THIS WEEK'S OVC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

OFFENSIVE

Casey Brockman, QB • So., 6-2, 215 • Murray, Ky. • Murray State

Brockman completed 38-of-57 passes for 497 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 28 yards and another touchdown as Murray State won 61-35 at Austin Peay in a contest that featured heavy rain fall throughout the game. The 497 passing yards is the second-most in a game this season by a FCS player, trailing only the 570-yard performance Brockman had against Missouri State earlier this season. Brockman had passing touchdowns of 15 yards, 43 yards and 56 yards and rushed 18 yards for his rushing score. The sophomore completed passes to eight different receivers, including 11 to senior Marcus Harris (who moved into second place in OVC career receptions). Brockman ranks seventh nationally in total offense (290.25 yards/game), ninth nationally in passing yards (267.75/game) and 12th in points responsible for (15.0/game).

Others Nominated: Terrence Holt, Austin Peay; Mon Williams, Eastern Illinois; T.J. Pryor, Eastern Kentucky; Marques Ivory, Jacksonville State; Henry Harris, Southeast Missouri; Jason McNair, UT Martin.

DEFENSIVE

Jason Horton, DB • Jr., 6-0, 202 • Birmingham, Ala. • Jacksonville State

Horton led Jacksonville State with 11 tackles as the No. 6-ranked Gamecocks topped No. 7 Southeast Missouri 29-27 on Saturday. The matchup was the first between Top 10 OVC foes since the 1995 season. The game snapped the nine-game winning streak of the Redhawks, which had been the longest among FCS teams, and gave JSU a chance to share the OVC Championship with a win in the final week of the season. With the win Jax State improved to 9-1 on the season and won for the 16th time in its last 17 games dating back to last season.

Others Nominated: Cory Leman, Eastern Illinois; Dontrell Johnson, Murray State; Aaron Grimes, Southeast Missouri; Josh Bey, UT Martin.

SPECIALIST

James Esco, K • So., 6-2, 175 • Leesburg, Ga. • Jacksonville State

Esco scored 10 points as No. 6 Jacksonville State topped No. 7 Southeast Missouri 29-27 in the first meeting between Top 10 OVC teams since 1995. The sophomore set a career-high by making all three of his field goal attempts including a 34-yarder in the second quarter, a 42-yarder in the third quarter and a 25-yarder with 6:43 to play in the game. Esco also made his only point after attempt on the night, connecting with 11 seconds left in the game after the Gamecocks had scored to regain the lead. The win snapped Southeast Missouri's nine-game winning streak and was the first loss for the Redhawks against FCS competition this season.

Others Nominated: none.

CO-NEWCOMER

Darius Barksdale, RB • Fr., 6-1, 205 • Batesville, Miss. • Jacksonville State

After senior Jamal Young left the game with a knee injury, Barksdale entered the contest on Jacksonville State's third possession and helped lead the No. 6-ranked Gamecocks to a 29-27 victory over No. 7 Southeast Missouri. The game was the first meeting between Top 10 ranked foes in the OVC since 1995. Barksdale carried the ball 20 times for a career-high 113 yards as JSU snapped the nine-game winning streak of the Redhawks (which had been the longest in the FCS). Barksdale became Jax State's first 100-yard freshman rusher in nine years (2001) and became the fourth Gamecock runner to reach the century mark on the ground this season.

CO-NEWCOMER

Duane Brady, RB • Fr., 5-8, 165 • St. Augustine, Fla. • Murray State

Brady had the best game of his freshman season, rushing for a career-high 113 yards (including 83 in the second half) and two touchdowns as Murray State rolled to a 61-35 victory over Austin Peay. Brady also caught five passes for 53 yards to finish with 167 all-purpose yards on the day. Brady scored on rushing plays of one and four yards, including on the game's final drive when he carried the ball seven times for 55 yards. The freshman was part of a Racers attack that racked up 673 yards of total offense despite playing in heavy rain throughout the game. The 673 yards was the second-highest team output in the FCS this season, trailing only the 816 yards the Racers put up against Missouri State earlier this season.

Others Nominated: Jimmy Garoppolo, Eastern Illinois.

NOTES FROM AROUND THE GRIDIRON

Southeast Missouri Clinches At Least a Share of Its First OVC Championship; Jacksonville State Needs to Win to Share Title: Southeast Missouri State has clinched at least a share of its first Ohio Valley Conference football championship since joining the Conference and the Division I ranks in 1991. The Redhawks are 7-1 in OVC play, having completed its regular season on Saturday; the team is idle this week and awaiting a playoff bid. The Redhawks can win the title outright with a Jacksonville State loss to Tennessee Tech on Saturday. If Jacksonville State wins at Tennessee Tech, the Gamecocks will share the championship and earn the league's automatic bid into the NCAA Playoffs. Southeast Missouri won 14 MIAA Conference championships as a member of that Division II conference, with the last (a co-championship) coming in 1987. If Southeast Missouri was to reach the playoffs this season, it would mark the first time in the program's history the team would have advanced to the playoffs (they did not appear in any Division II playoff fields, which began in 1973). Jacksonville State has claimed OVC Championships in each 2003 and 2004, its first two years in the league.

Playoff Picture Starts to Take Shape: With one week left in the regular season the FCS Playoff picture is starting to take shape. The field will be announced on Sunday, Nov. 21 at 10:00 a.m. ET in a 30-minute special on ESPN. So far four teams have clinched spots in the newly-expanded 20-team field, including Robert Morris (Northeast), Northern Iowa (Missouri Valley), Lehigh (Patriot) and Appalachian State (Southern). The remaining six automatic bids (including either Jacksonville State or Southeast Missouri from the OVC) will be determined in games this weekend as will the 10 teams selected for at-large bids. This year the field was expanded from 16 to 20 teams, marking the first expansion since the field grew from 12 to 16 teams in 1997. The eight lowest-rated teams will play in the first round (games to be played on Saturday, Nov. 27) while the 12-highest rated teams will receive a bye into the second round (games to be played on Saturday, Dec. 4). For the first time in 2010, the championship game will be played in Frisco, Texas at Pizza Hut Park, a 23,500-seat multi-purpose stadium. The Southland Conference will serve as the host of the championship, which will be held on Friday, Jan. 7.

