Back from an injury that sidelined him the first six games of the year, Barnett gave Sacred Heart a lift off the bench last week, averaging 8.0 points, 2.0 rebounds and 1.0 steals in a 1-1 week for the Pioneers. He shot 57.1 percent from the floor, including a 4-6 performance in his collegiate debut last Wednesday, a 73-59 road win at Hofstra. Barnett finished with eight points in 20 minutes and hit two key second half buckets to keep the Pride at bay with the SHU lead still in single digits. The 6'4" wing from Waldorf, MD native also contributed eight points, four rebounds and a pair of steals in a seven-point setback to Lafayette on Saturday.

FDU'S SANDERS TAKES HIS GAME NEXT LEVEL

Every once in a while there is a player who captures your attention after seemingly coming out of nowhere and exploding onto the scene. Jeremy Lin did it a few years ago for the New York Knicks and captivated a city starved for a breakout performer.

Here in the NEC, we give you Fairleigh Dickinson senior guard Sidney Sanders, Jr. (Charleston, SC/Burke (Polk State)). Very few players can make a year-to-year jump in production that rivals Sanders, who averaged 4.6 ppg and 3.4 apg off the bench last season, and has gone from reserve point guard to full fledged star for the Knights in 2013-14.

Sanders has led FDU in scoring in each of the last ten games and has paced the Knights in assists in all 11 games on the year. He currently ranks second in the NEC in point production (18.9) and steals (1.8), and third in assists (5.2) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.11).

"I think it's the perfect storm for Sid, he's playing for a coach that really lets his guards go," head coach Greg Herenda said. "I told him when I got the job, I said 'Listen, every guard that's ever played for me I've always had one guard that I let go' and he's the guy."

The Charleston, SC native has been remarkably consistent, and has brought his "A" game against upper level competition, including a pair of stellar performances in back-to-back wins over Rutgers and Seton Hall:

at Arizona: 16 points, 3 rebounds, 3 assists, 8-14 FG

at Rutgers: 22 points, 10 assists, 2 steals at Seton Hall: 23 points, 9 rebounds, 9 assists at Princeton: 23 points, 2 steals, 7-14 FG

"That point guard for Fairleigh Dickinson is excellent," Stony Brook head coach Steve Pikiell said of Sanders Jr. who torched the Seawolves for a career-high 28 points last week in a game that was up in the air until SBU pulled away in the final minute. "We had our work cut out for us. They surround him with shooters, so it was a tough matchup, but we did a good job at win time to make our free throws, grab the big rebounds and execute plays."

BROWN, BRICKMAN & DOUBLE-DOUBLE TALK

Coming off a big week, Saint Francis U junior forward Earl Brown (Philadelphia, PA/Imhotep Charter) is now averaging a double-double for the year with 11.6 ppg and an NEC-high 10.0 rpg. The Choice Hotels/NEC Player of the Week registered 15.0 ppg and 16.5 rpg last week and is one of 31 players nationwide who currently average a double-double. Brown is looking to become only the seventh NEC player in the last 15 years to average at least 10 points and 10 rebounds in a season.

NEC NUMBERS

Bryant finished the year 3-1 against Ivy League opponents.

Latif Rivers......WC203

Bryant's Dyami Starks leads the NEC with five 20-point games and three 30-point outings on the year. He tops the conference with 23.4 ppg.

CCSU will play seven of its next nine games at home, beginning on Tuesday night at home against Hartford in a game to air on CPTV Sports.

In Wednesday 65-56 win over New Hampshire, CCSU held the Wildcats to a season-low 33.9 percent shooting and made 21-28 from the free-throw line to earn its second win of the season.

FDU has shot for a better percentage from the field against its opponents in six games this season, and has outshot its opponents from behind the arc eight times, twice making at least 11 trifectas.

LIU Brooklyn senior guard Jason Brickman matched a career-high with 19 points and added nine assists against Seton Hall on Thursday.

Mount St. Mary's went 3-0 this year against teams from the Patriot League, defeating American (68-64), Bucknell (69-64) and Loyola (MD) (70-58).

Mount St. Mary's senior guard Julian Norfleet hit five treys last week, giving him 202 for his career. Norfleet is just four assists shy of becoming the fourth player in Mount history to have 1,200 point, 300 assists and 200 3PFG made, joining Chris McGuthrie, Gregory Harris and Landy Thompson.

Robert Morris has dropped five straight games, the program's longest losing streak since the 2002-03 season.

Sacred Heart hit 12-24 3PFG in a 73-59 win at Hofstra on Wednesday.

