Weather at SJSU changes schedule: The weather in San Jose, Calif. has changed the weekend schedule with the Spartans. Friday’s game has been postponed and the first game of the series is scheduled for Saturday at 3 p.m. The remainder of the weekend schedule will be determined based on weather and field conditions.

This Week’s Opponents: Nevada (15-11, 9-3 MW) continues its six-game road swing with a three-game Mountain West series at San José State (10-17, 3-8 MW) this weekend ... The Wolf Pack swept the Spartans earlier this season in Reno scoring in double figures in each game winning by scores of 11-4, 10-9 and 14-4 ... SJSU is 1-7 in its last eight games and are 7-7 at Municipal Stadium this season ... As a team the Spartans rank last in hitting in the conference with a .263 average as does their 6.33 ERA while the .295 fielding percentage is second ... In MW play SJSU is last in hitting (.260), sixth in ERA (6.65) and sixth in fielding (.969) ... Brett Bautista is second in the MW batting .405 with 16 doubles, two triples, three home runs, 35 runs scored and 19 RBI ... In MW play he is also second batting .452 with 13 runs scored, seven RBI, three doubles and three home runs ... Pitcher Andrew Mitchell leads the team with 3-0 record and has posted an ERA of 5.13 with 37 strikeouts ... Josh Goldberg is 2-3 with a 4.66 ERA in 36.2 innings on the mound and has struck out 26 ... The Saint Mary’s College Gaels are 15-12 overall and 5-4 in the West Coast Conference ... The Gaels are 2-3 in their last five games and 5-5 in the last 10 ... As a team SMC is batting .255 with an ERA of 2.97 ... SMC won both meeting last season 4-0 in Moraga, Calif. and 6-1 in Reno.

Team Notes: Nevada is first in the Mountain West with a 9-3 record ... The 9-3 start is tied with the 2015 Wolf Pack team, that won the conference regular season title, for the best start after 12 games in six years in the MW ... After winning a season-high four games in a row for the second time, Nevada has dropped its last three games ... The Pack lost two one-run games at No. 4 Oregon State and were left on the field twice ... Monday the Beavers won 3-2 in 11 innings on an error and Tuesday OSU rallied from a 5-0 deficit to win 8-7 in 10 innings on an inside-the-park home run ... The two losses dropped the Pack to 3-6 in one-run games and 0-3 in extra inning contests ... The Pack hit three home runs in the fourth inning in game 2 at Oregon State - Mike Echavia, Grant Fennell and Marco Valenzuela ... The last time the Pack hit three home runs in an inning was May 29, 2005 when Ben Mummy, Shawn Scobee, and Baker Krukow went back-to-back-to-back in the first inning in a 20-7 win over Fresno State. It was his second home run of the season and became the fifth player to hit a home run in the game. Nevada had a season-high with 18 runs and 18 hits in the 18-12 game three win at Fresno State. Nevada had a streak of not allowing an earned run in 32 consecutive innings from Feb. 18-25, including shutouts at No. 13 Cal State Fullerton (2-0) and at Oral Roberts (3-0). Nevada pitchers have three shutouts this season.

Position Player Notes: Senior Grant Fennell leads the team in batting average (.367), on-base percentage (.465), runs scored (21), hits (33), RBIs (22), total bases (47), walks (18), stolen bases (7), multiple hit games (10), and is tied for first with six multiple RBI games while his .500 slugging percentage is second. Fennell ranks ninth in batting average (.351), fourth in on-base percentage (.456) and is tied for third in the MW with seven stolen bases.Fennell, Weston Hatten, and Dillan Shrum are the only multiple RBI games to lead the way in the conference. Fennell (10) and Echavia (9) are one-two in multiple hit games. Cole Krzmarzick is second on the team in batting average (.351), fourth in on-base percentage (.456) and is tied for third in the MW with seven stolen bases. Fennell, Weston Hatten, and Dillan Shrum are the only multiple RBI games to lead the way in the conference. Fennell (10) and Echavia (9) are one-two in multiple hit games. Cole Krzmarzick is second on the team in batting average (.351), fourth in on-base percentage (.456) and is tied for third in the MW with seven stolen bases.Fennell, Weston Hatten, and Dillan Shrum are the only multiple RBI games to lead the way in the conference. Fennell (10) and Echavia (9) are one-two in multiple hit games.

