*denotes MVC contest

MVC Offensive Player of the Week

Ally Cummings, So., RS, Valparaiso

Valpo's Ally Cummings hit over .500 in both of Valpo's wins and averaged a team-best 4.29 kills/set on .520 hitting as Valpo improved to 20-5 on the season. She kicked off the weekend with a career-best 17 kills on .517 hitting in Valpo's four-set win over Evansville, while also tying her career high with five blocks. Then, against Indiana State, Cummings led all players with 13 kills on .524 hitting in the sweep. Cummings became the first Valpo player to hit .500 (minimum 12 kills) in consecutive matches since October of 2008.

Other Notable Performances: Cathryn Cheek (DU); Ali Line (ILS); Gabi Maciagowski (LUC); Aubrey Cheffey (MSU); Piper Thomas (UNI); Emma Baalman (SIU)

MVC Defensive Player of the Week

Courtney Pence, Sr., L, Illinois State

Pence and the Redbird defense continued to shine in Illinois State's trio of wins last week. The senior collected 81 total digs for a week-high 8.10 digs per set average. She dug a match-high 31 digs against Bradley to open the week, as she was a key component in Illinois State's efforts to hold the Braves to a .122 hitting percentage. In the Redbirds' pair of sweeps against Southern Illinois and Missouri State, the libero collected 23 and 27 digs, respectively, while aiding in a team defense that held the Salukis to just .009 hitting on Friday. For the week, Illinois State's opponents hit just .108, while Pence was responsible for 36 percent of the team's total digging on the defensive side.

Other Notable Performances: Yavianliz Rosado (BRAD); Kylee Macke (DU); Elle Van Grinsven (LUC); Emily Butters (MSU); Kendyl Sorge (UNI); Keera Clarke (SIU); Brittany Anderson (VALPO)

MVC Freshman of the Week

Hannah Thompson, Fr., OH, Bradley

Thompson turned in three double-doubles in three outings last week, averaging 3.00 kills and 4.09 digs per set as she became the first freshman in school history to collect 265 kills and at least 340 digs. She opened the week with 13 kills and 14 digs in a four-set contest at Illinois State. She followed it up with 10 kills, 17 digs and two blocks in a four-set victory over Missouri State as the Braves completed the first sweep of the regular-season series with the Bears since 1999. Thompson capped the week with 10 kills and 14 digs in addition to matching a season-high with three aces in a sweep of Southern Illinois as Bradley earned its 12th consecutive home victory to surpass the longest home win streak in school history (11) set during the 1985 season. She now has a team-high 13 double-doubles on the season, one short of matching the most by a Bradley freshman.

Other Notable Performances: Marissa Stockman (ILS); Lauren Caprini (LUC); Chloe Rear (MSU); Kat Wagner (SIU)

NOTEWORTHY

In addition to the league's player and freshman of the week selections, several conference players had notable performances, including:

Cathryn Cheek (DU) - Led Drake with 23 kills on 63 attempts to hit .270 in a five-set loss at UNI ... her 23 kills matched a career-high ... added eight digs to narrowly miss another double-double ... has had double-figure kills in six-straight matches.

Ali Line (ILS) - Ali Line tallied 31 kills, averaging 3.10 kills per set, on a team-high .315 hitting this week in Illinois State's trio of wins. The senior opened with a career-high 14 kills against the Braves to lead the team in the Redbirds' four-set win over Bradley, hitting at a match-high .387 clip. She reached double-digit kills once again on Friday against the Salukis, turning in 11 kills on .318 hitting, before adding six more against Missouri State. The Bargersville, Indiana, native also stood firm at the net, pacing the Redbird block with 11 total stuffs to average 1.10 blocks per set. Line contributed a team-high 37.5 points for Illinois State this week.