More on the Playoffs: In the 31 years of the FCS playoffs (which started in 1979, the OVC has placed two teams in the playoffs 16 total times, including most recently in back-to-back years (2006 and 2007). Only twice has an OVC team with eight Division I teams been left out of the playoffs, something that happened in 1984 (Murray State - when there was only an 8-team field and two other OVC schools did make the field) and in 2008 (Jacksonville State).

OVC the Only FCS Conference to Have Two Teams With 9 or More Wins: Entering this week Jacksonville State (9-1) and Southeast Missouri (9-2) are two of just seven Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) teams with nine or more victories this season (the other teams are Appalachian State, Bethune-Cookman, Dayton, Delaware and Jacksonville). The OVC is the only FCS Conference to have two teams with nine or more wins this season. All nine of Jacksonville State's victories this season have come against Division I foes, making them one of just five teams with nine or more victories against Division I teams this year (Appalachian State, Bethune-Cookman, Dayton and Jacksonville are the others). JSU and Appalachian State are the only two teams in that group who have that many wins, all of which have come against Division I teams.

Southeast Missouri Turnaround One of Best in FCS History: After winning just two games last season, Southeast Missouri State has turned around its fortunes this season. The Redhawks were 2-9 overall and 1-7 in the OVC and are 9-2 overall and 7-1 in the OVC through the end of their regular season (Southeast is off this week and waiting for a playoff bid). Using the NCAA formula for biggest single-season turnaround in FCS history (add the difference in victories between the two seasons to the difference in losses then divide by two, ties not counted), the Redhawks 7-game improvement currently ranks tied for seventh best in FCS history (since 1978). The all-time best single-season improvement is 9.5 games by the 1984 Montana State squad (that went from 1-10 to 12-2).

9.5 - Montana State (1984)

8 - Boston (1993), Boise St. (1993), McNeese St. (1997), UMass (1998), Sacred Heart (2000)

7.5 - Nicholls State (1996), Fla. Atlantic (2003), Sam Houston State (2004)

7 - Southeast Missouri (2010), Lehigh (1998), Delaware (2003), Monmouth (2003)

More on Turnarounds: Looking at all-time OVC turnarounds (including years prior to the FCS being formed), the Southeast Missouri has equaled the biggest single-season turnaround as far as wins. After only two victories a season ago the Redhawks have nine wins this year, a +7 margin. That ties the all-time mark also held by the 1964 Austin Peay team (from 1-9 to 8-1-1) and the 1978 Western Kentucky team (from 1-8-1 to 8-2).

Brockman Named National Offensive All-Star by College Sporting News (Nov. 15): Murray State quarterback Casey Brockman was named National Offensive All-Star (National Player of the Week) by the College Sporting News on Nov. 15. Brockman completed 38-of-57 passes for 497 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 28 yards and another touchdown as Murray State won 61-35 at Austin Peay in a contest that featured heavy rain fall throughout the game. The 497 passing yards is the second-most in a game this season by a FCS player, trailing only the 570-yard performance Brockman had against Missouri State earlier this season. Brockman had passing touchdowns of 15 yards, 43 yards and 56 yards and rushed 18 yards for his rushing score. The sophomore completed passes to eight different receivers, including 11 to senior Marcus Harris.

Two Top 10 Ranked OVC Foes Square Off For First Time Since 1995: When No. 6 Jacksonville State hosted No. 7 Southeast Missouri on Nov. 13, it marked the first time since Nov. 4, 1995 that two Top 10 OVC teams squared off against each other (the last being when No. 8 Murray State topped No. 5 Eastern Kentucky 17-7, ending EKU's 26-game OVC winning streak). Jacksonville State scored with 11 seconds left to give the Gamecocks the 29-27 victory. This week JSU is No. 4 in the FCS polls while Southeast Missouri is No. 10. It marks the third-straight week that both of those teams have been in the Top 10; prior to this year there had not been two OVC teams in the Top 10 together since the 1996 campaign (Oct. 7, 1996 when Eastern Illinois was No. 7 and Murray State was No. 9). Jacksonville State, who has been ranked for a school-record 28-straight weeks, has been as high as No. 2 this season (which was the highest ranking in school history). JSU has been ranked in the Top 10 for 11-straight weeks, the longest stretch in the Top 10 for an OVC team since Middle Tennessee was ranked in the Top 10 for 17-straight weeks from 1991-1993. Southeast Missouri has been as high as No. 7 this year (which was the highest ranking in school history). No OVC team has been ranked No. 1 overall since Tennessee State was ranked there in the last regular season poll of the 1999 season.

The OVC Rushing Attack: OVC running backs have had some dominant performances in 2010 including the No. 1 single-game rushing performance in FCS football this season and three of the top 10 outputs overall. The OVC is the only FCS conference with three individuals in the Top 10 single-game rushing outputs on the season. Southeast Missouri State's Henry Harris, who ranks second overall in rushing (147.91 yards/game) has the top spot, with a 293-yard outing against Southwest Baptist on Nov. 6. Murray State's Mike Harris, who is 15th nationally in rushing (113.0 yards/game) has the seventh-best single-game output this year, rushing for 242 yards against Tennessee Tech on Nov. 6. Tennessee State's Preston Brown, who was leading FCS in rushing when he suffered a season-ending injury, has the ninth-best single-season game this year, a 233-yard effort against Florida A&M.

