NOTEWORTHY

- Belmont averaged 2.01 blocks per set in 2021, the second-highest mark for the Bruins since 2005.
- Belmont finished with a winning record at home last season, taking down two of the top four teams in the OVC (UT Martin and Murray State) at the Curb Event Center.
- Belmont brings in six freshmen and a transfer, and will also welcome back star middle blocker Kristen Clemons, who had to miss the 2021 campaign last fall after a breakthrough 2020-2021 spring season that saw her finish second on the team in points (133.0)

NOTEWORTHY

- First-year Bradley Volleyball Head Coach Alicia Williams inherits a squad that has won 12 league games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in program history and BU's 24 combined Valley wins over the last two years are tied for the most in the conference over that stretch. Bradley's 48 MVC victories over the last four years are the most in a four-year stretch in school history and the Braves have won 11 or more league contests in four consecutive seasons. Prior to the current four-year run, Bradley had a total of five seasons with 11 or more league wins (2002, 2001, 1999, 1995 & 1994).
- Karagan Coggin returns for the Braves after earning First-Team All-MVC honors last year. Coggin, who hit .345 in Valley games to lead the league, closed the 2021 campaign with a .306 attack percentage for the eighth-best season mark in school history. She was the first Brave since Lindsay Stalzer (2004) to collect at least 300 kills and 85 or more blocks in the same season. Coggin joined Jenna Passman (2003, 2002 & 2001) as the only individuals in Bradley history to hit .300 or better in a season while collecting at least 300 kills. Coggin highlighted Bradley's school-record, seven-game MVC win streak in 2021 by averaging 2.50 kills per set while attacking at a .412 clip.

NOTEWORTHY

- Outside hitter, Haley Bush, returns to the court for her final season with Drake. Bush remains a key asset to the Bulldogs lineup as she averaged 3.8 kills per set last season. She was named MVC Player of the Year during her sophomore season with Drake. She was just the second Bulldog and first since 1984 to earn league Player of the Year honors.
- The Bulldogs added one transfer and five freshmen to the roster. Thea Rotto comes to Drake from Bucknell. She was a standout player in high school where she set the Gilbert kills record with 1,000. The Bulldogs lost libero Kylee Macke, a record holder for the Bulldogs, as well as opposite hitter Emily Plock.

NOTEWORTHY

- Evansville is coming off its best season in over 30 years. The Purple Aces went 21-12, their first 20-win season since 1988. With its performance during the season, UE was invited to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC) where the team won two matches.
- For the second time in her career, Alondra Vazquez garnered All-MVC First Team honors. Vazquez broke the single season program record with 494 kills. Joining her on the First Team was Melanie Feliciano. In her third season with the program, Feliciano recorded 3.28 kills and 2.52 digs per set.
- One of the most electric players in the conference was 2021 MVC Freshman of the Year Giulia Cardona. She paced the league with 0.50 service aces per set. Her final tally of 467 kills was the most by a freshman in program history, edging teammate Melanie Feliciano's mark of 456 in 2019.

NOTEWORTHY

- Head Coach Allie Matters enters her first season at the helm of Illinois State after four seasons as the head coach at Wright State. Matters inherits a program that has made the NCAA Tournament in four-straight seasons, winning the MVC Tournament Championship each of the last three seasons. The 'Birds will look to qualify for their fifth-straight NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history.
- Illinois State returns a dynamic senior duo with 2021 MVC Libero of the Year Kaity Weimerskirch and All-MVC First-Team honoree Sarah Kushner. Weimerskirch led the MVC in digs (334) while Kushner posted 22 10+-kill matches. The Redbirds will seek to replace 2021 MVC Player of the Year Tamara Otene and All-MVC Freshman Team honoree Aliyah Moore.

NOTEWORTHY

- Indiana State ushers in a new era of volleyball, as Ashlee Pritchard takes over the reins of the Sycamores. The 10th head coach in program history, Pritchard comes to Terre Haute from Marian (Ind.), where she turned the Knights into an NAIA power. Marian made each of the last five NAIA Tournaments and won the NAIA National Championship in 2019, the first in program history.
- The Sycamores are looking to build off their best Division I season in program history after going 18-13 in 2021. Indiana State made a postseason tournament for the first time in the Division I era, playing in the NIVC in December. The Sycamores had notable wins on the road at Illinois State and in the MVC Tournament against Bradley, while going 10-3 inside the friendly confines of ISU Arena. Indiana State also swept its home tournament, the Sycamore Open, as part of a season-best eight-match win streak in September.