Gabi Maciagowski (LUC) - Maciagowski played a huge role in Loyola earning a pair of Missouri Valley Conference victories last week by averaging 3.43 kills and 1.43 blocks per set, while hitting .500 (24-2-44) in wins over Indiana State and Evansville. With the victories, the Ramblers earned season series sweeps of both opponents and now own an eight-match improvement in the win column from a year ago. In a four-set win over the Sycamores on October 19, the senior outside hitter/right side delivered a season-high 15 kills, hitting .464 (15-2-28), while equalling a season high with six blocks. She followed that up by tying for the team lead with nine kills and also pitched in four blocks in a sweep of Evansville the following night. In her last three matches at Gentile Arena, Maciagowski is accounting for 3.45 kills and 1.45 blocks per set, with a hearty .472 hitting percentage (38-4-72). For the year, the Toronto native, who recently collected her 1,000th career kill, is contributing 2.22 kills and 0.96 blocks per set.

Aubrey Cheffey (MSU) - Aubrey Cheffey led MSU with 3.57 kills, 0.71 blocks and 3.93 points per set on a .322 hitting percentage last week. Friday at Bradley, the junior hit .393 with 13 kills and only two errors. Saturday at Illinois State, Cheffey had team highs of 12 kills and three blocks, hitting .258 for the Bears.

Piper Thomas (UNI) - Piper Thomas was the driving force in the Panther offense this last week, recording a .333 attack percentage and 30 kills. Thomas was playing at an elite level against Drake, recording 17 kills and 0 errors for a .472 attack percentage. Along with her dominant offensive play, Thomas added another solo block, totaling 20 so far this season. Thomas and the Panthers took on #18 Marquette Sunday night where the senior middle hitter added another 13 kills to her resume, along with 1 block assists and 3 digs.

Emma Baalman (SIU) - Baalman led the Salukis with 10 kills in SIU's two matches over the weekend. The junior middle hitter from Calhoun, Ill. put down five kills with three blocks at Illinois State and followed with five kills and two blocks at Bradley on Saturday.

Yavianliz Rosado (BRAD) - Rosado averaged 6.18 digs per set in three matches last week, helping Bradley limit opponents to a .196 hitting percentage. She also boasted a 98.1 serve-receive percentage, which was tops among Bradley's primary passers for the week. Rosado opened the week with a team-high 27 digs in a four-set contest at I-74 rival Illinois State Monday in addition to collecting one kill and six assists. She tallied a match-high 23 digs in Friday's four-set win over Missouri State as she helped the Braves complete the first regular-season sweep of the series with the Bears since 1999. Rosado capped the week with a match-high 18 digs in a sweep of Southern Illinois Saturday as the Braves improved to 12-0 at home on the year to break the longest home win streak in school history, which had stood since 1985 (11). Rosado now owns two of the top eight season dig totals in school history and the two-year letterwinner is tied for 12th in career digs at Bradley.

Kylee Macke (DU) - Had a team-high 20 digs in the five-set loss at UNI ... needs 36 more digs to move into the top-10 all-time at Drake.

Elle Van Grinsven (LUC) - In two contests last week, both wins, Van Grinsven put up 1.43 blocks and 0.57 digs per set, while also hitting .484 (17-2-31) with 2.43 kills per set as Loyola ran its season win total to 13, an eight-game improvement over its 2017 total. The 6-foot-1 middle blocker opened up the weekend by racking up three blocks and a dig, along with 13 kills, in a four-set victory over Indiana State. Van Grinsven, a 2017 MVC All-Freshman Team honoree, then registered seven blocks and three digs in a sweep of Evansville October 20. This season, Van Grinsven is posting 2.54 kills, 0-.95 digs and 1.00 blocks per set, while hitting .281 (203-60-509).

Emily Butters (MSU) - Emily Butters averaged 5.71 digs per set last week and surpassed 2,300 in her career with 40 in two matches. Friday, Butters led the Bears with 17 digs at Bradley, added 23 in three sets on Saturday at Illinois State, her 48th career match with 20 or more digs.

Kendyl Sorge (UNI) - Last week Sorge totaled 43 digs, 8 assists and 2 service aces while the Panthers finished 1-1. Sorge helped the Panthers in a 3-2 victory over in-state rival Drake by recording 31 digs and 4 assists. Sorge and the rest of the Panthers took on a tough Marquette team on Sunday that saw Sorge record 12 digs and four more assists.

Keera Clarke (SIU) - Clarke averaged a team-best 4.67 digs per set during SIU's two matches over the weekend. She totaled 28 digs and added three assists and an ace. The Santa Monica, Calif. native set a new career-best with 21 digs at Illinois State and followed with seven digs, three assists and an ace against Bradley on Saturday. The sophomore libero has tallied six double-digit dig performances this season.

