THIS WEEK'S OVC HIGHLIGHTS/STORYLINES

For only the second time in OVC history (and first since 1962), more than two teams shared the OVC Football Championship as Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech ended the year 6-2...The title was the 10th overall for TTU and first since the 1975 season...It marked the 21st OVC Championship for EKV (and first since 2008), which is tied for most conference championships among all FCS teams (with Massachusetts)...JSU's share of the title was its third crown and first since 2004...Tennessee Tech won the tiebreaker and earned the automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Football Championship, while Eastern Kentucky received an at-large bid...Tennessee Tech is making its first-ever playoff appearance (the FCS/I-AA playoffs began in 1978)...Eastern Kentucky will be making its 20th FCS playoff appearance, which ranks second in NCAA history (behind Montana's 21 appearances); EKV is making its first playoff appearance since 2008 and is 16-17 all-time in playoff games (including National Championships in 1979 and 1982)...It marked the 18th time (and second-straight season) in 34 years of playoffs that the OVC has placed two teams in the field...Both EKV and TTU will host home playoff games on Saturday, as Eastern will entertain James Madison (11 a.m. CT, ESPNU) and Tennessee Tech will welcome Central Arkansas (2:00 p.m., ESPN3)...EKV is hosting a playoff game for the first time since 1994 (the program's last five playoff games have been on the road); EKV is 11-4 all-time at Roy Kidd Stadium in the playoffs...It marks the first time since the 1991 season that the OVC has had two teams host playoff games in the same season...The OVC is looking to snap a 16-game losing streak in the playoffs; an OVC team has not won since former member Western Kentucky was victorious in 2000...The 2011 All-OVC teams and individual awards (Offensive, Defensive, Freshman and Coach of the Year) will be announced on Tuesday (Nov. 22).

There were 12 players on the All-OVC first-team (5 RB's) and 12 players on the All-OVC second-team (9 DB's) due to ties in voting.

THIS WEEK'S adidas® OVC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

CO-OFFENSIVE

Casey Brockman, QB • Jr., 6-2, 225 • Murray, Ky. • Murray State

Brockman passed, rushed and caught a touchdown pass all in the first half of Murray State's 35-34 victory over Southeast Missouri in the team's season finale. The Walter Payton Award candidate finished the day 31-of-44 for 222 yards and two passing touchdowns, rushed 11 times for 77 yards and a 10-yard score and caught a six-yard touchdown pass. Brockman, who earned his second OVC Offensive Player of the Week honor of the season, finished the year with 3,276 passing yards, the second-most in OVC single-season history, while his 316 completions established a new OVC record. Brockman ranks sixth nationally in total offense (315.45 yards/game) and points responsible for (16.91 points/game).

CO-OFFENSIVE

Dontey Gay, RB • Sr., 5-9, 205 • Lexington, Ky. • Tennessee Tech

Gay earned his second OVC Offensive Player of the Week honor of the season after rushing for 192 yards and a touchdown in Tennessee Tech's 49-7 victory over Austin Peay. The victory helped Tennessee Tech clinch its 10th OVC Championship (and first since 1975) and earn the OVC's automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Championship (the team's first-ever playoff appearance). Gay carried the ball 25 times and averaged 7.7 yards/carry. The 192 yards was the 11th-best single-game performance in Golden Eagle history. In the process he broke the 1,000-yard plateau for the season (1,009), becoming just the seventh player in Tech history to reach that achievement. His 2-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter was his 15th rushing touchdown of the season, which established a new TTU single-season record. Gay currently ranks eighth nationally in scoring (9.0 points/game) and his 90 points this season has tied the Tennessee Tech single-season record.

DEFENSIVE

Richmond Tooley, CB • Sr., 5-11, 185 • Memphis, Tenn. • Tennessee Tech

With the OVC Championship and automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Championship on the line, Tooley helped key a Tennessee Tech defense that limited Austin Peay to 255 total yards in a 49-7 victory. Tooley had eight tackles, an interception, a 19-yard fumble recovery and return for a touchdown and a pass breakup in the game. Tooley's touchdown came in a key third quarter stretch where the Golden Eagles scored three touchdowns in less than four minutes, turning a 21-7 lead into a 42-7 advantage. His interception came earlier in the third quarter, ending an Austin Peay drive near midfield and leading to a TTU touchdown that put the team up 28-7 just five plays later.

