Vanessa Markert (BRAD) - Markert averaged a team-best 11.0 points per game in two games at the SEMO Thanksgiving Classic to go with 5.0 rebounds, 1.5 blocks and 1.5 steals per outing. In her first time coming off the bench this season, she helped the Bradley reserves score 35 points and she tallied five points, two boards and two blocks in 13 minutes in a victory over Nicholls State as the Braves opened a season with a 3-1 record for the first time since 2008-09. In the championship game of the tournament, Markert helped Bradley rally from a 17-point deficit to take a lead in the closing minutes as she finished with team highs of 17 points, eight boards, one assist, one block and a career-best three steals against SEMO. In fact, she had 13 points, five rebounds, one assist and two steals in the second half.

Sara Rhine (DU) - Averaged 17.7 points and 6.3 rebounds per game in three games last week ... poured in career-high 27 points, pulled down season-high 12 rebounds, swatted career-high three shots and added one assist in just 19 minutes in blowout win over Mississippi Valley State ... had 17 points on 7-of-13 shooting, grabbed four rebounds, handed out one assist and snagged one steal against George Mason in 25 minutes ... scored nine points and pulled down three rebounds against Wyoming in 22 minutes ... averaging team-best 16.0 points per game with 5.2 rebounds per game and shooting team-high 60 percent from the floor.

Brooke Dossett (UE) - Senior guard Brooke Dossett led the Purple Aces to a 79-53 victory over Westminster on Tuesday evening with a 21-point, 5-rebound, 5-assist performance... Dossett's 21 points are a season-high and second-most in her Evansville career...the win was the Purple Aces' 500th win in program history and helped push Evansville to .500 (2-2) on the season...with the win, UE extended its winning-streak in Meeks Family Fieldhouse to four games.

Ashley Taia (INS) - Senior forward Ashely Taia received Cancun Challenge All-Tournament Team honors after finishing the week shooting 44.4 percent (8-for-18) from the field and was an impressive 45.4 percent (5-for-11) in 3-point shooting. Her explosive shooting from downtown vaulted her to 35th in the nation so far this season in 3-point field goal shooting percentage as she is now hitting shots beyond the arc at a 50 percent rate this year. A native of Brisbane, Australia, Taia also tallied five rebounds, four assists, three steals and a block while scoring 21 points and averaging 28.5 minutes per game.

Liza Fruendt (MSU) - Liza Fruendt averaged 16 points, 2.5 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 2.0 steals in two games at the Junkanoo Jam, earning all-tournament honors. The sophomore's best game came on the road against Creighton after posting 15 points and 14 rebounds, before UNI fell in double overtime to Creighton. Maahs also added three total assists and a block in the three games this past week.

Nicole Martin (SIU) - Martin scored 14 points and added six rebounds in SIU's overtime win over SEMO on Nov. 22. The Jefferson City, Mo. product did her damage at the charity stripe, as she set career-bests in both free throws made (8) and free throws attempted (13) in the victory. She has now reached double figures in scoring in all four of SIU's games this season, and five-straight games dating back to last season.

Caitlin Morrison (VALPO) - Pulled down a career-high 10 rebounds to go along with eight points in Valpo's first game of the week on Tuesday at Miami (Ohio). Followed with a strong defensive performance in Saturday's 80-75 win over Grand Canyon, reaching a career-high five blocks, the fifth of which came on a 3-point attempt that could have tied the game with less than 10 seconds remaining.

Gabi Haack (BRAD) - Haack came off the bench to average 6.5 points and 4.5 rebounds while shooting 50 percent from the field, including 60 percent from three-point range in a pair of outings at the SEMO Thanksgiving Classic. She provided a boost off the bench by connecting on 3-of-4 three-pointers in Friday's victory over Nicholls State as she matched a season-best with 11 points for the second straight contest. Haack also had five rebounds and one assist against the Colonels. In the championship game of the SEMO Classic, Haack had two points, four rebounds one steal.

Alexis Delgado (INS) - Alexis Delgado shot 45.5 percent (5-for-11) from the floor and averaged 6.5 points per game at the Cancun Challenge for Indiana State last week. A junior from Phoenix, Delgado added two rebounds, two assists and a steal while scoring 11 points in Indiana State's 57-45 win over Montana on Thursday.

