Choice Hotels/NEC Player of the Week

Sidney Sanders, Jr., Fairleigh Dickinson

5-11, 175 lbs.

Sr., G, Charleston, SC/Burke (Polk State)

One of the smallest players on the court made the biggest impact in a landmark week for the FDU program. Sanders Jr. averaged 21.3 points, 4.7 rebounds, 7.7 assists and 2.7 steals in a 2-1 week for the Knights that included wins over Garden State rivals Rutgers and Seton Hall. On Tuesday in an NIT Season Tipoff game at the RAC, the Charleston, NJ native finished with 22 points and 10 assists for his first career double-double as FDU shocked Rutgers, 73-72. Sanders hit a pair of free throws with 1:19 to play to pull the Knights to within one point, then assisted on both Matt MacDonald's go-ahead three-pointer with 26 seconds left on the clock and Mustafaa Jones layup with three seconds to go that iced the victory. He put on a command performance against Seton Hall on Sunday, finishing with a near triple-double of 23 points, 9 rebounds and 9 assists as FDU earned a 58-54 win over the Pirates. Sanders dished to Mathias Seilund for a three-pointer that gave the Knights a 55-51 edge with 2:15 to play and hit a pair of free throws with 20 seconds on the clock to keep FDU ahead by three. He then pulled down a huge offensive rebound off a missed free throw with five seconds to go and made the key shot from the charity stripe to keep it a two possession game. For the year, Sanders is averaging 17.4 ppg (fifth in NEC), 5.6 apg (second) and 1.9 spg (second).

Choice Hotels/NEC Rookie of the Week

Wayne Martin, St. Francis Brooklyn

6-6, 215 lbs.

Fr., F, Brooklyn, NY/South Shore

Over the first eight games of his career, Martin has quickly established himself as a prime-time player for the Terriers. Having already come up big down the stretch in wins at Miami and Florida Atlantic, the two-time Choice Hotels/NEC Rookie of the Week again came to the rescue for St. Francis Brooklyn on the road Sunday, tipping in a Sheldon Hagigal miss with 1.5 seconds left to secure a 70-68 triumph over America East contender Stony Brook. Martin scored 10 of his 12 points in the second half, and finished 6-10 from the field to go along with three rebounds. The Brooklyn native also hit 7-8 shots as part of a 17-point, 9-rebound effort in SFBK's 83-54 win over Mount St. Vincent on Wednesday. For the week, he averaged 14.5 points, 6.0 rebounds and shot 72.2 percent from the floor. Martin leads all NEC freshman in scoring (11.0), rebounding (5.9) and field goal percentage (.563).

HISTORIC GARDEN STATE SWEEP FOR HERENDA, FDU

"I took the job May 1 and had six players in the program with no staff. We just had hungry players and I told them if they work hard they will win a championship some day. This wasn't a championship today, but I thought it was a championship effort. I'm just proud of my guys and thankful."

That was FDU head coach Greg Herenda after the Knights went into the RAC last Tuesday and earned the first signature win of his short tenure, a 73-72 conquest of Rutgers in the NIT Season Tipoff.

After going ahead by as much as nine in the second half, FDU finally relinquished the lead with three minutes to play, and with three frontcourt players having fouled out, trailed by one in possession of the ball with under a minute to play. In stepped freshman guard Matt MacDonald (Buffalo, NY/Canisius), who calmly sank a 25-foot three-pointer with 26 seconds on the clock to give FDU a 71-69 edge. After Rutgers missed a shot, junior guard Mustafaa Jones (Philadelphia, PA/Neumann Goretti) hit a transition layup with three seconds to play to ice the game for the Knights.

"We wanted to open up the floor and let Sid(ney Sanders Jr.) go," said Herenda. "In college basketball, players make plays. Sid drove it in and Matt (MacDonald) opened up deep. Matt joined us in August after having no scholarship offers. The kid shoots so many shots in practice and it paid off for him tonight."

The victory for the Knights over Rutgers was only their second in the series (out of 11 games), and first since December 1, 1993 when FDU won a 56-53 nailbiter when the Scarlet Knights were still a member of the A-10.

