NOTEWORTHY

In addition to the league's Player and Newcomer of the Week selections, several conference players had notable performances, including:

Janae Gonzales (LUC) - Loyola freshman Janae Gonzales averaged 18.0 points and shot nearly 53 percent (9-of-17) from beyond the three-point arc in a pair of road contests for the Maroon & Gold this past weekend. After chipping in six points in Friday's setback at Missouri State, Gonzales erupted for a career-high 30 points in Sunday's clash with Southern Illinois. The Tolleson, Ariz. product connected on eight of her 13 attempts from distance, finishing just one triple shy of former Rambler great Maggie McCloskey's single-game school record of nine made threes in a game. Since the start of Valley play, Gonzales, who is operating at a 40 percent (42-of-104) clip from three-point land this season, has knocked down a league-best 3.4 three-point field goals per game.

Sydney Manning (MSU) - Sydney Manning led the Lady Bears in scoring in both games last week, averaging 13 points on 56 percent shooting, including 7-for-12 from beyond the arc. She added 3.5 rebounds per game, two steals and an assist, all in just 34 total minutes. Manning caught fire in Friday's win against Loyola, knocking down three 3-pointers and adding a conventional 3-point play in just three and a half minutes during the second quarter for a game-high 12 points on 4-of-9 shooting. Sunday, Manning went 4-for-6 from long range, tallying a career-high 14 points to go with three rebounds and two steals.

Karli Rucker (UNI) - Karli shot .588 from the field and .800 from the three-point line to lead UNI to a pair of MVC road wins. She scored 10 points and added four assists and two steals in the win against Evansville. She tallied 14 points, three assists and three steals in the win against Indiana State. She shot 4-7 from the field against Evansville and 6-10 against Indiana State. She averaged 4.0 rebounds in the two games as well.

Nicole Martin (SIU) - Southern Illinois junior Nicole Martin averaged 17.5 points on 57.1% (12-for-21) shooting from the field, 7.5 rebounds and 2.0 assists in SIU's two home wins over the weekend. The Jefferson City, Mo. native stuffed the stat sheet in Friday night's win over Valparaiso, as she finished with 16 points, five boards, three assists, a block and a steal in 29 minutes of play. She followed with her fourth double-double of the season, and seventh of her career, in SIU's win over Loyola on Sunday. The Preseason All-MVC selection poured in a team-high 18 points on 8-of-14 shooting to go along with 10 rebounds and an assist to help Southern improve to 8-1 at home on the year. It marked the third-straight game, and 14th time this season, that Martin has reached double figures.

Addison Stoller (VALPO) - Stoller upped her career highs in both scoring (22) and rebounding (11) on Jan. 25 at Southern Illinois, compiling her second career double-double in the process. She became the first Valpo player with multiple double-doubles this season and the first Valpo player to score 20 or more points and pull down 10 or more rebounds in the same game since Dani Franklin on Dec. 10, 2017 against Chicago State. Stoller turned in Valpo's first 20&10 game in conference play as a member of the MVC. She followed that by reaching double figures for the 11th time this season despite playing only 18 minutes on Jan. 27 at Missouri State, scoring 12 points in that game against the league's co-leader.

Monica Burich (DU) - Monica Burich scored nine points and pulled down a season-high 11 rebounds, including a career-best eight offensive rebounds, in the win over Evansville. For the second time in the past three games, she just missed recording a double-double.

Makayla Wallace (UE) - Freshman Makayla Wallace put together a pair of impressive performances. Facing UNI on Friday evening, Wallace finished in double-figures, scoring 10 points, while getting to the free-throw line nine times, adding two rebounds, two assists, and two steals. On Sunday afternoon, against Drake, Wallace led the Aces with 12 points and a career-high eight rebounds, along with two assists and one steal. Since beginning conference play, Wallace has scored double-digits six times, including six of the last seven games, after recording a double-figure scoring performance just once during non-conference play. Wallace leads Evansville in assists (2.3 per game), steals (2.2 per game), free-throws made (54), and free-throws attempted (87).

Daijah Smith (INS) - True freshman Daijah Smith recorded a career-high 14 points against Drake and shot 47% from the field over the week as Indiana State nearly upset the Bulldogs and ended the league's longest conference winning streak. Smith shot 50% from the 3-point line, was 5-for-7 from the free throw line and averaged 12.0 points per game on the weekend. The Sycamores led Drake for 27 minutes and Drake didn't hold a second half lead until 4 seconds remained in the game as Smith was 4 of 8 from the field against the Bulldogs as part of an 8 of 17 performance from the field for the week.

Cynthia Wolf (UNI) - Wolf scored seven points against Evansville and five against Indianan State. She also averaged 3.5 rebounds.

