NEC Men's Tennis Player of the Week

Zachary Morris, Bryant
Jr., Garden City, NY/Garden City

Morris shined against a pair of nationally ranked opponents last week to claim the third NEC Tennis Player of the Week award of his career. Morris fell at #3 singles in a 5-2 setback to #65 Buffalo last Friday, but teamed with Dana Parziale for a 6-2 doubles win over Pablo Alvarez and Sebastian Ionescu. The following day, he rallied back from a set down to knock off Christo Shultz, 4-6, 7-6, 1-0, in Bryant's 6-1 loss to #31 Harvard. Morris and Parziale also picked up an 8-4 victory over the Crimson team of Brian Yeung and Conor Haughey.

NEC Women's Tennis Player and Rookie of the Week

Marine Dans, LIU Brooklyn
Fr., Waterloo, Belgium/Institu de Mot Couvreur

Dans posted a perfect 4-0 singles mark at the #3 flight last week, dropping just one set in the process. She rolled past Elena Melian, 6-0, 6-2, in LIU Brooklyn's 7-0 shutout of Saint Peter's last Thursday. Dans secured LIU's lone point last Saturday with a 6-2, 2-6, 6-1 win over Toledo's Pia Rygh and did the same on Monday with a 6-0, 6-3 triumph over Saint Joseph's Kelly Mulquin. Dans wrapped her week by beating Bryant's Rosie Bird, 6-4, 6-3, to help the Blackbirds rally from a 3-0 deficit and win their first NEC match of the season. The Waterloo, Belgium native is now off to a 6-1 start in singles play to begin her LIU career.
