NEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Jalen Cannon, St. Francis Brooklyn
6-6, 235 lbs.

Sr., F. Allentown, PA/William Allen

Cannon's league-best fourth NEC Player of the Week award comes after an incredible two-game stretch for the senior forward. The Allentown, PA native averaged 32.0 points, 12.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists, while shooting 67.6 percent from the field and 62.5 percent (5-8) from long distance in a pair of victories for the first place Terriers. And if that wasn't enough, Cannon also became the NEC's career rebounding leader on Saturday, passing Quinnipiac's Justin Rutty (1,032 rebounds) to set the new mark with 1,039 boards. Cannon dropped a career-high 35 points on 13-19 shooting, including a perfect 3-3 from three-point territory, in Thursday's 90-81 win over CCSU. He scored 28 in the second half and also added 13 caroms in the comeback win. Two days later, Cannon led all scorers with 29 points, making 12 of his 18 shots from the floor, and snared 11 rebounds as the Terriers beat Wagner, 66-51, to take a two-game lead in the NEC standings and clinch an NEC Tournament spot. Cannon leads the NEC with 9.9 rpg and 14 double-doubles, and ranks fourth in scoring (16.1) and sixth in field goal percentage (.528).

NEC ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Marcquise Reed, Robert Morris
6-3, 180 lbs.

Fr., G. Landover, MD/Capitol Christian

Reed's stranglehold on the NEC Rookie of the Week award continues after a terrific weekend that saw him average 18.5 points, 3.5 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.5 steals, while shooting 66.7 percent from the field. The freshman guard has now been honored on six occasions this season, including five times over the past seven weeks. The six ROW honors ties him for fifth on the NEC's single-season list. Reed scored a game-high 22 points on Thursday in a seven-point setback at LIU Brooklyn. He made 9-14 shots and finished with four rebounds, two assists and two steals. It marked his eighth 20+ game of the season, matching the RMU freshman record. On Saturday, Reed converted 7-10 shot opportunities and finished with 15 points, three rebounds and four assists in RMU's 76-62 win at FDU. Tied at 45 with 14:35 to play, the Colonials used a 17-8 run to take control with Reed supplying nine points and a pair of assists. On the year, the Landover, MD native leads all NEC freshman and ranks sixth in the conference with 15.0 ppg. Reed is also second in the league in steals (1.8), fifth in field goal percentage (.532) and ninth in free throw accuracy (.755).

CANNON'S CORONATION: TERRIER SETS NEC REBOUND MARK

"Coaches would come to see me play, and they'd come back a couple of times. But St. Francis was the only one that offered. They made me feel like they really wanted me."

Those are the words of St. Francis Brooklyn senior forward Jalen Cannon (Allentown, PA/William Allen), remembering his recruitment process four years back.

Little did SFBK head coach Glenn Braica know at the time that his investment in the Allentown, PA native would result in greater returns than he could have ever imagined.

On Saturday, the under-recruited power forward made Northeast Conference history when he established a new career rebounding mark in a 66-51 win at Wagner.

Cannon, who pulled down the milestone rebound with 5:16 to play in the first half, finished the game with 1,039 career boards, seven more than Quinnipiac's Justin Rutty, who collected 1,032 rebounds from 2007-11.

NEC Career Rebounding Leaders

1. Jalen Cannon	SFBK	1,039	2011-15
2. Justin Rutty	QU	1,032	2007-11
3. Ron Robinson	CCSU	1,022	2000-04
4. Carey Scurry	LIU	1,013	1982-85
5. Alex Francis	BRY	990	2010-14

And that wasn't the only milestone for Cannon last week.

On Thursday, the NCAA's active career leader in rebounds passed Jerome Williams (1,019) to establish the SFBK all-time mark and also became just the second player in NEC annals to eclipse 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds. Cannon, now with 1,558 points, joins Rutty (1,521) as the only two NEC players to reach both plateaus. He is just 105 points shy of the Terriers' all-time scoring record set by Ricky Cadell (2007-11).