Payton McCallister (SIU) - Payton McCallister averaged 5.0 points, 1.5 rebounds and 1.5 assists in just over 8.5 minutes of work in SIU's two home wins over the weekend. McCallister dished out two assists and notched her second career block in the win over Valparaiso Friday night. On Sunday, McCallister was one of four Salukis to reach double figures in a 74-63 win over Loyola, as she went for 10 points on 2-of-3 shooting from behind the arc and was a perfect 4-for-4 from the free throw line. The Columbia, Mo. native also added three boards and an assist in the win. It was the fourth time this season that the freshman guard has scored in double figures and the first time she has done so since SIU's win over Hartford on Nov. 23, 2018.

Shay Frederick (VALPO) - Frederick averaged 12.5 points per game on the Carbondale/Springfield swing this weekend. The freshman point guard made a career-high six field goals at MVC co-leader Missouri State on Jan. 27, swishing four triples for the third time this season. She finished that game with 17 points, two shy of a career high, after turning in eight on Friday at Southern Illinois including a pair of 3s.

The 2019 Missouri Valley Conference Women's Basketball Tournament will return to the TaxSlayer Center in Moline, Ill., for the fourth-straight season.

Affectionately coined "Hoops in the Heartland," the four-day event (Mar. 14-17) will showcase all 10 Missouri Valley Conference schools as they compete for the Valley's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament.

The MVC extended an agreement with the Quad Cities Convention & Visitors Bureau to conduct the MVC Women's Basketball Championship in TaxSlayer Center through at least 2021.

The 2019 tournament will mark the 12th-consecutive season in its 37-year history that the event will take place at a neutral site.

The Missouri Valley Conference is one of only seven conferences (out of 32 nationally) where the women's basketball tournament is played at a neutral site, separate from the men's championship (AAC, ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, MVC, Pac-12 and SEC are the others).

BRADLEY (14-4, 4-3 MVC)

Getting Better

Saturday's 79-68 victory at I-74 rival Illinois State gave Bradley 14 victories on the year, surpassing the team's overall win total from 2017-18. In addition to marking the most wins since closing the 2012-13 campaign with a 14-16 record, the Braves have now improved their win total in four consecutive seasons to mark the first time in program history with four straight seasons with an improved record. Head Coach Andrea Gorski is the first coach in program history to lead Bradley to an improved win total in each of their first three seasons on the BU bench. The 14-4 record through 18 games is the best by the Braves since starting the 1981-82 season 17-4 and marks just the third 14-4 start to a season in program history (1980-81 - 14-4).

Streaking

Sophomore Gabi Haack scored 13 points at Illinois State to push her streak of consecutive games in double figures to 16. The MVC leader in three-point makes, Haack has hit at least one three-pointer in 12 consecutive contests. She is the first Bradley to have 10+ points in 16 straight games since Sara Bailey in 2000-01 and her streak is tied for the seventh longest in school history. The last Brave with a streak longer than 16 games scoring in double figures was Carrie Coffman with 28 straight 10+ point efforts between the 1993-94 and 1994-95 seasons. Haack's career-best streak of 12 consecutive games with a three-pointer is tied for the ninth longest in program history. She is just the third player in program history to connect on 50 three-pointers and make at least 80 free throws in a season. In fact, she is one of just five players in the nation to collect 50 three's and 80 made free throws through games of Jan. 27.

DRAKE (15-4, 7-0 MVC)

Battle of the Undefeated

After playing five of its past seven games on the road, Drake returns to the Knapp Center Friday, Feb. 1 when Missouri State visits. The Bulldogs and the Lady Bears each at 7-0 are the last two MVC teams that remain undefeated in league action. Friday's game will be the 85 all-time meeting between Drake and Missouri State as the Bulldogs own a slight edge, 43-41, in the all-time series.

Tough Test on Super Bowl Sunday

Drake closes the weekend with another difficult test as Southern Illinois comes to the Knapp Center for a Super Bowl Sunday showdown. The Bulldogs and the Salukis played three times last season with the Bulldogs winning all three. However, Drake had to rally from a 14-point third quarter deficit in the win in Des Moines. Later the teams played in the semifinals of the MVC Tournament and Drake rallied from a 12-point deficit early in the second quarter to advance to the championship game.

Call the Police

Senior Sammie Bachrodt nabbed four steals in the win over Evansville. The total equaled a season-best for the Wichita, Kan., native, who moved to No. 5 all-time at Drake in career steals with 238. She broke a tie with former defensive standout Keisha Cox (1994-98).