More on Henry Harris: Southeast Missouri's Henry Harris has had a standout senior season, rushing for 1,627 yards in 11 games, the fifth-highest single-season total in OVC history. Harris can add to that total if Southeast Missouri makes the playoffs, and is only 159 yards away from tying for the top spot all-time (1,786 yards by Akron's Mike Clark in 1986). Harris, who was added to the Walter Payton Award Watch list, ranks first nationally in all-purpose yards (219.82/game) and second in rushing (147.91 yards/game). Harris is also moving up the OVC career scoring list, as he currently ranks eighth in OVC single-season history (108 points); one more touchdown would move him up to fourth all-time, two scores would make him second all-time.

Marcus Harris Among All-Time Best Receivers in OVC History: Murray State senior wide receiver Marcus Harris has established himself as one of the top wideouts in OVC history. Harris has 73 catches this season (the seventh-most in OVC history) which leads the nation in per game average (9.13). Harris has 205 catches for his career, which is the second-most in OVC history (trailing only 232 catches by Austin Peay's Harold Roberts from 1967-70). Harris also ranks third nationally in receiving yards/game (115.0).

EKU's Harris Honored by College Football Performance Awards for Week No. 11 of the Season: Eastern Kentucky's Orlandus Harris was honored by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) on Nov. 14 for his performance in week No. 11. Harris was named the FCS Wide Receiver Performer of the Week.

OVC Winning Streaks: Jacksonville State had a 12-game overall win streak stretching from Oct. 24, 2009 to Nov. 6, 2010 come to an end this season. That 12-game winning streak was one of 19 in OVC history to reach 10 or more games, and is tied for the fifth-longest in league history. It was the longest winning streak by an OVC team since the 1991 season (12-straight by Eastern Kentucky). Below is a list of each streak that has reached 10 games.

Spoos Now Tied for Fourth All-Time in OVC Win: With a victory over Tennessee State on Nov. 6, Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo moved into a tie for fourth place on the OVC all-time career Conference victory list. Spoo has now won 67 OVC games in his tenure at EIU, which has spanned the school's entire time in the OVC (1996 through the present, although he was not on the sidelines for the 2006 season). Spoo trails only Roy Kidd (207 OVC wins at EKU), Boots Donnelly (102 wins at Austin Peay and Middle Tennessee) and Charles Murphy (73 wins at Middle Tennessee) on the all-time list and he is currently tied with Jimmy Feix (67 wins at Western Kentucky).

UT Martin Wins 2010 Sgt. York Trophy: By going 3-0 this season in the series, the University of Tennessee at Martin claimed the 2010 Sgt. York Trophy, a challenge trophy which goes to the annual winner of the quadrangular season series between the four OVC institutions in the state of Tennessee (Austin Peay, Tennessee State and Tennessee Tech and UT Martin). In July 2007, the Nashville Sports Council and the Ohio Valley Conference announced the creation of the trophy, which is only the second traveling trophy involving more than two schools nationwide (the other is the Commander in Chief's Trophy). It is named after Sgt. Alvin C. York, a native of Pall Mall, Tenn. and a Soldier who was one of the most honored of World War I. He received the Congressional Medal of Honor after the war and returned to his home state to dedicate his life to improving education and facilitating educational opportunities for children in the state of Tennessee. The trophy goes to the team with the best record against the other schools, and in case of a tie there will be co-champions and the actual trophy will go to the institution that has gone the most seasons without winning the trophy. In 2007 Tennessee State and Austin Peay finished in a tie for the trophy with identical 2-1 records; both shared the award but Tennessee State went home with the hardware due to a 1-point win in the head-to-head meeting during the season. Tennessee State went 3-0 in Sgt. York play in 2008 to claim its second trophy. Last year Tennessee Tech claimed the trophy after going undefeated in Sgt. York games. UT Martin became the third-straight OVC team to go 3-0 and win the trophy in claiming its first title this season. The Skyhawks are 8-4 all-time in Sgt. York games, the best record among the four schools.

Large Crowds: OVC teams have played in front of some big crowds this season, especially when playing against a Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponent (including 99,123 who saw UT Martin play at Tennessee in what was the second-biggest crowd to ever see an OVC team play). In games involving just FCS teams this season, Tennessee State has played in front of the second and third largest crowds, including 54,202 at the Georgia Dome against Florida A&M (Sept. 25) and 44,688 at the Liberty Bowl against Jackson State (Sept. 11). Jacksonville State is currently averaging 18,432 fans at its five home games this year, ranking the Gamecocks seventh among all FCS teams.

APSU's Holt Becomes First Player in FCS History to Have Four 1,000 Yard Kickoff Return Seasons: Austin Peay senior Terrence Holt is among the best all-time at the FCS level in kickoff returns. Holt broke the FCS all-time kickoff return yardage record in 2009 and currently has 4,634 yards. In the process he has recorded 1000 or more kickoff return yards in each of his four seasons, becoming the first player in FCS history to accomplish this feat. Holt also holds the FCS career record for total kick return yardage (kickoffs and punt returns) with 5,181 yards. In 2008 Holt broke the NCAA record for kickoff returns in a season (52) and total kick returns (kickoffs plus Southeast Missouri's Harris Added to Walter Payton Award Watch List: In the last revision of the Walter Payton Award (Nov. 12), Southeast Missouri senior running back Henry Harris was added to the award watch list. The Walter Payton Award is given to the top player in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). A stellar 20-player Watch List will be pared to one winner of the FCS's top individual honor. The Payton Award is in its 24th season and will be presented to the FCS' outstanding player at the national awards banquet on Thursday, Jan. 6 in Frisco, Texas - the night before the national championship game. A panel of nearly 175 sports information and media relations directors, broadcasters, writers and other dignitaries will select the Payton Award winner after the regular season. The OVC has had one previous Payton Award winner, Eastern Illinois quarterback Tony Romo in the 2002 season.