Jessica Cerda (LUC) - Loyola graduate transfer Jessica Cerda finished with a team-high 12 points in the Ramblers' pre-Thanksgiving clash with Milwaukee this past Tuesday. The Streamwood, Ill., product came off the bench to knock down four of her eight attempts from beyond the three-point arc en route to leading the Maroon & Gold for a second time in as many games. Cerda currently ranks third on the team in scoring (7.0 ppg) and is operating at just over a 41% clip (7-of-17) from distance.

Brice Calip (MSU) - Brice Calip averaged 6.0 points, 3.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists in two games at the Junkanoo Jam in the Bahamas, adding two steals and a block. Konieczny dished out six assists on Tuesday before setting a season watermark with seven in her first career start on Saturday. Also went 6-for-6 at the free-throw line and scored eight points in Saturday's win over the Antelopes. MVC Players and Newcomers of the Week are selected each week during the women's basketball season. The players are announced on Monday afternoon and appear in a weekly press release. Nominees are provided by each school's sports information contact and voted on by a panel appointed by the league office.

Power Five Up Ahead

UNI's win over Iowa State is currently the MVC's only win over a Power Five opponent this season. This week, the MVC schedule features one game against a Power Five school as Drake will host Iowa State at the Knapp Center on Thursday.

1,000 Career Points

Kylie Giebelhausen scored 13 points against SIUE to eclipse the 1,000 career point plateau on Monday, Nov. 27. She became the 25th Saluki to reach the career milestone, and the East Peoria, Ill. native joins Valparaiso's Dani Franklin and Missouri State's Liza Fruendt as the only active players in the Missouri Valley Conference in the 1,000-point club.

Record Rebounding

Drake pulled down 72 rebounds in the 96-60 blowout win over Mississippi Valley State. The 72 boards is a new Missouri Valley Conference and program record. The previous top rebounding total in the MVC was 68 by Missouri State in 2012 while the program record stood for 38 years with the 1979 team hauling in 67 against Iowa. In the win over Devillettes, three Bulldogs had 12 or more rebounds. Sara Rhine and Becca Jonas pulled down season-highs of 12 and 13, respectively, while Nicole Miller recorded her first career double-double with 11 points and 12 rebounds (career high).

Senior Leaders

Six league seniors are leading their respective teams in scoring, including Valpo's Dani Franklin (19.3 ppg), Evansville's Hannah Noe (16.8 ppg), Missouri State's Liza Fruendt (16.6 ppg), UNI's Kennedy Kirkpatrick (13.2 ppg), Indiana State's Ashley Taia (11.8 ppg) and Illinois State's Hannah Green (10.8 ppg). One other senior, Evansville's Brooke Dossett (15.5 ppg), also ranks amongst the Valley's top-5 in scoring.

Rivalry Renewed

Wichita State may not be in the MVC anymore, but the Lady Bears will continue their annual home-and-home series with the Shockers over the next two weeks, beginning Wednesday in Wichita and ending Dec. 7 at JQH Arena. It's the first time since the 2009-10 season that MSU will play the same non-conference opponent twice. Missouri State won at Oral Roberts in December of that year and then defeated the Golden Eagles at home in the WNIT.

Double Trouble

UNI sophomore Megan Maahs turned in quite the performance to open the season, as she averages 10.6 points and 12.8 rebounds per game for the Panthers. Maahs has earned three double-doubles this season, which is tied for the 24th in the NCAA. For her career, Maahs has earned four double-doubles as a Panther. The sophomore has earned the last four double-doubles for UNI. The sophomore is second in the nation for her 9.0 defensive rebounds per game, while ranking seventh in the NCAA for total rebounds per contest with 12.8.

BRADLEY (3-2)

Good Start

Friday's victory against Nicholls State gave Bradley its first 3-1 start to a season since 2008-09 and the last time the Braves posted at least three victories in the month of November was 2012-13. Despite Saturday's narrow setback at Southeast Missouri State, the Braves are 3-2 to start a season for the first time since 2011-12. While the 3-1 start to the year marked the 15th time in 43 years Bradley started a season 3-1 or better, the Braves have done so just five times over the last 20 seasons including 2017-18.

Turning Up the D

Bradley ranks fourth in the Missouri Valley Conference in scoring at 69.4 points per game, but it has been the defense that has been key to the early season success for the Braves. Through games of Nov. 26, Bradley ranks second in the nation in three-point field goal percentage defense with the Braves limiting opponents to just 19 percent shooting from beyond the arc. In fact, Southeast Missouri State was the first BU opponent to shoot better than 30 percent from three-point range this season, but SEMO attempted just eight three-pointers in the game. Only two of Bradley's last 10 regular-season opponents dating back to last season have shot better than 35 percent from three-point range with the Braves holding those foes to 23.9 percent shooting from long range and just 3.9 triples per outing.

