Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Week

Dan Bolt, Sr., OF, Bradley

After hitting three home runs in four games at the SAF Dirt Classic in Tennessee last week, Bolt led the Braves to a three-game series sweep at Tennessee Tech by hitting four home runs in three games versus the Golden Eagles. By hitting at least one home run in each game of the series at Tennessee Tech, Bolt has blasted seven home runs in Bradley's last six games. All four of Bolt's hits at Tennessee Tech left the yard, as he went 4-for-12 (.333) with eight RBI. Bolt also drew three walks and was hit by a pitch, giving him a .500 on-base percentage for the series, as well as a 1.833 OPS.

Other Notable Performances: Jimmy Glowenke (DBU); Craig Shepherd (UE); Jordan Schaffer (INS); Drake Baldwin (MSU); Ian Walters (SIU); Riley Dent (VALPO)

Missouri Valley Conference Pitcher of the Week

Tristan Weaver, R-Jr., LHP, Indiana State

Sycamore starting pitcher Tristan Weaver was phenomenal Friday as the Sycamores worked a combined shutout of Elon. The redshirt junior recorded a career high 12 strikeouts while tying a career long outing with seven innings pitched. Weaver allowed just three base hits and walked only one batter while holding the Phoenix to a .115 average against. With the win, the lefty improved to 1-0 on the year and dropped his ERA to just 0.46 after three starts.

Other Notable Performances: Matt Hamilton (BRAD); Ray Gaither (DBU); Shane Gray (UE); Forrest Barnes (MSU); Ryan Mintz (VALPO)

NOTEWORTHY

In addition to the league's player and newcomer of the week selections, several conference players had notable performances, and they include:

Jimmy Glownke (DBU) – DBU's Jimmy Glownke hit a team-best .438 (7-for-16) with a home run and a team-high six RBI. Glownke also led the team in slugging percentage (.688), on-base percentage (.474), and total bases (11).

Craig Shepherd (UE) – Helping the Aces to a 3-1 week against No. 2 Vanderbilt and Butler, senior Craig Shepherd was a force at the plate for Evansville. On the week, Shepherd batted .353, earning six hits, including a double, with four RBI and two runs. Shepherd's weekend highlight came in the first two games of the weekend series with Butler as Shepherd went 5-of-8 from the plate with four RBI.

Jordan Schaffer (INS) – Redshirt junior Jordan Schaffer put on a hitting clinic during the Sycamores' series sweep of Elon over the weekend. The shortstop collected a career high three hits in the opener Friday before breaking the record a day later with a 4-for-5 performance to help ISU clinch the series Saturday. A Terre Haute, Indiana native, Schaffer was perfect in the leadoff spot in the series and finished 8-for-12 for a .667 batting percentage to go along with a .688 on-base percentage. He scored six of ISU's 18 runs on the weekend, worked three walks, drove in a pair of runs and stole one base.

Drake Baldwin (MSU) – Freshman catcher/DH Drake Baldwin led the Bears with a .375 batting mark (6-for-16) and seven RBIs last week, playing key roles in two Missouri State victories. The Madison, Wis., native recorded at least one hit and one RBI in all four MSU contests, including a career-best four-RBI effort in the Bears' 9-3 win over national power Rice on Saturday. In that game, Baldwin went 2-for-4 with a two-run double and a two-run triple to help MSU post its first-ever win over the Owls. He followed that performance with a 2-for-2 day Sunday in which he reached base safely in all four trips to the plate.

Ian Walters (SIU) – Walters led Southern Illinois to a 3-1 week and road-series win over Morehead State with a 10-for-18 (.555) showing at the plate. He added two extra-base hits (one triple, one home run) five RBI, four walks and three stolen bases while committing no errors at third base during the four-game stretch. The Paducah, Ky. native tacked two-plus hits in all three games at Morehead, which included a season-high four knocks in SIU's 22-5 victory in the series finale. The week extended Walters' hitting streak to nine games and his on-base streak to 14 games, which dates back to last season.

Riley Dent (VALPO) – Dent enjoyed a strong week at the plate against quality competition, hitting .357 while posting a .500 on-base percentage over four games at the Lake Area Classic in Lake Charles, La. Those numbers came against McNeese State and Southern Miss, both teams that won their respective conferences and qualified for NCAA Regionals a year ago. Dent went 5-of-9 over two games on Saturday and Sunday, posting back-to-back multi-hit efforts to boost his season total to four, tied for the team lead. His week allowed him to lift his team-best batting average to .316 over 10 games.

Matt Hamilton (BRAD) – In his third start for the Braves, Hamilton helped Bradley complete the weekend series sweep at Tennessee Tech by pitching the first six innings of Sunday's 16-1 win. A first-year transfer from Madison College, Hamilton allowed one run on five hits with one walk and six strikeouts Sunday against the Golden Eagles.