TSU's Clifford and ECU's Caldwell on Buck Buchanan Watch List: Tennessee State safety Eugene Clifford and Eastern Kentucky cornerback Jeremy Caldwell are each of the final revision of the Buck Buchanan Award Watch List. The award, which is presented by The Sports Network and sponsored by Fathead.com, is handed out annually to the nation's top FCS defensive player. Caldwell was on the preseason list and has remained on the list all season while Clifford was added at mid-season. Ballots will be sent to a panel of approximately 175 sports information and media relations directors, broadcasters, writers and other dignitaries following the conclusion of the regular season on Nov. 22. The Buchanan Award will be presented to the FCS national defensive player of the year on Thursday, Jan. 6 in Frisco, Texas - the night before the national championship game. The Buck Buchanan award is named for Junious "Buck" Buchanan, the NAIA All-American and Pro Football Hall of Fame defensive lineman who played for Grambling State University from 1959 through 1962. As a freshman, Buchanan came to Grambling on an "if" scholarship, to receive financial help if he played well. After a season of playing both varsity basketball and football, Buchanan decided to concentrate solely on football. By the time he finished four years at Grambling, his coach, Eddie Robinson, asserted that Buchanan was "... the finest tackle I have ever seen." The Buck Buchanan Award has been handed out annually since 1995.

Brockman Sets OVC Passing Records, Harris Sets Receiving Touchdowns Mark in Win over Missouri State: Murray State sophomore quarterback Casey Brockman put his name in the OVC record book in the Racers 72-59 win over Missouri State on Oct. 9. Brockman threw for 570 yards, which broke the OVC record of 553 yards set by Murray State's Justin Fuente in the 1999 season (against Southern Illinois). The sophomore also passed for seven touchdowns, which tied the OVC mark of seven also held by Morehead State's Chris Swartz (1990, set against Murray State). At the time of the game, the 570 yards passing was (and still is) the most in any NCAA classification (FBS, FCS, Division II, Division III) in 2010. Five of Brockman's touchdowns were to senior wide receiver Marcus Harris, who set the OVC record in that category. Harris' five scores broke the record of four touchdowns previously held by four individuals (most recently Murray State's Terrence Tillman against UT Martin in 1999). The 30 points scored by Harris was the most by any FCS player in 2010. During the game the two teams combined to set FCS records for total yards (1,423) and extra point kicked (17).

Murray State Makes FCS History With 500-Yard Passer, 200-Yard Receiver and 200-Yard Rusher in the Same Game: In its win over Missouri State on Oct. 9, Murray State made Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) history by having a 500-yard passer (570, Casey Brockman), a 200-yard receiver (213, Marcus Harris) and a 200-yard rusher (212, Mike Harris) in the same game. It marked the first time in NCAA history that had occurred in the same game.

TSU's Brown Out for the Season: Tennessee State's Preston Brown, who ranked third nationally in rushing after five games (152.0 yards/game), injured his knee (ACL) against N.C. A&T on Oct. 2 and will miss the rest of the 2010 season.

Jacksonville State Tops Ole Miss, Ends 50-Game OVC Losing Streak to FBS Schools: Jacksonville State's 49-48 double overtime victory over Ole Miss on Sept. 4 helped the OVC end a 50-game losing streak to Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponents that extended back to the 2004 season when Eastern Illinois beat Eastern Michigan 31-28. Jacksonville State nearly ended the streak a season ago, losing in the final minute at Florida State. It was the program's first win over a FBS team since a 31-28 victory at Arkansas State in 2001 (prior to joining the OVC). All-time the OVC is 18-138-1 against FBS schools.

More FCS Over FBS: Jacksonville State's win over Ole Miss was the first for an FCS team over an FBS team this season (North Dakota State beat Kansas later on Sept. 4 to mark the second win for FCS teams). It marked the 19th time since 2004 that an FCS squad had bested an FBS school (20th including NDSU). In week two of the season, four more FCS teams topped FBS squads.

OVC Finally Tops the SEC: Jacksonville State's victory over Ole Miss also marked the first time since the OVC was formed in 1948 that an OVC team had topped a squad from the Southeastern Conference. Prior to Jax State's victory, the OVC had been 0-22 against SEC teams since the league was formed. Prior to the OVC being formed Southeast Missouri State had topped Ole Miss in 1907 and Tennessee Tech had tied Vanderbilt in 1939 in the only game with positive outcomes for current OVC teams.

Gamecock Play Chosen as Capital One Cup Impact Performance for Week 1: Jacksonville State's 30-yard touchdown on fourth down in overtime and ensuing two-point conversion pass (both by freshman Coty Blanchard) in a win at Ole Miss was chosen as the Capitol One Cup Impact Performance of the Week in a vote at ESPN.com. The two plays received 78 percent of the national fan vote.

Overall he averaged 10.5 yards/carry on his 23 attempts. His first quarter touchdown run that started the scoring marked the sixth-straight game in which he had rushed a touchdown. It was the second 200-yard rushing game of the season for Harris, making him only the second Murray State player to ever accomplish that feat. The 242 yards marked the seventh-best rushing game for a FCS player this season.

Early in the second quarter Mitchell picked off a pass and went 36 yards for a touchdown to get the Golden Eagles on the board. His second interception came in the end zone, ending a drive where Eastern Illinois was looking to cut the margin to one score. Mitchell also had seven tackles (six solo) and a sack. Edwards ended up with 4.5 sacks for 31 yards worth of lost yards as TTU held EIU to just 39 net rushing yards. The sophomore added seven tackles (four solo). Brockman put his name in both the OVC and Murray State record books as he completed 32-of-41 passes for 570 yards and seven touchdowns and rushed for another score in the 72-59 Homecoming victory. The 570 passing yards was both an OVC and Murray State record while the seven passing scores established the Racer mark and tied the all-time OVC mark (also held by Morehead State's Chris Swartz). The passing yards were the most by a NCAA player this season at any classification (FBS, FCS, Division II, Division III) and the touchdowns tied the most in any NCAA division this year. The sophomore passed for 238 yards and five touchdowns in the second half alone as Murray State overcame a 52-38 deficit with 2:22 to play in the third quarter.

