Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 9/5
Starters Returning/Lost: 6/1

NOTEWORTHY

- For the first time since the 1993 and 1994 campaigns, Bradley improved both its overall and Missouri Valley Conference win totals in back-to-back seasons with the 2017 squad posting the most wins on The Hilltop and best Valley record since 2013. In fact, the Braves have had three consecutive seasons with an improved overall win total and will be trying to make it four straight in 2018. In 2017, Bradley posted its highest kills-per-set average (13.22) in over a decade (2006) while owning the team's best hitting percentage since 2011, along with highest digs-per-set average (18.21) in program history under the rally scoring format to rank 11th in the nation.
- One of seven returning First-Team All-Missouri Valley Conference selections from last year, senior Erica Haslag enters her final season eighth in career kills and is the MVC's active career leader with 1,145 kills heading into the 2018 campaign. Haslag was second in the MVC in total kills last year, with her 530 kills ranking second among Bradley season totals behind Lindsay Stalzer's MVC season record 720 kills (2005). She was 11th nationally in total kills and 18th in kills per set (4.38) in addition to closing the 2017 season 21st in points per set (4.83). Haslag will start 2018 ranked 12th in the country among active NCAA Division I players in career kills.

Redbirds ... At A Glance

2017 Finish: 22-13/13-5 MVC (3rd)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 10/4
Starters Returning/Lost: 5/1

NOTEWORTHY

- The Redbirds are coming off of their eighth-consecutive winning season after notching a 22-13 record in 2017, making it their third 20-win season in five years. In Leah Johnson's first season in charge of the program last year, the Redbirds finished in the top-15 nationally in several statistical categories and made a postseason appearance, playing in the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC).
- Illinois State will face seven postseason teams from a year ago, including six programs that made it to the Division I Volleyball NCAA Tournament in 2017 and two that advanced to the second round of the tournament. Ten of Illinois State's opponents finished the 2017 season in the top-75 RPI, while 10 teams on the Redbirds' schedule each finished with 20-plus win seasons and four of those programs were conference champions.
- Illinois State returns five starters this season, including AVCA Honorable Mention All-America selection, Courtney Pence, and the 2017 MVC Freshman of the Year, Stef Jankiewicz. Pence's selection by the AVCA was the first for her career and sixth for a Redbird, while Jankiewicz's five MVC Freshman of the Week honors during the 2017 season made her one of four players in league history to win the award five or more times.

Starters Returning/Lost: 4/2

NOTEWORTHY

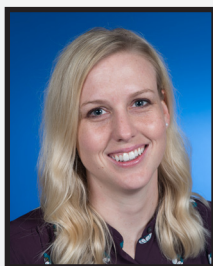

- Indiana State is coming off a notable season in Lindsay Allman's first year in Terre Haute as the Sycamores won their first-ever Missouri Valley Conference Tournament match, a 3-0 win over Drake.
- Laura Gross returns for her senior campaign in 2018, a year after she received All-Valley Second Team accolades. That marks the first All-MVC first or second team honor for the Sycamores since Kynedi Nalls was named to the league's second team in 2015.
- Nikki White returns for her sophomore year this fall after finishing strong in her freshman season. White claimed All-MVC Tournament honors as Indiana State won its first MVC Tourney game in school history. That marks the first league all-tournament honor a Sycamore has claimed since Cassandra Willis in 2014.

