FLASH FEVER HITS THE NEC

When Saint Francis U won at Duquesne last Wednesday for the first time since 1990 and the first time on the road since 1966, it certainly turned some heads.

When Saint Francis U went into the RAC and beat Rutgers three days later, the Red Flash made headlines.

The win over the Scarlet Knights was the first-ever win for SFU over a Big Ten opponent and first over a major conference opponent since beating Penn State in December, 1978. Similarly, it was the NEC's first victory over the Big Ten in the 34-year history of the conference.

"To be able to come in and knock off a Big Ten opponent is certainly a statement win," SFU coach Rob Krimmel said. "I think it sends a message to our guys that we can compete and we can play with the big boys."

After trailing by 16 with five minutes remaining in the first half, the Red Flash battled back to within 39-34 at intermission. SFU then used a 23-6 run to take a 61-48 lead midway through the second stanza.

"They (Rutgers) were making some shots and making it difficult for us to defend, and our guys didn't get rattled," Krimmel said. "That's what got us back in the game, and ultimately I think it's what won the game."

Rutgers battled back and with four minutes left on the clock the two teams were deadlocked at 63.

At this point, senior guard Ollie Jackson (Dallas, TX/Pinkston) took matters into his own hands.

Jackson nailed a three-pointer with 3:27 remaining, and after the Scarlet Knights tied the game with :51 seconds to play, the Dallas, TX native hit perhaps the biggest shot of his career when he pump faked, took one step to his left and drained a trifecta from the left wing at the 19 second mark. Jackson would ice the game with a free throw in the final seconds.

"I'm proud of where our guys came, come in here and battled, followed the scouting reports, stayed together and played with energy and passion for forty minutes," said Krimmel.

"They believed that they were going to go into the game and they were going to win. They weren't going to fear anybody."

NEC Player of the Week Earl Brown (Philadelphia, PA/Imhotep Charter) led the way with 23 points and six rebounds. Jackson added 15 points and sophomore guard Malik Harmon (Queens, NY/Christ the King) finished with 17 points and four assists. Junior forward Ronnie Drinnon (Jamestown, OH/Greenview) pulled down 16 boards as the Red Flash outrebounded the Scarlet Knights, 38-35.

"It's a great accomplishment for us," said Brown. "A lot of people probably didn't expect us to beat Rutgers. It just shows that we can do it and people honestly believe."

Saint Francis U earned its first back-to-back road non-conference wins since 2008 and has now posted its first three-game win streak in non-conference play since 2003.

"A lot of it has to do with experience and guys buying into what we believe in as a staff," said Krimmel. "When you feel good when you put the uniform on, you know that you have a chance."

NEC NUGGETS

Bryant held Denver to 35.1 percent shooting from the field on Sunday, the lowest mark for an opponent since New Hampshire shot 34.8 percent against the Bulldogs on November 24, 2013.

CCSU senior guard Greg Andrade, a 6-footer, snared a game and career-high 10 rebounds in 24 minutes off the bench against NJIT on Saturday.

Mount St. Mary's is 27-4 when leading at the half under Jamion Christian, and 8-32 when trailing.

Robert Morris junior Rodney Pryor leads the NEC in three-point percentage (.472) and also ranks fifth in field goal accuracy (.505).

Sacred Heart sports three of the top four NEC leaders in field goal percentage. Jordan Allen (.679) is first, followed by De'von Barnett (.550, third) and Cane Broome (.509, fourth).

St. Francis Brooklyn senior point guard Brent Jones needs just 17 assists to become just the second Terrier to record 500 assists and 500 points in his career.

St. Francis Brooklyn posted a season-high +20 rebound margin versus Delaware State and was also +12 against FAU. The Terriers lead the NEC with a +6.3 rebound margin.

Saint Francis U is 4-0 this season when outrebounding its opponent. Junior forward Ronnie Drinnon has pulled down 31 boards over his last two games.

Wagner launched 33 three-pointers against Monmouth on Saturday, the most since taking 34 at Columbia back on December 8, 2009.

Of Wagner's 66 points against Monmouth, 44 were scored by freshman.

