Choice Hotels/NEC Co-Player of the Week

Jason Brickman, LIU Brooklyn
6-0, 165 lbs.
Sr., G, San Antonio, TX/Clark

Brickman did what he does best and then some on Saturday in leading three-time defending NEC champion LIU Brooklyn to an 87-80 win over Saint Peter's at Barclays Center. Brickman sliced and diced the Peacocks with precision passing and registered some timely buckets en-route to a virtuoso 13-point, 14-assist, six-rebound, three-steal performance. With the Blackbirds trailing by two with just over three minutes to play, the San Antonio native sparked an 11-0 run by assisting on three-of-four buckets, highlighted by a dish to Landon Atterberry in transition to cap the spurt and give the Blackbirds an 81-72 lead with 49 seconds to play. The 14 assists were two shy of his career-high of 16, set against Quinnipiac on February 18, 2012. Brickman, a preseason All-NEC honoree who led the nation with 8.5 apg a year ago, lifted his career assist total to 733, just 72 shy from establishing a new NEC record.

Choice Hotels/NEC Co-Player of the Week

Dyami Starks, Bryant
6-2, 195 lbs.
Jr., G, Duluth, MN/Duluth East

Going into a packed Kennel is no easy task, but Starks looked quite at home in Spokane, dropping a career-high 35 points in Bryant's 100-76 setback to #15 Gonzaga on Saturday. Starks, a preseason All-NEC pick, came out on fire following intermission, scoring 29 points in the second half on a variety of drives and long distance jumpers. He finished 10-12 from the floor, 3-4 from three-point range and 6-6 from the line in the final 20 minutes. On the evening, he converted 13 of his 22 field goal attempts, and added two rebounds and an assist.

Choice Hotels/NEC Rookie of the Week

Wayne Martin, St. Francis Brooklyn
6-6, 215 lbs.
Fr., F, Brooklyn, NY/South Shore

St. Francis Brooklyn could not have asked for a better debut from its 6'6" freshman forward. The Brooklyn native came of the bench to contribute a game-high 17 points on 6-13 shooting from the floor in the program's landmark 66-62 overtime win at Miami on Friday evening in Coral Gables. The South Shore product also pulled down eight rebounds and added a block and a steal in 28 minutes of action. Martin displayed a full compliment of post moves and driving layups, and even tossed in a three-pointer against the defending ACC champions. He scored 12 of his points in the second half, and with the Terriers trailing 54-53 with 40 seconds left, Martin calmly sank two pressure free-throws after he was fouled in the post.

TERRIER TAKEDOWN: ST. FRANCIS BROOKLYN DROPS DEFENDING ACC CHAMPS

South Florida is the home to many native New Yorkers, and St. Francis Brooklyn certainly made itself feel at home last Friday on its trip to Coral Gables, tripping up Miami, 66-62 in overtime in a landmark win for the program. The defending ACC champion Hurricanes ranked as high as #2 in the nation a year ago and reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament.

Following a slugging start from the field, the Terriers ended the first half on a 12-4 run to take a 27-26 lead into intermission. With freshman forward Wayne Martin (Brooklyn, NY/South Shore) providing the offensive spark with 12 second half points, SFBK went up by as many as seven, before Miami rallied to knot the game at 56 all on a layup with 2.9 seconds to play. In overtime, a layup by junior forward Jalen Cannon (Allentown, PA/William Allen) with 1:02 to play gave the Terriers the lead for good, and junior guard Brent Jones (Brooklyn, NY/Bedford Academy) sealed the upset with four free throws in the final 30 seconds.

"I was just really proud of our guys tonight," said St. Francis head coach Glen Braica. "This is one of the biggest wins, if not the biggest in the history of our school. They are the defending ACC champs, and are such a great program. I was particularly impressed that our guys had enough left at the end to pull this out after Miami had tied it up to force overtime. To have that kind of mental discipline is not an easy thing to do so it's a credit to them that they were able to hang in there. It was like a prize fight out there tonight as both teams were really exhausted at the end."

