NEC Offensive Player of the Week

Emily Columbus, Bryant
Attack, East Northport, NY/Northport Senior

Columbus made the most of her first collegiate start and was instrumental in leading the Bulldogs to a season opening 9-6 win over Holy Cross. The sophomore scored the season's first goal with 2:12 remaining in the first half to cut the Crusaders lead to 3-1 entering the half. Columbus gave the Bulldogs their first lead of the day, 6-5, with 15:22 left to play in the second. She then assisted on what would be the decisive score before capping off her first-career hat trick with 3:34 to play. She scored her three goals on just four shots, going 1-for-1 in free position attempts while picking up two ground balls. Her four-point day matched the point output of her entire rookie season.

NEC Defensive Player of the Week

Caitlin Delaney, Sacred Heart
Midfield, Sophomore, Cherry Hill, NJ/Cherry Hill

Delaney wasted no time in following up her stellar rookie campaign as she was a force for Sacred Heart in a season opening loss against Fairfield. The sophomore led the Pioneers in every statistical category for field players. On the offensive side, Delaney recorded an assist and scored the final goal of the game for the Pioneers. On the defensive end, Delaney scooped up four ground balls, caused four turnovers, and recorded two draw controls.

NEC Rookie of the Week

Catlin Brown, Bryant
Attack, Freshman, San Diego, CA/Bishops School

Brown came off the bench in her college debut and was instrumental in the Bulldogs second-half comeback. Brown scored her first collegiate goal with 23:18 to go in the game and picked up her second goal less than two minutes later. The back-to-back free position goals kick-started the Bulldogs to five straight goals to take the lead 6-5 and never look back. Brown secured the victory by scoring her first-career hat trick with 1:33 remaining in the game. The freshman made her shots count, registering her hat trick on four shots.