Pitchers Notes: Mark Nowaczewski (49.1) and Jake Jackson (47.1) are one-two on the team and second and third in innings pitched in the MW. Nowaczewski has three wins. Nowaczewski leads the team with five wins and Nowaczewski has three wins. Jackson's five wins are third for second in the MW and Nowaczewski's three wins are tied for fifth. Nowaczewski and Jackson have both pitched each weekend in the rotation. Jackson's WHIP of 0.85 is 20th in NCAA 1. Nowaczewski is one of two MW pitchers with shutout this season coming in a 3-0 win at Oral Roberts. Jackson (Mar. 20) ands (Mar. 27) were named the MW Pitcher of the Week in back-to-back weeks. In the series at New Mexico Jackson earned the save in game one and the win in game three. Jackson's 48 strikeouts leads the team and is second in the MW. Jackson struckout 13 at Oral Roberts and 10 vs. UC Riverside and combined with Cabbin on a 3-0 shutout. In addition to playing in the outfield Hat- ten has started two games on the mound and appeared in four games out of the bullpen. Jordan Jackson earned back-to-back victories vs. Santa Clara retiring the last batter he faced and tossed two shutout innings in game 1 vs. UNLV to earn the victory. Dalton Gomez (2-1) got the win in game 2 vs. UNLV recording the final out of the fifth inning. Gomez and Jordan Jackson are both 2-1 on the season. Anderson (1-1), Cooper Powell (1-2) and Ty Hueckman (1-0) all have one win this season. Gomez' ERA of 3.26 ranks ninth in the MW.

Last Time Out: Nevada lost two extra inning one-run games at No. 4 Oregon State on Monday and Tuesday. The Wolf Pack led the majority of both games. In game one the Pack allowed an unaired run in the 11th inning as a dropped fly ball with two-out by center fielder Cole Krzmarzick allowed the run to score in the 3-2 loss. Tuesday the Pack led 5-0 only to have OSU score four runs on bases loaded walks in the eighth inning to take a 7-5 lead but the Pack tied the game with two runs in the top of the ninth and it was off to extra innings. With two down in the bottom of the 10th Krzmarzick attempted to make a diving catch in center field but the ball got by him and rolled to the walk for an inside-the-park home run that gave the Beavers the 8-7 victory.

Up Next: After the series at San José State the Pack plays a single game at Saint Mary's College on Monday before hosting New Mexico for a three-game Mountain West series.
University of Nevada head baseball coach T.J. Bruce enters his third season leading the Wolf Pack baseball program in 2017-18. Bruce was hired by Nevada on June 26, 2015 and arrived on the Nevada campus as one of the top assistant coaches in the nation after spending five seasons at UCLA where he helped the Bruins to four postseason appearances and a 2013 College World Series title.

Bruce has established himself as one of the top recruiters in the nation as Collegiate Baseball ranked the Wolf Pack’s 2016 class 35th in the country. It was the first nationally ranked recruiting class in school history. D1Baseball.com ranked Bruce as one of the top 10 head coaches in recruiting.

In his first season in 2016 the Pack posted a 37-24 overall record with a 20-10 mark in MW play, taking a title fight into the last week of the season before finishing tied for second. Nevada’s record in its final 24 games were a testament to Bruce’s work with the team and vast improvement, as the Pack posted a 20-4 record in that span. Bruce and the Pack capped the 2016 season by advancing to the MW tournament finals for the first time in program history. Nevada won a program-record four tournament games, which included a 25-6 rout of top-seeded Fresno State.

Bruce guided three players to all-conference honors as sophomore TJ Friedl was named to the first team, while sophomore Jordan Pearce and junior Miles Mastrobuoni were named to the second team. Nevada also had three players selected in the 2016 MLB Draft with Mastrobuoni (14th round – Tampa Bay Rays), Trenton Brooks (17th round – Cleveland Indians) and Sam Held (29th round – Washington Nationals). Additionally, Friedl was named to the ABCA/Rawlings West All-Region second team before being named to the final roster for the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. Friedl was one of 10 position players in the nation to make the USA collegiate team, joining the squad for international competition over the summer. Friedl batted .401 for Nevada in 2016, becoming the first player to eclipse .400 at Nevada since 2001. Friedl went on to sign the largest contract by a domestic non-drafted free agent player with the Cincinnati Reds.

