NEC Player of the Year

BREANNA RUCKER, BRYANT

Jr., F, 5-11, Cincinnati, OH/Princeton HS

Rucker was a workhorse for Bryant during the program's first-ever 20-win season at the Division I level. The small forward ranked amongst the NEC's top-10 statistical leaders in four major categories – scoring (16.0 ppg), rebounding (11.4 rpg), field goal percentage (.471) and free throw percentage (.758).

NEC Defensive Player of the Year

ERIKA LIVERMORE, FAIRLEIGH DICKINSON

Jr., C, 6-2, Nazareth, PA/Nazareth

Defensively, Livermore's 2.4 blocks per game are the most in the conference. The two-time all-NEC first teamer pulled down 5.4 defensive rebounds per contest, the fourth-most in the league. The 6-foot-2 center completed the regular season ranking third amongst the league's scoring leaders (18.5 ppg) and second amongst the top rebounders (10.1 rpg).

NEC Rookie of the Year

IVORY BAILEY, BRYANT

Fr., G, 5-7, Wyomissing, PA/Wilson

Bailey wasted little time establishing herself as one of the NEC's most dynamic scorers. A force to be reckoned with since Day 1, Bailey poured in 24 points and grabbed seven boards in a season-opening victory over America East member Maine. The 5-foot-7 freshman went on to average 11.3 points, 5.2 rebounds and 2.0 assists per contest.

NEC Coach of the Year

BERYL PIPER, CENTRAL CONNECTICUT

Eighth Season at CCSU

Piper presided over Central's Connecticut's winningest season as a Northeast Conference member, grossly exceeding external expectations while doing so. The Blue Devils tied for last place in the NEC preseason coaches' poll, but proceeded to capture a share of the regular season conference crown for the first time since joining the league in 1998.

29 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT 29th ANNUAL NORTHEAST CONFERENCE WBB TOURNAMENT

1. The 2015 NEC Tournament bracket contains two teams who were not here last year. Top-seeded Central Connecticut is back after failing to qualify in 2014 when it finished 9th in the standings with a 5-13 league record. Fairleigh Dickinson is also back in the postseason after missing out each of the past two years.

2. The 2015 NEC Tournament will follow the same "high seed host" format that was reemployed in 2011. The higher-seeded teams will host games throughout the entirety of this year's event.

3. Three teams in the eight-team Tournament field are still searching for its first title. Central Connecticut, St. Francis Brooklyn and Bryant have yet to cut down the nets and capture the NEC's automatic bid to the Big Dance. In fact, none of the three has ever made it through to the title game.

4. Central Connecticut owns the No. 1 seed in the NEC Tournament for the first time in its program's history. The Blue Devils were seeded as high as No. 2 twice before (1998, 2009).

5. Two programs in this year's field have won at least two NEC Tournament titles in the past decade -- Robert Morris (2007, 2008, 2014) and Sacred Heart (2009, 2012).

6. Saint Francis (PA) became the lowest seed ever to win the event when the No. 5 seed Red Flash went all the way in 2010.

7. Seeded fourth in 1991, Robert Morris had been the lowest seed to ever win the tournament title.

8. Mount St. Mary's will be making its record 24th appearance at the NEC Tournament. The Mount's string of 20 consecutive NEC Tournament appearances ended in 2010. After absences in 2010 and 2011, Bryan Whitten's team is back in the postseason for the fourth year in a row.

9. Sacred Heart, who has qualified for the NEC Tournament every year since it joined the league in 1999, owns the longest active streak for consecutive appearances (16).

10. The No. 1 seed has won it all 17 times in 28 years.

11. In the 20 years since the Northeast conference discontinued the six-team bracket, the No. 1 seed has won 15 times and has only missed the final on four occasions.

12. The 1991 RMU Colonials are the only team to win the tournament while finishing the season with a sub-.500 winning percentage (13-17).

13. Saint Francis (PA), which failed to qualify this year, has the most tournament wins (43) and most NEC titles (11) of any conference team.

14. The Red Flash's record win streak of 29 straight tournament victories came to a halt at the hands of Sacred Heart in the 2009 NEC Championship Game.

15. Saint Francis (PA) has made it through to the semifinal round more often than anyone else in the field. The Red Flash have been amongst the Tournament's final four on 16 occasions, and proceeded to advance to the Championship Game all 16 times.

