Choice Hotels/NEC Player of the Week

Alex Francis, Bryant

6-6, 205 lbs.

Sr., F. Harlem, NY/Holderness Prep (NH)

Francis is doing everything in his power to finish his star-studded Bryant career on a high-note. The senior forward has been unstoppable in NEC play, and last week was no different in leading the Bulldogs to a pair of wins. Francis averaged 23.5 points, 9.5 rebounds, 2.0 steals and shot 61.3 percent from the field as Bryant maintained a firm hold on second place with an 8-2 league record. He posted his seventh double-double of the season with 20 points and 10 rebounds in a 79-68 win at CCSU on Thursday. With Bryant holding a 69-64 lead with under four minutes remaining, Francis converted a pair of layups to extend the lead to nine points. Two days later, he finished with a game-high 25 points and pulled down nine boards as the Bulldogs held off Mount St. Mary's, 78-75, at the Chace Center. The senior forward has now scored 20 or more points in ten of the last 11 games. In NEC play, Francis leads the conference with 23.8 ppg, 9.4 rpg and 64.1 percent shooting from the field. Overall, he currently occupies spots in the NEC top-10 in scoring (19.9, second), rebounding (7.8, third) and field goal percentage (.591, 1st). Francis needs just 13 points to reach 2,000 for his career and he is the only player in NEC history to rank in the top-10 in career scoring (1,987/sixth all-time) and rebounding (922/10th all-time).

Choice Hotels/NEC Rookie of the Week

Sheldon Hagigal, St. Francis Brooklyn

6-1, 185 lbs.

Fr., G. Westbury, NY/Westbury (West Oaks Academy (FL))

The second Choice Hotels/NEC Rookie honor for Hagigal comes after one of the best performances by a freshman this season in St. Francis Brooklyn's 78-52 win over Saint Francis U on Thursday. Hagigal came off the bench to match a career-high with 23 points in just 25 minutes, hitting 9-11 from the field, including 2-3 from outside the arc. He added five rebounds and a steal for the Terriers, who are tied for third place with a 6-4 NEC mark. Hagigal scored all 12 points in a 12-2 first half run that gave SFBK a 21-16 edge. On the week, the Westbury, NY product averaged 13.5 points, 3.5 rebounds and shot 66.7 percent from the floor. At 8.7 ppg, Hagigal ranks fourth among freshman scorers in the conference. He has been even better in league play, tossing in 10.9 ppg on 46.0 percent field goal accuracy.

RMU FIRST TO PUNCH NEC TOURNEY TICKET

There are still three weeks left in the regular season, but we already saw the first team punch its ticket to the eight-team NEC Tournament on Saturday.

With a 9-1 NEC mark, first place Robert Morris clinched a spot in the playoffs for the 11th straight year after sweeping its Brooklyn road trip for the first time since the 1999-00 campaign with a 65-56 win at LIU Brooklyn and 72-50 victory at St. Francis Brooklyn. The Colonials allowed just 106 points in the two games, marking the fewest points the Colonials have allowed in back-to-back NEC road wins under fourth-year head coach Andrew Toole and the lowest overall since yielding just 98 points in victories at St. Francis Brooklyn (2/5/09) and Central Connecticut (2/7/09) during the 2008-09 campaign.

RMU holds a one-game lead over Bryant (8-2), but should the teams finish deadlocked for the NEC regular season title, the Colonials own the head-to-head tiebreaker via a season sweep over the Bulldogs. Behind the play of senior forward Alex Francis (Harlem, NY/Holderness Prep (NH)), who averaged 23.5 ppg and 9.0 rpg to claim Choice Hotels/NEC Player of the Week honors, the Bulldogs won at CCSU (79-68) and at home against Mount St. Mary's (78-75) last week.

Behind RMU and Bryant, there is a three-way logjam for third place between Mount St. Mary's, St. Francis Brooklyn and Wagner, all with 6-4 records.

Right behind in sixth place with a 5-5 mark is Saint Francis U, one of the league's hottest teams. The Red Flash have now won four of their last five games, including a 74-58 road triumph at LIU Brooklyn on Saturday. It marks the best 10-game start for the Red Flash since opening the 2009-10 season with a 5-5 record.