St. Francis Brooklyn freshman guard Sheldon Hagigal scored a career-high 13 points at Army on Saturday.

Saint Francis U's 72-62 win over Cornell on Saturday snapped SFU's 35-game non-conference road losing streak dating back to the 2008-09 season.

Wagner head coach ${\bf Bashir\ Mason}$ is now 3-0 all-time against Penn as an assistant and head coach after going 0-4 as a player at Drexel.

Wagner's Latif Rivers moved past Jamal Smith and Frantz Pierre Louis into 19th place (1,278 points) on the all-time Wagner scoring list.

66⁹⁹ QUOTABLE

"Four guys stepped up and had double-figures, which is a plus,. We had balanced scoring. If you get four guys in double-figures, that's a good sign." - CCSU head coach Howie Dickenman after the Blue Devils beat UNH on Thursday

"We came in hear knowing Ohio State will be as good as any team in the top-five. We wanted to gain some respect and I thought we gained some respect...I thought we hustled and played with as much intensity as any game we played this year." - CCSU head coach Howie Dickenman on his team's 74-56 loss at #5 Ohio State on Saturday

"That's what this part of the year is for. You've got to learn your team. You've got to learn what they can handle. We're learning a lot more about ourselves now that's going to help us when we get into league play than if we would have played 10 teams, and we might be 10-0 right now, but what do you know about yourself if you don't challenge yourself?"- Mount St. Mary's head coach Jamion Christian on his team's challenging non-conference slate

"For the first time all year, we put back-to-back great efforts into games. When that happens, it might not always be good enough for a win, but you're going to give yourself a great chance to win." - Saint Francis U head coach Rob Krimmel after the Red Flash won at Cornell on Saturday

"The message all week was that there are times when you have to just keep battling and will yourself to win. We've been telling our guys that the one thing that can be a constant is the effort, and we gave that tonight in a game we really needed to win." - Wagner head coach Bashir Mason following his team's overtime win at Penn on Saturday

LIU Brooklyn senior guard Jason Brickman (San Antonio, TX/Clark) could also make a run at averaging a double-double via the less common path of averaging 10.0 assists per game. Brickman, who is currently putting up 9.9 ppg and a nation's best 10.1 apg, would become the first NEC player in history to finish with double digits in scoring and assists at year's end.

How rare is it to finish a year averaging double figures in scoring and assists? It has been accomplished only once in the years the NCAA has tracked assists. That came in 1987-88 when Southern U's Avery Johnson averaged 11.4 ppg and 13.3 apg. In fact Johnson is one of only two players to ever average 10.0 apg in a season. He reached the plateau in both 1986-87 (10.7) and 1987-88 (13.3), and Baylor's Nelson Haggerty (10.1) did it in 1994-95.

ON THE NATIONAL LEADERBOARD

Below are a list of NEC players and teams who rank in the top-20 nationally in various statistical categories.

Category	Name	Team	Stats	Ranking
Scoring	Dyami Starks	BRY	23.4 ppg	8th
Assists	Jason Brickman	LIU	10.1 apg	1st
3PFG/Game	Karvel Anderson	RMU	3.5/game	14th

POINT GUARD CENTRAL

One thing we've learned early on in 2013-14 is that there is no shortage of talented point guards in the NEC this season. In fact, three of the league's floor generals rank in the top-10 in the nation in assist rate, which measures the percentage of a player's possessions that result in an assist.

LIU Brooklyn senior guard Jason Brickman (San Antonio, TX/Clark) is the runaway leader at this point with a 60.86 assist rate, and is joined by Mount's Julian Norfleet (Virginia Beach, VA/Landstown) (fifth) and FDU's Sidney Sanders, Jr. (Charleston, SC/Burke (Polk State)) (sixth), also senior guards.

NCAA Assist Rate Leaders

1. Jason Brickman	LIU	60.86
5. Julian Norfleet	MSM	42.70
6. Sidney Sanders, Jr.	FDU	42.61

LIU'S BRICKMAN WITHIN STRIKING DISTANCE OF NEC ASSIST MARK

LIU Brooklyn senior guard Jason Brickman (San Antonio, TX/Clark) is now on the cusp of breaking one of the NEC's longest-standing individual records. With nine assists against Seton Hall on Thursday, Brickman boosted his lifetime total to 790 dimes and is just 15 shy of surpassing Marist's Drafton Davis, who racked up an all-time best 804 from 1984-88. LIU plays at Lehigh on Monday and NJIT on Thursday this week. Prior to Brickman, no NEC player had come within 200 assists of the mark Davis set 25 years ago.