Brittany Anderson (VALPO) - Anderson faced a daunting role entering this weekend, as with Valpo configuring its lineup to play with just one middle, Anderson was asked to block middle in her three rotations up front. The sophomore ended up more than doubling her season average for blocks, posting a team-high eight blocks and averaging 1.14 blocks/set on the weekend. Anderson tallied four blocks apiece in both of Valpo's wins over Evansville and Indiana State. Anderson also contributed in the back row as well, averaging 2.29 digs/set over the two matches, with seven of her 16 digs leading directly to kills on Valpo's next swing.

Marissa Stockman (ILS) - Marissa Stockman registered 27 kills, averaging 2.70 kills per set, on .290 hitting in Illinois State's three wins this week. The freshman tallied a career-high 14 kills against Missouri State on Saturday, to close a five-match home stand for the Redbirds and help Illinois State reach a seven-match win streak. Stockman recorded just a single error against the Bears, hitting at a match-high .520 clip - the best hitting percentage in a single match among any Redbird this season. She also contributed five blocks at the net for Illinois State, including a week-best four against the Salukis.

Lauren Caprini (LUC) - Caprini tallied 1.00 digs and 0.14 assists per set last weekend in helping Loyola pick up a pair of critical wins in Valley play. In the Ramblers' four-set triumph over Indiana State on October 19, she produced four digs and an assist and also pitched in three digs in a sweep of Evansville the next evening. For the season, Caprini is averaging 2.11 digs, 0.34 aces and 0.24 assists per set.

Chloe Rear (MSU) - Chloe Rear scored or assisted on 12.79 points per set last week, averaging 11.43 assists, 1.00 kills on .292 hitting, 0.57 blocks and 3.29 digs. Rear was error-free with five kills on .385 hitting Friday at Bradley, dishing out 44 assists with eight digs and four blocks. Saturday, the rookie had a double-double with 36 assists and a career-high 15 digs against Illinois State.

Kat Wayner (SIU) - Wagner averaged 1.5 kills, .5 aces and 3 digs per set in SIU's two matches over the weekend. The Noblesville, Ind. native tallied five kills, two assists, two aces and eight digs at Illinois State. Her two aces tied a career-best. She followed with four kills, an ace and 10 digs at Bradley. It marked the ninth time this season that the freshman outside hitter has dug out 10-plus balls.

MVC TOURNAMENT

November 22-24, 2018
Springfield, MO
Hosted by Missouri State

PRESEASON COACHES' POLL

PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

Perfection in League Play

UNI remains unbeaten in MVC action after another perfect week of league play, sitting at 10-0. The last time UNI opened MVC play 10-0, they went on to finish 18-0 in league play in 2011, which was the program's third straight 18-0 MVC campaign. The Panthers have only dropped seven sets in league play, posting a 30-7 mark in conference sets.

Redbirds Keeping Pace

Illinois State is currently alone in second place in the conference standings with a 10-1 mark, finishing the week 3-0. Illinois State's start to league play matches its best since 2014, when the Redbirds won the MVC outright with an 18-0 record. Illinois State is currently riding a six-match win streak and improved to 7-0 at Redbird Arena. The only season that the Redbirds went unbeaten at home in program history was also in 2014 (10-0).

Historic Stretch

Bradley has possession of third-place in the MVC standings. Bradley's four-set victory over defending MVC champion Missouri State gave the Braves their first sweep of the regular-season series with the Bears since 1999. The Braves had not swept any Valley opponent during the regular season since 2013 and already have two sweeps to their credit after a three-set victory over Southern Illinois Saturday. Bradley swept the regular-season series from three MVC foes in 2013, which was the last time the Braves reached the Valley Tournament. Bradley's current 12-match home win streak is the longest in school history, surpassing the previous longest home win streak in program history of 11 set during a 32-10 season in 1985.

Big Turnaround

Bradley and Loyola are two of just four teams in the country to have an eight-win improvement from last year through matches of Oct. 21. Joining the Braves and Ramblers in the exclusive group are Stetson (9) and Florida International (8).