Martin couldn't have had a better debut. The Brooklyn native feasted on the Miami interior defense to the tune of a game-high 17 points to go along with eight boards to earn Choice Hotels/NEC Rookie of the Week accolades. Cannon recorded a double-double with 14 points and 10 rebounds to lead the Terriers to a 45-43 edge on the glass. Jones, who shot 54.8 percent from the line last season, hit 7-8 from the stripe and finished with seven points and four assists.

Looking at the bigger picture, the win was the fifth by an NEC school over an ACC team, and comes less than a year after Bryant edged Boston College, 56-54, on November 25, 2012. It was the first victory for SFBK over a BCS program since a 53-52 win over St. John's on November 23, 2004 and the first-ever for the Terriers over an ACC school.

BRICKMAN BRINGS BEST to BARCLAYS
The familiar faces around him may have changed, but LIU Brooklyn senior point guard Jason Brickman (San Antonio, TX/Clark) did not miss a beat in Saturday's opener for the new look Blackbirds, who began their quest for a fourth consecutive NEC championship with an 87-80 win over Saint Peter's at Barclays Center on Saturday. Brickman sliced and diced the Peacocks with precision passing, and registered some timely buckets en-route to a virtuoso 13-point, 14-assist, six-rebound, three-steal performance.

“” QUOTABLE

“This certainly isn’t an easy team to open up with or an easy place to play. But you can learn a lot from a team like [Gonzaga] in how well they defend and move the ball.” - Bryant head coach Tim O’Shea

“He’s a guy who has to score the ball for us to be a good team. He has a great gift of being able to make shots, we just have to keep encouraging him.” - RMU head coach Andrew Toole on Karvel Anderson

“Give Fordham credit, they have a good explosive guard in [freshman Jon] Severe and he did a great job giving them momentum. I was pleased with the way we battled in the second half. I thought we responded to the adjustments that we made, but you can’t come into a environment like this in your first game and play out of your element.” - SFU head coach Rob Krimmel

“They’re a really good team. I think their guards are great, and they have athletic bigs. We knew it was going to be a tough game. That’s a great team; you’ll see them in the NCAAs. We thought it was going to be like a Big Ten game and that’s how we played it.” - Penn State head coach Pat Chambers after the Nittany Lions beat Wagner on Saturday.

Ron Ratner @NECHoopsRon
Gonzaga is crazy good, but Dyami Starks had himself a night to remember for @BryantAthletics. 35 points in the Kennel. Sick shooter. #NECMBB

”He is a machine. He is a robot,” said LIU Brooklyn head coach Jack Perri of Brickman. “He makes the right call. Thank goodness we have him this year especially with guys that are changing roles and the new guys.”

The Choice Hotels/NEC Co-Player of the Week entered the season with 719 career assists, second all-time in the NEC and just 86 behind Marist’s Drafton Davis, who 25 years ago established a record (804) that had never been challenged until the San Antonio native’s arrival on the scene in 2010. Brickman, who led the nation in 2012-13 with 8.5 apg, enters Tuesday’s matchup against Indiana with 733 career dimes. Looking ahead, Brickman has a realistic chance of joining Duke’s Bobby Hurley (1,076), NC State’s Chris Corchiani (1,038) and UNC’s Ed Cota (1,030) as the only players in the history of DI college hoops to end their careers with 1,000 assists.

KARVEL’S BACK IN BUSINESS, KEYS RMU WIN IN SEASON OPENER
Another team sporting a different look this season is Robert Morris. With all-time greats Velton Jones and Russell Johnson among others moving on, fourth-year head coach Andrew Toole added six newcomers to the mix, all of whom saw action in an 88-66 season-opening win over Savannah State on Saturday. Toole showed off what appears to be a deep bench by playing 11 players at least 10 minutes and no one more than 26 minutes.

