NSIC IDTF CHAMPIONSHIPS

NSIC Indoor Championships

Fri.-Sat., Feb.28-March 1 - Gillett Rec Center
Bemidji, Minn.

NSIC Men's Field Athlete of the Week:

Minnesota State junior Nathan Hancock (Independence, Mo.) won the championship in the NSIC Heptathlon at the NSIC Multi Championships this past weekend. Hancock, who also won the event last year, totaled 5,030 points and had first-place finishes in the 60-meter dash (7.15), long jump (21' 8"), shot put (38' 4.75") and the high jump (6' 6.75"). He placed second in the pole vault (13' 3.5"), fifth in the 60-meter hurdles (8.81) and seventh in the 1000-meter run (2:59.40).

NSIC Men's Track Athlete of the Week:

Minnesota State freshman Myles Hunter (Conyers, Ga.) ran a personal-best time in the 60-meter hurdles finishing with a time of 7.95. He currently has the best time in the conference and ranks fifth in NCAA Division II qualifying. He missed auto qualifying for the NCAA Championships by one tenth of a second.

NSIC Women's Field Athlete of the Week:

Minnesota Duluth junior Amelia Maher (Sauk Center, Minn.), who finished fifth at the NSIC Pentathlon one year ago, topped the 21-competitor field at Minnesota State University's Myers Field House with a point total of 3,605. Maher tied for first in the high jump (1.66 meters), was second in the 800-meter run (2:22.44) and third in the long jump (5.26 meters).

NSIC Women's Track Athlete of the Week:

Minnesota State sophomore Holly Suss (Parker, S.D.) placed first in both the 60-meter dash and the 200-meter dash at the MSU Open on Saturday. Her provisional-qualifying time of 7.75 in the 60-meter dash ranks third in the conference while her time of 25.24 is second in the conference and also meets the provisional qualifying standard.

NSIC Team Notes

AUGUSTANA

Augustana had another big weekend at Myers Fieldhouse in Mankato, Minn., earning eight bids to the NCAA Championships, but it was the Viking distance medley relay squads that stole the show. Augustana's men recorded an automatic qualifying time of 9:54.65 which ranks second in NCAA Division II this season. The women clocked a 11:50.58, the third-fastest D2 time this season, racing the event against no other teams. CJ Ham turned in two more qualifying performances, improving both his marks in the shot put and again breaking his school record in the weight throw. Kyle Blakeslee and Kayla Mescher doubled up on qualifying times after their DMR performance, winning the 3,000-meter and 800-meter runs, respectively. Ryan Heuer earned the first qualifying mark of his career, clocking an 8.30-second run in the 60-meter hurdles. John Klecker turned in the second-fastest time in Augustana history in the men's 3k and won the event with a provisional mark.

Men's Track: John Klecker (Distance, So., Minnetonka, Minn./Hopkins) recorded the second-fastest 3,000-meter time in Augustana history and earned a provisional mark with his 8:23.65. Klecker earned a bid in the mile run last week, but his 3k time now ranks as the 17th-fastest time in Division II.

Women's Track: Kyle Blakeslee (Distance, Sr., Cannon Falls, Minn./Cannon Falls HS) earned two provisional marks while winning the women's DMR and 3,000-meter run. Blakeslee ran the 1,600-meter run leg on the DMR team that clocked the third-fastest time in Division II this season. Blakeslee also earned her third provisional mark of the season with a 10:00.76 mark in the women's 3k.

BEMIDJI STATE

Women's Track: The Bemidji State University track and field team competed in its own Alumni Meet Feb. 15. As a part of the meet, BSU recognized its 1974 women's track and field team as it was inducted into BSU Athletic Hall of Fame. The Beavers return to Gillett Recreation and Fitness Center Feb. 20 to host the BSU Twilight. The meet will begin at 3 p.m.

CONCORDIA-ST. PAUL

Women's Track: Williams ran a time of 7.78 seconds in the 60m sprints to pick up a second place finish in the finals. She followed it up with a mark of 25.29 seconds in the 200m to grab another second place finish to complete her record-breaking performance.

Women's Field: Martina Ware (Throws, 5'6", Jr., Eagan, Minn., Eastview HS) finished fourth in the shot put with a throw of 12.57m and finished 10th in the weight throw with a throw of 15.37m in what was a strong field.

Men's Field: Colin Goligoski capped off an excellent indoor multi season by finishing just behind Minnesota State's Nathan Hancock for the top spot in the NSIC Heptathlon. Hancock finished with 5030 points while Goligoski collected 4703, just shy of his total point PR. He set a PR in the 1000m run and is provisionally qualified for the NCAA Indoor Championships.

Bryan Elyea-Wheeler (Pole Vault, 6'0", So., Eden Prairie, Minn. / HS) followed up a strong performance last weekend with a school record mark of 15'7" in the pole vault. The mark resulted in a third place finish and was an NCAA provisional qualifying mark. The previous record was 15'3.75".