16. The two lowest seeds to ever meet in the Championship Game were No. 4 Robert Morris and No. 6 Wagner back in 1991. RMU prevailed, 69-61.

17. Sacred Heart and Saint Francis U became the first-ever teams to score at least 100 points in a tournament game last year, and they did it while facing one another in a 2014 quarterfinal tilt. SFU prevailed, 132-124, in double overtime as the two teams accounted for the second-highest scoring game in NCAA Division I history. Both teams had exceeded the 100-point mark by the end of regulation play.

18. Prior to 2014, no team has ever reached the century mark in a game during tournament time. The single-game scoring high was 92 points, a mark that was hit by Saint Francis (PA), Monmouth and Robert Morris.

19. The largest margin of victory in a tournament game (39) came in Quinnipiac's 72-33 triumph over Saint Francis (PA) in the 2013 Championship Game.

20. Only five players have earned both Tournament MVP and Player of the Year accolades in the same season. Robert Morris' Artemis Spanou did it in 2014. Monmouth's Linda Wilson was honored with both awards during the league's inaugural season in 1986-87, followed by Mount St. Mary's Susie Rowlyk in 1993-94 and Saint Francis (PA)'s Jess Zinobile in 1999-2000. Amanda Pape of Sacred Heart was tabbed with both honors in 2005-06. Will 2015 NEC Player of the Year Breanna Rucker join the club?

21. Only one of the five members of the 2014 NEC All-Tournament Team are back this March – Robert Morris sophomore Anna Niki Stamolamprou.

22. Quinnipiac's Ashlee Kelly redefined "monster game" in 2004 when she poured in 38 points and grabbed 28 rebounds during a quarterfinal showdown with FDU. Two days after her tournament record 28-rebound performance, QU's Ashlee Kelly hauled in 26 boards and still owns the top two spots on the tournament's all-time single-game rebounding list.

23. Robert Morris' Chinata Nesbit, a former two-time Tournament MVP, owns the lone triple-double in tourney history (2008 QF vs. SFBK).

24. All eight head coaches in this year's field have been here before. Robert Morris' Sal Buscaglia leads the group with 11 appearances, while Sacred Heart's Jessica Mannetti, who is making her second visit, is the least-tenured.

25. Buscaglia has more NEC Tournament wins (15) than any other coach in this year's field.

26. Buscaglia is the lone active NEC head coach with a tournament title on his resume (2007, 2008, 2014).

27. No. 8 seed LIU Brooklyn will look to produce the second-ever 8-over-1 upset in NEC Tournament history. St. Francis (BK) was the first to pull off the feat when they ousted LIU Brooklyn in 2007.

28. Since 1994, the NEC Tournament champion has received an automatic bid to the NCAA's Big Dance. Mount St. Mary's earned the league's first-ever auto berth and faced Iowa in the 1994 NCAA First Round.

29. For the eighth consecutive year, the NEC Women's Basketball Championship Game will reach a national TV audience via ESPNU. This year's title tilt is set for March 15 at 3:00 pm ET.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS: #NECWBB REGULAR SEASON CO-CHAMPS CCSU AND BRYANT HEADLINE BRACKET

It was a regular season during which the unexpected became reality.

Earning a share of the Northeast Conference regular season crown for the first time in their programs' respective histories, Central Connecticut and Bryant dealt a severe blow to the value of preseason prognostications.

The top two seeds in the 2015 NEC Tournament bracket finished in the bottom half of the conference's preseason coaches' poll.

Central Connecticut (18-11, 14-4 NEC) became the first team in the history of the NEC preseason poll, which dates back to 1994, to end the regular season in first place after being pegged last in the predicted order-of-finish. Beryl Piper's Blue Devils, who have set a single-season program record for NEC wins (14), will own the top seed in the league's eight-team postseason tournament.

Bryant (21-8, 14-4), which was pegged sixth in the preseason predicted order-of-finish, finds itself in the midst of the program's finest season at the Division I level and holds the No. 2 seed in the 2015 NEC Tournament. Mary Burke's Bulldogs, who have qualified for the conference tournament all three years since becoming eligible, are the first NEC team to reach the 20-win mark this season.

No. 3 Robert Morris (15-14, 13-5) and No. 4 Sacred Heart (16-12, 11-7) will join the Blue Devils and Bulldogs in hosting quarterfinal round contests. All NEC Tournament games will be played at the home sites of the higher-seeded teams.

