Starters Returning/Lost: 3/3

NOTEWORTHY

- Bradley has posted an improved record in each of the last four years, with the 2018 season culminating with a 24-9 overall record for the team's first 20-win season since 2001 along with the first post-season appearance in program history. The 14-win improvement from the previous season was the second largest in the country in 2018 and the Braves matched the best improvement in MVC history, winning 10 more league matches (13-5) than in 2017.
- Defense was a big factor in Bradley's success last year with the Braves finishing the season second nationally in digs per set and 36th in opponent hitting percentage. Sophomore outside hitter Hannah Thompson, who was named the 2018 MVC Freshman of the Year, had Bradley freshman records of 383 kills and 528 digs as she was one of only two players in the nation in 2018 and the first MVC player in at least a decade to reach 380 kills and 525 digs.

NOTEWORTHY

- The Bulldogs are coming off the program's second-ever postseason appearance and first since 1995 after advancing to the NIVC last season following a 21-15 season. The 20-win season gave the Bulldogs back-to-back 20-win seasons and was the seventh 20-win season in program history.
- The Bulldogs also made history in 2018, advancing to the MVC Tournament semifinals with the program's first tournament win since 1998 and also became the first No. 6 seed in league history to advance to the semifinals.
- The Bulldogs will have to replace the offensive firepower of All-MVC selection Cathryn Cheek, but return their entire lineup of setters and defensive specialists this season. The team also added six offensive players to the roster heading into 2019.

Aces ... At A Glance

2018 Finish: 10-21/4-14 MVC (8th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/7
Starters Returning/Lost: 3/4

NOTEWORTHY

- Fernando Morales takes over the UE program as the interim head coach. Last season, Morales joined the Purple Aces as an assistant coach. He helped the program take a large step forward and looks to do the same in 2019. He has great familiarity with his staff, which includes Melissa Rabell, who was a graduate assistant with UE for the past two seasons along with GA Olivia Goldstein, a 4-year letterwinner for the Aces.
- Evansville returns seven letterwinners from last season and welcomes six freshman to its core. Seniors Rachel Tam, Gabriela Macedo and Patricia Joseph will look to lead the young squad. Sophomore Alondra Vazquez debuted in 2018 for the Aces and earned a spot on the MVC All-Freshman Team.
- Rachel Tam anchors the Evansville offense and grabbed a spot on the All-MVC Second Team in 2018. She was one of the top offensive players in the league and NCAA as a whole. She finished the regular season second in the MVC with 4.21 kills per set while accumulating 492 on the season.

2018 Finish: 25-8/16-2 MVC (T-1st)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/7
Starters Returning/Lost: 2/4

NOTEWORTHY

- The Redbirds are coming off their ninth-consecutive winning season and fourth 20-win season in five years. As a program, Illinois State has accumulated 1,106 wins – the 14th-most in NCAA Division I.
- ISU's NCAA appearance in 2018 marked its second-straight post-season appearance after playing in the NIVC in 2017. With this feat, it was the first time since the 1997 and 1998 seasons that the Redbirds had made the postseason in back-to-back years.
- The Redbird have finished above .500 in MVC play the last eight seasons and 13 of the last 15 seasons.

Ramblers ... At A Glance

2018 Finish: 16-14/8-10 MVC (T-6th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 8/5
Starters Returning/Lost: 4/2

NOTEWORTHY

- Senior outside hitter Quinn Spieker enters the 2019 season needing 307 kills to reach 1,000 for her career. Last season, Spieker had a bounce-back year, racking up a personal-best 320 kills, while hitting .214.
- A position switch before last season proved to be quite a shot in the arm to senior Heather Kocken's career. Upon moving to middle blocker, Kocken wound up ranking fourth in The Valley with 1.03 blocks per set, and also led the team with a .299 hitting percentage (229-74-518).
- Loyola had a solid year in Amanda Berkley's first season as head coach, posting its first winning record since 2015, by going 16-14 overall. The Ramblers were one of only 18 NCAA Division I programs to boast a 10-match improvement in the win column from 2017.

2018 Finish: 17-15/10-8 MVC (5th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/7
Starters Returning/Lost: 5/2

NOTEWORTHY

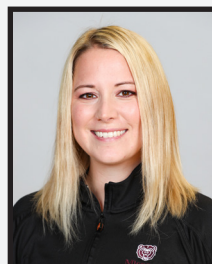

- Missouri State brings back five starters from a 2018 club that posted a winning record both overall and MVC play for the 20th consecutive season. In terms of statistical production, the Bears return 65 percent of total kills, 83 percent of assists, 59 percent of aces, 57 percent of the digs and 58 percent of the blocking from that squad.
- MSU's leading returners in kills, digs and assists are sophomores. Outside hitter Amelia Flynn ranked third all-time among MSU freshmen last season with 380 kills and a 3.36 per set average to lead the Bears, while her 306 total digs are the most for any returning player. Chloe Rear handed out 1,166 assists, third-most ever by a Missouri State freshman, and had the four highest single-match assist totals for an MSU freshman since 2000. Additionally, Leah Vokolek returns to the defensive rotation after scooping 258 digs in 2018, second among veterans behind Flynn.
- The Bears boasts a challenging schedule in 2019, including 13 matches against teams that played in the postseason last year. MSU welcomes top-50 RPI opponents Kansas State and Dayton to Springfield during the non-conference schedule, and begins Valley play with the league's five 2018 postseason qualifiers in succession.

NOTEWORTHY

- A new era of Southern Illinois volleyball begins in 2019 as Ed Allen becomes the 10th head coach in Saluki volleyball history when SIU heads to the St. Louis Invitational, Aug. 30-31. Allen arrived in Carbondale by way of the University of Alabama, where he served as head coach for eight seasons, which included two trips to the NCAA Tournament.
- SIU returns 10 letterwinners from a year ago, including seniors Alayna Martin and Laura Rojas. Southern also welcomes a talented group of newcomers, highlighted by a trio of highly regarded pin hitters in freshman outside hitter Alex Washington along with junior transfers Kyra Hunter and Savannah Sheridan.
- Southern will play a competitive non-conference schedule in 2019, which includes SIU's longest homestand since 1980. The Salukis will also have plenty of early tests during its conference schedule with five of its first six Valley matches against programs that played postseason volleyball a year ago.

Valpo ... At A Glance

2018 Finish: 27-11/11-7 MVC (4th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 10/4
Starters Returning/Lost: 3/4

NOTEWORTHY

- Consistently one of the team's top defensive teams, Valpo took it to another level in 2018, leading the nation in total digs with 2,613 digs – the most by any Division I program in the 25-point rally scoring era. Leading the way was junior libero Rylee Cookerly, who tallied 739 digs – third-most in a single season in program history. Just two years into her Crusader career, Cookerly already ranks among Valpo's career top-10 in digs and is on pace to set the program's career record.
- Offensively, junior setter Brittany Anderson returns after earning First Team All-MVC honors last season as she led the nation with 1,539 total assists – second-most in a single season in Valpo history. Anderson will have to find new targets for her sets, however, as Valpo graduated its top three players in terms of kills from last year's squad.
- The 2019 Valpo team will be full of new faces, as head coach Carin Avery has brought in a freshman class of eight newcomers to join the 10 returnees.