NOTEWORTHY

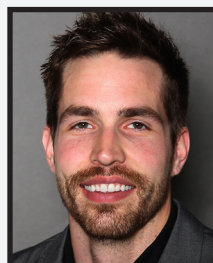

- Amanda Berkley assumes the reins of the Loyola program this fall after five seasons as the head coach at the University of Southern Mississippi. At Southern Miss, the Racine, Wis., native posted four straight 20-win seasons and a 104-59 mark. Berkley will be looking to become the first first-year Loyola head coach to post a winning season since Tim O'Brien in 2004 (22-9).
- The Ramblers return all 12 players from last season's squad, including 2017 MVC All-Freshman Team middle blocker Elle Van Grinsven, who hit a team-best .229 (212-83-563) and led the team with 77 total blocks a year ago. Last fall, Van Grinsven became the first Loyola true freshman to lead the club in total blocks since Libby Bresser in 2011.
- Senior outside hitter/right side Gabi Maciagowski, a 2017 Preseason All-MVC pick, enters the 2018 campaign needing only 140 kills to reach the 1,000 mark for her career. Slowed by injuries last season, the Toronto, Ont., native still managed to lead the Ramblers with 2.95 kills per set.

Bears ... At A Glance

2017 Finish: 28-6/18-0 MVC (1st)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 9/7
Starters Returning/Lost: 4/3

NOTEWORTHY

- While many will point to what MSU lost from a historically good 2017 roster, the Bears still have plenty of talent returning in 2018. Among the notable returners are AVCA All-American and reigning MVC Libero of the Year Emily Butters, and a pair of juniors in setter Daniele Messa and outside hitter Aubrey Cheffey, who have each earned first-team all-MVC honors during their careers.
- Missouri State carries a number of notable winning streaks into the upcoming season. The Bears have won 34 consecutive MVC matches, the fifth-best streak in league history. The Bears own 20 straight MVC road wins dating to October 2015, and 22 consecutive overall road victories, the NCAA's longest active streak. Additionally, MSU has won 17 consecutive matches in October.
- Senior libero Emily Butters enters 2018 with 1,883 career digs, 30 shy of the Missouri State career record. She ranks second among active NCAA Division I players in career digs, and already owns MSU records for single-season digs and average (737 total and 5.80/set in 2017), single-season matches with at least 10 digs, and digs by a freshman, sophomore and junior. She sits atop the career dig average chart at Missouri State with 4.77 per set, her 96 matches with 10 or more digs is five shy of the Bears' career record, and she is on pace to become the fourth player at MSU to appear in 500 career sets.

Salukis ... At A Glance

2017 Finish: 6-23/5-13 MVC (7th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 10/6
Starters Returning/Lost: 3/3

NOTEWORTHY

- The Southern Illinois Salukis returns three starters from a year ago, including All-MVC Second Team selection Patience Brown. The senior middle hitter hit at a .292 clip a year ago, as she led the Salukis in blocks (.85/set) and finished second on the team in kills (2.09/set).
- After a 2017 season in which SIU returned just 11% of their assists from the year prior due to graduation, the 2018 Salukis bring back 90% of their assists from a year ago in setters Alayna Martin and Rachel Maguire. Martin led the team with 621 assists while Maguire tallied 468 in Southern's 6-2 offense.
- In addition to the grind that is the MVC's double round-robin schedule, Southern Illinois will play a challenging non-conference slate in 2018. The Salukis will play nine matches against teams that advanced to postseason play a year ago, including the National Runner-Up Florida Gators.

Crusaders ... At A Glance

2017 Finish: 17-16/8-10 MVC
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 12/1
Starters Returning/Lost: 6/1

NOTEWORTHY

- Renowned for their ability to keep rallies alive, the Crusaders ended the 2017 season as the national leader with 20.03 digs/set- the second-highest single-season average by a Division I team since the move to 25-point scoring prior to the 2008 campaign. Leading the way in the back row was sophomore libero Rylee Cookerly, who was named the AVCA Midwest Region Freshman of the Year last season after finishing the year ninth nationally with 5.86 digs/set.
- Valpo was also strong defensively at the net last year, leading The Valley with 2.17 blocks/set, and while the Crusaders graduated First Team All-MVC middle Taylor Graboski, they return three other players who averaged at least 0.50 blocks/set. Offensively, Valpo is led by 2017 All-Freshman Team honoree Brittany Anderson, who stepped right into the starting setter role immediately as a rookie.