Two OVC Players Earn Honors From College Football Performance Awards for Week No. 6 of the Season: Two OVC players were honored by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) on Oct. 11 for their performances in week No. 6. Murray State quarterback Casey Brockman was named FCS National Player of the Week and FCS Quarterback Performer of the Week while his teammate Marcus Harris was named FCS Wide Receiver Performer of the Week.

Southeast's Borum and EIU's Cook Named National Players of the Week (Oct. 4): Southeast Missouri State linebacker Darrick Borum was named National Defensive Player of the Week by College Sporting News while Eastern Illinois punter Kevin Cook was named National Specialist of the Week by Sports Network/Fathead.com on Oct. 4. Borum had a career-high 10 tackles, two sacks, three tackles-for-loss, a fumble recovery, interception and pass break-up in Southeast Missouri's 28-13 road win over Eastern Illinois. His interception ended EIU's first drive of the day and led to seven points for Southeast who took an early lead. Borum was part of a Redhawk defense that forced a season-high five turnovers against the Panthers. Cook averaged 50.2 yards on four punts in the same game against Southeast Missouri. On Cook's first attempt of the day he sailed a punt 86 yards from his own end zone to pin the Redhawks at their own five-yard line. The 86-yard punt was the longest in EIU's NCAA Division I history and seven yards away from the longest punt in NCAA FCS history. For the day Cook would see three of his four punts downed inside the 20-yard line with the fourth nearly downed at the one-yard line before being knocked into the end zone for a touchback.

Tennessee State's Brown, Murray State's Johnson Named National Players of the Week (Sept. 27): For their performances in week No. 4, Tennessee State running back Preston Brown and Murray State return specialist Dontrell Johnson earned National Player of the Week honors. Brown was named a National All-Star by College Sporting News after rushing for 233 yards and a touchdown in TSU's 29-18 win over Florida A&M at the Atlanta Football Classic. On the second play of the game Brown took a handoff and raced for a 71-yard touchdown. The game was his second 200-plus yard effort in three weeks. Johnson was named National Specialist of the Week by the Sports Network/Fathead.com after returning a punt 91 yards for a touchdown in the Racers 52-16 victory over UT Martin. Johnson had 148 total punt return yards in what was only his second game ever returning punts. Johnson also earned the FCS Punt Return Performer of the Week award from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA).

Two OVC Players Earn Honors From College Football Performance Awards for Week No. 3 of the Season: Two OVC players were honored by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) on Sept. 20 for their performances in week No. 3. Austin Peay's Stephen Stansell was named FCS Placekicker Performer of the Week while UT Martin's Darrin Nalls was named Defensive Lineman Performer of the Week.

Three OVC Players Earn Honors From College Football Performance Awards for Week No. 2 of the Season: Three OVC players were honored by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) on Sept. 13 for their performances in week No. 2. Tennessee State's Preston Brown was named the FCS Running Back Performer of the Week, Southeast Missouri State kicker Drew Geldbach was named FCS Placekicker Performer of the Week and Austin Peay safety Jeremy Ross was named FCS Defensive Back Co-Performer of the Week.

Ivory and Blanchard Share National All-Star Honors From College Sporting News (Sept. 6): The Jacksonville State quarterback tandem of Marques Ivory and Coty Blanchard earned National All-Star (Player of the Week) honors from the College Sporting News on Sept. 6 for their parts in the Gamecocks double overtime win at Ole Miss. The duo shared the Offensive Award with Appalachian State quarterback DeAndre Presley. The starter Ivory was 13-for-23 for 126 and two touchdowns while true freshman Blanchard was 9-for-13 for 126 yards and two touchdowns. The duo led the Gamecocks to five straight touchdowns to end the game, as JSU trailed 31-13 entering the fourth quarter. Jax State outscored the Rebels 21-3 in the final quarter behind the two-quarterback attack. Blanchard had a four-yard touchdown with 6:17 left to cut the lead to 31-26 and Ivory had a 19-yard score to Alan Bonner with 18 seconds left to make the score 34-32. Ivory then completed a 2-point conversion pass to La'Ray Williams to force overtime. Each quarterback scored a touchdown in overtime, as Ivory connected for a 7-yard score in the first overtime, and Blanchard completed a 30-yard pass on 4th and 15 in the second overtime. Blanchard then completed a two-point conversion pass to Calvin Middleton to win the game (and earn No. 2 play of the day honors on SportsCenter. The Gamecocks duo did not throw an interception in the game.

Two OVC Student-Athletes Named Semifinalists for Campbell Trophy: Two Ohio Valley Conference football student-athletes - Austin Peay's Brad Williams and Eastern Kentucky's Logan O'Connor - have been named semifinalist for the 2010 William V. Campbell Trophy (formerly known as the Draddy Trophy), endowed by HealthSouth. The semifinalists were announced by the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF). The award honors the best and brightest from the college gridiron and is often called the "Academic Heisman." Overall there are 121 semifinalists for the award but Williams and O'Connor are two of only 28 selected from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). Williams owns a 3.565 grade-point average as a business finance major with a minor in real estate. The Clarksville native also is a re-founding father of Alpha Tau Omega and is a member of the Omicron Delta Kappa National Leadership and Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Societies. O'Connor is an art teacher education major currently has a 3.84 GPA and is expecting to graduate this May. Nominated by their schools, which are limited to one nominee each, semifinalists must be a senior or graduate student in their final year of eligibility, have a GPA of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale, have outstanding football ability as a first team player or significant contributor, and have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship. The trophy was renamed last fall in honor of Bill Campbell, the chairman of Intuit, former player and head coach at Columbia University and the 2004 recipient of the NFF's Gold Medal.