Ray Gaither (DBU) – DBU's Ray Gaither struck out a career-high nine batters on Friday to help lead the Patriots to a win over Arkansas State. Gaither allowed just four hits and walked one over 6.0 innings of work.

Shane Gray (UE) – In his third outing of the season, sophomore Shane Gray shut down the Bulldogs in a 4-1 Aces' victory. On Saturday, Gray went seven innings, allowing just one run on two hits, while striking out seven. Gray took a no-hitter into the seventh inning and was perfect through four innings in the victory.

Forrest Barnes (MSU) – Sophomore reliever Forrest Barnes delivered critical performances in both of the Bears' victories last week, picking up a win in Tuesday's 6-3 win at ORU, as well as Saturday's 9-3 decision over Rice. The Ozark, Mo., product fanned five ORU hitters in his 3.0 hitless innings, then earned his second win of the week after striking out three batters in 3.2 innings of relief against Rice.

Ryan Mintz (VALPO) – Mintz turned in a quality outing in his first career start, permitting three runs on seven hits while walking one and striking out three in 6 1/3 innings of work against Southern Miss on Friday afternoon in Lake Charles, La. He became the first Valpo pitcher to work more than five innings in an outing this season. Two of the three runs he yielded came on one swing of the bat.

Series Sweeps

Three Valley teams earned series sweeps over the weekend. Bradley, Evansville and Indiana State each claimed a 3-0 series sweep.

Evansville played its first games in Evansville this season and earned a three-game series sweep of Butler. The sweep was the first for the Aces since a three-game sweep of Bradley last March.

The Sycamores finished with 33 base hits (11 per game) in the three wins at Elon over the weekend. Five Sycamores recorded four or more hits during the series sweep.

Bradley's three game sweep at Tennessee Tech was the Braves first non-conference series sweep since taking three at Belmont on March 2-4, 2018.

WarrenNolan.com Rankings

While it is still early in the season, WarrenNolan.com has the Missouri Valley Conference ranked as the No. 8 conference in league RPI.

Top 10 RPI

1. SEC
2. Big 12
3. ACC
4. Big Ten
5. West Coast
6. Pac-12
7. Big West
8. Missouri Valley
9. American
10. Conference USA

WarrenNolan.com also has four teams ranked in the RPI's top-100, led by Illinois State (No. 40), Southern Illinois (No. 43), DBU (No. 53) and Indiana State (No. 93).

National Players of the Week

Bradley's Dan Bolt earned a spot on this week's Collegiate Baseball's National Players of the Week list. During a three-game series at Tennessee Tech, Bolt hit 4 home runs as he went 4-for-12 with 8 RBI. He also drew 3 walks. Over Bradley's last six games, Bolt has blasted 7 home runs.

Preseason All-Americans

Three Missouri Valley Conference baseball players were named to a Preseason All-American team. DBU closer Burl Carraway made four appearances on a preseason squad. Carraway was named a First Team selection by Baseball America, a Second Team selection by D1 Baseball and Perfect Game and the NCBWA tabbed him to their Third Team. DBU's Jimmy Glowenke also earned a spot on the NCBWA Third Team. Indiana State's Collin Liberatore was named a Second Team selection by Collegiate Baseball.

Award Nominees

The award watch lists have MVC student-athletes as nominees for national awards.

Bradley's Theron Denlinger, DBU's Burl Carraway and Illinois State's Jacob Gilmore are listed among the preseason NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award watch list, given to the top relief pitcher.

MVC Finds Success in MLB Draft

A total of 18 MVC student-athletes had their names called during the Major League Baseball Player Draft. Illinois State's John Rave was the top pick for the league with the 129th overall pick by the Kansas City Royals.

DBU had six players drafted while Illinois State had five players selected. Indiana State had three players chosen and Missouri State had two, while Southern Illinois and Evansville each had one draftee.

The Valley has placed at least 17 players in the draft six-straight seasons.

Multi-Teams Again

For the 25th time in 39 seasons, multiple MVC baseball teams were selected as part of the field of 64 teams to play for the 2019 College World Series title.

The Missouri Valley Conference was one of only seven leagues to have three or more teams selected for the NCAA Championship. The Valley joined the SEC (10), ACC (8), Big 12 (5), Big Ten (5), Pac 12 (5) and American (3) with three or more in the field.

This was the sixth time in eight years the MVC has placed multiple teams into the NCAA field and the seventh time in league history the MVC sent three teams (1990, 1995, 1999, 2000, 2012, 2015, 2019).

Two-By-Forty

Indiana State (43-18) and DBU (43-20) registered 40 wins on the season, marking the 15th time since the 1992 season that at least two Valley teams tallied 40 or more wins.