While his rebounding made headlines, it was his shooting touch that helped lead the first place Terriers to a pair of road victories last week.

Cannon averaged 32.0 ppg, 12.0 rpg and 2.0 apg in the wins, while shooting 67.6 percent from the field and 62.5 percent (5-8) from long distance in the best two-game scoring stretch of his career.

With those numbers, it comes as no surprise that Cannon earned his league-leading fourth NEC Player of the Week award of the 2014-15 campaign.

Cannon dropped a career-high 35 points on 13-19 shooting, including a perfect 3-3 from three-point territory, in Thursday's 90-81 win over CCSU. He also added 13 caroms. Two days later, Cannon led all scorers with 29 points, making 12 of his 18 shots from the floor, and snared 11 rebounds in the victory over Wagner.

To say Braica is impressed with Cannon's development on the offensive end of the floor would be an understatement.

"Jalen really worked at developing his game," said Braica. "Now he can step on the floor and make perimeter shots, and he can handle the ball some. He's become a very good player."

Cannon paces the NEC with 9.9 rpg and 14 double-doubles, which ranks him 20th and ninth, respectively, nationally. He also ranks fourth in the conference in scoring (16.1) and sixth in field goal percentage (.528).

NEC NUGGETS

In a five-point setback at Pitt, Bryant shot 50.9 percent from the floor, 42.9 percent from 3P range and was outrebounded by just one (30-29).

LIU Brooklyn's win over RMU on Thursday was the program's first since defeating the Colonials, 90-73, in the 2012 NEC Tournament final.

LIU Brooklyn has won four of its last five games and is now 10-7 following an 0-6 start.

Mount St. Mary's has hit at least 10 3PTFG in three straight games.

Mount St. Mary's will play five of its final six games at home this season where they are 25-7 under head coach Jamion Christian.

Robert Morris is 23-0 under head coach Andrew Toole when shooting 50 percent or better from the field against NEC opponents.

With 10 overall wins and four NEC victories, Sacred Heart has doubled both win totals from last season.

After 12 straight overtime losses to NEC foes, Sacred Heart has now won its past two, including Saturday's OT win over Bryant.

Saint Francis U's setback to LIU Brooklyn on Saturday is just the team's second when leading at the half. The Red Flash are 12-2 in such games.

Wagner leads the NEC in rebounding margin in league play at +6.3 per game.

“” QUOTABLE

“Coach (Perri) told us to come out with a chip. We knew what was at stake. We knew that they were a very good team. They were above us in the standings. We came out hungry. We were hungry to get this win (tonight). We just had that aggression towards the end of the first half and into the second, that was probably our best second half of the year. I just think a lot of guys contributed. They just brought it. I’m proud of the team.” - LIU senior guard Gerrell Martin after beating RMU on Thursday

“We shared the ball and made great decisions in the second half. Lucky made winning plays for us. It bothered Lucky that he didn’t play Thursday, and he wanted to come out and play well. I told him in the locker room after the game I was proud of his effort.” - Robert Morris head coach Andrew Toole following the Colonials’ win over FDU on Saturday

“These are young guys. Mason said of his roster, which includes five freshmen who pay significant minutes. They don’t know how hard the basketball gets in February. They’ve never felt it before.” - Wagner head coach Bashir Mason after the Seahawks fell at SHU on Thursday

“Tonight we shared the ball very well, made a bunch of shots, but we just couldn’t stop Robert Morris in any one-on-one situations. It truly seemed like they didn’t miss a shot all game. Earl Potts played extremely well and ignited our offense. It was also great to see Matt (MacDonald) break out and play well. We just need to put everything together and then the outcomes will be difference.” - FDU head coach Greg Herenda after Saturday’s game against Robert Morris

TERRIERS IN, SEVEN TO GO

With six games remaining in the regular, we have our first NEC Tournament qualifier.