“” QUOTABLE

"It feels really good to get our third in a row. It's been a long time since we had that." - LIU Brooklyn head coach Jack Perri following last Thursday's win over FIU

"The best thing about our team is we have such great versatility. To win games, we don't have to press and trap all of the time. There are going to be some games where the press is going to be great for us, and we turn people over. There are going to be other games where we are going to be able to really lock down in the halfcourt, like we were able to do (against American) for the last eight minutes of the game. That's what's really exciting about our team." - Mount head coach Jamion Christian following a 46-45 loss at preseason Patriot League favorite American

"My first couple of years here, one or two teams always sat at the top of the league and you had to play a perfect game to get by them. But now it's anybody's league and I think it's ours for the taken. I've seen the work we're putting in and now it's time for the payoff." - Sacred Heart senior guard Evan Kelley

NEC NUGGET

Northeast Conference teams posted a 7-5 record last week and have gone 20-15 since December 6. The NEC is 19th of 32 conferences in the most recent RPI rankings.

SFU'S BROWN JOINS NEC 1,000-POINT CLUB

On Saturday in Saint Francis U's historic win over Rutgers, senior forward Earl Brown (Philadelphia, PA/Imhotep Charter) became the 200th player in NEC history to join the 1,000-point club, a fraternity whose membership also includes four active members.

Brown's 23 points against the Scarlet Knights gave him 1,016 for his career. He is the 30th player in SFU annals to reach the milestone. Brown was named NEC Player of the Week after averaging 18.5 ppg and 6.0 rpg in a pair of Red Flash wins.

Next in line to reach 1,000 points appear to be Sacred Heart senior guards Evan Kelley (Norwalk, CT/Norwalk) and Steve Glowiak (New Britain, CT/New Britain). Kelley is 110 points shy of 1,000, while Glowiak needs 146 more points.

CANNON: DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE

St. Francis Brooklyn has won four of its last six, and it should come as no surprise that senior forward Jalen Cannon (Allentown, PA/William Allen) is playing his best ball of the season.

Cannon posted a pair of double-doubles last week with 16 points and 10 rebounds in a close setback to Delaware State and 17 points and 10 rebounds two days later as the Terriers knocked off Conference USA opponent Florida Atlantic, 61-56. His clutch three-pointer with 28 seconds left on the clock put the Terriers up by six and clinched a second straight victory over the Owls.

This makes it three straight double-doubles and an NEC-best six for the season for the Preseason All-NEC pick. Cannon went over the 1,300-point mark for his career last week and has amassed 1,311 points in his Terrier career to lead all active NEC players.

Likewise, Cannon has racked up 892 career rebounds, a number that ranks him 13th in NEC history and 31 boards shy of the top-10.

Last week he also became the 23rd player in NEC history to reach 1,300 points and 700 rebounds in his career.

Cannon can become just the second player in NEC annals to finish with 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds, joining Quinnipiac's Justin Rutty (1,521/1,032 from 2007-11).

NOT LUCKY, JUST GOOD

In a golden era of Robert Morris hoops, senior swingman Lucky Jones (Newark, NJ/St. Anthony) will go down as one of the most versatile players to come through Moon Township.

With the ability to play numerous positions and a multifaceted skill set, Jones is starting to compile career numbers that place him in rarefied air in NEC annals. On Wednesday, Jones became just the second player in RMU annals and 22nd player in league history to crack 1,300 points and 700 rebounds for his career, joining NEC luminaries Alex Francis (BRY), Corsley Edwards & Ken Horton (CCSU), Jamal Olasewere & Julian Boyd (LIU), Jermaine Hall (WC), Tony Lee (RMU) and NEC Hall of Famer Desi Wilson (FDU), among others. Jones has racked up 1,300 points and 709 rebounds in his career.

St. Francis Brooklyn senior forward Jalen Cannon (Allentown, PA/William Allen) became the 23rd NEC player to cracked the 1,300/700 plateau on Saturday.