Others Nominated: Kevin Hamlin, Eastern Kentucky; Pierre Warren, Jacksonville State; Kevin Robinson, Murray State; Blake Peiffer, Southeast Missouri; Daniel Fitzpatrick, Tennessee State.

SPECIALIST

James Esco, K • Jr., 6-2, 175 • Leesburg, Ga. • Jacksonville State

Esco made a 42-yard field goal (matching his season-long) and added five extra points in Jacksonville State's 38-16 victory over Tennessee State on Saturday. With the victory the Gamecocks earned a share of the OVC Championship, the team's third title and first since the 2004 season. His field goal came with 1:23 remaining before halftime and gave JSU a 17-10 advantage.

Others Nominated: Matt Moseley, Tennessee State; Zach Sharp, Tennessee Tech.

NEWCOMER

Kevin Hamlin, LB • Jr., 6-4, 200 • Jupiter, Fla. • Eastern Kentucky

Hamlin, a transfer from Iowa State, had three tackles and two interceptions in Eastern Kentucky's 23-16 victory over UT Martin on Saturday. With the win the Colonels gained a share of its record 21st OVC Championship (the most conference titles all-time by any school at the FCS level) and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Division I Championship. His first interception came late in the first half, ending a 17-play Skyhawk drive at the Colonel 7-yard line; he returned that pick 49 yards into UTM territory. His second interception came in the fourth quarter and was one of three fourth quarter turnovers forced by the Colonel defense. Hamlin currently ranks 23rd nationally in interceptions (0.36/game, 4 total). Overall the EKU defense has forced at least three turnovers in six-straight games.

NOTES FROM AROUND THE GRIDIRON

Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech Share OVC Championship: For the first time since the 1962 season (when four teams shared the crown) and for only the second time ever, the OVC football season ended with more than two champions being crowned. Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech each finished with a record of 6-2 in OVC play to share the championship (Tennessee Tech won the tiebreaker and earned the automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Football Championship). The title was the 10th overall for Tennessee Tech and the first since 1975, breaking the longest stretch without a championship among current OVC teams. Eastern Kentucky won its 21st OVC Championship, which is not only the most in OVC history but tied for the most in Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) history (with Massachusetts). Jacksonville State claimed its third title and first since the 2004 campaign.

Two Loss Champions: This season three teams (Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech) finished in a tie for the OVC Championship with identical 6-2 records. It marked only the third time in 64 years of OVC football that the champion had two losses in conference action. A two-loss team also won the OVC title in 2009 (Eastern Illinois) and 1962 (East Tennessee - who finished in a four-way tie with Eastern Kentucky, Morehead State and Middle Tennessee). It was also the first time since 1967 that no OVC team won eight regular season games in a season.

Tennessee Tech to Make First Playoff Appearance: For the second season in a row (Southeast Missouri last year) the OVC champion/automatic bid winner will be making its first-ever appearance in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs. Tennessee Tech, who earned the automatic bid in a tiebreaker with Eastern Kentucky and Jacksonville State, finished the regular season 6-2 in OVC play and will host Central Arkansas in the first round. UCA is also making its first Division I playoff appearance.

Eastern Kentucky Makes 20th FCS Playoff Appearance: By garnering an at-large bid, Eastern Kentucky is making its 20th NCAA Division I Playoff appearance and its first since 2008. The 20 playoff appearances ranks second in NCAA history, trailing only Montana (who is making its 21st appearance this season). The Colonels will host James Madison in the first round. ECU is 16-17 all-time in playoff games, including 11-4 at Roy Kidd Stadium. Eastern is hosting its first playoff game since 1994 (its last five playoff games have all been played on the road). ECU won both the 1979 and 1982 National Championships.

NCAA Division I Playoff Information: This season marks the second of the expanded 20-team playoff field. Last year the field was expanded from 16 to 20 teams, marking the first expansion since the field grew from 12 to 16 teams in 1997. The eight lowest-rated teams will play in first round games this Saturday while the 12-highest rated teams will receive a bye into the second round (games to be played on Saturday, Dec. 3). For the second-straight year the championship game will be played in Frisco, Texas at Pizza Hut Park, a 23,500-seat multi-purpose stadium. The Southland Conference will serve as the host of the championship, which will be held on Saturday, January 7.