DRAKE (3-3)

Record Rebounding

Drake pulled down 72 rebounds in the 96-60 blowout win over Mississippi Valley State. The 72 boards is a new Missouri Valley Conference and program record. The previous top rebounding total in the MVC was 68 by Missouri State in 2012 while the program record stood for 38 years with the 1979 team hauling in 67 against Iowa. In the win over Devillettes, three Bulldogs had 12 or more rebounds. Sara Rhine and Becca Jonas pulled down season-highs of 12 and 13, respectively, while Nicole Miller recorded her first career double-double with 11 points and 12 rebounds (career high).

All Tournament Honors

Rhine earned Rocky Mountain Hoops Classic All-Tournament honors with her impressive play in the two games. She started the tournament with 17 points, four rebounds, one assist and one steal against George Mason in 25 minutes. Rhine topped that performance in the big win over MVSU with a career-high 27 points on 9-of-16 shooting to go with a season-high 12 rebounds, career-tying three blocks and one assist in just 19 minutes.

Home Sweet Home

After playing four of their past five games on the road, the Bulldogs return to the Knapp Center on Thursday, Nov. 30 to host Iowa State. The in-state rivalry game against the Cyclones is the first of five straight home games and seven of the next eight games that will be played at the Knapp Center. Drake's only road game during that time will be at Iowa on Dec. 21. The team will then open Missouri Valley Conference play at home against Valparaiso (Dec. 29) and Loyola (Dec. 31).

EVANSVILLE (2-2)

Disciplined Aces

Through four games, the Aces have maximized their opportunities at the line while limiting their opponents trips to the charity stripe. Evansville sits seventh in the nation and tops in the MVC in free throw shooting percentage (81.3), while committing just 55 total fouls (sixth nationally) and averaging 13.8 fouls per game (ninth nationally).

In Safe Hands

Sophomore guard Macie Lively has proven to be one of the most reliable ball handlers for the Aces this season. Lively has recorded 15 assists through four games this season and turned the ball over just four times in 118 minutes of action. The Tipton, Indiana native's 3.75 assist-to-turnover ratio is best in the MVC and sits 23rd nationally.

Dossett Continues to Lead

Senior guard Brooke Dossett has opened her final season with the Aces in style. The Warsaw, Kentucky native has scored in double-figures in each contest and recorded a season-high 21 points in the Aces' 79-53 victory over Westminster. The 21-point scoring performance was just three points shy of her career high with the Aces. Aside from scoring, Dossett has also added 3.8 rebounds per game and a team-best 3.8 assists per contest.

ILLINOIS STATE (2-2)

National Leaders

The Redbirds were tabbed in the top 20 for several NCAA statistical rankings following their game on Sunday vs. UMKC. With their defensive efforts this season the team is currently ranked ninth in scoring defense only allowing 52.5 points per game and 12th in field-goal percentage defense after holding their opponents to 32.2 percent. Paige Saylor ranked 16th in the country with 14 steals in four games and Hannah Green is marked 13th averaging 3.0 blocks per game.

Stealing Saylor

Paige Saylor marked her name in the ISU record books on Sunday after compiling seven steals in one game. Her performance tied for the sixth most in school history. With her efforts the Redbirds soared past UMKC 64-53. The freshman also racked up a personal best of 12 points and four assists.

Green in the Paint

Hannah Green had a career high last season of 15 points in a single game. This week... she beat that twice. Green secured her first career double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds against George Mason and added 20 points to put her team ahead of UMKC on Sunday.

INDIANA STATE (1-4)

Taia Bow from Distance

Talk about a success story from a long way away. Not only is Ashley Taia an Australian native that is one of Indiana State's starters, but she's finding success from downtown on the court. She enters Tuesday's game ranked 33rd in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage, knocking down 50 percent (8-for-16) of her long-range shot attempts.

Minimizing Mistakes

Early on this season Indiana State is doing its level-best to minimize the mistakes it makes. That is showing through the first few weeks of the season, ranking 85th nationally in fewest fouls committed (89) and 126 nationally in fewest turnovers committed (84). But maybe that's just a Valley thing as the Sycamores are ranked seventh in the MVC in both categories.

Three for 54

The trio of Ashley Taia, Wendi Bibbins and Tierra Webb accounted for over half of the program's offensive production from a year ago. The three players combined for 30 point or 54.4 percent of the teams' offense.