Despite losing nearly 80 percent of its at bats from 2015, the Wolf Pack posted a stellar .319 batting average on the season, which ranked second in the conference and ninth out of 295 Division I teams. Bruce’s defensive expertise also paid dividends as Nevada led the MW with a .977 fielding percentage, which set a new program record and ranked in the top 25 nationally. The Pack also posted a 5.07 team ERA, ranking third in the league. Nevada was the only team in the conference to rank in the top three in team batting, pitching and fielding.

Bruce and the Pack also had six players earn Mountain West All-Academic honors in 2016, including a pair of MW Scholar-Athlete winners in Justin Hazard and Taylor Miller.

In 2017 Nevada went 19-36 and finished fourth in the MW with a 13-16 record. The Pack won two-of-three games at New Mexico, the regular season champions, the final weekend to secure the last spot in the conference tournament. The team was involved in several close games going 6-10 in one-run contests. The difficult non-conference schedule included a three-game series at No. 6 Clemson where Nevada won the middle game 7-5 and dropped the other two games in hard fought battles.

Four members of the 2017 team earned MW honors led by first-team junior pitcher Mark Nowaczewski. Nowaczewski led the team with six wins and was named the MW Pitcher of the Week three times. Senior shortstop Justin Bridgman, senior pitcher Trevor Charpie and junior utility player Grant Fennell were selected to the second team. Bridgman and junior infielder Jordan Pearce were both selected in the MLB Draft. Bridgman was taken by Tampa in the 28th round while Pearce was chosen by Detroit in the 21st round. Charpie signed as free agent with Tampa. Junior outfielder Michael Echavia was selected to the American Baseball Coaches Association All-Region second team. Echavia was named to the MW All-Tournament team and was selected as the MW Player of the Week after batting .600 with eight RBI in the final series of the season at UNM.

The Pack was also well represented on the academic All-MW team with 11 selections. Three members of the squad were named MW Scholar Athletes.

2018 UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA BASEBALL GAME NOTES

PACK AT TOP THE MW STANDINGS
Nevada sits atop the Mountain West standings with a 9-3 record. San Diego State is second with a 7-4 mark followed by UNLV at 7-5. New Mexico (6-6), Air Force (5-7), Fresno State (4-8) and SJSU (3-8) round out the seven-teams. The Pack has won each of its four MW series this season, two coming on the road and two at home vs. SJSU and UNLV. Nevada opened conference play taking two-of-three games at preseason MW favorite New Mexico and followed that with a three-game home sweep of SJSU. Nevada won a series for the first time since 2003 at Fresno State defeating the Bulldogs twice, 5-1 and 18-12. The Pack defeated UNLV 5-4 and 8-7 at home before falling 7-3 in the final game of the series.

PACK RANKED 20TH BY COLLEGIATE BASEBALL NEWSPAPER
Nevada appeared at No. 20 in the Apr. 2 Collegiate Baseball poll. The last time the Wolf Pack appeared in the polls was in 2015, the year they captured the Mountain West regular season title. The 2015 team was ranked as high as No. 19 that season.

WARRENNOLAN.COM HAS NEVADA’S RPI AT 31
WattenNolan.com has the Nevada baseball team’s RPI at 31 in its latest posting. The Pack’s strength of schedule is 42 with a non-conference strength of schedule of 36. The Pack is 2-3 versus teams with a top 50 RPI with two victories over No. 27 UNLV and the three losses came to UNLV and No. 16 Oregon State twice in one-run extra inning games.

FANTASTIC FENNELL
After being named to the All-MW preseason team, Grant Fennell is enjoying an outstanding senior season. Fennell was named the Apr. 4 MW Player of the Week after batting .500 (5-for-10) with six RBI to help the Pack won two-of-three games from intrastate rival UNLV.

Fennell leads the team in batting average (.396), hits (33), total bases (47), walks (18), stolen bases (7), multiple hit games (10), and is tied for first with six multiple RBI games. He second with a .300 slugging percentage. Fennell’s 12 game hit streak earlier this season is the longest on the team this year in which he batted .391 (10-for-26) with seven RBI, three doubles and a home run. His 18 game streak or reaching base is the second longest on the team this season.