"This win justifies what we have been doing since August," said Herenda. These kids have worked hard. We played at Arizona and versus (DII No. 1) Metro (State) - a tough schedule so far. This validates what we do in practice every day and shows them we can win games on the road in a tough environment. I'm hard on my guys, coach them tough but I respect them and love them. They deserve the fruits and to have a happy Thanksgiving."

Senior guard Sidney Sanders, Jr. (Charleston, SC/Burke (Polk State)) recorded his first double-double, matching career-highs with 22 points and 10 assists. Jones hit 5-9 from outside the arc to score a career-best 21 points, and MacDonald added a personal-best 14 points on 4-8 shooting from long range.

And just when you thought things couldn't get any better for Herenda and Co., the Knights waltzed in to the Prudential Center on Sunday and knocked off Big East foe Seton Hall, 58-54, completing the historic two-game sweep of New Jersey rivals.

The Knights once again received a masterful performance from Sanders, who torched the Pirates to the tune of 23 points, 9 rebounds and 9 assists in a near triple-double effort. He was named Choice Hotels/NEC Player of the Week for his two outstanding performances as well as Lou Henson National Player of the Week honors.

"Sid Sanders is playing as well as anyone I've been around in a long time," Herenda said. "On top of that, Scooter (Gillette) played like a Big East player today, and Mathias (Seilund) made two huge three's that basically won the game for us. It truly was a team effort for us today."

Sanders dished to senior forward Mathias Seilund (Dragoer, Denmark/Falkonergaardens Gymnasium) for a three-pointer that gave the Knights a 55-51

CCSU scored its final 19 points from the line in a 74-71 win at NJIT on Tuesday.

CCSU junior guard Kyle Vinales (Detroit, MI/Phelps School) scored 42 points last week to push his career total to 1,279, good for 19th place on the CCSU all-time list. He jumped three spots, including passing former All-NEC player Obie Nwadike (1,265). Up next is Jim Muraski (1,291) as Vinales is only 35 points from becoming the 18th player in school history to reach 1,300 career points.

In FDU's victory over Seton Hall, the Knights won the rebounding battle for the first time all season after holding a 33-29 edge on the glass.

LIU Brooklyn has won 39 of its last 41 games at the Steinberg Wellness Center following a last-second, 74-72, win over Norfolk State on Sunday.

LIU Brooklyn's win over Norfolk State marked the first time the Blackbirds have had 20+ assists while committing fewer than 10 turnovers since a 93-73 win in the NEC Tournament semifinals over the Mount on Feb. 27, 1998.

Mount St. Mary's has twice faced the #1 team in the nation. The Mount took on Michigan State last week and also went up against North Carolina in the first round of the 2008 NCAA Tournament.

Sacred Heart junior guard Phil Gaetano has entered the top-50 on the NEC career assist list. With 382 career dimes he ranks 46th all-time.

Over the last three years, Wagner is 18-1 when scoring 80 or more points, 29-3 when shooting 45 percent or higher and 45-1 when leading with five minutes to play, including 38 straight.

Wagner senior Naofall Folahan blocked a personal-best matching seven shots against Stetson, just one off of Miladin Mutavdzic's single-game school record of eight (2/29/92).

“” QUOTABLE

"It was a gritty win for us, other than the free throws at the end. Brown is good. We beat a very good team. These are the types of games that by the end of the season make or break your year. We had the same kind of win at New Hampshire. They all add up." - Bryant head coach Tim O'Shea on his team's 70-67 win over Brown on Wednesday

"I'm really proud of the team stepping up to play one of the best mid-major teams in basketball and playing very well." - Mount St. Mary's head coach Jamion Christian after the Mount knocked off Bucknell on Tuesday

"I just want to give Sacred Heart a lot of credit. I thought, in particular (Phil) Gaetano and (Steve) Glowiak, I thought those two played terrific and came out of the gates. They deserve a ton of credit because they could have easily won this game." - Boston College head coach Steve Donahue after the Eagles beat Sacred Heart in OT, 75-67, on Tuesday

"Ben (Mockford) told me in the huddle that I would have a good chance of being free for the rebound. My defender left to double Sheldon and I was wide open for the tip-in." - St. Francis Brooklyn freshman forward Wayne Martin on his game-winning tip-in at Stony Brook on Sunday