Brickman is the leading active distributor in DI and needs 33 dimes to enter the top-25 all-time in NCAA history. Looking ahead, Brickman also has a realistic chance of joining Duke's Bobby Hurley (1,076), NC State's Chris Corchiani (1,038) and UNC's Ed Cota (1,030) as the only players in the history of DI college hoops to end their careers with 1,000 assists.

Brickman led the nation last season with 8.5 apg, and is again on top of the national leaderboard in 2013-14 with 10.1 apg. His two games of 14 assists this season are the third-most by an NCAA player this season against a DI opponent.

MARYLAND RIVALRY LIKE NO OTHER

When Mount St. Mary's defeated Loyola (MD), 70-58, on Saturday in Emmitsburg, it marked the 169th meeting between the longtime rivals in the most-played rivalry in the state of Maryland. The win snapped a three-game losing streak to the Greyhounds, and gives the Mount a 97-72 lead in the all-time series that began in 1910. One of the classic games between the two programs was a 99-93 overtime win for the Mountaineers in the championship game of the Mason-Dixon Conference Tournament on March 5, 1955. That was former head coach Jim Phelan's first of 49 seasons spent as head coach at the Mount.

"I hadn't beaten them since I've been in college. I treated this like a midseason championship," said Mount St. Mary's senior guard Julian Norfleet (Virginia Beach, VA/Landstown). "Everybody on campus talks about this game...There's a lot of trash talk. It really is a big game for us."

GAME IN DOUBT? ORTIZ IS YOUR MAN

When Wagner found itself locked in a dogfight with Penn at the historic Palestra on Saturday, head coach Bashir Mason knew exactly who to turn to down the stretch.

With the Seahawks trailing by two with under three minutes remaining, senior guard Kenneth Ortiz (Newark, NJ/Science Park (Southern Mississippi)) scored on a transition layup, but he was only just beginning. He scored on Wagner's next two possessions, including an acrobatic, off-balance runner to keep the game tied. Ortiz pulled down a defensive rebound on Penn's next possession, and though he missed a contested layup with 29 seconds to play, showed why he is the two-time NEC Defensive Player of the Year on the final possession of regulation. With the Quakers angling for a final shot, Ortiz locked up Penn point guard Tony Bagtas and then dove in for the steal with three seconds left to send the game to OT. In the extra session, he hit a pair of free throws to give Wagner a commanding seven-point lead with 36 seconds on the clock.

"He's just one of those guys who has the will to come up with big plays," said Mason. "He can get in the lane against anyone, and he does things out there that you can't script."

Ortiz finished with a game-high 18 points and added eight rebounds and two assists.

"I've been in this position before," explained Wagner's crunch-time big playmaker after scoring 14 of his points after halftime. "It's natural to me, and I'm confident at the end of the game."

KARVEL & LUCKY SHOW

While Robert Morris came up just short of tagging Toledo with its first setback of the 2013-14 season on Saturday, the fans at the Sewall Center were treated to an incredible shooting exhibition by two of the NEC's purest marksmen.

RMU senior guard Karvel Anderson (Elkhart, IN/Elkhart Memorial (Glen Oaks CC)) and junior guard Lucky Jones (Newark, NJ/St. Anthony) combined to hit 19-23 shots from the floor and 9-11 from three-point range in ringing up 48 points for the Colonials, who shot an NEC single-game season-high 63.3 percent from the field in the 80-77 loss. Anderson hit 5-6 from deep and was 9-11 overall from the field in a 23-point effort, while Jones sank 10-12 from the field and 4-5 from long distance en-route to a career-high 24 point performance.

On the week, Jones averaged 24.5 ppg and 4.0 apg while hitting 77.2 percent of his shot attempts. Anderson converted at a 60.0 percent clip and put up 20.5 ppg and 5.5 rpg.

On the NEC charts, Anderson ranks second on the circuit in three-point shooting (.473) and Jones is eighth (.419). In three-point makes, Anderson is the league-leader (3.5/game) and Jones is 11th (1.80/game).

2013-14 NEC PRESEASON POLL

LIU Brooklyn made history a year ago, becoming the first team in the 32-year history of the Northeast Conference (NEC) to "three-peat" as men's basketball champion. With a chance to go one step further and make it four straight titles, the Blackbirds will not lack worthy challengers this season, most notably local rival Wagner, which was picked by NEC had coaches to capture the 2013-14 crown. Wagner, which claimed seven first place votes, won its lone NEC championship back in 2003.