NEVADA OFF TO BEST START UNDER BRUCE
Nevada is off to its best start under third-year head coach T.J. Bruce at 15-11 overall and 9-3 in Mountain West play. In year one the Wolf Pack were 14-12 after 26 games and went 8-4 in its first 12 MW contests. The team finished 37-24 overall and reached the MW Championship title game for the first time in school history.

Last season the Pack were 7-19 after 26 games and 4-8 in MW play after 12 games. Nevada ended the year 19-36 and finished fourth in the MW standings to earn a spot in the season-ending tournament where they went 0-2.

FENNELL EARNs FIRST MW PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR
Senior outfielder Grant Fennell was named the Apr. 4 Mountain West Player of the Week after batting .500 against intrastate rival UNLV. Fennell played a large part in the Wolf Pack’s series victory over the Rebels, going 5-for-10 at the plate and driving in six runs. The senior had two doubles on the weekend and had a slugging percentage of .700. The San Diego, Calif. native collected hits and drove in an RBI in all three games, including going 3-for-3 in Saturday’s finale.

The outfielder’s biggest hit of the series came in game two, when he doubled with the bases loaded to score three on one swing. He finished the game tying a career-high four RBI and helped the Pack earn an 8-7 series-clinching victory.

MORE OF ZAMORA
Freshman Joshua Zamora has been on a tear for the Wolf Pack, batting a Mountain West leading .514 (18-of-35) in conference play with 12 runs scored, three doubles, three home runs and 13 RBI. Zamora is first in on base percentage (.568), second in slugging percentage (.585) and tied for third in RBIs (13) in conference play.

On the season he is batting .324 with a team-high four home runs, has driven in 15 and scored 17 runs. The .324 batting average is 17th in the MW.

In game 3 at Fresno State he hit a grand slam in the first inning and drove in a team season-high five. At New Mexico he hit two home runs in game three.

NOWACZEWSKI EARNs FIFTH CAREER MW PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR
Senior right-handed pitcher Mark Nowaczevski was named the March 27 Mountain West Pitcher of the Week after picking up his third win of the season at Fresno State. The Sparks, Nev. native earned the honor three times last season and once as a sophomore bringing his career total to five.

Nowaczevski tossed 7.1 innings in the 5-1 series opening victory against the Bulldogs on Friday. The senior only allowed one run on the night and began the game retiring nine FS...

NEVADA PREDICTED TO FINISH FOURTH

After finishing fourth in the Mountain West in head coach TJ Bruce's second season, the Wolf Pack is picked to finish fourth in the Mountain West Preseason Coaches Poll. New Mexico is predicted to win the conference again after capturing the MW title last season. San Diego State, picked second, ended up winning the MW Tournament and advancing to regionals last season.

NOWACZEWSKI AND FENNELL NAMED TO PRESEASON ALL-MW TEAMS

Wolf Pack seniors Grant Fennell and Mark Nowaczewski were named to the 2018 All-MW coaches and Perfect Game preseason teams for after breakout campaigns last season by each.

Nowaczewski led the conference in innings pitched with 99.1 and also threw three complete games, the most in the MW. The senior was named first-team All-MW last season as well as the MW Pitcher of the Week three times, once in consecutive weeks. Nowaczewski will look to take over for Trevor Charpie this season, who signed with the Tampa Bay Rays organization after graduating, and pitch on Fridays for the Pack.

Fennell, a versatile player, was selected as an outfielder on the coaches team and at third base by Perfect Game. Last season he batted .328 last season, tops on the Wolf Pack roster. One of Nevada's most versatile players, Fennell will look to hold down one of the corners of the outfield for the Pack and will be looked at by his peers as one of the best in the MW after being named to the preseason teams.

hitters and taking a no-hit bid into the fourth frame. Nowaczewski retired the side in order in four innings and faced the minimum in another.

The senior ended his day striking out three batters and only allowing four hits on 96 pitches. Nowaczewski is now 3-2 on the season with a 2-0 record against MW opponents.

JACKSON NAMED MW PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Nevada freshman Jake Jackson has been named the March 20, Mountain West Pitcher of the Week by the conference office for the first time in his collegiate career. The right-hander tossed eight shutout innings in a 3-0 victory over UC Riverside.