Team	'18 wins	'17 wins
Stetson	12	3
Bradley	18	10
Florida International	14	6
Loyola	13	5

Small Company

Only five times in Valley history has a team finished last in the standings the previous year make the MVC Tournament the following season. Bradley is looking to become the first team since Southern Illinois in 2012 to accomplish the feat.

Team	'Year
Indiana State	1997
Evansville	1998
Indiana State	1999
Creighton	2003
Southern Illinois	2012

Another 20 Win Season

The pair of wins last weekend gave Valpo 20 wins this year, the 15th time in Avery's 17 seasons that Valpo has won 20 or more matches. This year marks the seventh time out of Avery's 15 20-win teams that the program has reached 20 wins within the season's first 25 matches. Valpo is one of seven teams nationally with 20 or more wins this season (Through Oct. 21), joining BYU, Pittsburgh, Texas State, SFA, Denver and Austin Peay.

NCAA RPI Report

The latest edition of the NCAA RPI report has been released and The Valley has three teams featured in the top-65. UNI leads the league at No. 20, while Illinois State (No. 40), and Valparaiso (No. 62) are also among the nation's top-65. Four other teams rank in the Top 125 (Bradley, Drake, Loyola and Missouri State). As a conference, The Valley ranks eighth among 32 conferences.

Team	RPI
UNI	20
Illinois State	40
Valparaiso	62
Bradley	106
Drake	109
Loyola	120
Missouri State	125
Indiana State	207
Evansville	215
Southern Illinois	228

Totally Tested

UNI's RPI sits No. 20 this week. The Panthers are one of only nine teams nationally to have eight matches against teams ranked in the Top 25 of the RPI, joining Stanford, Illinois, USC, Wisconsin, Nebraska, UCLA, Oregon and Iowa. UNI is also one of only 23 teams nationally to have at least two Top 25 RPI wins. UNI's schedule is rated as the 10th toughest nationally.

Stokes Moving On Up

With Missouri State's win against Drake last Friday, head coach Melissa Stokes tied former UNI boss Irdage Ahrabi-Fard with 503 in her career, good for second all-time in MVC history. Linda Dollar, who won 758 victories at Missouri State from 1972-95, sits atop the list.

ALL-TIME MVC COACHES - WINS

Coach, School (Years)	W-L-T
1. Linda Dollar, Missouri State (1972-95)	758-266-21
2. Irdage Ahrabi-Fard, UNI (1981-96;98-00)	503-142-4
Melissa Stokes, Missouri St. (1996-present)	503-240
4. Bobbi Petersen, UNI (1997; 01-present)	478-148

AVCA Top-25

UNI continues to receive votes in this week's AVCA Top 25 poll. The Panthers are receiving 23 points in the poll and sit 27th overall entering this week's action.

Mid-Major Top 25

The Valley has two teams ranked in the VolleyballMag.com Mid-Major Top 25 Poll*. UNI sits No. 5 in this week's poll (Oct. 16), while Illinois State appears in the poll at No. 19.

*Includes all teams note in the "power-five" conferences

Can't Hang

The MVC holds an unblemished record in non-conference action against 11 leagues, including America East (2-0), American (1-0), Big South (3-0), Ivy (2-0), Metro Atlantic (2-0), Mid-Eastern (2-0), Northeast (3-0), Patriot (1-0), Summit (9-0), SWAC (5-0) and WAC (2-0).

Top-25 Victories

The Valley has two wins over top-25 opponents this season as UNI topped #13 Creighton 3-0 and #5 Kentucky 3-2 in Los Angeles.

Wins Over Top 25 Teams in 2018

Aug. 24: UNI beat #13 Creighton, 3-0
 Aug. 25: UNI beat #5 Kentucky, 3-2

Power Five Wins

The Valley has four wins over Power Five programs this season. UNI beat Indiana and Kentucky, Missouri State beat Texas A&M and Illinois State beat Auburn.

Top of the Class

The Valley has placed multiple teams in the NCAA Tournament 10 times in the last 12 years. Since 2007, The Valley has received 30 bids into the 64-team field, trailing only the Pac 12, Big Ten, Big 12, SEC, ACC & West Coast Conferences.