St. Francis Brooklyn clinched a spot in the postseason party for the fifth straight year after improving to 10-2 in league play with a 66-51 win over Wagner on Saturday.

The Terriers, who hold a two-game edge over Bryant and Robert Morris in the standings, are looking to capture their first NEC regular season title since sharing the top spot with Monmouth after a 12-6 campaign in 2003-04. SFBK also claimed the regular season crown back in 2000-01 with a 16-4 mark.

At 8-4, Bryant and Robert Morris are just one win away from clinching tourney berths.

SFBK’S JONES JOINS NEC MILLENNIUM CLUB

The year-to-year improvement of St. Francis Brooklyn senior guard Brent Jones (Brooklyn, NY/Bedford Academy) has been one of the NEC’s most compelling storylines this season.

And as he enters the stretch run of his final season in Brooklyn playing the best ball of his career, Jones can now boast of a number of career milestones.

Last Thursday, he became 203rd player in NEC history and 31st in SFBK annals to reach 1,000 career points in the Terriers’ 90-81 win at Central Connecticut. He finished the weekend with 1,011 points.

At the same time, Jones became the first player in SFBK history and the 14th NEC player to record 1,000 points and 500 assists. That list is a who’s who of NEC greats at the guard spot.

CCSU’S EDWARDS ENSHRINED IN NEC HALL OF FAME

He was known as the “Big Dog” and for good reason.

Since joining the Northeast Conference in 1997, the Central Connecticut men’s basketball program has had more than its share of success. And of all the outstanding players who have passed through Detrick Gymnasium, a case can be made that Corsley Edwards is the best to don a Blue Devil uniform.

This past Thursday, Edwards received the ultimate honor for his on-court exploits when he was announced as a member of the NEC’s fifth Hall of Fame class.

Edwards, a Baltimore native, was a three-time All-NEC selection and the 2001-02 NEC Player of the Year. He was chosen to the NEC All-Rookie team as a freshman in 1998-99 and All-NEC second team as a sophomore. Edwards would go on to earn first-team All-NEC accolades in his junior and senior seasons. He was named to the NEC All-Tournament team in both the 1999 and 2000 postseasons.

Edwards is the third-leading scorer in CCSU history and ranks 21st on the NEC career list with 1,731 points. The 6'9" center also pulled down 966 rebounds, seventh in school annals and eighth in the NEC recordbook. Edwards is one of just three players in NEC history who have scored 1,700+ points and grabbed 900+ rebounds in their career. He never shot less than 50 percent from the field in any of his four seasons and ranks second all-time at CCSU with 198 career blocks.

Edwards won a pair of NEC titles at CCSU, the first coming in 1999-00, his sophomore season. That year, Edwards helped spark the Blue Devils to a 15-game win streak and close loss to Iowa State in the NCAA first round after beating Robert Morris in the NEC title game. He was also part of a dominant 2001-02 team that set a conference record with 27 victories, including a league record 19 straight at one point. CCSU would go on to beat Quinnipiac in the NEC title game to earn a second NCAA Tournament appearance. The Blue Devils fell to Pitt in the first round with Edwards scoring a game-high 16 points. CCSU won 85 games in his four seasons.

Edwards became the first NEC player selected in the NBA Draft in 11 years when chosen by the Sacramento Kings in the second round in 2002. He played for the New Orleans Hornets in 2003-04. Edwards was also named to the CBA All-Rookie team and competed in the CBA All-Star game in 2003. He won a CBA title and was named playoff MVP with the Sioux City Skyforce in 2005. Edwards continued to play professionally in 10 different countries through 2014 until taking a position as a player development assistant with the Denver Nuggets.

"Corsley was the main reason that the Blue Devils competed in two NCAA Tournaments during his sophomore and senior years," said longtime CCSU head coach Howie Dickenman. "I want to congratulate the selection committee on their choice. Corsley Edwards is well deserving of this prestigious honor as he is a class act both on and off the basketball court."

