And We're Off

The league's 90-game conference slate begins on Friday, Jan. 3, with five games on the calendar. The opening night is highlighted by UNI at Drake and Missouri State at Loyola Chicago.

Quick Starts Crucial

Since 1982-83, just three teams (Missouri State, champions in 1998-99, 1994-95 and 1990-91; Drake, champions in 1996-97 and co-champions in 1987-88; and Evansville, a 2007-08 co-champion) have won at least a share of the regular-season title without winning its regular-season opener. In fact, 14 of the last 19 regular-season champs (or co-champs) have opened 2-0 or better in MVC play, with Evansville in 2007-08, Missouri State in 2004-05, UNI in 2010-11, Missouri State in 2011-12 and UNI in 2015-16 serving as the only five exceptions.

Road Success

Loyola Chicago is tied with UConn for the national lead with a 6-0 road record this season and is one of four teams with at least six road victories overall. Cleveland State is 7-1 on the road, while Duquesne is 6-1.

The Valley has posted a 26-24 overall road record this season. The 26 non-conference road wins is the most this decade for The Valley (21 road wins in 2011-12 & 2012-13).

Home Sweet Home

Six MVC teams are unbeaten at home: Bradley (4-0), Drake (5-0), Illinois State (6-0), Missouri State (5-0), UNI (4-0) and Valparaiso (3-0) have unblemished records on their home courts this season. The Valley currently holds a 37-7 (.841) mark at home this season. The 37 home wins ties a Valley record for most home wins this decade (2010-11 season).

Title Town

The league has had nine different regular-season champions in the past 13 seasons (SIU-2007, DU/UE/ILS-2008, ILS-2009, ILS-2010, UNI-2011; MSU-2012; WSU/CU-2013; INS/WSU-2014; WSU-2015; UNI-2016; DU-2017; DU-2018; DU-2019). Bradley, Loyola and Valparaiso are the only league teams not to have won a regular-season MVC championship.

For Starters

The 18-game conference schedule begins with five games on Jan. 3. Here's a look at how current MVC members have fared in conference-opening games in the last five seasons. Southern Illinois has the current longest winning streak in MVC openers, having won its last six conference debuts.

Team	ALL	Home	Away	Streak

Hoops In the Heartland

The 2020 Missouri Valley Conference Women's Basketball Tournament will return to the TaxSlayer Center in Moline, III., for the fifth-straight Affectionately coined "Hoops in the Heartland," the four-day event (Mar. 12-15) will showcase all 10 Missouri Valley Conference schools as they compete for the Valley's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament.

The MVC's agreement with Visit Quad Cities will keep the MVC Women's Basketball Championship in TaxSlayer Center through at least 2021.

The 2020 tournament will mark the 13th-consecutive season in its 38-year history that the event will take place at a neutral site.

The Missouri Valley Conference is one of only seven conferences (out of 32 nationally) where the women's basketball tournament is played at a neutral site, separate from the men's championship (AAC, ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, MVC, Pac-12 and SEC are the others).

Postseason League

The MVC has seen an average of four league teams participate in postseason play in the last 21 seasons, including three teams reaching postseason play in 2018-19. Missouri State reached the Sweet Sixteen for the fourth time in program history, while Drake fell to Missouri in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament. UNI received a bid to the WNIT for the second-straight season. The Valley has earned multiple NCAA Tournament bids in 12 different seasons, including two out of the last three seasons.

Starters Returning

The Missouri Valley Conference will see 30 of 50 starters return (60%) for the 2019-20 season. The league will return nine of its top 10 in scoring, seven of its top 10 in rebounding and four of its top five in assists. The Valley will also have eight of its 11 All-MVC players return and five of its six honorable mention selections.

Coaches Teleconferences

Teleconferences with The Valley head coaches will be conducted twice throughout the season. The conferences begin at 11:45 a.m. (CST). To participate in the conference calls, call (877) 417-8778. Coaches call (877) 417-8756.

BRADLEY (9-2)

Valley Opener

Bradley will start Missouri Valley Conference play with a three-game home stand for the first time since 2004-05 and just the fourth time in program history (1998-99 & 1992-93). The Valley opener against Evansville will mark the first time dating back to 1996-97 that Bradley will face the Aces in the first league game of the year and just the second Valley opener against UE overall. The Braves will be trying to open MVC play with a home victory for the first time since kicking off the 1996-97 Valley schedule with an 83-53 victory over Evansville at Robertson Memorial Field House.