No. 5 St. Francis Brooklyn (12-18, 9-9), No. 6 Fairleigh Dickinson (10-19, 7-11), No. 7 Mount St. Mary's (8-21, 6-12) and No. 8 LIU Brooklyn (9-20, 6-12) will all tip off postseason play on the road.

The 29th annual NEC Women's Basketball Championship will commence on March 8 with quarterfinal round play followed by the semifinals on March 11. For the eighth year in a row, the #NECWBB Championship Game will reach a live national TV audience via ESPNU. The game, which will decide the recipient of the NEC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, will tip off at 3:00 pm EST on Sunday, March 15.

All quarterfinal round games can be seen live on NEC Front Row. ESPN3 will air both semifinal contests.

Like CCSU and Bryant, FDU outperformed its preseason poll ranking. The coaches' prognostications pegged the Knights in a tie with Central Connecticut for last place.

After failing to qualify for the postseason last March, Central Connecticut has earned the NEC Tournament's top seed for the first time ever. The Blue Devils, who have advanced to the NEC semifinals on three occasions during Piper's tenure, were seeded as high as No. 2 in 2009. They are still in search of their first NEC Women's Basketball Championship Game appearance since joining the league in 1997.

QUARTERFINALS AT A GLANCE

NO. 1 CENTRAL CONNECTICUT VS. NO. 8 LIU BROOKLYN

2014-15 Meetings: Jan. 19 - CCSU 75, LIU 70 (New Britain); Feb. 2 - CCSU 68, LIU 54 (Brooklyn)

LIU Brooklyn was on the wrong end of the lone 8-over-1 upset in tournament history in 2007. Now, the Blackbirds look to add Central Connecticut to that list of victims. CCSU, which is 9-0 against NEC opponents at home this season, has the tough task of defeating the same team three times in the same year. Defense should be plentiful in this one. LIU Brooklyn leads the circuit in steals (11.1 spg) and forces opponents into a NEC-high 20.8 turnovers per contest. Meanwhile, Central Connecticut has limited the opposition to a league-low 55.7 points per game during NEC play. These two teams last clashed in the postseason in a 2011 semifinal round bout. LIU prevailed, 61-55.

NO. 2 BRYANT VS. NO. 7 MOUNT ST. MARY'S

2014-15 Meetings: Feb. 9 - BRY 74, MSM 72 (OT) (Smithfield); Feb. 14 - BRY 55, MSM 53 (Emmitsburg)

These two teams faced one another for 85 minutes during the regular season and were separated by only four points during that time span. Bryant and the Mount both made it through to the NEC Tournament semifinal round last March, but have never met in postseason play. The two teams entered March on different trajectories. Bryant has won six of its last seven contests while the Mountaineers have won just once since January 26.

NO. 3 ROBERT MORRIS VS. NO. 6 FAIRLEIGH DICKINSON

2014-15 Meetings: Feb. 2 - RMU 71, FDU 58 (Moon); Feb. 7 - RMU 69, FDU 68 (Hackensack)

Robert Morris has hopes of becoming the first NEC Tournament repeat champion since Saint Francis U accomplished the feat in 2011. The Colonials enter the postseason having lost three of their last four contests. Meanwhile, Fairleigh Dickinson, which missed out on the postseason one year ago, went 3-2 in its final five games to climb up to the No. 6 spot in the league standings. RMU owns the second-most NEC Tournament titles (5) in league history. FDU has won the event twice, but not since 1992.

NO. 4 SACRED HEART VS. NO. 5 ST. FRANCIS BROOKLYN

2014-15 Meetings: Jan. 3 - SHU 71, SFBK 55 (Fairfield); Feb. 14 – SFBK 77, SHU 53 (Brooklyn)

This quarterfinal round bout features one of the league's top scoring teams against one of the NEC's most stalwart defenses. Sacred Heart averages 69.6 points per contest, second-most in the conference, while St. Francis Brooklyn's owns the league's top-ranked scoring defense (60.0 ppg). Jessica Mannetti's Pioneers are eyeing their fourth tournament title since 2006 while the Terriers have never won it all. Set to make its 16th consecutive NEC Tournament appearance, Sacred Heart boasts the league's longest active streak. St. Francis will contest the event for the third year in a row under head coach John Thurston.