"We feel that we have so many scorers on the perimeter that when we start making shots like that no one can stop us. I shot them from pretty deep tonight but they came in the flow of the game." - Wagner's Marcus Burton who scored 21 in a win over Stetson last Monday

Looking at the bigger picture, the wins marked the first by an NEC school over an AAC team and first over a Big East opponent since Wagner beat Pitt back in 2011. They also come less than three weeks after St. Francis Brooklyn knocked off an ACC opponent in Miami. NEC teams have also gone down to the wire with a number of major conference teams this year as LIU fell to Indiana (73-72), Syracuse edged St. Francis Brooklyn (56-50) and Boston College beat Sacred Heart (75-67) in overtime last week.

BUZZER BEATERS FOR THE GOOD GUYS

As Fairleigh Dickinson was preparing to knock off its second straight major conference opponent on Sunday afternoon, a pair of buzzer-beating finishes were unfolding involving the NEC's two Brooklyn-based programs.

At the Steinberg Wellness Center, LIU Brooklyn was rallying from six down with under two minutes to play against Norfolk State. After junior forward Landon Atterberry (Detroit, MI/Southfield (Cape Fear CC)) tied the game at 72 all on a layup with 20 seconds to play, the wheels were in motion for the final sequence. Following a Norfolk timeout, junior swingman Troy Joseph (Toronto, Ontario/Pickering) made a terrific block with seven seconds on the clock, and sophomore forward EJ Reed (Dallas, TX/Mesquite) sent an outlet pass to senior guard Jason Brickman (San Antonio, TX/Clark). Brickman raced the ball up court and with his 14th assist of the game, found junior guard Gerrell Martin (Bronx, NY/Wings Academy) with a bounce pass for a layup at the buzzer and 74-72 win for the Blackbirds.

"That's the way we drew it up," LIU Brooklyn head coach Jack Perri joked after the win. "When the money was down we got the defensive stop that we needed. We went back to man-to-man late and our guys showed some resiliency. It was a hell of a defensive stop and then obviously you get the runout and the play was awesome."

See video of the game-winner here: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AcIWrbR5sPA>

A few minutes later on Long Island, St. Francis Brooklyn's dynamic freshman Wayne Martin (Brooklyn, NY/South Shore) once again answered the call for the Terriers. It started when junior forward Jalen Cannon's (Allentown, PA/William Allen) three-pointer with 40 seconds remaining capped a 7-0 run and gave SFBK a 68-66 advantage over Stony Brook, the defending America East regular season champion who was picked second in the 2013-14 preseason poll. After the Seawolves knotted the game at 68-68 with 19 ticks left on the clock, Martin swooped in to tip-in Sheldon Hagigal's (Westbury, NY/West Oaks Academy (FL)) layup attempt with 1.5 seconds remaining for the 70-68 triumph that snapped SBU's 13-game home win streak. Martin was subsequently named Choice Hotels/NEC Rookie of the Week for the second time this season.

"Today we beat one of the best mid-major programs in the country," said St. Francis Brooklyn head coach Glenn Braica. "They (Stony Brook) are a class act, play the right way and are a terrific team. I'm very happy with how our guys responded. We had the lead, lost it and then showed a lot of heart by staying with it and coming up with the win."

2013-14 NEC PRESEASON POLL

LIU Brooklyn made history a year ago, becoming the first team in the 32-year history of the Northeast Conference (NEC) to "three-peat" as men's basketball champion. With a chance to go one step further and make it four straight titles, the Blackbirds will not lack worthy challengers this season, most notably local rival Wagner, which was picked by NEC head coaches to capture the 2013-14 crown. Wagner, which claimed seven first place votes, won its lone NEC championship back in 2003.

Northeast Conference (NEC) head coaches put their heads together to come up with "the best of the best" in the conference, selecting five players to the Preseason All-NEC team. Each of the five honorees are returning All-NEC performers.

2013-14 NEC-TV SCHEDULE

Northeast Conference (NEC) basketball fans across the nation will have plenty of opportunities to watch their favorite teams this season. Every broadcast in the NEC's 2013-14 television package will be distributed nationally, half of which will also air via the league's growing network of regional partners.

