TONIGHT'S OPPONENT: JACKSONVILLE

JACKSONVILLE, FL – The NJIT Highlanders (12-14, 5-6 ASUN) look to snap a two-game skid and move back to .500 in league play when they battle the Jacksonville Dolphins (12-16, 6-5 ASUN) on Thursday. Tip-off from Swisher Gymnasium in Jacksonville is set for 7 p.m.

NJIT is coming off an 84-80 loss to Stetson on Thursday, while Jacksonville fell by a 78-54 margin at the hands of Kennesaw State.

This is a matchup of two of the top three scoring defenses in the ASUN as NJIT allows 72.9 ppg, which ranks second and Jacksonville sits third at 75.5 ppg.

All-Time Series
Jacksonville leads the all-time series by a 3-2 count after picking up a 63-61 victory on Jan. 20 at the Wellness and Events Center (WEC) in Newark.

Each of the last three meetings have been decided by three points or less.

In the last meeting between the two teams, the Highlanders put together a late rally and sophomore forward Anthony Tarke hit a jumper with 3:05 left to tie the game at 59 apiece before Jacksonville’s Jace Hogan sank a jumper of his own on the other end to give the Dolphins the lead for good.

NJIT had chances to tie the game or take the lead in the final two minutes, but was unable to get over the hump.

Trailing 61-59, Tarke misfired on a potential go-ahead three with 1:15 to go.

Junior forward Abdul Lewis led the way offensively for NJIT with a game-high 16 points and 13 rebounds. Lewis was joined in double figures by junior guard Diandre Wilson (11 points) and Tarke (10 points, nine rebounds).

Hogan, a junior forward, paced Jacksonville with 12 points while the trio of redshirt senior forward Cody Helgeland and freshman guards Jalyn Hinton and JD Andre Wilson (11 points) and Tarke (10 points, nine rebounds).

During the last meeting in Jacksonville on Feb. 11, 2017, the Dolphins’ Andris Misters hit a go-ahead jumper with 0:07 left to preserve the win for the visitors.

The Highlanders captured both meetings during the 2015-16 campaign.

Dolphin Landing
In the 78-54 loss at Kennesaw State on Saturday, the Dolphins were outscored 43-25 in the first half.

Jacksonville was held to 33.3% shooting in the contest and has dropped three straight.

Hogan had 14 points and 11 rebounds to lead Jacksonville, while Notae added nine points and redshirt senior guard Devin Harris chipped in with eight.

Hogan leads the team and ranks sixth in the ASUN in scoring at 16.0 ppg, Notae sits eighth at 15.4 ppg and Harris checks in at 12.2 ppg.

Harris also ranks fourth in the ASUN in rebounding at 7.0 rpg.

Hinton shoots a league-best 62.1% from the floor.

Defensively, the Dolphins hold foes to 31.0% shooting from beyond the arc, tops in the ASUN.

Head coach Tony Jasick is in his fourth season at the helm of the Dolphins and has compiled a 54-65 mark in his three plus seasons thus far.

A year ago, the Dolphins went 17-15 and advanced to the CollegeInsider.com tournament where they hosted Saint Francis (Pa) in the first ever postseason game at Swisher Gym.

Jacksonville graduated seven seniors from last year’s team.

Jasick previously spent three seasons as the bench boss at Indiana-Purdue Fort Wayne (IPFW) and was named the 2014 Mid-Major National Coach of the Year after leading the Mastodons to a school record 25 wins and a CIT victory over Akron, the first postseason victory in school history.

Harris’ brother, Ramon, played basketball at Kentucky and currently plays professionally in Greece.

NJIT Outlook
NJIT trailed by as many as 19 in the second half, but came up short in the 84-80 loss to Stetson on Saturday.

Trailing 68-49 with 10:15 to play, the Highlanders embarked on a 26-8 run that was capped by a layup from junior center Mohamed Bendary that brought head coach Brian Kennedy’s squad within one at 76-75 with 3:15 left.

Luke Doyle answered for Stetson with a jumper on the other end that stretched the lead back to three.

Trailing 82-77 in the final minute, NJIT’s freshman guard Zach Cooks buried a three with 0:39 left to cut the lead to a pair at 82-80. On the ensuing possession with the shot clock winding down, Angel Rivera knifed through the line for the Hatters and hit a floater with 0:11 left to preserve the win for the visitors.

Cooks had a career-high 21 points on 8-of-12 shooting to pace the Highlanders and was joined in double figures by Lewis (18 points, 13 rebounds), junior guard Donovan Greer (12 points) and sophomore guard Shyquan Gibbs (11 points).

The 21 points for Cooks surpassed his previous career-high of 17 on Nov. 22 vs. Kean and the 12 points for Greer surpassed his previous career-best of 11 points on Feb. 4, 2017 at Lipscomb.

