Am I a “Booster/Representative of NJIT Athletics Interests?”

You are a Representative/Booster of The New Jersey Institute of Technology’s Athletic Interests if you …

- have ever participated on a varsity athletic team at NJIT;
- you are a parent of a NJIT student-athlete;
- you are a former coach of NJIT athletics;
- have ever participated in or been a member of the Highlander Athletics Club or any other groups, which support specific athletic teams;
- have ever contributed to the NJIT athletics program (time or money);
- have ever helped or assisted in providing permissible benefits (e.g., summer employment) to enrolled student-athletes or prospects;
- have ever promoted the NJIT athletics program;
- have ever been involved with the NJIT athletic program in any capacity;
- have ever assisted or have been requested by the athletics staff to assist with the recruitment of prospects; or

- you are the spouse of a NJIT athletics department employee.

NCAA rules state that once an individual has been identified as such a representative, the individual retains that identity for life. New Jersey Institute of Technology is then ultimately responsible for the acts of all representatives in relation to NCAA rules and regulations.