Two league teams also recorded 40 or more wins in 2018, 2017, 2015, 2012, 2008, 2007, 2006, 2005, 2003, 2002, 2000, 1996, 1993 and 1992 (three teams).

40 Wins for DBU...Again

DBU reached the 40-win plateau for the sixth-straight season. The Patriots join Louisville and Florida State as the only three NCAA Division I programs with 40+ wins in six-straight seasons.

BRADLEY (4-6)

Blasting Bombs

Led by senior LF Dan Bolt's recent power surge, Bradley has been on a home run hitting binge in the last six games. Including Bolt's seven dingers, Bradley has hit 16 home runs in the last six games and the Braves now own 19 homers in 10 games. The Braves have twice hit five home runs in a game during the six-game surge, both times with Bolt joining a teammate with two home runs apiece – Adam Rellihan at Austin Peay and Eli Rawlinson Sunday at Tennessee Tech.

Historic Day of Strikes

During the second game of Saturday's doubleheader at Tennessee Tech, Bradley pitchers Nick King (8), Ryan Hodgett (5) and Taylor Catton (4) combined to strikeout 17 Golden Eagles. The 17 strikeouts equaled the second-best single-game total in program history and equaled the most ever against a NCAA Division I opponent. The Bradley single-game record is 21 strikeouts May 3, 1940 against Millikin.

Shadid Drives In 100th Run

Senior SS Luke Shadid drove in three runs from his leadoff position during the weekend series at Tennessee Tech, pushing his career total to 100 RBIs. Bradley's active leader, Shadid is the 33rd player in program history to drive in 100 runs.

#21 DBU (8-3)

Closing at Home

With Sunday's win over Arkansas State in the rubber-match of their three game series, DBU improved to 11-3 in series finale games that ultimately determined the series winner at Horner Ballpark since 2015.

Streaking

DBU freshman Jeffrey David has started his career on a 10-game hit streak. David is hitting a team-best .385 and is tied for the team lead in doubles (4). He is also second on the club in RBI (11) and total bases (22).

Ace at First

Patriots' Friday night ace, Ray Gaither, started at first base on Sunday and singled in his second at bat. It was Gaither's first hit since April 22, 2017, when he delivered what proved to be the game-winning RBI in the bottom of the eighth in a 3-2 win over Indiana State. Dan Pruitt came off the bench to pinch-hit for Gaither in the sixth inning on Sunday and delivered a two-run home run that broke up a 4-4 tie.

EVANSVILLE (3-8)

Sweep at Home

This weekend, Evansville played its first games in Evansville this season and earned a three-game series sweep of Butler. The sweep was the first for the Aces since a three-game sweep of Bradley last March.

Powerful Pitching

Evansville road through the week on its pitching as the Aces' pitchers dominated the competition. The Aces hit .258 as a team, while Evansville's pitchers limited opponents to just a .187 batting average, in a week against Butler and No. 2 Vanderbilt.

Starters Lead the Way

As a staff, the Aces' starters were solid all weekend long. Of 27 possible innings, Evansville's starting pitchers pitched 17 innings, and allowed just five hits and three earned runs, while striking out 19.

ILLINOIS STATE (3-7)

Big Time K's

Senior LHP Colton Johnson followed up his career-high strikeout performance last weekend at Oklahoma by tying his strikeout total (10) in a win at Louisiana-Monroe Friday afternoon. Johnson hurled 6.0 innings, allowing 3 runs (0 earned) on 6 hits with three walks. The Kewanee, Ill. native is now up to 28 strikeouts in three starts this season.

Breakout Game

Freshman infielder Ryan Cermak had a breakout game Friday at ULM as well, as he led the Illinois State offense with three extra-base hits in the Redbirds' 6-3 victory over the Warhawks. Cermak hit a solo home run in the sixth inning to extend the ISU lead, and also knocked two doubles in the game. Cermak finished the day going 3 for 4 with 3 runs scored and an RBI.

Going Long

The Redbirds hit four home runs in the three-game series at ULM, including solo shots by Cermak and Braedon Blackford on Friday. Tyson Hays hit a solo home run in Sunday's 4-2 loss, while Jordan Libman knocked a solo bomb in a 26-8 defeat Saturday.

INDIANA STATE (5-5)

Weaver's Back!

Redshirt junior Tristan Weaver spent the 2019 season recovering from an injury and has immediately made his mark in the weekend rotation during his first three starts. He's put together two strong no-decision efforts while working a combined shutout of Elon in his last outing. Overall, Weaver has allowed just one earned run in 19.2 innings. The left-hander is holding opponents to a .094 average against while retiring 31 batters on strikeouts and walking only five.