Lewis has scored in double digits in five straight games and is averaging 20.8 ppg to go along with 10.0 rpg during that stretch.

Cooks has scored nine or more points in each of his last five contests and is averaging 13.0 rpg in that span.

With three games remaining in the regular season, NJIT currently sits in a three-way tie for fourth place with Kennesaw State and North Florida.

#ProtectTheWEC
The loss snaps a three-game winning streak for the Highlanders at the Wellness and Events Center (WEC) in Newark.

In a game that featured three of the ASUN’s top five rebounders entering play, the Highlanders outrebounded the Dolphins by 39-34 margin led by the 14 caroms from Lewis. Harris’ 11 rebounds topped Jacksonville.

Jacksonville got off to a strong start in this one as a 17-7 run midway through the first half capped by a triple from Tanner Rubio made it a 25-15 game in favor of the visitors with 6:46 left in the opening stanza.

Senior guard Abdul Lewis notched his fifth double-double of the season with a game-high 16 points and 13 rebounds for the Highlanders. The double-double for Lewis was his first since an 11-point, 10-rebound effort on Dec. 12 at Colgate.

Lewis was joined in double figures by junior guard Dandre Wilson (11 points) and Tarke (10 points, nine rebounds). Cooks added seven off the bench for head coach Brian Kennedy’s squad.

Anthony Tarke

Hogan paced Jacksonville with 12 points, while the trio of Cody Helgeland, Jalyn Hinton and JD Notae came through with 10 points apiece. Harris contributed nine points, 11 rebounds and six assists.

After calling Fleisher Athletic Center "home" for the past 50 seasons, the NJIT men's basketball team will officially become a tenant of the state-of-the-art Wellness and Events Center (WEC) for its 2017-18 season opener on Nov. 11. Not only will the Highlanders be revealing this brand new arena when they play host to Wagner, they will also be unveiling a much different look on the floor.

"2017-18 presents a new era for NJIT basketball," said NJIT Head Coach Brian Kennedy. "We have graduated arguably the top class in the school's history headlined by All-American Damon Lynn and All-ASUN player Tim Coleman. They have been replaced by a solid recruiting class that will be called on to contribute right away along with our returning players."

The Highlanders lost four senior starters from last season, including the program’s all-time leading scorer (Lynn) and all-time leading rebounder (Coleman). They also record an arena era in which the team posted an 8-4 record last season and an 87-60 mark during its Division-I era.

Just as it was not an easy process to erect the WEC, it will not be easy to replace Lynn’s 2,153 career points or Coleman’s 762 career rebounds. Yet, the key for the 2017-18 NJIT Highlanders men’s basketball team may be summed up in one word: depth.

The Highlanders’ high hopes heading into the 2016-17 season took a large hit when Lynn tore his Achilles just four games into conference play. Despite an impressive 8-8 start through a grueling non-conference schedule, NJIT finished 11-19 overall and seventh in the ASUN.

If there could be a “silver lining” to Lynn’s absence, it came in the form of valuable, on-the-job experience for several key newcomers.

Two of those newcomers, junior Abdul Lewis (Newark, NJ) and sophomore Anthony Tarke (Gaithersburg, MD) were both impressive enough in their NJIT debuts to garner preseason All-ASUN honors this October. Another, freshman Shyquan Gibbs (Hillside, NJ), took over as the starting point guard for the last 12 games of the season and received a significant education in nearly 32 minutes per game during the span.

Added to the mix this season is the highest-rated recruiting class in the history of the program consisting of San Antonio Brinson (Augusta, GA), Zach Cooks (Lawrenceville, GA), David Kachelries, described as playing with an incredibly high motor, (Pittsburgh, PA), and Shawndale Jones (Fort Lauderdale, FL), who ranked 11th in the nation while averaging 22.3 point per game as a sophomore at Mott Community College in St. Flint, Mich., in 2016-17.

"We will definitely have one of the youngest teams in Division-I basketball this year," said Kennedy, who returns five of seven underclassmen. "But we will be talented and will play a deep roster led by Abdul Lewis and Anthony Tarke, who are both entering their second year with the program."

FRONTCOURT

With a pair of preseason All-ASUN selections, NJIT could have one of the best frontcourts in the conference. In fact, Lewis and Tarke were two of just three forwards to receive such honors.

Lewis, a 6-foott-10 product of Newark East Side High School, lived up to expectations in his first season at NJIT after transferring from University of South Alabama. He finished the season averaging 9.7 ppg and 8.5 rebounds per game while setting program records for single-season rebounds (264) and single-game rebounds (19).