OVC Teams in the Playoffs: OVC teams are 27-54 all-time in the FCS (formerly I-AA) Playoffs. The league has not won a playoff game since 2000, when former member Western Kentucky beat Florida A&M 27-0 in the first round. Since that game the teams have lost 16-straight contests. Eastern Kentucky has made the most playoff appearances among OVC schools (20), including winning two national championships.

More on the Playoffs: In the 34 years of the FCS playoffs (which started in 1978), the OVC has placed two teams in the playoffs 18 total times, including now in back-to-back seasons and for the fourth time in the last six seasons.

More on the Playoffs Part II: With both Eastern Kentucky and Tennessee Tech hosting playoff games this season, it marks the first time since 1991 that the OVC has had two teams host home playoff games in the same season.

OVC Award Winners: Tennessee Tech and Tennessee State each had two of the four major year-end awards when they were released on Nov. 22 following the end of the regular season. Tennessee Tech senior wide receiver Tim Benford was named Offensive Player of the Year while his coach Watson Brown earned the OVC Roy Kidd Coach of the Year award. The duo led Tennessee Tech to its first OVC Championship since the 1975 season. Tennessee State senior linebacker Rico Council was named Defensive Player of the Year while TSU redshirt freshman quarterback Michael German was named Freshman of the Year. Overall Eastern Kentucky led the way first 10 first-team and 14 overall selections spread out over the first-team, second-team and All-Newcomer teams.

EKU's Denham Rushes for 200-Plus Yards in Four of Last Seven Games; Is One of Only Two Players in FCS Player with Four 200-Plus Yard Games This Season: Eastern Kentucky junior running back Matt Denham has rushed for 200 or more yards in four of his last seven games overall. Denham rushed for 216 yards against Eastern Illinois (Oct. 8), 226 yards against Tennessee State (Oct. 22), 219 yards against Murray State (Oct. 29) and 209 yards against Jacksonville State (Nov. 5). In the three games during the streak he did not reach 200 yards, Denham rushed for 142 yards against Southeast Missouri State, 151 yards against Tennessee Tech and 188 yards against UT Martin. Denham is one of only two players in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) to have four 200-plus yard rushing games this season (the other is Indiana State's Shakir Bell). Denham currently ranks third nationally in rushing (131.4 yards/game).

More on Multiple 100-Yard Games: Eastern Kentucky's Matt Denham has rushed for 100 or more yards in seven-straight games (four of those games have been 200+ yards), becoming the first OVC player to achieve that feat since Jacksonville State's Clay Green did so in eight-straight games during the 2005 season (Sept. 24 - Nov. 19). His streak of seven-straight 100 yards games is the longest active streak in the FCS. After taking over the starting role in the fifth game of the season, Denham has averaged 193.0 yards/game over the last seven contests (EKU has gone 6-1 in those games), rushing for at least 142 yards in each of those contests.

OVC Teams in Top 25: Tennessee Tech enters the playoffs ranked No. 20 in the FCS Coaches Poll and No. 21 in the Sports Network/Fathead.com Poll. The Golden Eagles garnered its first national ranking since the 2002 preseason poll by jumping into the polls on Oct. 3. After being out of the poll for two weeks, Jacksonville State jumped back into the Sports Network poll at No. 25 this week. JSU had been ranked for 40-straight weeks until falling out of the Top 25 on Nov. 7. Earlier this season Murray State gained its first national ranking since the 2002 season when it was No. 24 in the Sports Network poll, but the Racers dropped out after a loss the following week. After not being in the Top 25 polls since Oct. 19, 2009 (when they were No. 21 in the Sports Network and No. 20 in the FCS Coaches poll), Eastern Kentucky returned to the Top 25 on Nov. 7 but that ranking lasted just one week, after a home loss to Tennessee Tech.