Tennessee Tech Game With Lane College Called in Second Quarter: On Sept. 16 Tennessee Tech led Lane College 43-0 with 5:01 to play in the second quarter when lightning and heavy rains forced play to be suspended. After a long delay the game was unable to be continued. One of the conditions of Rule 3-3-3-c of the NCAA rulebook allows the teams to "terminate the game with a determined final score" if both the directions of athletics at the participating institutions in consultation with the coaches agree. Both teams agreed the game would end with TTU winning 43-0 and improving its record to 1-2 on the season. However, under NCAA statistics guidelines the game did not reach a "reasonable point of conclusion" (deemed three quarters for a football game) due to the weather conditions. So the statistics from the game will not count in the NCAA national statistical leaders or the OVC leaders. It was determined, however, that the Golden Eagle players would be able to count the stats in their individual career totals.

Tennessee Tech Starts Season With Back-to-Back Top 25 FBS Opponents: Tennessee Tech had the tough task of being one of just four Division I teams (FBS or FCS) to start the 2010 season with two nationally-ranked Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponents. The Golden Eagles lost at No. 17 Arkansas in week one and at No. 4 TCU in week two. The other three teams to start the season against two nationally-ranked FBS teams were Marshall (Ohio State and West Virginia), San Jose State (Alabama and Wisconsin) and UNLV (Wisconsin and Utah).

League Announces "OVC Game of the Week" Television Package With Wazoo Sports: In July 2010 the Ohio Valley Conference announced its a partnership with Wazoo Sports to produce and distribute an "OVC Game of Week" football package for 2010. The 10-game package will begin with Austin Peay at Tennessee State and feature a different game every week through the end of the regular season (Nov. 20). Seven of the 10 games will have a 6 p.m. CT kickoff. Each of the nine OVC football schools will appear on the broadcast at least twice during the season. For a full schedule and affiliate information check out links at OVCsports.com. The games will also appear online through ESPN3.com and OVCsports.TV Wazoo Sports, Inc. is a Regional Sports Network that delivers coverage of NCAA, NAIA high school, and youth sports live and on-demand on television and over the Internet. Wazoo Sports has produced over 360 LIVE games and is currently in over 650,000 households in Kentucky. Wazoo Sports is headquartered in London, Ky.

A Look at the Coaches: There are two new coaches and seven returnees among the head coaching ranks in the Ohio Valley Conference this season. Chris Hatcher takes over at Murray State after tenures at Valdosta State and Georgia Southern and Rod Reed is now in charge at Tennessee State (his alma mater) after serving on the staff as an assistant and defensive coordinator. The Dean of OVC Coaches is Eastern Illinois coach Bob Spoo who is in his 24th season with the Panthers in 2010. Spoo has 88 total wins while EIU has been a member of the OVC, a mark that ranks fifth in OVC history. Spoo also has 65 Conference victories, which is also fifth all-time. He is just two OVC wins away from passing WKU's Jimmy Feix (67 OVC wins) and moving into fourth place on the all-time list.

Preseason Forecasts: For the second-straight season five different schools received at least one first-place vote in the preseason predicted order of finish balloting. Jacksonville State received the most (11 of 18) while Eastern Illinois (4), Eastern Kentucky (1), Tennessee Tech (1) and Tennessee State (1) were also in the mix. JSU was picked first for the third time in the past six seasons. Is being picked first in the preseason poll necessarily a good thing? In the past 31 years of preseason polls (all that were available), the preseason predicted champion has only gone on to win the OVC Championship 12 times (38.7%). Over the past seven years not once has the eventual champion been predicted in the preseason poll (it was last done correctly in 2002).

Year	Predicted Champion	Actual Champion
2002	Eastern Illinois	Eastern Illinois
2003	Southeast Missouri	Jacksonville State

Holt and Bey Headline Preseason All-OVC Team: Austin Peay senior running back/kick returner Terrence Holt and UT Martin senior linebacker Josh Bey have been tabbed the 2010 Ohio Valley Conference Preseason Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year in a vote on by the league's head football coaches and sports information directors. Eastern Illinois, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech each had four selections apiece on the preseason team to lead the league. Eastern Kentucky had the next-most selections with three. Each of the league's nine teams had at least one player on the preseason squad. Returning players who were first-team All-OVC picks last season (12 in total) were automatic selections to the preseason team this year. The squad also included seven players who were second-team selections in 2009. Of the 25 total selections, 13 were seniors, 11 were juniors and there was one sophomore pick.

Let's Get It Started: The 63rd season of Ohio Valley Conference football will get underway on Thursday, Sept. 2 when four OVC squads take to the gridiron; the remaining five schools will play on Saturday, Sept. 4. The OVC is made up of nine football-playing schools in 2010. Since its beginning, 14 of the 18 total schools that have played football in the league have claimed at least one championship.

I-AA No More: Although some people may accidentally still refer to it as I-AA football, the term that represents the level of Division I football in which the Ohio Valley Conference competes has been retired. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game, the term Football Championship Subdivision (or FCS) is to be used. FCS is the only Division I football rank to host a NCAA-sponsored national championship (one of 88 championships the NCAA sponsors). The division formerly known as I-A was changed to Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and those teams compete for the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) national championship. Teams who play at the FCS level can offer a maximum of 63 scholarships (FBS teams can offer 85) and compete in a 16-team playoff at the end of the season to determine the national champion.