Fairleigh Dickinson (4-6) and CCSU (3-7) hold down the seventh and eighth spots, with LIU Brooklyn (2-8) and Sacred Heart (1-9) on the outside looking in.

BRYANT'S FRANCIS ABOUT TO JOIN PRESTIGIOUS 2K SCORING CLUB

It is a club so elite, only five players in the 33-year history of the NEC have been accepted for membership.

There is about to be a sixth member, and it could come as early as Thursday.

Bryant senior forward Alex Francis (Harlem, NY/Holderness Prep) is just 13 points shy of reaching 2,000 points for his career, and when he does reach the milestone, he will be in some good company.

Last week, Francis jumped three spots from ninth to sixth on the NEC's all-time scoring list with 1,987 points, passing NEC Hall of Famers Rik Smits (1,945) of Marist and Myron Walker (1,965) of Robert Morris, along with CCSU's Ken Horton (1,966).

With six games remaining in the regular season and any postseason games thereafter, Francis is well on his to ending his career in the NEC career top-five.

NEC NUMBERS

Bryant needs just four more victories for its first 20-win season at the DI level.

Six CCSU players averaged in double digits last week.

CCSU junior forward Faronte Drakeford scored a career-high 25 points while grabbing eight rebounds in Saturday's come from behind win over FDU.

FDU junior guard Mustafaa Jones knocked down a career-high seven 3PFG and matched a career best in scoring with 21 points versus CCSU on Saturday. The seven tries are the second most in a game in FDU history, one shy of Manny Ubilla's eight against URI on January 2, 2008.

FDU's Scooter Gillette hit all seven of his FG attempts in a career-high 18-point effort versus CCSU on Saturday.

LIU Brooklyn's four-game losing streak in NEC play is the longest for the three-time defending NEC champions since the 2007-08 season.

Mount St. Mary's Julian Norfleet has moved into 10th place on the Mount's all-time assist list with 372. He needs 28 assists to become the eighth player in MSM history to reach 400 for his career.

Mount St. Mary's ranks seventh nationally with 9.3 3PFG per game.

Robert Morris junior forward Lucky Jones cracked the top-20 all-time in scoring for RMU last week, moving into a tie for 19th with Derek Coleman (2003-07) with 1,042 points.

Robert Morris senior guard Karvel Anderson moved into a tie for third place on the school's single season list for three-pointers with 85 on the year.

Sacred Heart junior guard Steve Glowiak has now hit 151 three-pointers in his career. Glowiak ranks fourth in the NEC with 2.64 3PFG per outing.

Wagner's Bashir Mason, the youngest DI coach in the nation, turns 30 on Feb. 11th.

Wagner senior forward Orlando Parker pulled down his 500th career rebound on Saturday.

“” QUOTABLE

"We talk all the time, sometimes not even about basketball. I can share anything with him. He's like a guru. We just 'click.' Maybe it's because we're both from New York City." - Bryant's Alex Francis on his relationship with assistant coach Al Skinner

"We said we had to get some effort and production from our seniors. I thought they answered the bell. I thought (DeAngelo) Speech was terrific on defense and made a couple of jump shots, and [Terrell Allen] went up and blocked a couple of shots. They stepped up and played like seniors today." - CCSU head coach Howie Dickenman after CCSU rallied to beat FDU in OT on Saturday

"This win is big for us. We can continue to build on this one. I enjoyed having Kyle back. We definitely missed him." - CCSU junior forward Faronte Drakeford on a returning Kyle Vinales in Saturday's win over FDU

"Wagner was very, very good tonight. They guarded us really well, and we could just not keep them off the foul line. It is very hard to win on the road in any league, and I am finding that the NEC is no exception. Once again, Sid (Sanders) left his heart out on the floor, but we never had any consistent scoring around the basket to go along with his terrific play." - FDU head coach Greg Herenda following Thursday's loss at Wagner

"The crowd really helped us out. This was the first time since I've been here that we had a crowd like that. It really pumped us up and helped us and maybe rattled Mount in the first half, but we just didn't keep that energy going in the second half." - Sacred Heart senior forward Louis Montes on Thursday's game vs. Mount St. Mary's

"We talked to our guys about being able to bounce back. We knew LIU Brooklyn was going to be a difficult place to play. They were going to make a run at some point and when they did we responded." - Saint Francis U head coach Rob Krimmel