EVANSVILLE (2-17, 0-8 MVC)

Wallace's Emergence

In her first season with the Aces, freshman Makayla Wallace has made a significant impact. Against Drake on Sunday, Wallace recorded one of her best games of her young career, leading Evansville with 12 points and a career-high eight rebounds. Wallace leads the Aces in assists (2.3 per game), steals (2.2), free-throws made (54), and free-throws attempted (87).

Tucker Takes Charge

After scoring her first collegiate points against Loyola, freshman Sydney Tucker recorded a pair of strong performances in back-to-back games against Valparaiso and UNI. Facing Valpo on January 20, Tucker recorded nine points, tying Brooke Bishop for the team-high in scoring. On Friday evening against UNI, Tucker tallied a career-high for the third-straight game, scoring 11 points, including going on a personal 8-0 run over UNI during the second quarter.

Bench Production

In the Aces' matchup with UNI on Friday evening, Evansville received a productive outing from its bench. Of the Aces' 46 points against the Panthers, 30 points were scored by three players coming off Evansville's bench. Kayla Coffman paced UE with 12 points, Sydney Tucker recorded 11 points, and Brooke Bishop finished with seven points to aid the Aces.

ILLINOIS STATE (10-8, 3-4 MVC)

Tallying Talbot

Megan Talbot had a noteworthy performance in Saturday's game against Bradley. The junior forward has recently returned after being plagued by injury for the first half of the season. Talbot tied her career high with 3-pointers made (2) and assists (4). She was strong from the field, shooting 62.5 percent, adding 12 points for the 'Birds and grabbed four boards.

Some Things are Not as they Seem

The Redbirds have shot 50 percent or better from the field in two games this season (vs. Cleveland State and Bradley) and have finished with a loss both times. The team had a better field goal percentage and more shots from the floor than each of those opponents as well. The free-throw line was the deciding factor in both games...Cleveland State went to the line 19 times compared to ISU's 13 and Bradley finished the contest with 28 attempts to ISU's 12.

Marvelous Maggett

TeTe Maggett averages 17.6 points, 3.6 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.6 steals per game in Valley play. The junior guard has scored in double figures in all but one MVC contest and set a new career high of 29 points in win over UNI. She averages 94 percent from the charity stripe, netting 32-for-34 and leads the 'Birds in 3-point shooting with 19 made during MVC play. Currently, Maggett sits fifth in the Valley for overall points per game (16.1) and fifth in 3-pointers per game (1.9).

INDIANA STATE (9-10, 3-5 MVC)

The Road to March...Literally

Indiana State embarks upon a long road in the calendar year's shortest month as the Sycamores only have two home games (over one weekend) in the month of February. Five of ISU's seven games will be away from Hulman Center in a stretch reminiscent of the start of the season when the Trees opened the year with six of their first eight games away from home.

Cardiac Trees

The Sycamores are keeping fans on the edge of their seat this season for a full 40 minutes each game. Indiana State has played in eight games this year that have been decided by 10 or fewer points, posting a 6-3 record in those games. Moreover, ISU is tied for the Valley lead in one-possession (4 points or less) victories with three wins in those games.

Hot Tamara

As the weather has gotten cold, Tamara Lee has gotten hot. Since Jan. 6, Lee has found her rhythm on the court by shooting nearly 39 percent from the field and averaging 11.9 ppg, including a team-best 44.1 percent mark from beyond the arc. She has also grabbed nine steals in that time frame and is averaging a 72.7 percent mark from the free throw line.

LOYOLA (9-9, 3-4 MVC)

Heat Check

Freshman Janae Gonzales scorched the nets from distance this past weekend, operating at a 53 percent (9-of-17) clip from beyond the three-point arc. Gonzales connected on eight threes in Sunday's matchup with Southern Illinois, the most in a single game by a Rambler since 2010, as part of a 30-point performance. The Tolleson, Ariz. native currently ranks second in The Valley in three-point field goals made per game (2.5) and sits fourth in three-point field goal percentage (40.4%).

The 30s Are Wild

As noted above, Janae Gonzales enjoyed a career day this past Sunday against the Salukis, scoring a season-high 30 points. Gonzales is the second Rambler to reach the 30-point plateau this season, joining Abby O'Connor, who turned in a 31-point effort against city-rival DePaul back on December 20, 2018. O'Connor and Gonzales are the first two Ramblers to score at least 30 points in the same season since Taylor Johnson (31 points vs. Western Illinois) and Troy Hambric (30 points vs. Indiana State) accomplished the feat during the 2013-14 campaign.

Sweet Home Chicago

Loyola opens up a season-long four-game homestand this coming weekend as it welcomes in-state rivals Illinois State (February 1) and Bradley (February 3) to Gentile Arena. The Ramblers have already racked up seven victories at home, their most since 2015-16, and are 3-0 in the Windy City since the start of Missouri Valley Conference play.