Non-Conference Success

Since 2010, the Valley has posted a record above .500 in non-conference play every year except 2014 (.55-57) and 2017 (.61-66). The MVC is 80-49 (.620) in non-league play this season, which ranks second in that span. The Valley posted a league-best .756 non-conference win percentage in 2010.

Year	Record	Win%
2010	90-29	.756
2018	80-49	.620
2015	85-52	.620
2011	73-45	.619

2012	60-52	.536
2014	55-57	.491
2017	61-66	.480

Against 2017 NCAA Field

The Valley has won five matches against 2017 NCAA Tournament teams. UNI and Illinois State lead the conference with a pair of wins over participants in the 2017 NCAA tourney. The Panthers have wins over Creighton and Kentucky, while the Redbirds beat Coastal Carolina and Stony Brook. Valparaiso has the leagues fifth win, beating Cal State Bakersfield.

Panthers Elite Offense

UNI leads the MVC in both assists per set and kills per set so far this season. The Panthers rank top 10 nationally in both categories, sitting 6th overall in assists per set (13.89) and 5th in kills per set (14.76). Rachel Koop leads The Valley in assists per set and sits 7th nationally (11.7), while Karlie Taylor leads the league in attacks per set, kills per set and points per set, ranking 18th (12.0), 8th (4.81) and 10th (5.23) nationally in each category.

The Valley Digs Deep

Currently, the MVC has five teams ranking Top 35 nationally in digs per set, including Bradley leading the MVC with 18.73 per set.

The Valley has led the nation in digs per set three times in the last four seasons (Illinois State in 2014, UNI in 2016 and Valparaiso in 2017).

BRADLEY (18-5, 8-3 MVC)

Big Improvement

Bradley's 18 wins this fall are already eight more than the Braves earned during the course of the entire 2017 season and mark the team's best win total since capping the 2002 season with a 19-12 overall mark. In fact, Bradley is one of just four teams in the country and two in the Missouri Valley Conference (Loyola) to have an eight-win improvement from last year through matches of Oct. 21. Joining the Braves and Ramblers in the exclusive group are Stetson (9) and Florida International (8). The Braves have an eight-win improvement for the first time since the 2001 campaign when the Braves followed a 15-12 mark in 2000 with a 24-8 record. Bradley also boasts its best MVC win total (8) since 2005, which was also the last time the Braves won at least five more Valley games than the previous fall.

Streaking

Saturday's home sweep of Southern Illinois improved Bradley to a perfect 12-0 at Renaissance Coliseum. The Braves matched the school season record for home wins (12) with the victory, tying the mark previously set by the 2002 (12-5), 2001 (12-2) and 1985 (12-2) squads. In fact, the current 12-match home win streak is the longest in school history, surpassing the previous longest home win streak in program history of 11 set during a 32-10 season in 1985. The Braves are averaging 545 fans per home date in 2018, which would break the current school mark for highest average attendance set in 2010.

Sweeps Week

Bradley's four-set victory over defending MVC champion Missouri State gave the Braves their first sweep of the regular-season series with the Bears since 1999. The Braves had not swept any Valley opponent during the regular season since 2013 and already have two sweeps to their credit after a three-set victory over Southern Illinois Saturday. Bradley swept the regular-season series from three MVC foes in 2013, which was the last time the Braves reached the Valley Tournament.

DRAKE (16-8, 5-5 MVC)

Not Quite Enough

Drake pushed MVC leader UNI to five sets to mark the first time since 2010 that the Bulldogs have won a set in Cedar Falls ... Drake is one of just five MVC teams to take UNI to more than three sets this season ... the match was just the second five-set match Drake has played in this season.

Matches Career High

Cathryn Cheek matched a career-high with 23 kills in the loss at UNI ... she has recorded double-figure kills in six-straight matches and 20 or more kills in three of those matches ... she also needs just one more dig to reach 200 for the season.

Returning Home

Drake returns home, where it is 6-3 this season, this week for a three-match homestand with a pair of Valley contests against Loyola and Valparaiso ... Drake fell at Valpo and defeated Loyola earlier this season ... Drake has won three-straight matches against Loyola.

