NOTEWORTHY

- For the first time in two decades and just the second time in program history, Bradley returns a pair of First-Team All-MVC picks from the previous year with senior setter Kora Kauling and senior outside hitter Hannah Thompson both taking home first-team all-league honors in 2020-21. The only other season in which the Braves returned a pair of First-Team All-Valley picks from the previous year was 2001 when Laura Benzing and Samantha Hardwick returned to help guide the Braves to a 24-8 overall record and third-place conference finish that was highlighted by a school record 14 MVC victories.
- Senior Hannah Thompson enters the 2021 season poised to break Bradley's career digs record and the outside hitter is also closing in on the top 10 in career kills at Bradley. Thompson, who notched her 1,000th career kill in BU's MVC Tournament semifinal loss to Illinois State, is second in school history with 1,438 career digs and sits just 20 digs short of breaking the school mark of 1,437 career digs set by Rachelle Dejean (2008-11). Currently 13th in Bradley history with 1,007 career kills, Thompson is one of just 15 players in MVC history with 1,000 career kills and 1,400 or more digs and is the only active player in the nation to have reached both marks.

NOTEWORTHY

- The Bulldogs return nearly their entire roster from its 2020-21 team that finished second in the MVC standings to match the program's highest ever finish and highest finish since 1996. Drake head coach Darrin McBroom is the reigning MVC Coach of the Year for guiding the Bulldogs' historic season in which the team won 11 league matches, its most since the Valley adopted an 18-match league schedule.
- The Bulldogs also return the reigning MVC Player of the Year in junior Haley Bush. Bush is just the second Bulldog and first since 1984 to earn league Player of the Year honors. She led The Valley last season with 4.65 kills per set against league foes while hitting .254 and averaging 5.12 points per set. Drake also returns a pair of All-MVC selections in outside hitters Emily Plock and libero Kylee Macke. Macke is poised to become the Bulldogs' all-time leader in digs while Plock ranks fifth in career kills at Drake.
- The Bulldogs welcome six newcomers to the roster including a pair of Division I transfers and international talent to give McBroom, the only Bulldog head coach to ever be named MVC Coach of the Year, his deepest team as he begins his ninth season at Drake.

NOTEWORTHY

- Evansville heads into the fall of 2021 with the majority of its squad intact from the spring with the lone departure being senior Allana McInnis. Four sophomores received extensive playing time as freshmen in the spring while four newcomers join the team in the fall. Evansville had one of the most aggressive offenses in the nation, ranking 23rd in the NCAA with 38.96 team attacks per set and 33rd with a total of 2,922 attacks.
- Evansville had the top 1-2 offensive duo in the Missouri Valley Conference with Alondra Vazquez and Melanie Feliciano ranking 1st and 4th in the league in the spring, respectively. Vazquez paced the Valley with an average of 4.43 kills per set while Feliciano posted 3.89. The duo finished the year averaging 8.32 kills, finishing as the top 1-2 punch in the conference. On a national level, Vazquez was the national leader with 14.13 attacks per frame while her kill average was 16th.

NOTEWORTHY

- Illinois State has won a combined four MVC regular season and tournament titles in four seasons with Leah Johnson at the helm. The Redbirds' sweep of the titles during the 2020-21 season marked the ninth time in program history this had been accomplished by Illinois State and first time since 2014.
- The last time Illinois State made three-consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament was during the 1996-98 seasons with Julie Morgan leading the charge. The Redbirds' longest streak of appearances at the Big Dance is four, when Sandy Lynn guided Illinois State to the NCAA First Round in 1982-85.
- The Redbirds return 2020-21 All-MVC Second Team selection Sarah Kushner and All-Freshman Team member Nicole Lund, while losing four all-conference players including first team selections from a season ago in Kaylee Martin and Stef Jankiewicz.

NOTEWORTHY

- The 2019 season saw the Sycamores towards the bottom of every major offensive statistical category. During the spring season, ISU flipped the script, ending at second in the Valley in hitting percentage at .199 and fourth in kills per set at 12.97 while also finishing eighth in the nation in team attacks per set at 40.06 and 40th in total kills at 999. ISU also held the third-best mark in the nation of total attacks in a three-set match with 163 from their Feb. 15 match with Bradley.
- Melina Tedrow continued to etch her name into the Indiana State record book during the spring 2021 season. She now sits in eighth in career digs at ISU, boasting 1187 during her three years. Her 5.0 digs per set marked the fourth-best season by a Sycamore in Indiana State history, while her 5.35 digs per set from 2019 sits at second in the record book.

