MVC Offensive Player of the Week

Jordan Eickelman, So., F, Missouri State (Derby, Kan.)

Jordan Eickelman notched two goals included the game winner in overtime at Tulsa, solidifying a comeback 3-2 victory. Trailing 2-0 headed into the second half, Eickelman put Missouri State on the board in the opening minutes with a 10-yard shot into the lower left corner. Her final blow came in overtime with a 18-yard rocket into the middle of the net to seal the victory. The two goals were a career high for Eickelman, and she helped the Bears stay a perfect 2-0 on the week. One of eight players to record a shot in a 1-0 shutout over Western Illinois.

MVC Defensive Player of the Week

Haley Smith, Jr., GK, Illinois State (Fall River, Nova Scotia)

Smith held strong in goal in an opening week that saw Illinois State going undefeated (1-0-1). She had nine saves in an overtime battle Thursday night with CSUN, with four of them occurring after fulltime. Smith finished the week with 13 saves after adding four more in an Eastern Michigan shutout Sunday night. Smith now has 170 career saves and 15 career shutouts.

MVC Newcomer of the Week

Alison Walls, Fr., F, Drake (Kansas City, Mo.)

Alison Walls made an immediate impact in her first career match. Walls scored her first career goal just five minutes in of the season opener against San Francisco. In the Bulldogs' second match against Fresno State, she assisted on the game winning goal by Olivia Bruce. Walls leads the team in points with three and is tied for the team lead in goals with one.

▶ Noteworthy

In addition to the league's Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week and Newcomer of the Week selections, several conference players had notable performances, and they include:

OFFENSE

Montana Portenier, Gr., F, Evansville

After leading Evansville with six goals a season ago, Montana Portenier got involved early on in the season offensively. After falling behind 1-0 early in the second half, UE battled back to tie the match at one in the 68th minute. With just four minutes remaining, Portenier found the end of a pass from freshman Mandy Hamm and finished it past the goalkeeper for what would be the game-winning goal in UE's 2-1 win over SEMO.

Angel Krell, Sr., F, Illinois State

Krell made her presence on the field known in Illinois State's opening week that saw the Redbirds go 1-0-1. She scored the equalizer in Thursday's 2-2 draw with CSUN and assisted the game-winning goal on Sunday's win against Eastern Michigan, earning 3 points on the week.

Katie Wells, Sr., F, Indiana State

Indiana State senior Katie Wells paced the Sycamore offensive attack with three shots on goal in the Sycamores' Sunday match at Purdue Fort Wayne. Wells had two really good looks at goal in the first half and another right after halftime. She took three total shots against the Mastodons and all were on goal. In fact, she had three of the Sycamores' four shots on goal during the opening weekend of play.

Sienna Cruz, Jr., MF, Loyola

Loyola junior Sienna Cruz netted a pair of goals in the Ramblers' 4-2 season-opening victory over visiting UMass Lowell on Friday night at Loyola Soccer Park. Cruz, a 2017 First Team All-MVC selection, opened the scoring in the 17th minute when she headed home a free kick from junior Madison Laudeman. The Cottage Grove, Wis. native would go on to close the scoring on the night in the 79th minute, firing home a pass from senior Jenna Szczesny to complete the third two-goal showing of her career. Cruz went on to play 86 minutes in the Loyola's 2-1 defeat at No. 14/19 Notre Dame on Sunday afternoon.

Ava Porlier, R-Jr., F, Valparaiso

Porlier scored her first career match-winning goal in Valpo's season opener at Green Bay Friday night, capping the Crusaders' come-from-behind win by finding the back of the net in the 83rd minute. The goal was the third of her Valpo career.

DEFENSE

Hannah Sullivan, Jr., GK, Indiana State

Hannah Sullivan played all 200 minutes for the Sycamores in goal this weekend at Purdue Fort Wayne and Northern Kentucky. She recorded a total of eight saves, including a career-high tying six against the Mastodons on Sunday in Fort Wayne. She had two big saves in a row early in the second half to preserve the clean sheet and then another great diving stop in the 87th minute to keep Fort Wayne at bay. The Mastodons were not able to find the back of the net in the contest, giving Sullivan her first shutout of the season.

Madison Laudeman, Jr., D, Loyola

Loyola junior Madison Laudeman put in a pair of full shifts as the Ramblers split a pair of games to open the season. In Friday's 4-2 season-opening win over UMass Lowell, Laudeman notched the first assist of her collegiate career, providing the free kick for fellow junior Sienna Cruz's opening goal in the 17th minute of play. The Chesterfield, Mo. native was a fixture along the Loyola backline last season, starting in all 19 games.

Kaitlin Maxwell, So., GK, Missouri State

Kaitlin Maxwell's stellar defensive performance proved to be the difference maker with nine saves, five occurring in the latter half. Her stops allowed the Bears' to overcome a 2-0 deficit in the second half and eventually clinch the 3-2 win in overtime. The total broke her career high record of eight that she had against St. Louis last season. She also tallied three saves in a 1-0 shutout over Western Illinois to open the season, remaining a perfect 2-0 on the week.

Jami Reichenberger, Sr., GK, UNI

In UNI's opening match against South Dakota, Jami Reichenberger faced 13 shots from the South Dakota offense, with seven saves. Against the Coyotes last season, Reichenberger had three saves against South Dakota.

Drew Moulton, Sr., GK, Valparaiso

Moulton helped Valpo conclude an unbeaten weekend of action by earning a shutout in goal in Sunday's scoreless draw at Eastern Illinois, making a pair of saves. The clean sheet was the sixth of her career.

NEWCOMER

Bella Lestina, Fr., F, Loyola

Loyola freshman Bella Lestina came off the bench to appear in both of the Ramblers' games on the opening weekend of the 2018 season. The La Grange, Ill. native made her presence felt in the Ramblers' 2-1 defeat at No. 14/19 Notre Dame, notching not only the first goal of her career, but also the program's first goal against the Fighting Irish in the 72nd minute of play.

Logan Ziegler, Fr., MF, Illinois State

Ziegler provided an offensive spark for Illinois State in their opening week, opening Illinois State's scoring account, as well as her own, with a goal versus CSUN in the 67th minute on Thursday night. The Redbirds would overcome a two-goal deficit to draw with CSUN, 2-2, in an overtime battle.

Kennedy Orlick, Fr., F/M, Missouri State

Kennedy Orlick scored the game winning goal in the Bears' season opener to complete the 1-0 shutout of Western Illinois. She found the net with 45 seconds remaining in the first as she dribbled past a defender and connected from five yards out to score the lone goal of the match. The score was her first collegiate goal.

VALPARAISO (1-0-1, 0-0-0 MVC)

Getting It Done On the Road

This season marks just the fourth time in program history that Valpo has started the season with two consecutive road matches (1995, 2015, 2016). It is the first time in those four seasons that the Crusaders have earned results in both matches.

Fit to Be Tied

The scoreless draw with Eastern Illinois on Sunday was Valpo's first tie since a 1-1 tie with Wright State on Sept. 19, 2015. In between that match and Sunday, Valpo had 11 consecutive matches go to extra time and end on a golden goal.

Familiar Turf Awaits

Valpo will kick off a four-match homestand with contests this weekend against Toledo on Friday and Purdue Fort Wayne on Sunday. It is the Crusaders' longest stretch of consecutive home matches since the 2008 squad played five straight home games from Sept. 19 through Oct. 3.