One returnee Toole can count on for production is senior guard Karvel Anderson (Elkhart, IN/Elkhart Memorial (Glen Oaks CC)), Anderson scored 18 of his game-high 21 points in the second half, including 10 straight points during a 14-6 surge that turned a two-point lead into a 63-51 advantage. He converted 7-12 shots from the field and made 5-8 from beyond the arc. His performance against the Tigers marks the fourth time in two seasons he has drilled at least five three-pointers in a game, with Robert Morris a perfect 4-0 in those contests.

“Sometimes when you get into those zones, the rim seems like an ocean, you just feel like you can’t miss,” Anderson said. “Fortunately for myself, I got into one of those zones and my team kept finding me. I don’t think they changed their defense, my teammates just kept telling me, ‘Keep looking for your shot, keep trying to score,’ [and] my coaches kept telling me. Them having that confidence in me, and already having the confidence I have in myself, that helps.”

DYNAMIC PERFORMANCE FOR DYAMI
Walking into the Kennel isn’t easy. The home of 15th-ranked Gonzaga is one of the toughest arenas to play in the country, yet the crazed atmosphere didn’t seem to rattle Bryant preseason All-NEC pick Dyami Starks (Duluth, MN/Duluth East (Columbia)) in the least.

Starks, who was named NEC Co-Player of the Week, put on a clinic in front of the 6,000 in attendance, dropping a career-high 35 points, including 29 in the second half when he hit 10-12 from the field, 3-4 from outside the arc and a perfect 6-6 from the line. For the game, Starks converted 13-22 shots from the floor. His previous career-high was 29 points against Robert Morris on January 3, 2013.

MILESTONE FOR BRYANT’S FRANCIS
On Saturday, Bryant senior forward Alex Francis (Harlem, NY/Holderness Prep (NH)) reached the latest milestone in a career that by season’s end could be labeled historic. Francis surpassed the 1,500-point mark in a loss to Gonzaga, scoring 13 points.

With 1,503 points, Francis ranks 62nd on the NEC career scoring list. The Harlem, NY product is on pace to become the first player in conference history to finish with 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds. He has compiled 732 rebounds in his career.

"He's a kid who's been a mainstay," O'Shea said. "He came in when we weren't eligible for any type of postseason and here it is, four years later, and he has a pretty good chance to end his career with 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds."

FDU's HERENDA ERA OFF TO WINNING START

With Fairleigh Dickinson looking to reboot its program, the call was made to Greg Herenda last spring. Herenda had turned around the UMass-Lowell program in his five years, leading the DII school to four NCAA Tournament appearances. Looking to restore the Knights to NEC prominence, Herenda has started to build the foundation from the ground up with seven newcomers joining a team that sports just three upperclassmen.

On Saturday, before an enthusiastic crowd of 1,200 at the Stratis Arena, the Knights downed Caldwell, 89-71.

"It was a great night to be a Knight," Herenda said. "Our team is young and exciting, and our crowd was just awesome. My first win here at FDU is special, but what makes me even happier is the potential of this team and this program. We have a great deal of work ahead of us, but the potential is incredible here."

Junior Mustafaa Jones (Philadelphia, PA/Neumann-Goretti (Hartford)) led the way with a career-high 20 points and added seven boards. He drained 5-11 from three-point range and was one of five FDU players to finish in double digits. The Knights received 30 points from newcomers, including 13 from freshman guard Jayde Dawson (Montreal, Quebec/Brooks School), who finished with 13 points and four assists.

The win was the first in a season opener for FDU since the 2002-03 season.

NEWCOMERS OF NOTE

A number of newcomers to the NEC made good first impressions last week, none more so than St. Francis Brooklyn freshman forward Wayne Martin (Brooklyn, NY/South Shore). The NEC Rookie of the Week had his way against Miami with 17 points and eight boards in a 66-62 overtime win over the Hurricanes. The high school teammate of UConn freshman Terrence Samuel scored 12 points and added four rebounds in the second half alone.