The NEC will enjoy its broadest reach to date in the 29-game package. Among the highlights:

- Every single game will air nationally via ESPN, Fox College Sports (FCS) or the NEC's newest national partner, CBS Sports Network (CBSSN).
- An expanded women's package will be carried by ESPN3.
- The schedule features a record 19 prime time games.
- Comcast SportsNet New England (CSNNE) has been added as a regional partner.
- Longtime NEC regional partner MSG will broadcast 11 games, including three NEC men's tournament contests.
- Up to seven NEC Tournament games will air on a variety of networks.
- All NEC television games will be broadcast in HD.

Most notably, up to 17 games are scheduled on ESPN networks, highlighted by the NEC men's and women's championship games in March. ESPNU is also slated to air a pair of marquee regular season men's contests. The first pits Bryant at Robert Morris on January 30 at 8:00 pm. The two teams tied for second in the NEC preseason poll and figure to be in the hunt for the conference title. One week later on February 6, the Colonials visit three-time defending NEC champion LIU Brooklyn in a 7:00 pm start. The two teams met last year on ESPNU with RMU prevailing, 60-57, in an instant classic that went down to the final horn.

LIU'S BRICKMAN WITHIN STRIKING DISTANCE OF NEC ASSIST MARK

At this rate, LIU Brooklyn senior guard Jason Brickman (San Antonio, TX/Clark) could be just a couple games away from breaking one of the NEC's longest-standing individual records. With 14 assists in a 74-72 win over Norfolk State on Sunday, Brickman lifted his lifetime total to 781 dimes and is just 24 shy of surpassing Marist's Drafton Davis, who racked up an all-time best 804 from 1984-88. Prior to Brickman, no NEC player had come within 200 assists of the mark Davis set 25 years ago.

Brickman is the leading active distributor in DI and needs 42 dimes to enter the top-25 all-time in NCAA history. Looking ahead, Brickman also has a realistic chance of joining Duke's Bobby Hurley (1,076), NC State's Chris Corchiani (1,038) and UNC's Ed Cota (1,030) as the only players in the history of DI college hoops to end their careers with 1,000 assists.

Brickman led the nation last season with 8.5 apg, and is again on top of the national leaderboard in 2013-14 with 10.3 apg. His two games of 14 assists this season tie for the most by an NCAA player this season against a DI opponent.

DID YOU KNOW?

There have been 27 times over the last 10 years that a player has dished for at least 14 assists while committing one or less turnovers. LIU Brooklyn senior guard Jason Brickman (San Antonio, TX/Clark) joined that group on Saturday with a 14-assist, one-turnover performance in a 74-72 win over Norfolk State.

WHACK TO THE RESCUE IN BIG MOUNT WIN

Mount St. Mary's senior guard Rashad Whack (Hyattsville, MD/Bishop McNamara) came through in a big way for Mount last Tuesday in a 69-64 win over Patriot League power Bucknell. The Hyattsville, MD native dropped a season-high 22 points, and after his acrobatic lefty runner with 2:29 to play gave the Mount an eight-point cushion, he hit four free throws down the stretch to seal things. Whack followed with 10 points, six rebounds and a pair of steals at Michigan State, and averaged 16.0 ppg, 3.5 rpg, 2.0 apg and 1.5 spg for the week.

TERRIER NAILBITERS

St. Francis Brooklyn is off to a 5-3 start, but haven't made it easy for its fans in the process. Four of Terriers' five wins have come down to the final seconds. Opponents have missed a potential game-tying or game-winning three-pointer in all of those wins (Miami, Florida Atlantic, Oakland, Stony Brook), including a 40-footer by Stony Brook on Sunday that rimmed out at the buzzer.

HIGH FIVE FOR MOUNT'S MILLER

When a player signs to play for a DI school, these are the moments he dreams about. Out on the floor against the nation's top-ranked team last Friday, Mount St. Mary's freshman forward Will Miller (Dallas, TX/Highland Park) found the national stage to his liking in a game televised coast-to-coast on Big Ten Network. In just his eighth career game, Miller broke out in a big way, hitting five three-pointers in the first half against Michigan State, keeping the Mount within five points late in the first half. He finished with a team and career-high 15 points to lift his season average to 6.8 ppg. He leads Mount St. Mary's with 16 three-pointers and ranks eighth in the NEC with 2.0 trifectas per outing.

