open up a brief two-game homestand against Western Michigan and former Horizon League foe Youngstown State, respectively. Following their matchups with the Broncos and Penguins, Loyola will embark on a season-long five-game road trip that will not see it return to Rogers Park until a Dec. 10 clash with Green Bay.

MISSOURI STATE (0-1)

Opener Trouble

With Monday's setback at Ball State, Missouri State has now lost six consecutive season openers. Those losses have not foreshadowed the rest of the season, however, as the Lady Bears have gone on to the post-season three of the previous five years after dropping their season debut.

Veteran Starters

Missouri State used a starting lineup of Aubrey Buckley, Liza Fruendt, Danielle Gitzen, Audrey Holt and Alexa Willard in the season opener, a group that has each started at least 30 games in their Missouri State careers entering the year. Oddly enough, despite a combined 211 career starts before Monday's opener, those five had never all started the same game.

Freshmen Debuts

Four Missouri State players appeared their first career game Monday at Ball State. Emily Gartner, Abby Hipp, Elle Ruffridge and Sydney Schultz combined for five points, 11 rebounds and four assists in 49 minutes in their Lady Bear debuts.

UNI (0-1)

Tangle with the Cyclones

UNI and Iowa State have met 43 times on the hardwood, with the Cyclones owning a 36-7 advantage over the Panthers. ISU has won the last 15 meetings in the series, but the Panthers have come narrowly close to breaking that streak over the last few years. The Cyclones won the last meeting 76-68, while 2015's contest was only a 84-75 win for ISU.

Defenders of Warren

UNI is 132-18 under the direction of head coach Tanya Warren when holding an opponent to 60 points or less. Five of UNI's top-10 scoring defense averages in school history have come during the Warren era, while the Panthers ranked second in the Valley last season after holding opponents to 58.3 points per game. UNI was 19-0 in 2016-17 when holding foes to 60 points or less.

Double Trouble

Sophomore Megan Maahs turned in quite the performance to open the season, as she hauled in a career-high 16 rebounds and chipped in 10 points to earn her second double-double as a Panther. Maahs last earned a double-double after finishing with 11 points and 12 rebounds against Bradley on Jan. 15, 2017.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS (1-1)

Slight of Hand

SIU's 14 steals in the win over UT Martin on Nov. 10 were the most steals in a game during the Cindy Stein era and the most in a game by the Salukis since SIU swiped 17 against the Evansville Purple Aces on Jan. 2, 2010.

20+ Assists in Opener

SIU dished out 20 assists in the season opening win, which marked the first time since the 1996-97 season that Southern has opened a season with that many assists. The Salukis notched 29 assists in a 95-63 win over Murray State on Nov. 23, 1996.

Approaching 1,000 Points

Kylie Giebelhausen had 25 points in the win over the Skyhawks, the third-highest scoring output of her career. The East Peoria, Ill. native now needs 37 more points to become the 25th Saluki to reach 1,000 points for her career.

Late Start

The Nov. 16 opener will mark the latest Valpo has lifted the lid on the season since beginning the 2008-09 campaign on Nov. 19.

Crusaders In Home Openers

Valpo is 3-2 in its first home game of the season during the first five years under Tracey Dorow. Two of the most memorable games of the Dorow era have come in home openers – a 64-52 win over Big Ten foe Indiana in 2012 and a 91-57 victory over another in-state rival in Butler to begin the 2014-15 campaign. This marks the second straight year Valpo has started the home slate against IU Kokomo.

Home Winning Streak

Valpo carries a two-game home winning streak with it into Thursday's game. The Crusaders won their final two home games in 2016, accomplishing that feat for the first time since 2006-07. A victory would give Valpo three straight home wins for the first time since beating IU Northwest, SIU Edwardsville and IU Kokomo in December 2015.