NOTEWORTHY

- Loyola has posted three straight winning seasons under Amanda Berkley, who enters her fourth season on the Ramblers bench. The last time the program recorded three consecutive winning campaigns was all the way back in 1997 through 2004 when it did so in eight straight campaigns.
- The Ramblers will be buoyed by the return of junior outside hitter Addie Barnes who missed all of last season due to injury. As a rookie in 2019, Barnes was the MVC Freshman of the Year and was a First Team All-Valley pick after registering 2.99 kills, 2.87 digs and 0.40 aces per set. Her 49 services aces in 2019 led the MVC and were the most by a Loyola player since 2002.
- Junior middle hitter Taylor Venuto battled injuries last year but started to peak at the end of the season, earning MVC All-Tournament Team accolades, while helping the Ramblers reach the Valley championship match for the first time ever. A 2019 First Team All-MVC and MVC All-Freshman Team selection, Venuto led the conference in blocks per set last spring with 1.19.

NOTEWORTHY

- Missouri State returns a pair of first-team all-conference outside hitters in Brooklyn Cink and Amelia Flynn. It's the first time since 2010 that the Bears return two first-team all-Valley selections from the year before. That team won 21 matches and earned an at-large NCAA Tournament bid.
- Last season's Bears averaged 1.61 aces per set, MSU's best figure since 1995, and had seven matches with 10-plus aces, helping the club to a 101-point advantage at the service line for the season. Missouri State brings back 147 of the team's 148 aces served to the 2021 squad.
- The Bears bring back much of their statistical output from a season ago, with 91 percent of kills, 99.8 percent of assists, 99.3 of aces, 99.4 percent of digs, 86.2 percent of blocks and 91.1 percent of total points back on the roster.

NOTEWORTHY

- The Panthers finished 9-13 on the season, the first season the Panthers have finished under .500 in the Petersen era and first time since 1978. The Panthers finished 8-8 in MVC play and defeated the Bulldogs of Drake in the MVC Tournament before falling to the Ramblers of Loyola.
- The Panthers had three student athletes earn All-MVC recognition with Emily Holterhaus earning First Team All-MVC honors, Inga Rotto earned Second Team All-MVC recognition and freshman setter Taylor Alden was named to the MVC All-Freshman team.
- A talented group of juniors lead the way for the Panthers in the fall of 2021 with Baylee Petersen, Inga Rotto and Carly Spies. The trio will lead a young group with a lot of talent and experience. Kaylissa Arndorfer returns to the court after earning First Team All-MVC honors as a freshman.

NOTEWORTHY

- The Salukis enter their third season under the direction of head coach Ed Allen and return 13 letterwinners from a season ago, which includes five starters. Southern's roster of 17 features just three upperclassmen, two of which are junior transfers. SIU's returnees are led by senior libero Katy Kluge and sophomore middle hitter Imani Hartfield. Kluge finished seventh in the league in digs per set while Hartfield held the top hitting percentage amongst Valley freshmen.
- The Salukis received the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Team Academic Award for their performance in the classroom during the 2020-21 academic year. It marked the 16th-straight season in which the Salukis have earned the honor, which is the fifth-longest active streak in NCAA Division I.

Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 10/4
Starters Returning/Lost: 4/2

- Valpo will return an experienced squad for the fall 2021 campaign, as 10 letterwinners from last year's team are back. The 10 returnees accounted for 75% of the team's kills, 90% of aces, 82% of digs and 86% of blocks last season.
- Included among the 10 returnees are a trio of 5th-year players who opted to utilize the additional season of eligibility granted by the NCAA to fall sport student-athletes due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the 2020-21 season: setter Brittany Anderson, middle Peyton McCarthy and two-time MVC Libero of the Year Rylee Cookerly. Cookerly enters the fall 2021 campaign with 2,514 career digs, just outside the top-15 in NCAA history in the category and within striking distance of the NCAA career record of 3,176 digs.
- A two-sport athlete, Anderson returns to action on the court after not competing during the spring 2021 season due to overlap with the softball campaign. Her return gives Valpo a wealth of riches at the setter position, as Anderson was a First Team All-MVC honoree as a sophomore in 2018 and currently ranks fourth in program history with 3,850 career assists. Meanwhile, last spring saw freshman Victoria Bulmahn step into the setter position and earn MVC Freshman of the Year honors as she posted 10.84 assists/set, a mark which ranked 21st nationally.