As a testament to his versatility, Jones has also amassed 153 assists and 145 steals in his three-plus years at RMU. With five more swipes, Jones will become the third NEC player to reach 1,300 points, 700 rebounds, 150 assists and 150 steals in a career.

PIONEER TURNAROUND

As it relates to investment products, it is often said that "past performance may not be indicative of future results."

The same logic can apply to sports, and in the NEC, all it takes is one look at the early returns for the Sacred Heart men's basketball program.

Sacred Heart ended the 2013-14 season with a 5-26 record and 2-14 mark in NEC play. But after being picked to finish tenth in 2014-15 NEC Preseason Coaches Poll, the Pioneers have more than exceeded expectations with a 6-4 non-conference mark and five wins in their last six outings.

The latest solid performance for the Pioneers came on Saturday with an 83-70 win over New Hampshire at the Pitt Center. Freshman guard Cane Broome (East Hartford, CT/East Hartford (St. Thomas More)) matched a career-high with 25 points on a scintillating 10-11 shooting from the field to capture NEC Rookie of the Week honors for the second time this season.

The Pioneers have now won four of their last five at home after going 1-15 in their previous 16 home games.

Sacred Heart has also shot at least 52.5 percent from the floor in four straight games, something that hadn't been done since February 19-28, 2009. Likewise, after averaging 63.2 ppg on 40.1 percent shooting in five games in November, the Pioneers are averaging 82.0 ppg on 53.8 percent shooting in December.

NEW LOOK, NEW STYLE SUITS LIU

A year removed from the last of a record three consecutive NEC Tournament titles, a changing of the guard was in order for LIU Brooklyn. But if anyone thought the Blackbirds were headed for an extended rebuilding period, LIU's play of late suggests that third-year Jack Perri has merely reloaded, with a host of young guns playing a distinctly different style than in year's past.

Featuring seven freshman on the roster, including three starters, the Blackbirds dropped their first six games off the season, albeit against a challenging slate of opponents. Since that time, LIU has won three straight, all by double-digits, capped by last Thursday's 69-58 win over Conference USA opponent FIU at the Barclays Center.

And after featuring a high-octane offense during its title run, LIU Brooklyn has used a much-improved defense on its current three-game winning streak. The Blackbirds held back-to-back opponents to under 60 points for the first time since holding Monmouth and Wagner to 57 and 48, respectively, in February of 2009. Prior to holding FIU to 58 points, LIU allowed NJIT to score just 49 points on December 14. LIU currently ranks second in the NEC in both field goal percentage defense (.423) and three-point field goal percentage defense (.294).

In the win over FIU, freshman point guard Elvar Fridriksson (Njardvik, Iceland/Njardvik) continued his strong play of late, finishing with a game-high 17 points on 6-10 shooting from the floor. After the Blackbirds saw a 15-point first advantage dissolve and the Panthers take a 43-40 lead with 12 minutes left in the contest, Fridriksson scored all 10 points in a 10-2 run that gave LIU the lead for good. The native of Iceland hit back-to-back layups in transition, then canned two long range three-pointers and the Blackbirds were off an running.

"(Fridriksson) is confident and he should be confident. He is a really talented, really good basketball player," said LIU head coach Jack Perri. "That was very important, hitting those two back-to-back threes. Obviously, he was feeling it. That was awesome."

Fridriksson currently leads LIU with 11.1 ppg and ranks third in the NEC with 4.6 app. He is also shooting 40.0 percent from three-point range, the eighth-best mark on the circuit.

STARKS DOES IT AGAIN

With Bryant trailing by three points with under 30 seconds to play at Denver on Sunday, it was that time...Dyami Starks (Duluth, MN/Duluth East) time.

The senior guard did what he does best, tying the game at 46-all on his sixth three-pointer of the game. Following a Denver offensive foul and a time out, the ball was back in Starks' hands with the clock winding down. As he has done so often, the Duluth, MN native rose to the occasion, hitting a wing jumper with 1.3 seconds remaining to make Bryant's Rocky Mountain excursion one to remember.