A two-time ASUN Newcomer of Week as a sophomore, Lewis’ growth was evidenced by the fact he averaged 13.4 ppg and 8.5 rpg over 14 games in ASUN play. Tarke, the first-ever Highlander selected to the postseason ASUN All-Freshman Team, became the focus of the offense following the Lynn injury. Over his last 14 games, he averaged 14.0 ppg while shooting .565 (74-for-131 FG). Among ASUN freshmen, Tarke ranked second in per-game averages for points (9.9), rebounds (4.7), steals (1.1) and blocks (0.5). He finished with 307 points, the highest scoring total by an NJIT freshman since Lynn in 2013-14 (500).

Junior Mohamad Bendary (Jersey City, NJ) continues to show improvement while providing size (6’9”) off the bench. The St. Anthony’s product scored 16 points over the final two games last season. Additionally, athletic sophomore Taj Price (Newark, NJ) will look to provide more depth in the low post.

The recruiting class as well as the frontcourt received a significant boost with the April signing of freshman San Antonio Brinson. The 6-foot-8, 200-pound forward arrived at NJIT as one of the highest-rated recruits in program history after attending South Kent School (CT).

BACKCOURT

Lynn’s injury last year left a big void in the backcourt. Perhaps the biggest beneficiary was point guard Shyquan Gibbs, a product of Bob Hurley’s legendary program. The St. Anthony High School (Jersey City, NJ) valedictorian finished his first collegiate season ranked 12th in the ASUN in assists-to-turnover ratio (1.6) and 25th in steals per game (0.7). More impressively, he averaged 6.8 ppg while shooting .457 (22-for-48 FG) over his last nine affairs.

Versatile junior Reilly Walsh (Staten Island, NY) proved last season that he could also facilitate the offense. The 2017 ASUN All-Academic selection averaged 8.0 ppg over his last three affairs and poured in a career-high 15 points in the final game of the season in the quarterfinal round of the ASUN tournament at Lipscomb.

NJIT also features a pair of accomplished long-range shooters. Senior Chris Jenkins (Hillside, NJ) has placed in the top 13 in the ASUN in three-pointers per game during each of his first two seasons at NJIT after transferring from Hofstra University. Although injured a majority of last season, junior Donovan Greer (Houston, TX) scored 11 points in his Highlanders debut at Lipscomb on Feb. 4 after averaging 8.8 ppg as freshman at San Jacinto College-Central (Pasadena, TX) in 2015-16.

Junior Diandre Wilson provides another scoring threat in Coach Kennedy’s arsenal, as the NJCAA All-American first-team honoree scored 1,253 career points in two seasons at Mott CC.

The three freshmen guards are expected to carve their way into the rotation.

Zach Cooks figures to handle a share of the point guard duties. He displayed both excellent ball-handling and playmaking abilities while at Berkmar High School in Lilburn, Ga.

Shawndale Jones is a 6-3 combo guard who athleticism shined not only on the hardwood, but also on the gridiron as a WR/CB at The Kiski School in Saltsburg, Pa. In its recap of all ASUN early signings, Hoopseen.com commented that Jones “could be the steal of the class.”

David Kachelries, described as playing with an incredibly high motor, finished his high school career as Emmaus’ all-time leading scorer with 1,910 points.

OUTLOOK

Last year, NJIT got a glimpse of the future in the final two games of the regular season. After initially struggling to adjust on the fly following Lynn’s injury, the Highlanders reinvented their identity in time to post impressive, back-to-back wins against Stetson and USC Upstate.

This crash course provided valuable experience for a youthful roster that features just one senior and just 40 combined starts at NJIT from its underclassmen.

Another positive factor could be a home-court advantage developed in the new, 3,500-seat basketball arena that will compare favorably with many mid-major facilities throughout the country. After traveling for 11 of their 16 non-conference contests a year ago, the Highlanders play nine of 15 non-conference games at the WEC this season.

Still, the young squad will be put to task early with another challenging schedule that features road games at West Virginia, Seton Hall, Rutgers and Buffalo and home tilts against the likes of Drexel, LIU Brooklyn and Iona.

How the Highlanders fare in the ASUN after being selected eighth in the preseason coaches and media poll will largely depend on the pace of their learning curve in advance of the conference opener on Jan. 6 against USC Upstate.

"I’m excited about the make-up of our roster and the opening of the WEC provides tremendous opportunities for our students and athletes here at NJIT," said Kennedy. "We have significant challenges ahead of us this season, but we certainly have the building blocks in place for the future as we continue to grow the program."

Brian Kennedy, 51 was introduced as the 11th head men’s basketball coach in program history on April 15, 2016, after serving as the NJIT’s top assistant from 2012-15. Coach Kennedy, whose involvement with the sport of basketball literally covers his entire life, is the son of the late Bob Kennedy, a former college and high school coach and the nephew of Pat Kennedy, who was a Division I head coach for 31 years at Iona, Florida State, DePaul, Montana, and Towson. The Kennedy family business, the Hoop Group, began in the Trenton, NJ, CYO in 1963 with summer basketball camps and moved in 1969 to Cherry Valley, PA, and the Pocono Invitational began.