EVANSVILLE (8-16, 2-9 MVC)

Adding to Her Numbers

Rachel Tam continues to rank second in the MVC with 4.47 kills per set while sitting near the top of the NCAA in that statistic. Tam finished the weekend on a high note, recording 18 kills in three sets against Loyola.

On A Roll

Freshman Alondra Vazquez has excelled in every facet of the game in recent weeks. She has finished with at least eight kills in each of the last five matches, including a career mark of 21 against Missouri State. She has also posted eight digs or more in each of the last seven matches.

Helping Out

Over the last 39 sets of action, sophomore Allana McInnis has brought her "A game", finishing with 8.5 assists per set over that span, more than doubling her output from the first part of the season. Through her first 26 sets of 2018, McInnis finished at 3.77.

ILLINOIS STATE (18-5, 10-1 MVC)

History in the Making

All-American libero Courtney Pence is on track to break the MVC career digs record during the 2018 regular season. The senior currently has 2,587 digs on her resume, and will need just 101 to break UNI's Ellie Blankenship's mark in the Valley record book, which was set back in 2007-10. Pence collected 81 digs in three matches this week to average 8.10 digs per set, to improve her season digs per set average to 5.99. The Springfield, Illinois, native has ranked in the top-15 all season in NCAA Division I in the category.

Sweeping with Sweeps

For the first time since the 2014 season, Illinois State swept its two-match series against Southern Illinois and Missouri State. All four matches, the Redbirds won in straight sets, making it the first time since the 2008 season that Illinois State has done so against the Salukis. It also marked the first time since 1997 that Illinois State has swept its meetings with the Bears in the regular season with 3-0 victories in both matches.

Protecting the Nest

The Redbirds finished a five-match home stand this weekend – the longest of its kind in at least a decade – with a pair of wins over Southern Illinois and Missouri State. Illinois State is currently riding a six-match win streak and improved to 7-0 at Redbird Arena to remain undefeated at home with two matches left to play at its home facility in 2018. The only season that the Redbirds went unbeaten at home in program history was in 2014 (10-0).

INDIANA STATE (8-15, 1-10 MVC)

Home Sweet Home

Following its longest road trip of the season – a span of 20 days away from ISU Arena – Indiana State finally returns to the Wabash Valley this week as the Sycamores host Illinois State (Oct. 26) and Bradley (Oct. 27).

Fresh Start, But Not by Choice

Sometimes adversity thrusts you into a role you didn't expect. That has never been truer than for Indiana State Volleyball lately as an injury has sidelined setter Makayla Knoblauch and witnessing Melina Tedrow transition from defensive specialist to setter. While she did practice the position in pre-season, it wasn't until Knoblauch's injury nearly midway through the conference season that Tedrow took the reins of the Sycamore offense.

It's A Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World

Indiana State freshman Madeline Williams has not been intimidated by the collegiate level of play in her true freshman season. She currently leads the Sycamores with a .281 hitting percentage and is second on the team with 52 total blocks entering this week's action.

LOYOLA (13-9, 5-5 MVC)

Milestone Watch

Senior libero Alex Nunez has a chance to reach the 1,000-career-dig mark this season and enters this week's outings with 843 career digs to her name. A year ago, Maddy Moser joined that exclusive club when she notched her 1,000th career dig in a win at Southern Illinois on October 30, 2017.

Getting Hot

Senior Gabi Maciagowski, who notched her 1,000th career kill on October 5, is averaging 3.43 kills and 1.43 blocks per set, while hitting .500 (24-2-44), in her last two matches entering this week's pivotal showdowns at Drake and UNI. The Toronto native has been unstoppable at Gentile Arena and is producing 3.45 kills and 1.45 blocks per set, with a hearty .472 hitting percentage (38-4-72), in her last three matches on the Ramblers' home court.

Big Turnaround

One year after winning just five matches (5-24), Loyola has engineered one of the biggest turnarounds in NCAA Division I play this season, nearly tripling that total with 13 victories with at least eight more matches remaining this season. Through matches of October 16, Loyola was one of only five teams in NCAA Division I play to have recorded at least a six-game improvement from a year ago, joining MVC rival Bradley, among others.