NFL Connections: As of October 1, 19 former Ohio Valley Conference players are on NFL rosters for the 2010 season (13 active players, 6 practice squad members). Those players include former Eastern Illinois standout Tony Romo, a three-time Pro Bowl pick, Cortland Finnegan (Samford), who has been a Pro Bowl defensive back selection with the Tennessee Titans and Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, who was a starter for the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII and was a Pro Bowl selection last season. There are five players on NFL rosters who played in the OVC last season including Eastern Illinois offensive linemen Chris Campbell (Green Bay Packers - practice squad) and Otis Hudson (Cincinnati Bengals - practice squad), Murray State defensive lineman Austen Lane (Jacksonville Jaguars) and wide receiver Derrick Townsel (Houston Texans - practice squad) and Tennessee State defensive back Anthony Levine (Green Bay Packers). Six of the nine current OVC football schools have at least one player in the NFL with Tennessee State leading the way with four active players (and one practice squad member). Several NFL coaches also have connections to OVC schools, including three who went to Eastern Illinois, the "Cradle of NFL Head Coaches." Those coaches include Brad Childress (Minnesota), Super Bowl champion Sean Payton (New Orleans) and Mike Shanahan (Washington). UT Martin graduate and former assistant coach Jerry Reese made waves in 2007 when he led the New York Giants to Super Bowl XLII in his first season as General Manager with the franchise.

OVCSports.TV: For the fifth consecutive year, fans can watch every Conference matchup and all non-conference home contests at OVCSports.TV. The venture with NeuLion (formerly JumpTV Sports) allows fans to access live and on-demand streaming video and audio of all conference matchups on their home computer. The premium Web site was launched in July 2006 and streamed over a thousand events in its first four seasons, including all Conference matchups in football and men's and women's basketball as well as select baseball, soccer, softball and volleyball games and OVC Championship events. Packages are available on a yearly, seasonally, monthly or per-event basis.

SGT. YORK TROPHY

The 2010 season marked the fourth of competition for the Sergeant York Trophy, an award created by the Nashville Sports Council and the Ohio Valley Conference. The trophy is contested between the four OVC schools in the state of Tennessee - Austin Peay, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech and UT Martin - and go to the team with the best combined record versus those schools in a given year.

In the event of a tie, the award will be shared; however, the previous winner will retain the trophy if they are part of the tie. If the tie is between two other institutions, the trophy will go to the institution that has gone the most seasons without winning the trophy.

The award is only the second traveling trophy that involves more than two teams in college sports; the other is the Commander in Chief's Trophy which has been contested between Air Force, Army and Navy annually since 1972. The award is named in honor of Alvin C. York, the most noted Soldier of World War I. Upon his return to the United States in 1919, he was bestowed the Congressional Medal of Honor. Following the war York returned his home in Pall Mall, Tenn. where he dedicated his life to improving education and facilitating educational opportunities for children in the state of Tennessee.

The award will be presented annually at the Nashville Sports Council's O'Charley's Dinner of Champions (held in March of each year).

Tennessee State and Austin Peay shared the inaugural award after compiling 2-1 records in round robin play last year. Tennessee State took home the trophy, however, by winning the individual matchup with Austin Peay by one point in overtime. Tennessee State claimed the 2008 trophy after going 3-0 in Sgt. York games. Last season Tennessee Tech won all three of its Sgt. York games to claim the 2009 trophy.

UT Martin made it three straight years with the winning team going 3-0, completing the perfect season in 2010 to win its first title. UTM's 8-4 record in Sgt. York games is the best of any team.

GAME NOTES: Austin Peay and Eastern Kentucky will close the season on Saturday at Roy Kidd Stadium in Richmond. Austin Peay is looking to snap its seven-game losing streak while Eastern Kentucky will look to extend its streak to four wins in a row and six of its final eight games. The two teams have played 42 times previously, while Eastern Kentucky winning 38 of those meetings. Last season Austin Peay topped the Colonels 24-20 in Clarksville, snapping the Colonels 22-game winning streak in the series. Terrence Holt earned OVC Offensive Player of the Week honors after the game as he ran for 176 yards and two touchdowns. The Gobs ran for 263 yards as a team and only completed three passes, but one of those went from Jake Ryan to Adrian Mines for a 45-yard touchdown in the first quarter. T.J. Pryor passed for 265 yards and rushed for 22 yards and two scores for Eastern Kentucky. A win for Eastern Kentucky this Saturday would mark the program's 42nd winning season in the last 44 years (missing only the 1977 year when ECU was 5-5 and last season when the program was 5-6)

SCOUTING AUSTIN PEAY: Austin Peay dropped to 1-6 in OVC play on Saturday, losing 61-35 to Murray State in a game that saw heavy rain throughout. The game will be the last in the career of running back/return specialist Terrence Holt who has established himself as the best return specialist in FCS history. Holt is the FCS's all-time kick return yardage leader (4,634 yards) and last week became the first player in FCS history to have four-straight years of 1000 or more kick return yards. In the loss to Murray State, Holt rushed 14 times for 140 yards and scored three touchdowns, going for 44, 50 and 5 yards, including his first touchdown coming out of the Wildcat formation. For the game Holt had 338 all-purpose yards, including 189 yards on kickoffs. During the game senior quarterback Trent Caffee led the game with a neck injury and had to go to the hospital; as of Monday morning his status was improving.

SCOUTING EASTERN KENTUCKY: After starting the season 0-3, ECU has righted the ship, winning five of its last seven games overall, including its last three games in a row. That includes a win over nationally-ranked Jacksonville State two weeks ago. The Colonels offense has been much more explosive recently, averaging 45.5 points/game over its last two games which is compared to the 46 total points the team scored in its first three games of the season. The back-to-back 40+ point games is the first time the team has done that in three years. With its 42-29 victory at Tennessee Tech on Saturday, ECU won for the first time on the road this season and snapped an eight-game road losing streak dating back to last season. Sophomore quarterback T.J. Pryor accounted for all five of ECU's touchdowns, passing for 279 yards and four scores (tying an ECU record) and rushing for a career-high 100 yards and another score (a 37-yard rush). Pryor now has a rushing touchdown in six of his last seven games. Overall Eastern rushed for 214 total yards, as H.B. Banjoman rushed for 103 yards and a score. Wide receiver Orlando Harris had his second-straight week of 200-plus receiving yards, grabbing nine passes for 200 yards and two scores. Harris has now caught a touchdown in four-straight games and ranks 10th nationally in receiving yards/game (90.2).