In 1991, the Hoop Group acquired the Eastern Invitational camp and renamed it the Hoop Group Invitational Camp. A few years later, the Hoop Group began running grassroots tournaments and the subsequent years have seen numerous alumni go on to play in the NBA, including Kobe Bryant, Amar’e Stoudemire (#1 in the 2010 overall draft), and Kyrie Irving (#1 in the 2011 draft). Among the players he helped bring to DePaul are Andre Brown, Paul McPherson, and Bobby Simmons.

Kennedy took over the family business after graduating from Monmouth in 1990 and was President and co-founder when it was rebranded from the Pocono Invitational to the Hoop Group and became the largest basketball instructional organization in the world. He entered the college coaching ranks in 1997 as an assistant coach at DePaul on the staff headed by his uncle Pat. There, he was part of one of major college basketball’s great turn-arounds, as the Blue Demons, who won fewer than five games the year before he arrived, made the NIT quarterfinals in 1999 and then the NCAA Tournament in 2000 as a team ranked in the Top 25.

“BK” as he is known by his many friends, was involved in all aspects of the DePaul program and was a leader in efforts that brought in a group named as the nation’s top recruiting class in 1998 by The Sporting News. Among the players he helped bring to DePaul five future NBA players: Quentin Richardson, Bobby Simmons, Steven Hunter, Paul McPherson, and Andre Brown.

He stepped aside from coaching from 2002 through 2009, when he worked on Wall Street in the financial sector. He returned to the Hoop Group as Athletic Director, serving in that capacity from 2009 until 2012, when he joined the staff at NJIT.

In his first year as an assistant, the Highlanders captured their first Division I league title when they were regular season champions of the old Great West Conference.

As with DePaul in his first turn as a college coach, Kennedy spearheaded the recruiting efforts for NJIT and he faced a major task in his first recruiting year, with all three double-figure scorers from the 2012-13 Great West champions graduating in May 2013.

Kennedy’s first recruiting class (Class of 2017) has gone down as the best to date in the history of the program were vital to the Highlanders men’s basketball reaching unprecedented success.

In addition, the Highlanders won their first-ever game over a ranked opponent when they upset #17/#18 Michigan in December 2014 and scored their first-ever win over a BIG EAST Conference opponent when they topped St. John’s in December 2015. Two members of that first recruiting class put their names all over the NJIT record books. Damon Lynn, who was picked second-team all-state (all groups) by the Star-Ledger as a senior at Union Catholic High School, became the program’s all-time leading scorer on Nov. 11, 2016, and finished his career with 2,153 points. He currently ranks fifth in Division-I history with 434 career three-pointers.

Tim Coleman came in the same class, entering NJIT after graduating from St. Anthony High School in Jersey City, NJ, where he played for Nasmith Memorial Hall of Fame coach Bob Hurley. At St. Anthony, Coleman was a contributor on teams that won New Jersey state Tournament of Champions crowns following his sophomore and junior seasons.

Coleman carried that success into his NJIT career, as he finished as the program’s all-time leading rebounder (762) and fourth all-time scorer (1,462). He departed the NCAA ranks as the only active Division-I player with at least 1,400 points, 750 rebounds, 225 assists (244), 150 steals (154) and 135 blocks (135).

Coleman and Rob Ukawuba, also part of BK’s inaugural recruiting class, are now both playing professionally in the National Basketball League of Canada.

Taj Awan-Ali Price... intends to major in engineering at NJIT

COACH KENNEDY ON PRICE:

“Taj is a Newark product who played his HS basketball under Coaches Tavares, Garvin and Hawkins at East Side. He is a tireless worker who has a very high basketball ceiling and I believe he is just scratching the surface with his abilities. Taj will be called upon to give us immediate support “up front” as he improves his perimeter skills. His Post Grad year playing for the famed Roadrunners AAU team run by Coach Sandy Pyonin and at The Phelps School under Coach Brian Shanahan really helped to prepare him for the rigors he will face this year.”

2017-18:

• DNP in last 2 games and in 6 of last 7 contests
• Last 6 G: Averaging 5.3 ppg (32), 3.0 rpg (18), 0.7 bpg (4) in just 10.2 mpg (61)
• Career vs. Non-D-I Opponents: Averaging 9.3 ppg (37) and 6.3 rpg (25) in 14.8 mpg (59) in 4 G

HIGH SCHOOL:

A forward from Newark’s East Side High School, Taj Price, joins sophomore transfer Abdul Lewis on the Highlander squad as they look to build on last year’s school-record 30-win campaign under Coach Brian Shanahan. Price averaged 9.4 ppg and 4.9rpg during his senior campaign and a 54-25. East Side, ranked second in the state in 2014, posted a 30-2 overall record. Price averaged 9.4ppg and