2013-14 NEC-TV SCHEDULE

Northeast Conference (NEC) basketball fans across the nation will have plenty of opportunities to watch their favorite teams this season. Every broadcast in the NEC's 2013-14 television package will be distributed nationally, half of which will also air via the league's growing network of regional partners.

The NEC will enjoy its broadest reach to date in the 29-game package. Among the highlights:

- Every single game will air nationally via ESPN, Fox College Sports (FCS) or the NEC's newest national partner, CBS Sports Network (CBSSN).
- · An expanded women's package will be carried by ESPN3.
- · The schedule features a record 19 prime time games.
- Comcast SportsNet New England (CSNNE) has been added as a regional partner.
- Longtime NEC regional partner MSG will broadcast 11 games, including three NEC men's tournament contests.
- Up to seven NEC Tournament games will air on a variety of networks.
- · All NEC television games will be broadcast in HD.

Most notably, up to 17 games are scheduled on ESPN networks, highlighted by the NEC men's and women's championship games in March. ESPNU is also slated to air a pair of marquee regular season men's contests. The first pits Bryant at Robert Morris on January 30 at 8:00 pm. The two teams tied for second in the NEC preseason poll and figure to be in the hunt for the conference title. One week later on February 6, the Colonials visit three-time defending NEC champion LIU Brooklyn in a 7:00 pm start. The two teams met last year on ESPNU with RMU prevailing, 60-57, in an instant classic that went down to the final horn.

HEAT CHECK: SHU'S GLOWIAK ON THREE-POINT ROLL

Talk about providing an offensive spark off the bench.

Sacred Heart junior guard Steve Glowiak (New Britain, CT/New Britain) has been on a tear of late from outside the arc. Over the last three games, Glowiak has hit 13-21 shots from long range and averaged 15.0 points for the Pioneers.

Last Wednesday, Glowiak drained 6-9 shots from three-point territory and Sacred Heart hit 12-24 overall from outside the arc as the Pioneers rolled to a 73-59 win over Hofstra in Hempstead.

On the year, the New Britain, CT native ranks third on SHU in scoring with 11.4 ppg and leads the NEC in 3PFG percentage, sinking 49.0 percent of his attempts. He is also third in the conference with 2.8 3PFG per outing.

Fairleigh Dickinson is the first New Jersey school to defeat both Garden State foes in the same season since Princeton did so in December 1987.

VINALES, FRANCIS, STARKS STAR IN STELLAR NUMBERS GAME

In the "stellar games" category, CCSU junior guard Kyle Vinales (Detroit, MI/Phelps School) is at the top of the list. Vinales has racked up 31 games of 20+points over the course of his career, three more than Bryant senior forward Alex Francis (Harlem, NY/Holderness Prep (NH)). Vinales has also tallied eight games of 30+ points, also a league-leading mark among active players. This season, Bryant junior guard Dyami Starks (Duluth, MN/Duluth East) has hit the 30-point mark on three occasions and the 20-point plateau five times, both NEC-highs.

BRYANT'S FRANCIS CONTINUES CHART CLIMB

Bryant senior forward Alex Francis (Harlem, NY/Holderness Prep) continues to rocket up the NEC career scoring and rebounding lists and enters play this week with 1,636 points, tops among active players in the conference and 38th all-time. Francis also cracked the top-20 on the league's all-time rebounding list last week and has pulled down 786 in his career. He is one of 13 players in NEC history to reach 1,500 points and 750 boards in his career. The New York City product is currently on pace to become the first player in conference annals to finish with 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds.

Francis currently ranks in the NEC top-10 in scoring (16.2, sixth), rebounding (6.4, third), field goal percentage (.604, 1st) and blocks (1.33, fifth).

NEC NOTABLES

- Bryant junior guard Dyami Starks (Duluth, MD/Duluth East) recorded back-to-back 20-point outings last week, scoring 22 in a 72-64 road victory over Yale Wednesday night before dropping in 26 in a hard-fought 66-62 loss to North Dakota State on Saturday in the BlackRock Gotham Classic. Both performances were game-highs. Starks averaged 24.0 ppg, 4.5 rpg, 3.0 apg and 2.0 spg on the week and leads the NEC with 23.4 ppg.
- LIU Brooklyn sophomore forward E.J. Reed (Dallas, TX/Mesquite) collected his first career double-double with 15 points and 11 rebounds against Seton Hall last Thursday, including 14 points and seven boards following halftime.