NOTEWORTHY

- The Bears return a pair of middle blockers who had exceptional seasons in 2021. Senior Azyah Green averaged 1.17 blocks per set last year for the highest figure at Missouri State since 2006, while Maddy Bushnell led the MVC with a .343 hitting percentage, setting the MSU freshman record and ranking sixth overall for a season in school history.
- Missouri State has 12 dates on the home schedule this year and owns a winning record at Hammons Student Center in 23 consecutive seasons. The Bears are 18-5 at home under third-year head coach Steven McRoberts.
- MSU has posted the top two ace averages since the 25-point scoring era began (2008) in the last two seasons, posting 1.61 per set in 2020-21 and 1.38 last season. This year's roster has served a combined 127 aces in the Maroon and White.

NOTEWORTHY

- The Panthers enter the 23rd year of the Bobbi Petersen era after a 12-19 campaign in 2021 and 7-11 mark in MVC play. The season marked just the second time UNI has finished under .500 under Petersen, and was the first time UNI missed the MVC Tournament in program history, following an eighth-place finish in the league standings.
- Middle blocker Carly Spies earned All-MVC Second Team honors in 2021, while hitter Kira Fallert was named to the MVC All-Freshman Team. Additionally, Emily Holterhaus, Payton Ahrenstroff and Inga Rotto all earned MVC Scholar-Athlete recognition for their work in the classroom.
- UNI returns much of its core from last fall, including setter Taylor Alden, blockers Carly Spies and Inga Rotto, and hitters Emily Holterhaus, Kira Fallert and Kaylissa Arndorfer. UNI also brings in a class of five new faces to the roster, headlined by former University of Texas defensive specialist Sydney Petersen, daughter of head coach Bobbi Petersen and sister of fellow UNI defender Baylee Petersen.

2021 Finish: 5-26/0-18 MVC (10th)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 10/7
Starters Returning/Lost: 5/1

NOTEWORTHY

- The Salukis enter their fourth season under the direction of head coach Ed Allen and return 10 letterwinners from a season ago, which includes five starters. Southern's roster of 15 features seven upperclassmen as well as five newcomers. SIU's returnees are led by junior outside hitter Tatum Tornatta. The Evansville, Ind. native finished 11th in the MVC in total kills (316) and put down double-digit kills in 16 matches, which included a season-high 18 in a four-set match against Loyola on Sept. 25.
- The Salukis received the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Team Academic Award for their performance in the classroom during the 2021-22 academic year. It marked the 17th-straight season in which the Salukis have earned the honor, which is the fifth-longest active streak in NCAA Division I.

2021 Finish: 26-10/12-6 MVC (T-3rd)
Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 10/5
Starters Returning/Lost: 3/3

NOTEWORTHY

- Valparaiso enters 2022 coming off one of the most successful seasons in program history, as the Beacons won 26 matches and advanced to the championship match of the NIVC in 2021. A talented group graduated from last year's squad, however, as libero Rylee Cookerly (two-time MVC Libero of the Year; second in NCAA D-I history in career digs), middles Haley Hart and Peyton McCarthy, and setter Brittany Anderson combined for eight All-MVC selections over the course of their careers. This year's squad will be the first Valpo team since 2006 to enter a season with no First or Second Team All-Conference awards on the roster.
- Outside hitters Bella Ravotto and Elise Swistek and right sides Maddy Boyer and Kara Cooper were all starters throughout MVC play and in the NIVC last season. In addition, outside hitter Jillie Grant and Gretchen Kuckkan were starters during the non-conference portion of the schedule before suffering injuries right around the start of MVC action.
- The Beacons enter 2022 with a strong back line. Ravotto averaged over three digs per set last year and is nearing 1,000 digs for her career. In addition, Swistek averaged over three digs per set as a rookie last season as well. Meanwhile, at setter, Victoria Bulmahn split time setting with Anderson in a 6-2 last season after earning MVC Freshman of the Year accolades for the spring 2021 season setting full time in a 5-1.