THIS WEEK IN NEC-TV: LET'S PLAY TWO

The NEC-TV crew heads to Emmitsburg on Thursday for the first of two games on the week. The Mount hosts Sacred Heart in a matchup to air from Knott Arena on MASN, FCS and ESPN3 at 7:00 pm. Dave Popkin (PxP), Terry O'Connor (color) and Paul Dottino (sideline) have the call. The two teams played earlier in the year on NEC-TV with the Mount claiming a 77-71 victory on January 31.

Two days later it's a Valentine's Day special from Moon Township as CCSU visits Robert Morris in a noon tip. Dottino (PxP), Tim Capstraw (color) and Pat O'Keefe are in the booth.

REED ROW TRIVIA

With six NEC Rookie of the Week awards this season, Robert Morris freshman guard Marcquise Reed (Landover, MD/Capitol Christian) has joined some elite company. The six honors ties him for fourth on the league's all-time single-season list.

- 8 - Kyle Vinales (CCSU) - 2011-12
- 8 - Darshan Luckey (SFU) - 2002-03
- 8 - Charles Smith (RID) - 1993-94
- 8 - Alex Blackwell (MU) - 1989-90
- 6- Marcquise Reed (RMU) - 2014-15
- 6- Julian Boyd (LIU) - 2008-09
- 6 - Alex Francis (BRY) - 2010-11
- 6 - Latif Rivers (WC) - 2010-11

Reed has now claimed rookie plaudits in five of the last seven weeks, including four times in six weeks of league play.

Need a reason why?

Reed's conference shooting splits are an incredible 56.2 percent from the field, 57.1 percent from the line and 87.5 percent from the stripe., while averaging 16.7 ppg.

SHOT OF THE WEEK

He's known for his passing exploits, but Sacred Heart senior point guard Phil Gaetano (Wallingford, CT/Sheehan (Choate Rosemary)) made some noise last week with one of the biggest shots of his career in an 85-74 win over Bryant at the Pitt Center on Saturday.

With the Pioneers trailing by three and 12 seconds on the clock, Gaetano brought the ball up the court, calmly pulled up from around 28 feet and stuck a three-pointer with 5.7 seconds remaining to send the game to OT. An underrated shooter, Gaetano has made 121 shots from distance in his Sacred Heart career.

Watch the shot here: <http://necfrontrow.com/webcast.php?SHU-2163> (1:53:20 mark)

LUCKY & STARKS MILESTONES

On Saturday, Bryant senior guard Dyami Starks (Duluth, MN/Duluth East) cracked the 1,500-point milestone for his Bryant career. He is one of 68 players in NEC history to reach the plateau that also includes St. Francis Brooklyn senior forward Jalen Cannon (Allentown, PA/William Allen).

Starks is about to be joined in the 1,500-point club by Robert Morris senior forward Lucky Jones (Newark, NJ/St. Anthony), who enters play this week with 1,493 to his credit.

Jones also eclipsed the 800-rebound mark last week, and with 803 boards ranks 21st on the NEC career list.

ALLEN'S EFFICIENT WEEK FOR SHU

Sacred Heart forward Jordan Allen (Bayshore, NY/Long Island Lutheran (Hofstra)) came into last week having scored in single digits in five straight games, but then had his best two-game stretch as a Pioneer, averaging 18.5 ppg, 4.5 rpg and 1.5 spg in just 24.5 mpg off the bench in a pair of SHU wins. He also shot a scorching 80.0 percent from the floor, making 16 of his 20 shots on the week.

Allen delivered a career performance in a thrilling come-from-behind 85-74 overtime victory over Bryant on Saturday. Allen poured in 14 of his career-high 24 points after halftime and added six rebounds in just 27 minutes. He made a personal-best 11-14 from the field, including 7-9 in the second stanza as the Pioneers rallied from 17 points down to win it. Allen also added five of his six rebounds after intermission. Down 11 with 6:26 remaining, the Bayshore, NY native scored eight of SHU's 13 points in a 13-1 run that gave the Pioneers its first lead since the 18:29 mark of the first half with just 1:30 left to play.

