MVC Offensive Player of the Week

Josh Dolling, Jr., F, Missouri State

Josh Dolling continues his hot start to the 2019 campaign for the Bears, scoring the game-winning goals in both matches last week to keep Missouri State undefeated on the season. The junior forward fired the game-winner in the final minute of regulation to secure the Bears' 1-0 win over Central Arkansas on Tuesday, Sept. 10. He turned right around and provided late-game heroics once again in the next match, scoring the golden goal for MSU in its 2-1 overtime thriller against Tulsa on Saturday night. Dolling leads the nation with four game-winning goals, recording the go-ahead goal in each of the Bears' four straight wins to open the season.

Other Notable Performances: Leroy Enzugusi (DU); Jesse Stafford-Lacey (UE); Billy Hency (LUC); Ryan Madondo (VALPO)

MVC Defensive Player of the Week

Kyle Hiebert, Jr., D, Missouri State

Kyle Hiebert played in 183 minutes in two matches for Missouri State this past week as the Bears stayed undefeated with wins over Central Arkansas and Tulsa. A junior from Canada, Hiebert helped the Bears' defense secure its third straight shutout in a 1-0 win against UCA. A mainstay at center back for MSU, Hiebert anchors a Bears' backline that has surrendered only one goal on the season, holding opponents to just four shots on goal through the first four games.

Other Notable Performances: Luke Anderson (DU); Hunter DeWeese (UE); Edvin Holst (VALPO)

NOTEWORTHY

In addition to the league's player of the week selections, several conference players had notable performances, and they include:

Leroy Enzugusi (DU) - Enzugusi enjoyed a career night in Drake's 1-0 win over Kansas City on Saturday, unleashing eight shots and putting four on goal, both of which are personal bests. The junior scored the game-winner via free kick in the 57th minute after drawing a foul to earn the attempt. Four of Enzugusi's shot attempts were on frame, a major reason the Bulldogs recorded a season-best six shots on goal against the Roos. Enzugusi ranks third in the MVC in shots per game (3.6) and tied for fifth in goals (two).

Jesse Stafford-Lacey (UE) - Helping Evansville to an unbeaten record this week, Jesse Stafford-Lacey had a hand in both of the Aces' goals. Against Lipscomb on Tuesday night, Stafford-Lacey tied the match in the 83rd minute on a stunning goal that soared over the keeper's head from 35 yards out. Coming back home on Saturday evening, Stafford-Lacey assisted on the game-winning goal against UNC Asheville as the Kerry, Ireland native received a pass from freshman Nkosi Graham and slipped it through to sophomore Ryan Harris who found the back of the net. Stafford-Lacey leads Evansville in goals (three), points (seven), shots (11), and shots on-goal (five), and is tied for the team-lead in assists with one.

Billy Hency (LUC) - Hency notched two goals and one assist to secure Loyola's 4-2 win over DePaul on Friday. His second goal of the night in the 86th minute was also the game-winner. Hency's standout night is already a career-best, having tallied just one goal and one assist last season as a freshman. The Fenton, Mo. native also added four shots in the game, three of which were on goal, to aid the Ramblers in out-shooting the Blue Demons, 12-7.

Ryan Madondo (VALPO) - The East Tennessee State transfer picked a good time for his first goal in a Valpo kit, providing an 89th-minute equalizer on Sunday night at Oral Roberts. He converted a 1-vs.-1 with the goalkeeper to send the match into overtime. It was the latest Valpo goal in regulation since Alex Brown scored at the 89:02 mark to lift the team to a 1-0 win over Milwaukee on Sept. 7 of last season.

Luke Anderson (DU) - Drake's defense recorded season-bests against Kansas City in multiple categories, including shots allowed (four), shots on goal (two), and goals (zero). Anderson recorded two saves en route to earning the Bulldogs' first shutout of the season. Anderson added two saves against Big East foe DePaul and ranks third in the MVC in saves per game (2.00).

Hunter DeWeese (UE) - In a week that saw Evansville's opponents score just once, redshirt-senior Hunter DeWeese was a solid force along the backline for the Aces. Against Lipscomb, DeWeese played 98 of a possible 110 minutes, allowing one goal and also recording a shot. DeWeese helped the Aces record a shutout win over UNC Asheville, playing all 90 minutes and not allowing a shot on-frame from the Bulldogs. DeWeese leads all field players for Evansville in minutes played this season, seeing 415 minutes of action in five matches.