NCAA Stats Leaders: In the latest set of NCAA statistical leaders (through the regular season), Murray State quarterback Casey Brockman ranks sixth nationally in total offense (315.45 yards/game), fourth in completions (28.73/game), seventh in passing yards/game (297.82), seventh in total passing yards (3,276) and sixth in points responsible for (16.91/game). Eastern Kentucky running back Matt Denham is third in rushing (131.36 yards/game) while Tennessee Tech running back Dontey Gay is eighth in scoring (9.00 points/game). UT Martin's CJ Estelle is first in punt returns (17.69 yards/return). Tennessee State's Jamin Godfrey is ninth in field goals (1.45 made/game). Southeast Missouri's Blake Peiffer is second in tackles/game (13.73) while Eastern Kentucky's Myer Nolan is sixth in fumbles recovered/game (0.30/game). In the team rankings UT Martin is first in fewest sacks allowed (0.45/game), second in red zone offense (94%), seventh in punt returns (14.55 yards/return) and fifth in kickoff return yardage defense (16.35 yards/return). Murray State ranks fourth in scoring offense (37.09 points/game), fourth in total offense (460.91 yards/game), seventh in passing offense (308.64 yards/game) and ninth in third down conversion percentage (46.59%). Tennessee State ranks second in punt returns (18.00 yards/return), eighth in fumbles recovered (15) and third in fourth down conversion percentage (78.57%). Eastern Kentucky is second in fumbles recovered (17), fourth in turnover margin (+1.45/game), fifth in turnovers gained (31), seventh in kickoff return defense (16.90 yards/return) and ninth in fourth down conversion percentage (69.23%). Tennessee Tech ranks 10th in net punting (37.63 yards/punt) and sixth in punt return defense (3.22 yards/return). Jacksonville State ranks seventh in least number of interceptions thrown (5), ninth in passes intercepted (17) and 10th in tackles-for-loss allowed/game (4.36). Eastern Illinois ranks seventh in pass defense (164.45 yards/game).

TTU's Brown on Final Eddie Robinson Award Ballot: Tennessee Tech head coach Watson Brown is one of 20 finalists for the Eddie Robinson Award, awarded to the FCS National Coach of the Year by the Sports Network and sponsored by Fathead.com. Brown led Tennessee Tech to its first OVC Championship since 1975 as the Golden Eagles finished the regular season with a 7-3 overall record and 6-2 Conference record. The championship was the first for Brown in his 27 years as a Division I head coach. His team earned the automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Championship and will play in the playoffs for the first time this season. The award will be presented on Jan. 6 in Frisco, Texas.

Murray State's Brockman on Final Walter Payton Award Ballot: Murray State junior quarterback Casey Brockman is one of 20 finalists for the 2011 Walter Payton Award Watch list, released by The Sports Network and sponsored by Fathead.com. Brockman was on the preseason list and has remained on the list all season long. He completed 316-of-477 passes (66.2%) for 3,276 yards and 25 touchdowns this season while also rushing for 211 yards and four touchdowns and catching two touchdown passes. Brockman set the OVC record for completions in a season (316) and his 3,276 passing yards was the second-most in OVC single-season history. The Walter Payton Award was established in 1987, will celebrate its 25th anniversary this season and is presented annually to the most outstanding college football player on the FCS level. When the award was established, it was the only such award to be presented to an individual player in FCS football. The OVC has had one player previously win the Walter Payton Award, when Eastern Illinois quarterback Tony Romo took home the award in 2002 after passing for 2,950 yards and 33 touchdowns while leading the Panthers to a playoff berth. The Payton Award will be voted on by a panel of about 150 sports information/media relations directors, broadcasters, writers and other dignitaries. Three finalists will be announced on Dec. 1 and invited to The Sports Network/Fathead FCS Awards Presentation.

EKU's Caldwell on Final Buck Buchanan Award Ballot: Eastern Kentucky senior cornerback Jeremy Caldwell is one of 20 finalists on the 2011 Buck Buchanan Award Watch List released by The Sports Network and sponsored by Fathead.com. Caldwell was on the preseason list and has been on the watch list all season long. During the regular season he had 46 tackles (35 solo), 2.5 tackles-for-loss, two interceptions, six pass breakups, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. The Buchanan Award is in its 17th season and will be presented to the FCS' outstanding defensive player at the national awards banquet Thursday night, Jan. 6 in Frisco, Texas. The OVC has never had a player win the Buchanan Award. The Buchanan Award will be voted on by a panel of about 150 sports information/media relations directors, broadcasters, writers and other dignitaries. The Buck Buchanan award is named for Junious "Buck" Buchanan, the NAIA All-American and Pro Football Hall of Fame defensive lineman who played for Grambling State University from 1959 through 1962. As a freshman, Buchanan came to Grambling on an "if" scholarship, to receive financial help if he played well. After a season of playing both varsity basketball and football, Buchanan decided to concentrate solely on football. By the time he finished four years at Grambling, his coach, Eddie Robinson, asserted that Buchanan was "... the finest tackle I have ever seen."