"Since day one I've said that we are talented enough not just to win the NEC but to win games in the NCAA tournament. We just had to focus, and get past things that have nothing to do with basketball. I think we've done that." - Wagner junior guard Jay Harris

"Kenny (Ortiz) lifts us with his intensity. Sometimes when he's playing the way he did today I just want to sit back and watch. That's how much fun it is." - Wagner head coach Bashir Mason on Kenny Ortiz in Saturday's win over Sacred Heart

TOP-10 HIT: LIU'S BRICKMAN REACHES NCAA ASSIST PLATEAU

In a year filled with milestones and honors, LIU Brooklyn senior guard Jason Brickman (San Antonio, TX/Clark) reached another memorable plateau last week, moving up three spots to tenth place on the NCAA career assist list. Brickman has now dished for 947 assists as he approaches the final stretch of his career over the next month.

One of the fascinating aspects of his chart climb is the caliber of names he is leapfrogging on a game-by-game basis. Last Thursday, he hopped past Ohio U's D.J. Cooper (934) and NBA Hall of Famer Gary Payton (939). Then on Saturday, he tied CBS commentator Doug Gottlieb (947) to reach the top-10.

There are more high profile names for Brickman to jump in the next week or two beginning with former NBA star and current analyst Greg Anthony, who is in ninth place with 950 helpers. Current Los Angeles Laker Steve Blake (972) and former NBA player Sherman Douglas (960) are also on the horizon.

Brickman's march up the assist ladder has started to attract national attention, including some of these recent Tweets.

ESPN Stats & Info @ESPNStatsInfo

With his 10th assist tonight, LIU Brooklyn's Jason Brickman passed Gary Payton for 11th all-time in career assists with 940.

Jon Sciambi @BoogSciambi

Only three players in the history of the NCAA have made it to 1,000 assists. Duke's Bobby Hurley is first with 1,076, followed by NC State's Chris Corchiani (1,038) and UNC's Ed Cota (1,030). To get there in the regular season, Brickman would need to average 8.8 per game. He currently leads the nation with 9.9 apg, far outdistancing Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Smith, second in the nation with 7.6 apg. The last player to average at least 10.0 assists in a season was Baylor's Nelson Haggerty (10.1) in 1994-95.

Brickman dished for 11 assists against Robert Morris on Thursday and six more versus Saint Francis U on Saturday. He has reached double digits in assists in five of his last six games, averaging 11.2 apg in that span. Brickman also has three double-doubles in that stretch and ranks first in the NEC with nine on the year.

WELCOME BACK KV

After missing eight straight games with a broken finger, the return of CCSU junior guard Kyle Vinales (Detroit, MI/Phelps School) was a welcome sight for the fans at Detrick Gymnasium on Saturday.

And it couldn't have come at a better time for the Blue Devils, who started 1-6 in league play but have since won two-of-three games in dramatic fashion to get back in the NEC playoff race.

After rallying from 18 down in the final seven minutes to hand Robert Morris its lone conference setback of the season last Saturday, the Vinales-led Blue Devils pulled another one out of the hat this past Saturday, erasing a 12-point FDU lead in the final five minutes in a 91-86 overtime win over the Knights.

"We played inspired basketball," said CCSU head coach Howie Dickenman. "It's nice to have Kyle back. He was anxious as all get-out to play. Talk about a happy guy. He was a happy guy. Happy coaches, too."

Vinales came off the bench to score 20 points and dish a game-high seven assists in 34 minutes of play. He hit 7-11 from the floor and 3-5 from outside the arc. Vinales scored seven points in the final 4:18 of regulation, including the game-tying layup with 1:35 to play, then added four more in overtime as CCSU took over sole possession of eighth place in the conference with the win.

"When I first went in I was kind of nervous," Vinales said after the game. "Then [CCSU coach Howie Dickenman] took me out for a second. I went back in and I felt like I was all right. I made a shot and a free throw, then I felt like I was back at home."

With 1,398 career points, Vinales is just three points shy of the 12th spot on the CCSU career scoring list (Tyrone Canino, 1,401). Only 10 players have scored 1,500 points in school history.

