NOTEWORTHY

- Head coach Carol Price-Torok led Bradley Volleyball to improved overall and Missouri Valley Conference win totals in the same season for the first time since 2013. In fact, the team's five combined road and neutral site victories nearly matched the squad's overall win total from the entire 2015 season and were more wins away from home than the last two seasons combined.
- Junior Erica Haslag helped headline Bradley's attack in 2016 with her 320 kills the most by a Brave since 2006 and she became the fifth player in program history to reach 600 career kills before the start of their junior season. In fact, Haslag was the second fastest player in program history to reach 500 career kills, topping the mark in just 47 career matches. She enters the 2017 31st in career kills at Bradley with 615 and needs 385 to become the 15th Brave with 1,000 career kills.

Bulldogs ... At A Glance

2016 Finish: 17-15/8-10 MVC (7th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 6/7
Starters Returning/Lost: 7/3

NOTEWORTHY

- The Bulldogs are coming off their most successful season since 2010 after going 17-15 in 2016 to record the program's first winning season in six years. The team's 17 wins and its eight Missouri Valley Conference wins were also the most by the Bulldogs since 2010.
- The Bulldogs return six student-athletes that made significant contributions in 2016, including senior and three-year starter Kyla Inderski. Last season, Inderski recorded 400 kills, the eighth most ever by a Bulldog in a season, for a 3.31 kills per set average. She enters this season with 1,044 career kills to rank seventh all-time in Drake history. She also ranks seventh all-time in digs at Drake with 1,058 and is just the fourth Bulldog ever to record both 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs.
- The Bulldogs also added one of the top recruiting classes in the Missouri Valley Conference and earned honorable mention honors from PrepVolleyball.com for their recruiting efforts. Joining the Bulldogs in 2017 will be Oklahoma transfer Cathryn Cheek as well as highly touted signees Natalie Fry, Gillian Gergen, Hannah McCarthy, and Emily Plock.

Redbirds ... At A Glance

2016 Finish: 17-15/9-9 MVC (5th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 10/4
Starters Returning/Lost: 5/2

NOTEWORTHY

- A new era of Illinois State volleyball begins in 2017 as Leah Johnson will become the seventh person to coach the Redbird volleyball team when ISU heads to the Hampton Inn & Suites Waco North Baylor Invitational, Aug. 25-26.
- Illinois State returns a pair of players in 2017 who have already made their mark in program history. Three-time All-MVC First-Team selection Jaelyn Keene is back for her senior year and junior Courtney Pence returns to court after being named the Valley's Libero of the Year last fall.
- In addition to the annual grind of the MVC's double round-robin schedule, Illinois State will face a challenging non-conference slate in 2017. The Redbirds will play a total of 10 matches against 2016 NCAA Tournament teams, including six before conference play begins in late September.

- Indiana State returns one Missouri Valley Conference postseason award winner in sophomore middle blocker Damadj Johnson. The St. Louis native was named to the MVC All-Freshman squad and led the Sycamores with 107 total blocks last season, finishing 11th all-time in single-season totals blocks. Johnson finished the season with the best attacking percent on the squad at .309. She accounted for 174 kills on 405 attempts and just 49 attacking error.
- ISU earned its 19th straight AVCA Team Academic Award for the 2016 season. The streak is the longest among all schools and ties Drury University (Division II) for the longest streak in the history of the award.

2016 Finish: 14-18/9-9 MVC (5th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 12/4
Starters Returning/Lost: 4/2

NOTEWORTHY

- Loyola welcomes back several key pieces from last season, including Second Team All-Missouri Valley Conference honoree Gabi Maciagowski. The junior outside hitter/right side averaged 3.30 kills per set, a figure which ranked sixth in the MVC, while her 3.66 points per set sat eighth in the league. Maciagowski, who enters the 2017 campaign needing 400 kills to reach 1,000 for her career, was a key to the Ramblers' success last fall, with the team going 5-0 when she pounded out 20 or more kills.
- Seventh-year head coach Chris Muscat also returns a pair of individuals who earned MVC All-Freshmen Team recognition in 2016 - outside hitter Quinn Spieker and setter Delilah Wolf - along with libero Maddy Moser.
- Loyola, which posted a pair of wins over Power 5 teams a year ago, is coming off back-to-back nine-win seasons in Valley play, its most since joining the league.

Bears ... At A Glance

2016 Finish: 26-9/16-2 MVC (1st)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 12/2
Starters Returning/Lost: 6/1

NOTEWORTHY

- Missouri State enters 2017 as the defending Missouri Valley Conference regular season champion. The Bears return the vast majority of their statistical output from the 2016 squad, with 84 percent of kills, 86 percent of digs, 69 percent of blocks and 85 percent of aces back from last year's team.
- Missouri State's senior class of Lauren Boone, Brianne Dixon, Lily Johnson and Lynsey Wright have enjoyed plenty of success in their careers, and could become the 10th senior class in 22 seasons under Melissa Stokes to accumulate at least 90 victories should they lead the Bears to their 18th 20-win campaign in the last 19 years. A trip back to the NCAA Tournament would also make the quartet the seventh senior class at MSU to go to the Big Dance three times.
- MSU outside hitter Lily Johnson is poised for a record-setting senior campaign. The two-time MVC Player of the Year and three-time AVCA All-American enters her final season 200 kills away from MSU's career record and 229 from the Valley mark. She is 39 attacks away from tying the MVC career record in that category, and needs one more MVC Player of the Week citation to tie another league record. Additionally, Johnson is on pace for a top-six finish in career digs at MSU.

Salukis ... At A Glance

2016 Finish: 21-12/12-6 MVC (4th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/8
Starters Returning/Lost: 3/3

NOTEWORTHY

- The Salukis are coming off of a season in which they finished 21-12 and advanced to the MVC Tournament for a fifth-straight season. Not only is it the fourth time in the last five years that SIU has won at least 20 matches, but Southern's five MVC Tournament appearances in a row are the program's longest such streak since the MVC was formed.
- Andrea Estrada opens the 2017 season sitting at 1,101 kills and 1,034 digs for her career. The Bogotá, Colombia native is one of just four Salukis to have both 1,000 career kills and 1,000 career digs and will most likely crack SIU's top-5 in each category by the end of her career, as she needs 274 kills and 80 digs to do so. Fellow senior Abby Barrow needs 146 kills to join Estrada and become the 15th Saluki to reach the 1,000 kill.
- The Salukis and first-year head coach Kari Thompson will face nine top-100 RPI teams from a year ago, including five that reached the NCAA Tournament.

Crusaders ... At A Glance

2016 Finish: 15-19/6-10 Horizon
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/6
Starters Returning/Lost: 4/3

NOTEWORTHY

- The Crusaders won at least 20 matches every season from 2002 through 2015 - one of just nine programs nationwide to accomplish that feat. Last season, Valpo won 15 matches despite being decimated by injuries and having to play nearly half the season with its libero simultaneously setting as well.
- Leading the way into 2017 for the Crusaders will be their two leading attackers from last season - senior middle Taylor Graboski and junior outside Katherine Carlson. In addition, junior outside Allison Ketcham, an All-Horizon League choice in 2015, returns after an injury-plagued 2016 season. A large group of seven newcomers join Valpo's seven returnees.
