NOTEWORTHY

- For the first time in program history Bradley has back-to-back 20-win seasons, with the Braves winning a school record 22 games in 2019-20 to break the previous record of 21 victories in 2008-09 (21-10). The 42 wins over the last two years are the most in a two-year stretch in program history, surpassing the 39 wins during the 1979-80 (20) and 1980-81 (19) teams. Bradley is the first team in Missouri Valley Conference history to post an improved overall win total in five consecutive seasons.
- Fifth-year Bradley Head Coach Andrea Gorski has guided her alma mater to an improved overall win total in each of her first four seasons. One of four coaches in Missouri Valley Conference history to lead a team to a better overall win total in four consecutive seasons, Gorski has joined Northern Iowa's Tony DiCecco as the only coaches in league history to do so in each of their first four years as head coach in the MVC. DiCecco did so in his first four years at UNI from 1995-96 through 1998-99. Gorski is currently third in Bradley history with 67 victories, which ranks as the most in a four-year stretch for the Braves since collecting 71 wins between 2008-09 and 2011-12.
- Bradley is one of 10 teams in the nation to win at least 22 games last year and return three individuals that averaged at least 10 points per game. In fact, only eight of those squads claimed 22 victories prior to their respective conference tournaments in 2019-20. Joining Bradley on that exclusive list year was Stanford, Texas A&M, Old Dominion, Indiana, DePaul, Fresno State and Central Michigan.

NOTEWORTHY

- Drake enters the 2020-21 season off its sixth-straight 20-win season in 2019-20, a season that ended abruptly due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Before the cancellation of the 2020 postseason, the Bulldogs were 22-8 and projected to earn their fourth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. It would have been the first time in school history Drake qualified for four consecutive NCAA Tournaments. The impressive 20-win streak started in 2014-15 and ties the league record for consecutive 20-win seasons with Drake (1996-2001) and Missouri State (1990-96).
- Maddie Monahan is the Bulldogs' most experienced player and one of four seniors with Monica Burich, Hannah Fuller and Mya Mertz. Kierra Collier is Drake's other returning starter along with Monahan. Collier is joined in the junior class by Maggie Negaard and Allie Wooldridge. Sophomores Maggie Bair and Sarah Beth Guelnder return while Missouri transfer, Grace Berg is ready to make her Drake debut. Redshirt freshman Taylor McAulay and freshmen Courtney Becker round out the Bulldogs' roster.
- Collier and Monahan form one of the Missouri Valley Conference's most experienced backcourts. Collier averaged 8.9 points and 2.7 assists per game last year in her first season as a Bulldog after her transfer from Washington. Monahan has started 96 of 98 career games, scored 572 points and handed out 349 assists. She is just outside the school's career leaders in total assists and has an opportunity to be just the sixth Drake player to hand out 500 or more career assists.

2019-20 Finish: 19-10/11-7 MVC (4th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 8/4
Starters Returning/Lost: 2/3

NOTEWORTHY

- The Redbirds return a pair of All-MVC honorees in seniors Paige Saylor and Juliunn Redmond. Saylor, ISU's starting point guard, was recognized on the MVC All-Defensive Team for the second time in her career, playing in all 29 games during the 2019-20 campaign. Redmond was named the MVC Newcomer of the Year, making it the third-straight year an ISU player has taken home the honor. She was also an All-MVC Honorable Mention selection and voted the MVC Sixth Player of the Year, coming off the bench to average 13.7 points, 7.2 rebounds and 2.0 steals per game in Valley play.
- Program history was made during the 2019-20 season, as the Redbirds notched a pair of statement wins. During non-conference play, Illinois State defeated in-state foe Illinois in Champaign, Illinois, marking the first Big Ten win for the 'Birds in nearly seven years and first win over a Power Five team in six years. Later in the season, ISU upset No. 17/21 Missouri State in Normal, Illinois on Feb. 27, to earn their first win over a ranked opponent in over 28 years.
- Head coach Kristen Gillespie enters her fourth season at the helm of the Illinois State program, coming off back-to-back 19-win seasons. The 'Birds have finished better than their preseason poll prediction in every year under the direction of Gillespie.

Sycamores ... At A Glance

2019-20 Finish: 5-25/3-15 MVC (9th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 10/2
Starters Returning/Lost: 5/0

NOTEWORTHY

- The 2019-20 women's basketball campaign saw the Sycamores compete as the least experience team in the NCAA with 14 newcomers. This season, the Trees return 10 letter winners and 11 of 14 from their roster overall. Combined with a pair of JUCO transfers and an incoming freshman, Indiana State's roster now consists of two seniors, three juniors, six sophomores and two freshmen, 11 of whom have seen Division I action.
- After earning a spot on the Missouri Valley Conference All-Freshman team a season ago, Del'Janae Williams returns looking to lead a talented group of seven sophomores on the court. During the 2019-20 season, Williams averaged 8.0 points, 2.9 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.7 steals per game, including four games with four or more steals.
- The Sycamores return their leader on-the-court from a year ago in senior and low post power Jamyra McChristine. McChristine led Indiana State in scoring and rebounding with 11.0 points and 6.4 rebounds per game during the 2019-20 season and also recorded the seventh-best season in Sycamore history from the field, knocking down 54.1% of her shot attempts.

Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 10/2
Starters Returning/Lost: 3/2

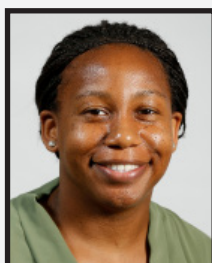

NOTEWORTHY

- Now in her fifth year in Rogers Park, head coach Kate Achter led Loyola to its first winning season since 2012-13 last season, guiding the Ramblers to a 15-14 overall mark (6-12 MVC). The Maroon & Gold got off to a program-best 9-0 start, picking up six of those victories away from the friendly confines of Gentile Arena.
- Loyola returns 10 letterwinners from last season, including the starting trio of Ellie Rice, Allison Day, and Janae Gonzales. Rice was one of Loyola's "iron-women" in 2019-20, starting in all 29 games as she averaged 6.9 points and 5.0 rebounds. Day closed the year ranked second on the team in scoring (10.7 ppg), while Gonzales (7.4 ppg) continued her marksmanship from distance, connecting on a team-high 57 three-point field goals. Achter's group will also look forward to the continued development of Jala Johnson (6.1 ppg) and Sam Galanopoulos (4.8 ppg), both of whom were named to the MVC All-Freshman Team a year ago.
- In addition to its impressive returning core of talent, Loyola welcomes in a trio of freshmen newcomers in Kaylen Evans (New Lenox, Ill./Nazareth Academy), Maya Chandler (Martinsville, Ind./Triton Central), Sitori Tanin (Middleton, Wis./Middleton). The Ramblers also added transfer Bre Hampton-Bey (Toledo, Ohio/Notre Dame Academy/UMass), who will sit out the 2020-21 season due to NCAA transfer rules. Hampton-Bey spent the past three seasons at UMass, where she was named to the Atlantic 10's All-Rookie Team back in 2017-18.

NOTEWORTHY

- Missouri State enters the 2020-21 season as winners of 50 of its last 57 games. In fact, since December 20, 2018, the Lady Bears' 50 victories rank fourth nationally behind only Baylor, UConn and Oregon.
- The Lady Bears finished the 2019-20 season ranked 19th in the USA Today Coaches Poll and 23rd by the AP and were ranked by the coaches in the final 18 polls of the season. An appearance in the 2020 preseason coaches' poll would tie the 2000-01 team's record of 19 consecutive weeks in the rankings. MSU's No. 8 ranking in the final NCAA RPI was the highest finish for a team in league history, and the Lady Bears were No. 1 in that metric from Jan. 11-17 last year.
- MSU returns 10 players and four starters from last season's MVC championship squad, with the vast majority of every statistical category back on the roster. In total, 75% of scoring, 87% of rebounds, 89% of assists, 83% of blocked shots, 86% of steals and 81% of minutes played return to the roster. Additionally, 88% of MSU's defensive rebounding is back after the Lady Bears led the nation defensive rebound rate last season.

NOTEWORTHY

- SIU returns nine players from last season's team that went 16-13 and knocked off a ranked opponent for the first time since 1991. Two-time all-conference honoree Makenzie Silvey highlights the returners. The senior guard from Glen Carbon, Ill. finished the 2019-20 season ranked in the top-10 of the MVC in three statistical categories, which included seventh in scoring (14.8). Abby Brockmeyer, who enters her senior campaign just 85 points shy of 1,000 for her career, returns after a junior season in which she averaged 10.0 points and 7.6 rebounds per contest.
- The Salukis add a talented quintet of newcomers to the mix in 2020-21. Freshmen Quierra Love, Sydney Prochaska, Adrianna Katcher and Jeniah Thompson all arrive in Carbondale after accomplished high school careers, while transfer Janell Douvier will also suit up for the Salukis this season. Douvier is a junior transfer from Platt Community College in Wichita, Kansas, where she was a two-time all-conference honoree.
- SIU was once again named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Academic Top-25 Team Honor Roll for the 2019-20 season. SIU earned the 24th-best combined grade point average in NCAA Division I women's basketball, which included a program record 3.82 GPA during the 2020 spring semester. It marks the sixth time overall, and the third time in the last four seasons, that Southern has garnered a spot on the WBCA Academic Top-25 list.

NOTEWORTHY

- Valpo enters the 2020-21 campaign coming off of its most successful campaign in recent history. The Brown and Gold finished 17-12 overall - the program's first winning season since 2008-09 and its highest win total since 2006-07 - and went 9-9 in MVC play - the first time since 2008-09 the team has finished at or above .500 in league play. It was a remarkable turnaround from the previous year's 8-24 mark, as the 10.5-game improvement ranked sixth nationally and the 172-spot jump in RPI was the nation's largest leap.
- Part of the reason for last season's success was the consistency on the court, as all five starters started all 29 games - the first time in program history the team used the same starting five all year. Three of those starters are back, highlighted by junior guard Shay Frederick. Frederick is the team's leading returning scorer, as she averaged 10.0 points/game last year while also dishing out 4.3 assists/game, good for second in the Valley. Her 126 total assists last year were 10th-most in a single season in program history.
- Also returning from the starting five are junior guard Carie Weinman and senior forward Caitlin Morrison. In her first season at Valpo, Weinman earned MVC All-Defensive Team honors as she led the conference in steals, racking up 65 thefts on the year while also averaging 9.9 points/game. Morrison stepped right back into the lineup after missing the 2018-19 season due to injury, averaging 6.8 points/game while blocking a team-best 30 shots to go with 38 steals.

MVC IN THE RATINGS PERCENTAGE INDEX (RPI)

The Ratings Percentage Index (RPI) is a computer-generated rating system that was developed for and is used by both the men's and women's NCAA basketball committees to assist in the selection of at-large teams for the NCAA basketball championships. The RPI was first used by the men's committee in 1981 and consists of three factors (team's Division I winning percentage, team's schedule strength, and team's opponents' schedule strength.) Below is a listing of annual season-ending RPIs for The Valley and its members (information courtesy of Jim Sukup, Collegiate Basketball News – data unavailable prior to 1991-92; RPI numbers are from full season rankings).