No Place Like Home

Helped by a 10-game home win streak, the Braves have had success in the state of Illinois, winning eight consecutive regular-season games played in the Land of Lincoln and owning 13-1 mark in their last 14 regular-season games played in Illinois dating back to the last home loss (Jan. 18, 2019 vs. Missouri State). Bradley plays the next four games in the state of Illinois and six of the first seven league games.

Historic Pace

Junior Gabi Haack and sophomore Lasha Petree were Bradley's first pair of players to hit at least 50 three-pointers in a season since 1994-95 last year and the duo is on a historic pace so far in 2019-20. With both individuals among the top four in the MVC in three-pointers per game, Petree (2.8 per game) and Haack (2.7 per game) have combined for 61 three-pointers, which is more than two MVC team's total trey's through games of Dec. 22. Bradley is averaging a league-best 8.5 three-pointers per game (25th nationally) and the team's 94 total triples is already halfway to matching the school season record of 188 set in 1994-95.

DRAKE (7-4)

Stop the Streak

Drake lost back-to-back games for the first time this season with road losses at Power Five schools, Oklahoma and Iowa, last week. After a break for the holidays, the Bulldogs will have a chance to stop the streak with their final non-conference game Dec. 29 at Northern Illinois.

Road Win

The away game against the Huskies will also give Drake the opportunity to collect its first road win of the season. The Bulldogs have fallen at South Dakota, at Oklahoma and at Iowa in their three road games.

1-2

Becca Hittner and Sara Rhine each shot the basketball well on the road last week. Hittner knocked down four three-pointers in each game and tallied a 50.0 percent overall shooting clip from the floor. Rhine finished with a blistering 65.4 percent clip from the floor. Hittner scored 38 points while Rhine had 39 in the two games. This season, Rhine is the MVC's scoring leader at 18.9 points while Hittner is seventh at 16.3 points.

EVANSVILLE (3-8)

Bracy's Quick Start

After sitting out due to NCAA transfer rules, junior Lola Bracy has picked-up quickly for Evansville. Through four games, Bracy is Evansville's leading scorer at 16.8 points per game, scoring double-figures in all four of her contests for the Aces.

Inside Impact

Despite primarily playing on the wing, freshman Abby Feit has provided an inside presence for the Aces. Feit leads the team in rebounding (8.5 per game) and blocks (1.7 per game), leading the Valley in blocks and sitting third in rebounds.

Matching Win TotalAfter completing the non-conference slate on Sunday, the Aces hold a 3-8 overall record. The three wins match the team's total wins from the 2017-18 season and are one of last season's win total.

ILLINOIS STATE (8-2)

Stepping Up

With reigning Newcomer of the Year TeTe Maggett sitting out due to injury, redshirt freshman Mary Crompton has stepped up in a big way. Getting her third and fourth start of the season, Crompton tallied five three-pointers in each of ISU's wins last week, shooting 10-of-14

(71.4%) from deep, and averaging 15.5 points to help the 'Birds go 2-0.

Unbeaten At Home

With Thursday's victory over Jackson State, the Redbirds have officially completed the non-conference schedule 6-0 at home. This is the second season in a row that head coach Kristen Gillespie's team has gone undefeated at home in non-conference.

Dominant Defense

The Redbirds lead the conference in scoring defense, averaging only 58.1 points allowed per game. They have outrebounded their opponents in seven (of ten) games this season and held them to under a 40 percent field goal p	ercentage in eight g	ames this year.

INDIANA STATE (2-9)

A Balanced Attack

Indiana State continues to bring a balanced offensive attack to the table, with the most recent effort coming at home against Southeast Missouri. A duo of freshmen led the Trees in their loss against SEMO, with Caitlin Anderson tallying 13 points and Adrian Folks finishing with 11. Five Sycamores finished with eight or more points. Seven of ISU's 11 games have seen at least three athletes score 10 points.

Hittin the Boards

Through the nonconference, ISU can boast themselves as one of the best offensive rebounding teams in the Missouri Valley Conference. The Trees have pulled down 153 offensive boards in 11 games, giving them an average of 13.9 per-game. ISU was right on their average against SEMO, pulling down 14 offensive boards and Jamyra McChristine leads the blue and white with 6.2 rebounds per game.