Along with Martin, here are a host of NEC newcomers who made impressive debuts:

Declan Soukop (BRY, RFr, G): 6 points, 2 assists vs. Gonzaga
Juwan Newmen (CCSU, Jr, F): 10 points, 8 rebounds, 4-5 FG vs. Yale
Jayde Dawson (FDU, Fr, G): 13 points, 3 rebounds, 4 assists, 6-10 FG vs. Caldwell
Landon Atterberry (LIU, Jr, F): 11 points, 4 rebounds, 5-9 FG vs. Saint Peter's
Gilbert Parga (LIU, RJr, G): 13 points, 3 assists, 2-4 3PFG vs. Saint Peter's
Will Miller (MSM, Fr, F): 9 points, 3-6 3PFG vs. West Virginia
Desjuan Newton (RMU, Jr, G): 8 points, 3 rebounds, 2-2 3PFG vs. Savannah State
Charles Oliver (RMU, Jr, G): 12 points, 4 rebounds, 2-4 3PFG vs. Savannah State
Amdy Fall (SFBK, So, F): 6 points, 4 rebounds, 2 blocks vs. Miami
Malik Harmon (SFU, Fr, G): 5 points, 3 rebounds, 4 assists vs. Fordham
Jay Harris (WC, Jr, G): 5 points, 5 rebounds, 5 assists vs. Penn State

CCSU's VINALES OFF AND RUNNING

It didn't take much time for CCSU junior guard Kyle Vinales (Detroit, MI/Phelps School) to find his groove. The nation's eighth-leading scorer last season scored 24 of his game-high 30 points in the first half of the Blue Devils' 93-77 setback to Yale in Connecticut 6 Classic in Bridgeport, CT on Saturday. Vinales made 11-23 shots from the floor, including three from long distance, and added two rebounds, three assists and three steals. It was the eighth 30+ point game of his career, most among active NEC players.

2013-14 NEC PRESEASON POLL

LIU Brooklyn made history a year ago, becoming the first team in the 32-year history of the Northeast Conference (NEC) to "three-peat" as men's basketball champion. With a chance to go one step further and make it four straight titles, the Blackbirds will not lack worthy challengers this season, most notably local rival Wagner, which was picked by NEC had coaches to capture the 2013-14 crown. Wagner, which claimed seven first place votes, won its lone NEC championship back in 2003.

2013-14 NEC-TV SCHEDULE

Northeast Conference (NEC) basketball fans across the nation will have plenty of opportunities to watch their favorite teams this season. Every broadcast in the NEC's 2013-14 television package will be distributed nationally, half of which will also air via the league's growing network of regional partners.

The NEC will enjoy its broadest reach to date in the 29-game package. Among the highlights:

- Every single game will air nationally via ESPN, Fox College Sports (FCS) or the NEC's newest national partner, CBS Sports Network (CBSSN).
- An expanded women's package will be carried by ESPN3.
- The schedule features a record 19 prime time games.
- Comcast SportsNet New England (CSNNE) has been added as a regional partner.
- Longtime NEC regional partner MSG will broadcast 11 games, including three NEC men's tournament contests.
- Up to seven NEC Tournament games will air on a variety of networks.
- All NEC television games will be broadcast in HD.

Most notably, up to 17 games are scheduled on ESPN networks, highlighted by the NEC men's and women's championship games in March. ESPNU is also slated to air a pair of marquee regular season men's contests. The first pits Bryant at Robert Morris on January 30 at 8:00 pm. The two teams tied for second in the NEC preseason poll and figure to be in the hunt for the conference title. One week later on February 6, the Colonials visit three-time defending NEC champion LIU Brooklyn in a 7:00 pm start. The two teams met last year on ESPNU with RMU prevailing, 60-57, in an instant classic that went down to the final horn.
