NEC Defensive Player of the Week

Gretchen Fay, Wagner

Midfielder, Junior, Spring Lake Heights, NJ/Manasquan

Fay was instrumental in leading a second-half Seahawk comeback that fell just short as Wagner dropped an 11-10 decision against Iona on Wednesday. Fay shut down Iona's attack in the second half as the Gaels did not score for the remaining eighteen minutes of the game, allowing the Seahawks to score five unanswered goals. The junior finished with an impressive stat line with one goal, seven ground balls, five caused turnovers, and two draw controls.

NEC Rookie of the Week

Dana Davis, Robert Morris

Midfielder, Freshman, Garnet Valley, PA/Garnet Valley

Davis continued her spectacular freshman season this weekend, leading the Colonials to two road wins at Niagara and St. Bonaventure. At Niagara, Davis posted a season-high four goals on five shots and was a perfect two for two on free position shots. At St. Bonaventure, Davis recorded a monster all-around game. The freshman scored two goals while assisting on one, picked up four ground balls, caused two turnovers, and won five draw controls. Davis has tied the NEC record book by earning her third consecutive Rookie of the Week honors.