TSU's German on Final Jerry Rice Award Ballot: Tennessee State redshirt freshman quarterback Michael German is on the final Jerry Rice Award ballot, which was updated and released by the Sports Network. During the season German completed 140-of-250 passes (56.0%) for 1,889 yards and 12 touchdowns as well as two rushing touchdowns. The award, which is sponsored by Fathead.com, is given to the most outstanding freshman in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) and is in its inaugural season in 2011. The award is named after legendary wide receiver Jerry Rice who played college football at then I-AA (now FCS) Mississippi Valley State before going on to a Hall of Fame career with the San Francisco 49ers. The Rice Award will be voted on by a panel of about 150 sports information/media relations directors, broadcasters, writers and other dignitaries. Rice will be on hand at the national awards banquet on Jan. 6 in Frisco, Texas, to present the award.

Tennessee State and Tennessee Tech Share 2011 Sgt. York Trophy: The Sgt. York Trophy is a challenge trophy which goes to the annual winner of the quadrangular season series between the four OVC institutions in the state of Tennessee (Austin Peay, Tennessee State and Tennessee Tech and UT Martin). In July 2007,

Final

The Nashville Sports Council and the OVC announced the creation of the trophy, which is only the second traveling trophy involving more than two schools nationwide (the other is the Commander in Chief's Trophy). It is named after Sgt. Alvin C. York, a native of Pall Mall, Tenn. and a Soldier who was one of the most honored of World War I. He received the Congressional Medal of Honor after the war and returned to his home state to dedicate his life to improving education and facilitating educational opportunities for children in the state of Tennessee. The trophy goes to the team with the best record against the other schools (in case of a tie there will be co-champions and the actual trophy will be retained by the defending champion if they are involved in the tie or if the defending champion is not involved in the tie it will go to the institution that has gone the most seasons without winning the trophy). In 2007 Tennessee State and Austin Peay finished in a tie for the trophy with identical 2-1 records; both shared the award but Tennessee State went home with the hardware due to a 1-point win in the head-to-head meeting during the season (that was the tiebreaker used only for the first year of the trophy series). Tennessee State went 3-0 in Sgt. York play in 2008 to claim its second trophy. In 2009 Tennessee Tech claimed the trophy after going undefeated in Sgt. York games and a year ago UT Martin became the third-straight OVC team to go 3-0 and win the trophy in claiming its first title. Tennessee Tech and Tennessee State each finished 2-1 in Sgt. York play this season to share the trophy. Tennessee State will take home the actual trophy by a tiebreaker, since they had gone longer without possessing the trophy (TSU last won in 2008 while TTU won in 2009). The trophy will be presented at the Pepsi Celebration of Champions hosted by the Nashville Sports Council on Feb. 22.

Attendance Numbers: In the latest FCS attendance numbers, Jacksonville State ranks 13th nationally (an average of 17,226 fans in five home games) while Tennessee State is 20th (an average of 14,279 fans in four home games). Tennessee State has played in front of the fifth-largest crowd to see a FCS vs. FCS game this season, when 43,532 witnessed the Tigers game with Jackson State at the Liberty Bowl on Sept. 10.

Spoo Finishes Career Fourth All-Time in OVC Wins: With a victory over Austin Peay on Oct. 29, Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo moved out of a tie and into sole possession of fourth place on the OVC all-time career Conference victory list. Spoo finished his career with 68 OVC wins in his tenure at EIU (1996-2011), which spanned the school's entire time in the OVC, although he was not on the sidelines for the 2006 season. Spoo trails only Roy Kidd (207 OVC wins at EIU), Boots Donnelly (102 wins at Austin Peay and Middle Tennessee) and Charles Murphy (73 wins at Middle Tennessee) on the all-time list. In all games as head coach since Eastern Illinois joined the OVC in 1996, Spoo registered 92 victories, fifth-most in league history. Spoo, who coached his last game on Nov. 12 at Southern Illinois, finished his career with a record of 144-131-1 with nine FCS Playoff appearances, four OVC Championships and three OVC Coach of the Year awards.