GAME NOTES: Murray State and Tennessee Tech wrap-up the 2010 campaign on Saturday at Roy Stewart Stadium in Murray. Tennessee State is looking to end its five-game losing streak and is still searching for its first OVC victory of the season. Murray State's offensive attack has been finely tuned recently, as the Racers put up 61 points last week and are averaging 36.9 points/game, the fifth-best mark nationally. Murray State enters this week having won four of its last five games. These two teams have played 21 times previously with TSU holding a slim 11-10 advantage in the all-time series. Murray State has won two in a row in the series, including 9-6 last year in a game that featured only field goals from MSU and a touchdown and missed extra point for the Tigers. The Racers Kienan Cullen was the hero, making attempts from 36, 24 and 40 yards, the last coming with just 2:29 to play in the game. Neither team had over 250 yards of offense in the game that featured 15 total punts.

SCOUTING TENNESSEE STATE: Tennessee State is still searching for its offensive identity since losing running back Preston Brown to a season-ending knee injury in October. At the time Brown was the nation's leading rusher and the Tigers were 3-2 overall and averaging 28.4 points/game. Since losing Brown TSU has only scored 55 total points over the past five games (11.0 points/game). That stretch includes two shutouts, including a 37-0 loss at UT Martin on Saturday. In that contest Tennessee State was limited to just 123 yards of total offense, 72 rushing yards and 51 passing yards. Terrance Wright led the way with 43 rushing yards.

SCOUTING MURRAY STATE: Murray State can secure its first winning season since 2004 with a victory over Tennessee State on Saturday. A win would be the fifth OVC win of the year for the Racers which has happened only three times for the program since 2000. A win would also be the 100th of the coaching career of Chris Hatcher (who is currently 99-32 in 11 years). Murray State is coming off a 61-35 victory at Austin Peay on Saturday, marking the third time this season the team has eclipsed the 50-point plateau, the first time that has happened since the 1999 season. Casey Brockman was named OVC Player of the Week after completing 38-of-57 passes for 497 yards and three touchdowns and rushing for 28 yards and another score. The 497 yards is the second-highest total in the FCS this season, trailing only the 570 yards Brockman had against Missouri State earlier this year. Brockman currently ranks seventh nationally in total offense (290.25 yards/game). Eleven of his completions went to senior Marcus Harris who finished the day with 138 yards and a touchdown. Harris now ranks second in OVC history with 205 career receptions. Rashad Daniels added nine catches for 122 yards and a score. Freshman Duane Brady had his best game of the season, earning OVC Newcomer of the Week honors after carrying the ball 22 times for 114 yards and two touchdowns and catching five passes for 53 yards. Murray State accounted for 673 yards of total offense on Saturday, the second-highest single-game total in the FCS this year, trailing only the 816 yards the squad put up against Missouri State.

GAME NOTES: An OVC Championship is up for grabs on Saturday when Jacksonville State travels to Tennessee Tech for the regular season finale on Saturday. With a win the No. 4-ranked Gamecocks will share the title with Southeast Missouri and also grab the OVC's automatic bid into the FCS playoffs. A loss would mean that Southeast Missouri wins the title outright. The game is the final OVC Game of the Week for the 2010 season and will air live on several outlets, including ESPN3.com. The kickoff is now set for 4 p.m. CT (after originally being set for 6 p.m. CT at the beginning of the season) to accommodate the NCAA Selection Committee selection process. This will be the 15th game between the two teams; Jax State has won five games in a row in the series, including 55-28 a season ago in Jacksonville. The Gamecocks racked up 584 yards of total offense in the game and led 48-14 at the end of three quarters. JSU quarterback Ryan Perrilloux was named National Player of the Week after passing for 223 yards and three touchdowns and rushing for 103 yards and two more scores.

SCOUTING JACKSONVILLE STATE: Jacksonville State rebounded from a loss at Eastern Kentucky two weeks ago (a loss that prevented them from taking over the top spot in the FCS polls) and topped nationally-ranked Southeast Missouri 29-27 in thrilling fashion on Saturday. The win was the 13th in its last 14 games and 17th in its last 19 contests overall. Down by five points with 4:06 to play, junior quarterback Marques Ivory led the team on an 11-play, 57-yard drive that was capped when he hit Alan Bonner for a 17-yard touchdown with just 11 ticks remaining. Ivory finished the game with 222 yards passing. After losing senior running back Jamal Young to a knee injury in the first quarter, freshman Darius Barksdale stepped up, carrying the ball 20 times for 113 yards and earning OVC Newcomer of the Week honors. Calvin Middleton finished with 26 rushing yards but did score two touchdowns. Bonner finished the game with 186 all-purpose yards, including 142 kickoff return yards, in addition to the game-winning catch. Junior Jason Horton was named OVC Defensive Player of the Week after finishing the game with 11 tackles and snapping the Redhawks nine-game winning streak. The game was played in front of 20,237 fans and JSU is averaging 18,432 fans at five home games this season, the seventh-best attendance average nationally. Jacksonville State is ranked No. 4 in this week's Top 25 polls; it marks the 11-straight week the team has been in the Top 10, the longest streak for an OVC team since Middle Tennessee was in the Top 10 for 17 weeks over three seasons (1991-93).

SCOUTING TENNESSEE TECH: Playing with a lot of injuries, Tennessee Tech rolled up 554 yards of total offense and did not commit a turnover but came up on the short-end of a 42-29 decision to Eastern Kentucky on Saturday. The Golden Eagles rushed for 281 yards as a team, as Jocques Crawford led the way with 128 yards. Senior quarterback Cass Barnes passed for 273 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 68 additional yards. Senior Henry Sailes had his best all-purpose game of the season, netting 220 total yards (123 kick return yards, 60 receiving yards, 37 rushing yards). Defensively Marty Jones and Kelechi Ordu each had 13 tackles to lead the Golden Eagles.
