Fifth-year head coach Melissa Jackson enters the 2022-23 campaign after leading the Zips to a 17-12 overall record and an 13-7 mark in the Mid-American Conference action a season ago en route to a berth in the Women's National Invitation Tournament.

Since taking over, Jackson has gone on to capture a 55-56 overall record.

The Zips entered the 2019-20 campaign returning four starters, all seniors, Shayna Harmon, Haliegh Reinoehl and Caitlin Vari, started all 31 games for Akron as juniors, while Shaunay Edmonds earned the starting assignment 24 times.

The challenge for Jackson and her staff in year two was to continue the growth and development both on and off the court that her players established in her initial campaign as head coach.

That was important for Jackson as the Zips’ roster boasted six newcomers seeking to mesh with a talented core of upperclassmen.

Jackson played four seasons at the University of Richmond and earned a political science degree in May of 2004. She appeared in 50 career games as a guard with the Atlantic 10 Conference power and earned WNIT berths in both 2003 and 2004. Her ‘04 squad advanced to the semifinals.

- NKU enters the week after falling to Bowling Green on the road last Wednesday by a final score of 76-68.

- Duvall’s stat line against Lipscomb saw her in good company as only she, LeBron James (1/10/20) and Russell Westbrook (3/18/21) have totaled 35+ points, 15+ rebounds, 5+ assists & no fouls in a game, in the last 15 years at the NBA, WNBA or NCAA Division I era.

- NKU played in their second multi-overtime game this season, just three games into the year after beating Dayton on the road earlier this week in double-overtime at 82-78. The Norse have played in 5 total overtime periods this year as well.

- Akron enters this Monday matchup after defeating fellow Horizon League opponents Youngstown State (61-44) and Robert Morris (68-50).

- Leading the Zips offensively is Reagan Basset with 16.5 points per game, and is shooting 61.4 percent from the floor this season. Layne Ferrell also is averaging double-digit scoring with 14.0 ppg as well.

- Defensively Akron is anchored by Molly Neitzel with 7.5 rebounds per contest. Neitzel additionally leads the Zips with 8 blocks.