Starks ended the 48-46 win with a game-high 21 points to raise his league-leading scoring average to 19.8 ppg. He has paced Bryant in scoring in each of the team's eight games this season, including four 20+ efforts in the last five outings. Starks also paces the circuit with 4.13 three-pointers per game, a figure that ranks him fourth nationally.

FDU'S MR. CLUTCH

Trailing by eight points with under three minutes to go against Delaware on Saturday, someone needed to step up for head coach Greg Herenda.

For the second time in four games, that player was freshman swingman Earl Potts Jr. (Severn, MD/Archbishop Spalding).

"After the game I told Earl that he needs to change his major to Theater," said Herenda on Potts' performance down the stretch. "He truly has a flair for the dramatic."

Potts, who sparked FDU's comeback win over Princeton two weeks ago, drilled a three-pointer with 2:48 to play to slice the deficit to five points, and after a Malachi Nix (Evanston, IL/Niles North) layup made it a three-point game, Potts delivered the game's key play. Executing a perfect pick-and-roll with senior guard Mustafaa Jones (Philadelphia, PA/Neumann-Goretti), Potts took a pass just outside the lane and elevated for a monstrous dunk. The Severn, MD native would go on to hit two free throws with 26 seconds left to play and steal Delaware's final inbounds pass as the Knights scored the last ten points of the game to pull out a dramatic 76-74 win.

Potts finished with a career-best 14 points off the bench. Classmate Darian Anderson (Washington, D.C./St. John's College) led the Knights with 16 points.

"I am just so happy that everyone on our team contributed tonight and they all believed that we were going to win that game," said Knights head coach Greg Herenda. "We were very fortunate tonight but this team has something inside of them. I said it before the season started, that this will eventually be a special group."

GAETANO MOVIN' ON UP

Sacred Heart senior guard Phil Gaetano (Wallingford, CT/Sheehan (Choate Rosemary)) moved up another notch on the NEC's career assist list last week, passing Rider's Deon Hames for fourth place with 602 dimes. Gaetano had seven assists in an 83-70 win over New Hampshire on Saturday.

Gaetano needs just two more dimes to leapfrog Mount St. Mary's great Jeremy Goode for third all-time in the conference. He leads the NEC and ranks 25th nationally with 5.7 apg this season.

HERE & THERE

CCSU sophomore guard Matt Mobley (Worcester, MA/Worcester Academy) scored a game-high 27 points, including a 12-12 mark from the line in an 84-76 loss to NJIT on Saturday. Mobley, who averaged 6.8 ppg as a freshman last season, ranks second in the NEC with 18.5 ppg. He is also fifth in the league in made three-pointers (2.2/game) and seventh in free throw percentage (.797). His 51 made free throws paces the conference.

LIU Brooklyn guard Gerrell Martin (Bronx, NY/Wings Academy) has worked through a slow start to his senior season and is finally starting to find his groove. Martin has scored in double figures in each of his last four games, averaging 15.0 ppg over that span while shooting 43.5 percent (10-23) from three-point range.

Butler transfer Andrew Smeathers (Bargersville, IN/Center Grove (Butler)) made his Mount St. Mary's debut on Saturday in a 46-45 defeat at the hands of Patriot League favorite American. Smeathers started and tied for team scoring honors with eight points, including a pair of three-pointers.

Robert Morris freshman guard Marcquise Reed (Landover, MD/Capitol Christian) led the Colonials with 18 points in a setback at Toledo last Wednesday. Over his last five games - the first five starts of his collegiate career - Reed is averaging 12.6 ppg while shooting 53.1 percent from the floor.

For the second time this season, three of Wagner's five newcomers scored in double-figures as the Seahawks had their six-game win streak over Monmouth snapped on Saturday. Romone Saunders (Temple Hills, MD/Mt. Zion Prep) tallied a career-high 18, JoJo Cooper (Wilmington, DE/Concord) netted 13 and Corey Henson (Upper Marlboro, MD/DeMatha Catholic) poured in 11. Saunders added a personal-best nine rebounds. Cooper is fifth in the NEC and second among conference freshman with 4.1 apg. He is also 18th nationally among freshman in assists.