YEAR OF THE POINT GUARD

"NEC fans might not realize it, but they're quite spoiled this season. The league features some of the best point guard play in the entire nation." - John Templon, Big Apple Buckets

It's the year of the point guard in the NEC, and there are stats to back that up.

By taking a quick look at assist rate - the percentage of field goals a player assists while on the floor - you will see the NEC sports four of the top-nine players in the nation in the category.

LIU Brooklyn senior guard Jason Brickman (San Antonio, TX/Clark) is not only the nation's runaway leader at this point, but he also sports the highest DI assist rate since NBA veteran Jose Juan Barea finished with a 54.21 mark in 2005-06 playing for Northeastern.

1. Jason Brickman (LIU)	53.02
3. Sidney Sanders, Jr. (FDU)	43.10
4. Brent Jones (SFBK)	42.64
19. Julian Norfleet (MSM)	37.23

2013-14 NEC PRESEASON POLL

LIU Brooklyn made history a year ago, becoming the first team in the 32-year history of the Northeast Conference (NEC) to "three-peat" as men's basketball champion. With a chance to go one step further and make it four straight titles, the Blackbirds will not lack worthy challengers this season, most notably local rival Wagner, which was picked by NEC head coaches to capture the 2013-14 crown. Wagner, which claimed seven first place votes, won its lone NEC championship back in 2003.

2013-14 NEC-TV SCHEDULE

Northeast Conference (NEC) basketball fans across the nation will have plenty of opportunities to watch their favorite teams this season. Every broadcast in the NEC's 2013-14 television package will be distributed nationally, half of which will also air via the league's growing network of regional partners.

The NEC will enjoy its broadest reach to date in the 29-game package. Among the highlights:

- Every single game will air nationally via ESPN, Fox College Sports (FCS) or the NEC's newest national partner, CBS Sports Network (CBSSN).
- An expanded women's package will be carried by ESPN3.
- The schedule features a record 19 prime time games.
- Comcast SportsNet New England (CSNNE) has been added as a regional partner.
- Longtime NEC regional partner MSG will broadcast 11 games, including three NEC men's tournament contests.
- Up to seven NEC Tournament games will air on a variety of networks.
- All NEC television games will be broadcast in HD.

Most notably, up to 17 games are scheduled on ESPN networks, highlighted by the NEC men's and women's championship games in March. ESPNU is also slated to air a pair of marquee regular season men's contests. The first pits Bryant at Robert Morris on January 30 at 8:00 pm. The two teams tied for second in the NEC preseason poll and figure to be in the hunt for the conference title. One week later on February 6, the Colonials visit three-time defending NEC champion LIU Brooklyn in a 7:00 pm start. The two teams met last year on ESPNU with RMU prevailing, 60-57, in an instant classic that went down to the final horn.

Folahan swatted five shots in a 75-68 win over FDU on Thursday, marking the seventh time this season he has rejected at least four shots in a game.

The Cotonou, Republic of Benin native led the NEC in blocked shots as a sophomore, and ranked second in the league in his freshman and junior seasons. He currently ranks 29th nationally in the category.

STAT OF THE WEEK

In a statistical oddity, each of the 27 points for Robert Morris junior forward Lucky Jones (Newark, NJ/St. Anthony) came in the first half of the team's two victories last week, while all of senior guard Karvel Anderson's (Elkhart, IN/Elkhart Memorial (Glen Oaks CC)) 29 points came after halftime.

Jones shot 76.9 percent (10-13) from the field in the first half last week, including 83.3 percent (5-6) from deep, while Anderson converted 62.5 percent (10-16) of his shots from the floor in the second half, including 70 percent (7-10) from downtown.

BRYANT'S DYAMI STARKS REACHES 1,000 POINT CLUB AS MEMBER OF BULLDOGS

Membership continues to swell in the NEC's 1,000-point club.

On Thursday, Bryant junior guard Dyami Starks (Duluth, MN/Duluth East (Columbia)) became the 194th player in league history to reach 1,000 points. He has scored 1,023 points at Bryant and 1,101 in total with 78 of those points coming as a freshman at Columbia.

Starks is one of ten current NEC players who have reached 1,000 while playing at conference schools. Next in line to hit the milestone figures to be Bryant senior guard Corey Maynard (Adelaide, Australia/Sacred Heart College), who has tallied 959 points, and St. Francis Brooklyn senior guard Ben Mockford (Shoreham-by-Sea, England/Oak Hill Academy), who has 945 points at St. Francis Brooklyn and 977 for his career.