LOYOLA (9-1)

Left It On the Floor

Loyola gave No. 16/16 DePaul all it could handle this past Friday night in Rogers Park, battling the Blue Demons until the very end in an 83-76 defeat that brought an end to Loyola's season-opening nine-game win streak. Allison Day and Abby O'Connor each scored 16 points to pace the Rambler attack, while Jala Johnson came off the bench to score a season-best 14 points.

One Final Tune-Up

Following a break for the holidays, Loyola will have the opportunity to make final adjustments for Missouri Valley Conference play when it hosts Western Michigan on December 30 at Gentile Arena. Already assured of its best finish to a non-conference slate in program history, the Maroon & Gold will go after their second consecutive victory over the Broncos following a 64-53 victory last season in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Into The Valley

After its aforementioned matchup with Western Michigan, Loyola will have just three days off before it begins its 18-game Missouri Valley Conference slate when No. 20/17 Missouri State and Southern Illinois invade Gentile Arena on the opening weekend of league play. The Ramblers gave Missouri State, the MVC's reigning tournament champion, one of their toughest tests during the 2019 postseason, dropping a hard-fought 59-50 decision to the Lady Bears in the quarterfinals of the MVC Tournament as Missouri State went on to advance to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament.

#17/21 MISSOURI STATE (9-2)

On to MVC Play

The Lady Bears open their 28th season in the Missouri Valley Conference on Jan. 3 at Loyola. Missouri State is 17-10 all-time in MVC openers and has finished third or better in the final league standings 20 times in 27 seasons. Missouri State has five straight top-three MVC finishes, winning $12\ \text{or}$ more Valley games each season, and is $65\text{-}15\ \text{in}$ its last $80\ \text{regular}$ season league contests.

Wrapping Up Successful Non-Con

With one game still on the schedule, Missouri State has already put together one of the best non-conference resumes in school history. The Lady Bears have a school-record nine wins prior to MVC play, have spent several weeks in both major polls, and were rated second in the NCAA RPI on the morning after their final game before the holiday break with three top-50 RPI road victories to their credit.

Valley Road Success

The Lady Bears take an 11-game MVC road winning streak into the opener at Loyola, the longest streak in school history. MSU went 9-0 on the Valley road last year for the first time ever, and last lost on the road at Drake on Feb. 4, 2018. Missouri State is 33-7 in its last 40 away conference contests.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS (8-3)

Compass Champs

The Southern Illinois Salukis defeated the Western Illinois, 79-65 and followed with an 80-61 win over Northern Illinois to win the Compass Challenge for the second-straight season. Makenzie Silvey was named the Tournament's MVP for the second-straight season while Kristen Nelson earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team once again after she also did so last season.

Non-Conference Wins

With SIU's two wins in the Compass Challenge, Southern improved to 8-3 in non-conference play. SIU's eight non-conference wins are its most in a season since 1987.

Dropping Dimes

Southern's ball movement was superb in both of its wins at the Compass Challenge. The Salukis dished out 23 assists in the win over the Leathernecks and finished with 24 assists in the win over the Huskies for an average of 23.5 assists per game. It's the first back-to-back 20-plus assist games for Southern since 2016.

VALPARAISO (6-3)

The Streak Continues

Tuesday's win over Morehead State extended Valpo's winning streak to five straight games. It is the 20th streak of five or more consecutive wins in program history, but the first-such streak since the 2006-07 squad won six in a row Feb. 12-March 3. The last time

Valpo won five straight games in non-conference play came back in the WNIT quarterfinal season of 2001-02, when the Brown and Gold closed pre-conference action with five wins in succession.

Best Nine-Game Start

Meanwhile, the five consecutive wins have pushed the Crusaders' record to 6-3, matching the best start through nine games to a season in program history. Five previous Valpo squads sat at 6-3 through nine games, most recently the 1999-2000 team.

Defense Wins Games

Valpo limited Morehead State to 38.8% shooting from the floor, including just 4-of-21 from 3-point range, and forced 22 turnovers by the Eagles in last Tuesday's win. Combined with the 37-point defensive effort in the win over UIC, it marked the first time Valpo has won consecutive games and held its opponent to 53 or fewer points since Dec. 29, 2012 and Jan. 5, 2013.