UNIVERSITY OF MARY

Men's Field: Hwang Lee (Multis/High Jump, Fr., Hamilton, Ontario) placed fifth at the 2014 NSIC Men's Multi Championships after compiling 4,429 points. Competing in his first collegiate conference championship event, the freshman earned the Marauders four team points in the NSIC track and field championships. Twice he was runner-up in one of the seven heptathlon events. The Hamilton, Ontario, native placed second in the 60 meter dash with a time of 7.29 seconds. He also claimed second out of the 14 competitors in the 1,000 meter run with a clocking of 2:49.81... Aaron Teigen (Sr., Rugby, N.D.) landed in the top five in two events at the Bison Classic in Fargo, N.D., on Saturday. The senior jumper native took second in the long jump, clearing 22' 5 3/4". He also placed fifth in the triple jump with an effort of 44' 9 1/2".

Men's Track: Chris Jessop (Distance, Jr., Corvallis, Mont.) claimed the Marauders lone win last weekend when he placed first in the one mile run at the Minnesota State Coaches Open. He captured the event in a time of 4:19.85 and finished 3.61 seconds shy of meeting the NCAA provisional qualifying mark.

Women's Field: Molly McDonald (So., Lakewood, Colo.) placed third at the NSIC Women's multi championships with a tremendous all-around effort. The sophomore from Lakewood, Colo., posted an NCAA provisional qualifying total of 3,432 points in the five event pentathlon. Her best effort of the day came in the high jump, tying the top performance of the day with a provisional qualifying height of 5' 5 1/4"... Davina Carr posted a provisional mark in the pole vault for the second straight week, clearing 11' 9" to place fifth at the Minnesota State Coaches Open.

Women's Track: Janet Johnson (Sr., Kingston, Jamaica) had another brilliant weekend for the University of Mary, winning two events at the Minnesota State Coaches Open on Saturday by posting NCAA provisional qualifying marks. Showing off her versatility, Johnson won both the 60 meter hurdles and the long jump. In the 60 hurdles, Johnson ran an 8.52 and is currently ranked first in the NSIC and sixth in the NCAA in the event. In her second leap of the day, Johnson sailed 18' 3 1/4" to capture the long jump... Also posting a provisional qualifying mark in the 60 meter hurdles was senior Brittney McKinley. The Los Angeles native ran a time of 8.73 seconds to finish third overall.

MINNESOTA DULUTH

Men Field: James Ryan placed ninth out of 12 competitors at the 2014 NSIC Heptathlon Championships, which wrapped up today in Mankato, Minn. Ryan, a sophomore from Oakdale, Minn., racked up 4,031 points during the two-day event with his highest finish coming in the 60-meter hurdles where he placed third in a time of 8.72 seconds. One other Bulldog, junior Brooks Zamzow, also took part in the meet, but did not finish.

Men Track Three different meets in two days resulted in two provisional-qualifying performances, two school-record efforts, and six individual titles for the University of Minnesota Duluth. The Bulldogs' weekend kicked off Friday at the St. Thomas University Showcase in St. Paul, Minn., where junior Nick Moran placed fourth in the weight throw with a toss of 17.09 meters and qualified provisionally for the NCAA Division II Indoor Track and Field Championships. On Saturday, a small group of Bulldogs took part in the Minnesota State University Open in Mankato, Minn. Junior Phil d'Entremont captured top honors in the 600-meter run, finishing in a school-record time of 1:21.76, while the distance medley relay unit of senior Tyler Stevens, D'Entremont, junior Chris Wilson and senior Cole Toepfer attained a provisional-qualifying mark of 10:00.03, and another school record.

Women Track/Field: Junior Amelia Maher, who finished fifth at the NSIC Pentathlon one year ago, topped the 21-competitor field at Minnesota State University's Myers Field House with a point total of 3,605. Maher, a native of Sauk Center, Minn., tied for first in the high jump (1.66 meters), was second in the 800-meter run (2:22.44) and third in the long jump (5.26 meters).

MINNESOTA STATE

The fourth-rated Mavericks hosted the MSU Open on Saturday as well as the NSIC Multi Championships on Sunday and Monday. On Saturday senior Chris Reed rewrote the record books again in the weight throw with a throw of 66' 7", beating his previous school record almost two feet. On the women's side in the pole vault junior Bryanna Sudman improved upon her provisional qualifying mark vaulting 12' 6.75". That currently ranks her eighth on the NCAA Division II qualifying list and second in the conference. At the NSIC Multi Championships junior Jenni Vantinen finished in seventh place with 3,249 points while senior Moriah Miller placed tenth totaling 3,054 points.

Men's Track: Freshman Myles Hunter (Conyers, Ga.) ran a personal-best time in the 60-meter hurdles finishing with a time of 7.95. He currently has the best time in the conference and ranks fifth in NCAA Division II qualifying.

Men Field: Junior Nathan Hancock won championship in the heptathlon at the NSIC Multi Championships this past weekend.