MISSOURI STATE (11-12, 4-6 MVC)

Balanced Blocking

Missouri State currently has four players who have played in at least half of the team's 83 sets that average 0.80 digs per set, with Makina Wratten (1.09), MacKenzie Irwin (0.97), Laynie Dake (0.85) and Aubrey Cheffey (0.81) making a formidable group at the net. The last time the Bears had at least three players average 0.75 or more blocks was in 2013, while MSU has not seen four players average that number since 2009.

Another Record for Butters

Senior Emily Butters has now mathematically secured Missouri State's career digs per set record, adding yet another school mark to her resume. Butters has 2,310 digs in 478 career sets, a 4.83 average, and will finish ahead of Ashley Mason's record of 4.05 regardless of how many sets MSU plays this season.

Flynn Climbing List

Amelia Flynn has 258 kills on the season with a 3.19 per set average, putting her in good company among MSU rookies. Flynn is on pace to become the sixth freshman to average three kills per set, and already ranks 12th in total kills. She has a realistic shot at second place on that list (Vanessa Wouters, 377 kills in 1994), while Lily Johnson holds the record with 495 kills in 2014.

UNI (16-7, 10-0 MVC)

Efficient in MVC Play

The Panthers continued their undefeated start to league play last weekend with Friday's thrilling 3-2 victory over in-state rival Drake and stand at 10-0 in the Valley. UNI has dominated conference play with a 30-7 set record in the Valley.

League Leaders

UNI currently leads the Valley in hitting percentage (.274) kills per set (15.89) and assists per set (14.97). Karlie Taylor owns a league-high 4.81 kills per set while Rachel Koop tops the conference at 11.70 assists per set. Within MVC-only action, Karlie Taylor paces all individuals with 4.86 kills per set and leads the league in points per set with 5.39. Piper Thomas holds a league high .415 attack percentage. Nationally, Karlie Taylor ranks 8th in kills per set and 15th in total points. Nationally, Rachel Koop ranks 5th in assists per set

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS (4-19, 0-10 MVC)

Defensive Spark

Keera Clarke received the starting nod at libero at Indiana State (10/6) and has started all five of SIU's matches since. Clarke has dug out at least 10 balls in four of her five starts, including a career-best 21 digs at Illinois State. The Santa Monica, Calif. native averaged a team-best 4.67 digs per set last weekend.

Martin Making Her Mark

Alayna Martin continues to climb higher in SIU's record books for career assists. This past weekend she passed Dawn Thompson (1985-99) for 14th on SIU's all-time assists list and now sits at 1,336 career assists. The junior setter also tallied the 500th dig of her career on Saturday against Bradley.

At the Net

Southern's middles Patience Brown and Emma Baalman are leading the Saluki defensive effort at the net, as Brown's 54 total blocks are most on the team while Baalman's 53 total blocks rank second. Brown also leads the team with 10 solo blocks. Brown's eight blocks against CSUN (9/7) are tied for the most in a four-set match in the Missouri Valley Conference this season.

VALPARAISO (20-5, 7-3 MVC)

Finding Ways to Win

With nearly 400 wins to her credit at Valpo, head coach Carin Avery has had to come up with game plans to overcome a myriad of obstacles in her time at the helm of the Crusaders - most notably in 2016, when the team played the final 13 matches of the year with its libero as the primary setter and went 7-6. This time, it was framing a lineup around only one healthy middle, freshman Haley Hart. Instead of forcing another hitter to play out of position in the middle, Avery and her staff devised a plan to play a pair of right side hitters opposite each other in the rotation (with the libero playing back row for both) and have setter Brittany Anderson play opposite Hart and block middle in her three rotations up front. The result was two victories (3-1 over Evansville, and 3-0 over Indiana State) in which both sides of the ball performed well. Valpo hit .244 as a team with better than 13 kills per set in the pair of wins. Defensively, Valpo limited its opponents to .124 hitting and averaged 2.36 blocks/set - better than its season average entering the weekend.

Another 20 Win Season

The pair of wins last weekend gave Valpo 20 wins this year, the 15th time in Avery's 17 seasons that Valpo has won 20 or more matches. This year marks the seventh time out of Avery's 15 20-win teams that the program has reached 20 wins within the season's first 25 matches.