STELLAR NUMBERS FOR CCSU'S VINALES

In the "stellar games" category, CCSU junior guard Kyle Vinales (Detroit, MI/Phelps School) is at the top of the list. Vinales has racked up 31 games of 20+ points over the course of his career, four more than Bryant senior forward Alex

Francis (Harlem, NY/Holderness Prep (NH)). Vinales has also tallied eight games of 30+ points, also a league-leading mark among active players. This season, Bryant junior guard Dyami Starks (Duluth, MN/Duluth East) has already hit the 30-point mark on three occasions.

BRYANT'S FRANCIS CRACKS NEC TOP-50

Bryant senior forward Alex Francis (Harlem, NY/Holderness Prep) last week cracked the top-50 on the NEC career scoring list and enters play this week with 1,599 points, tops among active players in the conference and 44th all-time. Francis, who also ranks 23rd on the league's all-time rebounding list with 770, is one of 13 players in NEC history to reach 1,500 points and 750 boards in his career. The New York City product is currently on pace to become the first player in conference history to finish with 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds.

Last week, he matched a season-high 22 points in a 70-67 win over Brown on Wednesday and currently ranks in the NEC top-10 in scoring (15.6, seventh), rebounding (6.0, sixth), field goal percentage (.638, 1st) and blocks (1.43, fifth).

NEC NOTABLES

- Bryant freshman forward Dan Garvin (Bethel, CT/Bethel) recorded the first double-double of his career with 10 points and a career-high 10 rebounds in a 70-67 win over intrastate rival Brown on Wednesday. He then matched his career-high with 13 points against Salve Regina on Saturday. He averaged 11.5 ppg, 7.5 rpg and shot 52.9 percent for the week.
- CCSU picked up its first win of the season on Tuesday behind 29 points from junior guard Kyle Vinales (Detroit, MI/Phelps School). Vinales made 6-11 shots from the floor and sealed the win from the line, making nine straight in the last minute in a 74-71 victory at NJIT.
- CCSU junior forward Faronte Drakeford (Wilmington, NC/Pinecrest (Cape Fear CC)) scored a career-high 22 points in a 72-61 loss at Brown on Saturday. He made 11-17 from the field while also grabbing six rebounds.
- FDU junior Mustafaa Jones (Philadelphia, PA/Neumann-Goretti) had a career night in the victory over Rutgers after scoring a career-high 21 points and grabbing a career-best eight rebounds in 38 minutes of action. He also knocked down 5-9 from three-point range and his layup with three seconds left proved to be the game-winning bucket for the Knights.
- Robert Morris senior guard Karvel Anderson (Elkhart, IN/Elkhart Memorial (Glen Oaks CC)) averaged 18.0 ppg, 3.5 rpg, 2.0 spg and 1.5 bpg last week, including a season-high 25 points against Delaware. Anderson has reached double figures in scoring in each of RMU's first eight games of the 2013-14 campaign and has scored at least 20 points in four tilts. He ranks third in the NEC with 18.1 ppg and leads the conference with 3.38 three-pointers per outing.
- Sacred Heart junior guards Steve Glowiak (New Britain, CT/New Britain) and Chris Evans (Stamford, CT/Stamford (Taft School)) each averaged 16.0 ppg last week. Glowiak also pulled down 4.5 rpg and dished for 3.5 apg, while shooting 55.0 percent from the field and 53.8 percent (7-13) from outside the arc. Evans hit at a 55.3 percent clip from the floor and made 82.4 percent (14-17) from the line. Evans had 18 and Glowiak 15 in a near-upset of Boston College on Tuesday as the Pioneers fell 75-67 in overtime.
- St. Francis Brooklyn junior forward Jalen Cannon (Allentown, PA/William Allen) averaged 19.5 points, 8.0 rebounds and shot 65.0 percent from the field last week. He scored a game and season-high 23 points in SFBK's 70-68 win at Stony Brook on Sunday. In the win, he hit 3-3 from three-point range, including a trifecta with 40 seconds left that gave the Terriers a 68-66 lead. Cannon currently ranks sixth in the NEC in scoring (16.4), second in rebounding (8.1) and third in field goal percentage (.545).