Edvin Holst (VALPO) - Valpo goalkeeper Edvin Holst notched eight saves in his lone appearance of the week, a valiant effort in a 2-1 double-overtime loss to Oral Roberts on Sunday. He has recorded eight saves or more in two of his first three collegiate starts. The eight saves in a single match equals the most by a Valpo player since Nico Campbell's nine on Sept. 9, 2014 vs. Butler. Holst put together a strong showing to fend off numerous quality ORU chances. The first goal came on a rebound after he had a diving stop on the initial try.

Nominees are provided by each school's sports information contact and voted on by a panel appointed by the league office.

PRESEASON COACHES' POLL

MVC SOCCER NOTES

No Place Like Home

MVC men's soccer programs have been extremely successful at home this non-conference season, sitting 11-2-2 on their home pitches. The start is the best in MVC men's soccer since the 2009 season when MVC programs went 16-4-2 at home in non-league play.

Home Win Streak

Loyola extended its home win streak to eight-straight on Friday, beating crosstown rival DePaul. The Ramblers last home defeat was a 1-0 overtime loss to Northwestern on Sept. 7, 2018. The streak is tied for the fifth active streak in NCAA Division I trailing Air Force (18), UIC (16), Cal State Fullerton (15) and Indiana (14).

Dolling Strikes Again

Missouri State's Josh Dolling scored his third and fourth consecutive game-winning goal for the Bears with his last minute goal vs. Central Arkansas and overtime goal vs. Tulsa. Dolling is tied for first nationally (Anders Engebretsen of St. Mary's) with four game-winners on the season.

Bears Remain Perfect

Missouri State extended its winning streak to four games with a pair of late-game thrillers as the Bears scored in the 89th minute in a 1-0 win over Central Arkansas, followed by a 2-1 come-from-behind win in overtime against Tulsa on Saturday night. The Bears have opened their season with four straight wins for the first time since 2000.

The Bears are one of 12 teams still sitting perfect in all of NCAA Division I, joining Stanford, SMU, St. John's, Saint Mary's, Clemson, Navy, Wake Forest, Virginia, Georgetown, Cal St. Fullerton and Rutgers. MSU is the only team not ranked in any polls.

Another Shutout

MSU started the season with three-straight shutouts for the first time in program history, before surrendering a goal in the win over Tulsa Saturday. The Bears' defense has held opponents to a total of four shots on goal through the first four matches to open the season.

National Team of the Week

MVC in Regional Rankings

The MVC has three teams currently ranked in the latest United Soccer Coaches West Regional rankings released on Tuesday (Sept. 17). Missouri State jumped to No. 2 in the region, while Loyola (6th) and Evansville (9th) also appear in the poll.

Polling

Missouri State is receiving votes in the latest United Soccer Coaches Top 25 poll. The Bears received 22 points and sit 29th overall.

BRADLEY (1-2-2)

Streaks End

Bradley carried some lengthy unbeaten streaks into Friday's game against Eastern Illinois, only to see them come to an end in a game the Braves dominated in every category but the final score. The 1-0 loss to the visiting Panthers ended Bradley's program-record-equalling non-conference unbeaten streak at 17 games (9-0-8), dating to Oct. 17, 2017. The Braves also had been 9-0-0 all-time at Shea Stadium against Eastern Illinois and was unbeaten (7-0-1) in their last seven games versus the Panthers, dating to the 2009 season.

Focus on Valley Opener

Bradley will turn its attention to its Missouri Valley Conference opener, a Saturday trip to Drake. Without a midweek game this week, the Braves will have five days to prepare for their league opener. The game against the Bulldogs will kick off the new, double round-robin MVC schedule format. Bradley will face Drake twice in its next four games with the return matchup set for Oct. 5 at Shea Stadium to cap Bradley University's annual Homecoming week.

DRAKE (2-3)

Strong Defensive Effort

The Bulldogs' defense was flawless against Kansas City, limiting the Roos to four shots, two shots on goal, and zero goals. All of those marks represent season-bests for Drake. Luke Anderson recorded two saves as the Bulldogs earned their first shutout of the year.