LOYOLA (0-4)

Don't Sleep on Cerda

Loyola graduate transfer Jessica Cerda has led the way on the offensive end for the Ramblers of late. A native of Streamwood, Ill., Cerda has averaged 11.5 points and 2.5 rebounds over the past two games. She currently ranks in the top 15 in the Valley in both three-point field goal percentage (12th, 41.2%) and three-point field goals made per game (T-11th, 1.8).

Freshman Feature

Loyola head coach Kate Achter has stuck with the same starting five through the season's opening four games. That quintet features four freshmen in Alexis Meyer, Abby O'Connor, Ellie Rice and Kailyn Strawbridge. The four have seen their fair share of action early on in the season, averaging just under 29 minutes per game apiece.

Bragging Rights

Following a clash with No. 20/20 Marquette on Tuesday afternoon in Milwaukee, Wis., Loyola will close out its current road swing with three games against local rivals. The Ramblers will head south to clash with Chicago State on Friday before matchups against rv/21 DePaul and Northern Illinois the following week.

MISSOURI STATE (1-4)

Hot From Long Range

Missouri State made at least eight 3-pointers in each of the first four games of the season, including 11 versus No. 8 Baylor on Thanksgiving Day. The last time the Lady Bears hit eight or more treys in four straight games was Jan. 22-Feb. 5, 2016, tying for MSU's longest such streak since 2005.

Rivalry Renewed

Wichita State may not be in the MVC anymore, but the Lady Bears will continue their annual home-and-home series with the Shockers over the next two weeks, beginning Wednesday in Wichita and ending Dec. 7 at JQH Arena. It's the first time since the 2009-10 season that MSU will play the same non-conference opponent twice. Missouri State won at Oral Roberts in December of that year and then defeated the Golden Eagles at home in the WNIT.

Rare Number On the Scoreboard

Thursday's game against No. 8 Baylor marked the first time in nearly 1,000 games that an MSU opponent scored 100 points in regulation. The last team to achieve the feat was Vanderbilt with 102 points on Dec. 29, 1985. In fact, not since 1989 had MSU allowed 100 points under any circumstance, with that coming in a Jan. 28, 1989 quadruple overtime loss to Indiana State.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS (3-2)

1,000 Career Points

Kylie Giebelhausen scored 13 points against SIUE to eclipse the 1,000 career point plateau on Monday, Nov. 27. She became the 25th Saluki to reach the career milestone, and the East Peoria, Ill. native joins Valparaiso's Dani Franklin and Missouri State's Liza Fruendt as the only active players in the Missouri Valley Conference in the 1,000-point club.

Back-to-Back Honors

Abby Brockmeyer was named the MVC's Newcomer of the Week for the second-straight week after she scored 15 points and grabbed seven rebounds in SIU's overtime win over SEMO on Nov. 22. The Raymond, Ill. native is just the third player in program history to earn back-to-back Newcomer of the Week honors, joining Stephany Neptune (2009-10) and Cartaesha Macklin (2011-12) as the only Salukis to have done so since the MVC began handing out the award during the 2003-04 season.

Two from 200

Kylie Giebelhausen needs two three-pointers to reach 200 for her career. She will be just the third Saluki to make 200-plus three-pointers, joining Teri Oliver (2009-12; 235) and Rishonda Napier (2012-17; 277) as the only in program history to have accomplished the feat. Giebelhausen's 198 career three-pointers are the most of any player in the Missouri Valley Conference and are tied for the 25th-most among active DI players.

VALPARAISO (2-1)

Hitting Shots

Valpo has shot above 40 percent as a team in three straight games to start a season for the first time since 2007-08. It's the first time Valpo has shot above 43 percent in three straight to start a year since 2005-06. If the Crusaders can shoot above 40 percent on Tuesday night, it will be the first time in over 20 years Valpo has started the season with four straight games shooting 40 percent or better.

Charity Time

Valpo made 26 free throws against Grand Canyon, the team's highest single-game total since Dec. 1, 2013, a 96-85 overtime loss to Montana State (28 made FTs). The 26 successful attempts at the charity stripe on Saturday marked Valpo's most in a regulation game since Dec. 10, 2008, a 71-60 win over No. 23/21 Purdue. Valpo made 30 free throws in that game.

Hales Hot Start

Grace Hales has scored double figures in three straight games to start the season – the first time in the sophomore's collegiate career that she's strung together three straight double-figure scoring outputs. It's four in a row if you count the exhibition game, when Hales posted a double-double against St. Francis (Ill.).