MISSOURI STATE (11-7, 7-0 MVC)

Perfect January

Missouri State finished off the month of January with a 7-0 record, the Lady Bears' first unbeaten month since February 2012. MSU also went 7-0 on that occasion in the midst of an 11-game win streak that secured the program's most recent MVC regular season title.

Win Streak Continues

The Lady Bears kept their winning streaks intact with a pair of home victories, extending them to 10 consecutive wins overall, 14 in the MVC, and 13 in MVC home games. The team's current overall streak ties the longest under Kellie Harper (Feb. 13-March 14, 2015), and represents the 14th double-digit streak in school history. The Valley streak ranks third at MSU, and the 13 straight Valley home wins tie for fourth on that list.

Offensive Weekend

Missouri State averaged 96 points in two games last week, getting exceptional offensive balance with 13 different players tallying at least six points and no player averaging more than 13 points per game. Sunday's 108-point performance against Valpo represented a number of notable marks, including: Fourth-most points in MSU history and most since 1998; Most point ever for MSU in an MVC game; Fifth-highest scoring total for any league team in an MVC game; 41 field goals are the fifth-most in school history; .641 field goal percentage is the 10th-best in school history.

UNI (12-7, 5-2 MVC)

Home Success

UNI fell to Drake but is still impressive at the McLeod Center at 7-1 this season. UNI finished non-conference play undefeated for the first time in non-conference since the 1999 season. UNI didn't play a home non-conference game in the 2001-2002 season.

Lock Down

The Panthers held Evansville without a field goal until nearly two minutes into the second quarter. UNI outscored the Aces 22-1 in the first and held UE to just 46 points in the game. The Panthers followed that up by holding Indiana State to just 51 points Sunday.

Fine at the Line

UNI moved up to No. 2 in the NCAA in free throw percentage. The Panthers are shooting 78.7 percent from the line. Mikaela Morgan leads the way for UNI 36-41 (.875). Seven UNI players shoot 80 percent or better.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS (10-8, 3-4 MVC)

Home Sweet Home

The Salukis improved to 8-1 inside SIU Arena this season with a pair of Valley wins over the weekend. Southern's eight wins at home are the most of any Valley team thus far this season and the Salukis have now won at least eight home games in five-straight seasons, including 10 during the 2015-16 season. The Salukis are 49-31 (.613) at home under sixth-year head coach Cindy Stein and it marks the first time in over 20 years (1993-97) that Southern has posted five-straight seasons with winning records on its home floor.

Second Half Eruption

SIU erupted for a season-high 52 second half points on 59.3% shooting (16-of-27) in its 74-63 win over Loyola Sunday. Southern's 52 points were not only its most in any half this season, but also its most in a half since scoring 54 points in a win over UMKC on Dec. 19, 2016. Southern's 52 points were its most in a half of a Missouri Valley Conference game since scoring 53 in the second half of a 80-66 win at Wichita State on Feb. 21, 2016.

Getting to the Line

The Salukis shot a season-high 31 free throws in the win over Valparaiso on Friday, and followed by getting to the line 25 times in the win over Loyola. Southern's 56 combined free throw attempts were its most in consecutive games since 2011.

VALPARAISO (5-14, 1-6 MVC)

Tossing Up Triples

Valpo fired off a season-high 40 3-pointers on Sunday at Missouri State, setting the JQH Arena record for attempted 3s in a game. In addition, that total ranks second in program history behind only 41 attempts on Feb. 27, 1992 vs. Wright State and set the record for 3-point attempts in a road game. This year's team already owns three of the top four single-game 3-point attempt totals in program history. Before this season, Valpo had attempted more than 36 3s in a game just once all-time. The team has done so three times this year (vs. Bowling Green, at Drake, at Missouri State).

Joining Top 10s

The latest achievement in the storied career of Valpo senior guard Meredith Hamlet occurred on Jan. 25 at Southern Illinois as Hamlet moved into the Top 10 in program history in career scoring. She enters Friday's game against Bradley with 1,202 career points after recently passing Aimee Forsman (1988-1992), who was previously 10th. The career scoring list wasn't the only Top 10 Hamlet joined with her performances this past weekend, as she also moved into the Top 10 in the MVC in scoring average at 13.3 points per game.

Home Sweet Home

Valpo will begin a four-game homestand on Friday against Bradley, a much needed break from travel after starting the conference slate with five of the first seven away from the ARC. This begins Valpo's longest homestand of the season and marks the first time the team has played four in a row at home since Nov. 21 through Dec. 3, 2016. Valpo hasn't had four consecutive conference home games since the 2015-16 season.