Career Night

Leroy Enzugusi enjoyed a career night against Kansas City, recording career-bests in shots (eight) and shots on goal (four). Enzugusi drew a foul from just outside the 18-yard box in the 57th minute, and cashed in on the opportunity with a beautiful game-winning strike that curled just inside the right post. The Bulldogs ripped six shots on goal against the Roos, a season high.

EVANSVILLE (2-2-1)

Stafford-Lacey's Stardom

Senior Jesse Stafford-Lacey saw himself become a social media star for a few hours on Tuesday night. The Aces' midfielder scored a game-tying goal in the 83rd minute against Lipscomb, letting loose of a shot from nearly 40 yards out near the touchline that found its way over the keeper and into the net. Stafford-Lacey's goal quickly began to gain attention on social media with more than 24,000 views and 5,500 likes on the NCAA Soccer account.

Home Sweet Home

Evansville has played just two matches at home this season, but have been successful at Arad McCutchan Stadium. In two matches at McCutchan Stadium, the Aces have recorded four goal on 27 shots with 13 coming on-goal. The Aces are out-scoring their opposition 4-1 at home this season and have not lost at home since Sept. 21, 2018 in a loss to then No. 2 Indiana.

Offensive Emergence

Evansville's offense ran well in a 1-1 draw at Lipscomb on Tuesday night. The Aces' 25 shots were the most in a match for Evansville since recording 26 shots against Bradley on Sept. 27, 2017.

LOYOLA (3-2)

Home Sweet Home

With Friday's 4-2 win over DePaul at Loyola Soccer Park, the Ramblers move their home winning streak to 8-0. The team hasn't lost at home since September 7, 2018.

Fantastic Four

Four Ramblers have played all 90 minutes in each of the last five games for the Maroon & Gold. Marcel Kampman, Marius Kullmann, Andrew Mitchell and Giann Magno have all racked up 450 minutes already this season, each contributing to the Ramblers success on the defensive end.

A Team Effort

Aidan Megally and Justin Sukow also tallied a goal and an assist for the Ramblers on Friday. Sukow notched the first goal of the game in the 30th minute, while Megally had the second in the 76th. It was truly a back-to-back team effort as Hency assisted Megally's goal and Megally and Sukow had assists on Hency's goals.

MISSOURI STATE (4-0)

Dolling Strikes Again

Forward, Josh Dolling tallied his Division-I leading third and fourth straight game-winning goals for the Bears. After finishing atop the Missouri Valley Conference in goals scored and total points in 2018, he leads the league in both categories with four goals and eight total points on the season.

Another Shutout

MSU started the season with three-straight shutouts for the first time in program history. The Bears' defense has held opponents to a total of four shots on goal through the first four matches to open the season.

Still Perfect

Missouri State extended its winning streak to four games with a pair of late-game thrillers as the Bears scored in the 89th minute in a 1-0 win over Central Arkansas, followed by a 2-1 come-from-behind win in overtime against Tulsa on Saturday night. The Bears have opened their season with four straight wins for the first time since 2000.

VALPARAISO (1-3-1)

Good in Goal

Just three appearances into his collegiate career, freshman goalkeeper Edwin Holst has already enjoyed a pair of eight-save efforts. The last time a Valpo goalkeeper had more than eight saves in a match was Sept. 9, 2014, when Nico Campbell stopped nine shots on goal vs. Butler. Holst leads the Missouri Valley Conference with 18 saves in just three games while everyone else in the Top 5 in the league has played in five games and no one else has more than 13 saves.

Lucky Seven

When Ryan Madondo found the back of the net on Sunday night in Tulsa, he became the seventh Valpo player with a goal this season. The team featured 11 goal scorers last season, and Mason Marcey is the only player who has scored both last season and already this season. Just five games into 2019, Valpo has already had 17 different players score goals over the 2018 and 2019 seasons.

Late Heroics

Ryan Madondo's game-tying goal at 88:23 on Sunday night in Tulsa was Valpo's latest goal since Alex Brown put the team up 1-0 at the 89:02 mark on Sept. 7 of last season at Milwaukee. The last time Valpo trailed as late as the 89th minute and got the game to overtime was Sept. 29, 2014, when Nick Suker scored at 89:37 to tie a match with Dayton at two, an eventual 2-2 draw at Brown Field.