THIS WEEK IN NEC-TV; CBS SPORTS NETWORK DEBUT

The biggest week of NEC-TV this season is upon us with four games slated to air.

It all starts on Thursday when St. Francis Brooklyn plays host to CCSU at the Pope Center. Tipoff is at 7:00 pm on MSG and Fox College Sports. Paul Dottino (PxP), Joe DeSantis (color) and John Schmeelk (sideline) have the call.

On Saturday, Saint Francis U visits Fairleigh Dickinson at 7:00 pm. MSG and FCS will carry the game live, while Root Pittsburgh will air via tape-delay on Sunday. Dottino (PxP), Tim Capstraw (color) and Schmeelk (sideline) are in the booth.

Sunday brings doubleheader action, including the NEC's debut on CBS Sports Network. In a battle of NEC contenders, Wagner entertains Bryant at noon. Dave Popkin (PxP), Capstraw (color) and Schmeelk (sideline) are the commentators. At 4:00 pm, it is the annual Battle of Brooklyn telecast between LIU Brooklyn and St. Francis Brooklyn. This year's game will be contested at Barclays Center with Dottino (PxP), DeSantis (color) and Schmeelk (sideline) on the call.

BATTLE OF BROOKLYN TV HISTORY

The Battle of Brooklyn not only spotlights the NEC's fiercest rivalry, but almost without fail delivers some of the most compelling television when it is airs annually as part of the conference package.

When the LIU Brooklyn - St. Francis Brooklyn rivalry is renewed on Saturday at Barclays Center, there will be plenty of hype, and deservedly so. But can the game top these recent TV thrillers?

2013 - LIU rallies from 14 down in the second half, scoring 57 points after intermission to win 78-68 at a packed Pope Center.

2012 - Julian Boyd hits the go-ahead jumper with 18 seconds left as the Blackbirds come back from five down with under three minutes to play and secure an 81-78 home win.

2011 - CJ Garner goes coast-to-coast and hits a runner at the buzzer to give LIU the 82-80 victory as pandemonium breaks out at the Pope Center.

2010 - In perhaps the most exciting game of the series in recent years, the Terriers take down the Blackbirds in triple overtime, 88-84. SFBK twice had to hit late three-pointers to force the second and third OTs.

2009 - SFBK rallies back from 15 down in the second half to tie it up, but the Blackbirds are able to salt the game away at the line, winning 74-70.

2008 - The Terriers win at the Steinberg Wellness Center, 67-64, when a Kyle Johnson three-point attempt is just off the mark with four seconds to play.

2006 - LIU erases a 14-point second half deficit and survives a last possession by SFBK to win at home, 67-64.

2003 - This one wasn't televised, but went down as perhaps the most memorable contest in NEC history. LIU guard Antawn Dobie turned in the most brilliant single-game performance in league annals exploding for an NEC single-game record 53 points. But that wasn't all. He also dished out 15 assists and was directly involved in 87 of LIU's points that day. One would assume those numbers would guarantee a victory for the Blackbirds. Not on this night. Not in this rivalry.

While Dobie was putting on a one-man show, the Terriers received stellar performances from a pair of Brooklyn products. Freshman sharpshooter John Quintana (Lincoln) came off the bench to register a career-high 31 points and senior forward Clifford Strong (Bishop Loughlin) added 29 points. Likewise, future All-NEC point guard Tory Cavalieri dished for 13 assists.

Carrying the Blackbirds on his back, Dobie played the role of hero on more than one occasion. His 40-foot runner as time expired forced overtime and sent the evenly split crowd into a frenzy.

His two free throws at the end of the first extra session sent the game into double overtime. Dobie then scored five of his team's 11 points in the second overtime. One would think destiny would be on Dobie's side as the game reached its final climax, but his potential game-winning 17-foot jumper went in and out with five seconds to play and the Blackbirds trailing by one.

It was one of the very few shots Dobie missed on the day.

In the end, St. Francis (NY) won the Battle of Brooklyn that year. The score: 142-140. To this day, it remains the highest scoring game in NEC history. No single team has ever scored that many points in an NEC game before or since.