The Lake Forest, Calif. native was given the start in the first game of the Wolf Pack’s doubleheader against the Highlanders on Sunday and pitched a career-high eight innings. Jackson recorded 10 strike outs on the afternoon.

The freshman only allowed four hits on the day and issued just one walk. He also retired nine straight batters twice during the contest.

30 YEARS OF MEMORIES AT PECCOLE

1: In 1994, Nevada won the Big West Conference and propelled itself to its first Division I regional appearance. During that season, the Wolf Pack defeated powerhouse Long Beach State and Cal State Fullerton. One of the biggest highlights of the season came during a home series at Peccole against Pacific, where Nevada won three thrilling games 10-8, 7-6 and 15-13 to sweep the Tigers and earn the Big West title. The Pack went on to play the University of Texas, San Antonio in the first round in the Central Regional play in Austin, Texas and defeated the Roadrunners 11-8.

2: Peccole Park, then called Peccole Field, hosted its first ever game on March 4, 1988. Scott Anderson, the father of current Wolf Pack pitcher Ryan, pitched a complete game for Nevada in a 9-4 victory over University of the Pacific. The first inning was a sign of things to come in the next 30 years, as the Pack plated five runs to open up the game including Morgan Flynn's three-run double. Head coach Gary Powers was quoted in the Reno-Gazette Journal following the game as saying, “Hey, this is UNR history. We were fired up.”

3: On April 26, 2015 the Wolf Pack hosted “Populate Peccole” day at the ball park against San Jose State. The event produced the largest crowd in Peccole Park history, with 3,136 fans in attendance. The Pack took that series from the Spartans, winning two out of three contests and plating 43 runs over those three contests. Under head coach Jay Johnson, Nevada would go on to win its first ever Mountain West title that season, finishing with a record of 41-15 and 22-6 at Peccole Park.

4: In 2003, Nevada had two of its all-time greats produce some of their best seasons as Kevin Kouzmanoff was named the Western Athletic Conference Player of the Year and Brett Hayes took home the Freshman of the Year award. That season, the Wolf Pack finished 32-24, good for second in the WAC. Nevada led the conference with a team batting average of .314, which ranked better than the eventual College World Series champion Rice University. Hayes was a big part of this accomplishment, batting .365 on the season with a team-high 85 hits. Kouzmanoff batted .361 and led the Pack with 55 runs scored, 67 RBI and 17 home runs.

5: On March 1, 2016, current Nevada baseball head coach TJ Bruce earned his first victory at Peccole Park in historic fashion as it was also the 500th all-time victory at the park. Nevada currently holds a 529-261 record at Don Weir Field at Peccole Park. The Pack defeated Santa Clara 14-2 and were lead by TJ Friedl and Miles Mastrobuoni who each tallied four hits on the day. The Pack’s offense exploded in the fourth frame, scoring 11 runs to take a 12-2 lead over the Broncos. Senior Zach Wilkins picked up his second win of the season after allowing just two runs in seven innings of work and matching a career-high seven strikeouts.

6: Before Nevada joined the Mountain West, UNLV was still a very familiar opponent for the Wolf Pack. Nevada faced the Rebels eight times at Peccole Park from 2000-2018, going 7-1 at home. During this streak, Nevada went on a stretch of beating the Rebels five straight games from 2005-2006.

7: In 2012, Nevada governor Brian Sandoval announced the launch of the Governor’s Series, a head-to-head battle between Nevada and UNLV athletics. The Rebels took home the Governor’s Series Trophy every year until 2017, when the Nevada baseball team clinched the university’s first win in school history. With the competition coming down to a series at Peccole Park, Nevada took two of three games from the Rebels to claim the Governor’s Series on its home turf. The first game was won by the Pack after a bases-loaded walk issued to Kaleb Foster for the first win of the series. On May 13, 2017, Mark Nowaczewski pitched a 4-1 complete-game victory to defeat UNLV and give Nevada its first Governor’s Series trophy in its history.

8: In 30 years of Peccole Park, the highest average attendance came in 2000. That season, an average of 1,365 fans came out each game to support the Wolf Pack. Nevada finished 15-7 at home that year, and was led by Joe Inglett who batted .435 during the season. The record number of fans got to see eight members of the Pack hit .300 on the season as well.