He began the week in near-perfect shooting fashion, making 5-6 shots en-route to 13 points in 22 minutes as the Pioneers registered an 86-75 triumph over Wagner on Thursday. Twice when the Seahawks moved within eleven late in the game, Allen answered with layups to push the lead back to thirteen. The second sparked a 9-2 flurry that would ultimately seal the victory.

Allen's 61.9 percent field goal percentage leads the conference. He paces Sacred Heart's bench brigade, averaging 8.9 ppg and 3.9 rpg.

BOSKO BALLIN' FOR BRYANT

If it seems like Bryant redshirt freshman forward Bosko Kostur (Melbourne, Australia/ Hallam Senior College) has come out of nowhere to become a key cog in the Bulldog lineup, you wouldn't be that far off.

After playing just 68 minutes combined over the 19 games of the season, Kostur recently earned a starting spot and has averaged 14.0 ppg and 4.4 rpg in his last five outings. The springy 6'7" wing has also shot an efficient 54.3 percent from the floor and 50.0 percent from three-point range over that span.

Last week, he tied for game scoring honors with 17 points in a 55-53 win over Mount St. Mary's, then added 15 in an overtime setback at Sacred Heart.

BURTON CHATTER

Wagner senior guard Marcus Burton (Charlotte, NC/David W. Butler) has now led the Seahawks in scoring in each of the last 11 games, averaging 23.1 ppg over that span.

Last week, he put up 17.5 ppg, including 22 against Sacred Heart on Thursday.

Burton leads the NEC in overall (18.5) and conference (21.8) scoring.

The Charlotte, NC native also needs just five more steals for 100 in his career. Currently, he has amassed 1,035 points, 206 rebounds, 164 assists and 95 steals.

MOUNTING DEFENSIVE NUMBERS

Mount St. Mary's last week continued its recent trend of lockdown defensive efforts. The Mount held both CCSU and Bryant under 55 points, and has limited six of the past ten opponents to 55 or under.

The Mount continues to lead the NEC in scoring defense (60.0), field goal percentage defense (.389) and three-point defense (.279) in league games. In the advanced metrics, Mount St. Mary's is first in defensive efficiency by a wide margin (allowing 90.7 points per 100 possessions) and effective field goal percentage (42.8).

TALE OF TWO HALVES FOR LIU

LIU Brooklyn used a pair of impressive second halves to defeat Robert Morris and Saint Francis U last week and improve to 6-6 in NEC play.

The Blackbirds outscored the Colonials, 48-38, to overcome a three-point halftime deficit, then came all the way back from down 15 in the first half to defeat Saint Francis U.

LIU shot 51.9 percent over the two second periods as compared to just 28.6 percent in the first halves.

CCSU'S MOBLEY DOING IT INSIDE & OUT

CCSU's Matt Mobley (Worcester, MA/Worcester Academy) has been one of the bright spots this season for CCSU, as the sophomore guard ranks third in the NEC in scoring at 16.6 ppg.

He has posted a league-leading three 30+ point scoring efforts on the year, including 31 against St. Francis Brooklyn on Thursday, just one off his career-high. Mobley made a scorching 7-10 from outside the arc and 8-10 from the line. On the week, Mobley averaged 22.0 ppg and made 9-14 (.643) from three-point territory.

Mobley hasn't just been doing it from long distance, where he has hit 55 shots on the year. The Worcester, MA native also leads the NEC with 105 made free throws, 14 more than the next closest player, who just happens to be his teammate Faronte Drakeford (Aberdeen, NC/Pinecrest (Cape Fear CC)).