Bats Heat Up

Indiana State entered its weekend series with Elon with 44 combined hits through seven games. After a weekend sweep in which the Sycamores finished with 33 base hits (11 per game), that number jumped to 77. Five Sycamores recorded four or more hits during the series sweep led by Jordan Schaffer who was 8-for-12. Brian Fuentes went for five hits including two doubles while Grant Magill, Miguel Rivera and Diego Gines tallied four hits each. Seventeen of Indiana State's base hits against Elon where extra-base hits (13 2B, 1 3B, 3 HR) as ISU raised its team batting average from .203 to .236 over three games.

Edmonson Strong

Freshman Cameron Edmonson has made his mark in four appearance on the mound this season. The left-hander is coming off his first career start in which he went six and two-third innings in the weekend finale to sweep Elon. On the year, Edmonson holds a 1.32 ERA over 13.2 innings. He has struck out 21 and issued just four walks while holding the opposition to a .146 average against.

MISSOURI STATE (5-6)

Welcome Wagon

The Bears offense has been bolstered by the addition of several talented newcomers over the season's first three weeks. MSU's top three hitters are all new to the program this year, with freshman Drake Baldwin leading the club with a .325 average and eight RBIs through the first 11 games. Junior transfer Grant Wood has gotten off to a hot start as well, batting .310 with hits in each of his first nine games as a Bear, and freshman outfielder Greg Ziegler turning in a .292 batting mark with three multi-hit performances to date.

Elite Company

Last Tuesday's game at ORU marked the beginning of a notable string of elite opponents for the Bears, who will play nine-straight games against NCAA Division I College World Series qualifying teams and 16 of 17 contests overall. MSU will play two games against ORU (who appeared in Omaha in 1978), three against Rice (seven appearances), one game at Oklahoma State (20 appearances) and three games against Maine (seven appearances) over the period Feb. 25-March 8. Following a midweek game against SIU Edwardsville (March 11), the Bears will then play seven more games against three additional CWS qualifiers (UC Irvine, Alabama and San Jose State).

What a Relief

The Bears bullpen has been dominant through the first 11 games of the season, posting a 2.55 ERA while limiting the opposition to a .200 batting mark. Sophomore right-handers Forrest Barnes, Trey Ziegenbein and Hayden Juenger have led the way, combining to go 2-0 with three saves and a 1.88 ERA. Ziegenbein has logged a 1.42 ERA in seven appearances, while Juenger leads the club with three saves and Barnes has posted a team-best two mound victories.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS (7-5)

Offensive Explosion

Southern Illinois averaged 14 runs per game in its series win at Morehead State over the weekend. SIU exploded for a season-high 22 runs in the series finale. SIU pounded out 25 hits in the 22-5 win, which was its most in a game since 2004 (at Murray State, 3/18/04). Eight Salukis recorded two or more hits.

Big Game for Archer

Philip Archer made history by going 4-for-4 with three doubles and one triple in SIU's 11-7 loss against Morehead State. He became the first Saluki since Chris Serritella in 2010 with four or more extra-base knocks.

Road Warriors

SIU (7-5) won its second road series of the season and became the first team to beat the Eagles (4-6) in a series at their own park since 2018 (5/17-19/18, #16 Tennessee Tech).

VALPARAISO (1-9)

Hit Parade

Valpo matched a season high with 15 hits in a 13-11 loss vs. Southern Miss on Saturday. Prior to the Feb. 23 series finale at No. 3 Louisville, Valpo hadn't put together a 15-hit output since March 16 of last season (vs. Northern Illinois). The team cracked 15 hits twice in a four-game span against quality competition, doing so against Louisville and Southern Miss. The 11 runs scored on Saturday were the most by Valpo in a loss since a 14-13 defeat on March 2, 2018 vs. CSUN. The 11 runs were the most permitted by Southern Miss in a game this season.

Four RBI Special

Valpo received its second four-RBI game of 2020 on Saturday vs. Southern Miss, this time courtesy of junior college transfer Jonathan Temple. He joined freshman Nolan Tucker as the only members of the Brown & Gold with four RBIs in a single game this year. In fact, no other Valpo player has more than two RBIs in a contest. Temple drove in his seventh run of the season on Sunday, taking over sole possession of the team lead.

Pitching Positives

Freshman Ryan Mintz allowed just three runs (two coming on one swing) in 6 1/3 innings in his first career start vs. Southern Miss on Friday afternoon. There were more bright spots from the pitching staff in Friday's nightcap against host McNeese, as Trent Turzenski racked up an eye-popping 11 strikeouts over six innings of relief while walking just one and yielding four runs. He came on after Easton Rhodehouse started and threw two scoreless innings. Jarrett Hammel was not charged with an earned run over three innings of relief against McNeese on Saturday.