BRYANT IRONMEN

Bryant saw just eight players take the court over the course of a three-game week, with five averaging more than 35 minutes per game. Junior point guard Shane McLaughlin (Old Tappan, NJ/Old Tappan (Choate Rosemary Hall (CT))) led the team, averaging 41.3 minutes per outing in three starts. Senior guard Dyami Starks (Duluth, MN/Duluth East) also averaged more than 40 minutes per outing (40.7). Only six Bulldogs appeared in all three contests.

STAT OF THE WEEK

Mount St. Mary's turned the ball over just eight times in two games last week. The Mount coughed the ball up five times in a two-point loss at Bryant and only three times in Saturday's 63-46 win over CCSU.

SFBK's CANNON, SHU's GAETANO MAKING NATIONAL IMPACT

With St. Francis Brooklyn senior forward Jalen Cannon (Allentown, PA/William Allen) becoming the NEC's career rebounder leader and Sacred Heart senior guard Phil Gaetano (Wallingford, CT/Sheehan (Choate Rosemary)) firmly entrenched in third place on the NEC career assist list, it is important to note they rank near the top of active NCAA performers in their respective categories.

With 1,039 boards, Cannon is the NCAA's active career leader, one ahead of Quinnipiac's Ousmane Drame (1,014) and UC Santa Barbara's Alan Williams (1,014). Interestingly, Drame (997) played two years in the NEC for the Bobcats. Cannon is also third among active NCAA players with 41 double-doubles, six behind Louisiana Lafayette's Shawn Long.

Gaetano's 682 career assists lands him fourth in the country, behind Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Smith (777), FGCU's Brett Comer (773) and San Diego's Christopher Anderson (711).

BRYANT'S STARKS CRACKS TOP-15 ON NEC 3P CHART

How prolific a shooter has Bryant senior guard Dyami Starks (Duluth, MN/Duluth East (Columbia)) been in his Bulldog career? Despite playing in just his third season in the black and gold, Starks has reached the NEC top-15 in career three-pointers made.

Starks, who sank 12 from distance last week to boost his career total to 254, moved up four spots to rank 14th all-time in the conference.

He finished with seven assists in a 90-81 win over CCSU on Thursday and five more in SFBK's 66-51 triumph over Wagner on Saturday.

Firmly entrenched in third place on the NEC career assist list, only LIU Brooklyn's Jason Brickman (1,009) and Marist's Drafton Davis (804) have dished for more assists than Gaetano, who enters play this week with 682 dimes.

Gaetano leads the NEC and ranks 34th nationally with 5.5 apg this season.

Two nights later, Zanna tallied 15 points and pulled down nine rebounds in a come-from-behind win over Saint Francis U. The Kaduna, Nigeria native gave LIU its first lead since the opening moments of the game on a left-handed finish at the basket with 5:13 left, then hit a tough fadeaway bank shot to extend the margin to four with 1:26 on the clock. Robinson was 7-14 from three-point range for the week. He has scored a team-high 13.0 points over the past five games while shooting 52.2 percent (12-23) from outside the arc over the stretch. Robinson is now averaging 10.2 ppg in NEC play.

Robert Morris senior forward Lucky Jones (Newark, NJ/St. Anthony) returned to the lineup in a 76-62 victory at Fairleigh Dickinson on Saturday after missing RMU's setback at LIU Brooklyn due to injury and scored a season-high 24 points while also grabbing six rebounds. On Thursday against Wagner, he helped SHU avenge a loss to the Seahawks just one week prior with 16 points, including 2-4 from beyond the arc and 4-4 from the charity stripe. In Saturday's comeback victory over second place Bryant, Broome contributed 17 points and made seven of his eight free throws. He also tallied four assists, three rebounds, and a steal. Broome netted 15 of his 17 points in the first half, as he was instrumental in keeping the Pioneers in the game. In addition to leading the Pioneers in scoring at 13.8 ppg, Broome ranks in the top-14 of the NEC in six categories.

Saint Francis U senior forward Earl Brown (Philadelphia, PA/Imhotep Charter) posted back-to-back double-doubles last week.