Scheible Becomes First OVC Player to Pass for 4,000 and Rush for 2,000 Yards in a Career: In the Oct. 15 game at Eastern Kentucky, Southeast Missouri State senior quarterback Matt Scheible became the first player in OVC history to throw for 4,000 yards and rush for 2,000 yards in a career. Scheible finished his career with 4,841 passing yards and 2,595 rushing yards in 44 games. His 7,436 yards of total offense for his career ranks him fifth in OVC history and eighth among active NCAA FCS players.

Brockman Sets NCAA Record for Passing Yards and Total Yards in a Half: Murray State junior quarterback Casey Brockman had 422 passing yards in the first half of the Racers 58-27 victory over Tennessee State on Sept. 17. The 422 yards was the most in one half in Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) history, breaking the previous record of 383 passing yards held by Marshall's Michael Payton (done in the first half against VMI on Nov. 16, 1991) and 404 total yards held by Stephen F. Austin's Todd Hammel (done in the first half against Louisiana-Monroe on Nov. 11, 1989).

Brockman Etches Name in OVC Record Book: Murray State junior quarterback Casey Brockman continues to put his name all over the OVC record book. After setting two records a season ago, Brockman set two and tied another record against Tennessee State on Sept. 17. Brockman completed 45-of-67 passes for 600 yards and seven touchdowns in the victory. The 45 completions broke the previous record of 44 held by UT Martin's Brady Wahlberg (set against Jacksonville State in the 2003 season). The 600 yards broke the previous mark of 570 that Brockman set against Missouri State during the 2010 season. The seven passing touchdowns (five of which came in the first half) tied the OVC single-game record that Brockman set last year and that he shares with Morehead State's Chris Swartz (established in the 1990 season). On Nov. 12 Brockman added another record to his list, setting the OVC single-season completions mark, passing Southeast Missouri's Andrew Goodenough's record of 279 set in 2004; Brockman finished the year with 316 completions, 37 more than the previous record. Brockman currently ranks seventh in OVC history for career completions (579), just 195 away from the record, a mark he should break during the senior season. Brockman also finished the season with 3,276 passing yards, which ranked second all-time in OVC single-season history, just 221 yards away from the record.

Murray State Sets Six OVC Single-Game Team Records: In Murray State's 58-27 victory over Tennessee State on Sept. 17, Murray State set OVC team single-game records for passing yards (630), touchdown passes (8), passes completed (48), passes attempted (73), first downs (37) and first downs by passing (30).

Murray State's Cullen Sets OVC Career Field Goals Made Record: With a 33-yard field goal with 3:22 to play in the second quarter at Tennessee Tech on Nov. 5, Murray State senior Kienan Cullen became the OVC career field goals made leader with 53. Cullen broke the record formerly held by Middle Tennessee's Kelly Potter (1981-84), which had stood for 27 years. Cullen finished his career with 58 career field goals. Cullen also finished his career with 295 career points, which ranks fifth in OVC history.

Garlington Records Ninth 100-Yard Kick Return in OVC History: Tennessee State freshman Weldon Garlington returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown on Oct. 1 at Austin Peay. It marked the ninth time in OVC history that a player had recorded a 100-yard kickoff return and first since the 2006 season. Overall Garlington's return was the third time a TSU player has accomplished that feat while a member of the OVC, as Avion Black did it twice in 1999.

Seven OVC Student-Athletes Named to CoSIDA/Capital One Academic All-District Teams: Seven Ohio Valley Conference football student-athletes have been named to the Capital One Academic All-District® football teams as selected by CoSIDA. The selections included one student-athlete from District II, five from District III and one from District VI. The selections were Austin Peay's Reese Bulmash, Josh Carroll and Iosua Siliva, Eastern Kentucky's Emory Attig, Southeast Missouri's Bradley Montgomery and Tennessee Tech's James Normand and Corey Watson. Each of the seven were first-team selections and for making the first-team each will have his name appear on the national ballot for consideration for Academic All-American. The Capital One Academic All-America football team will be announced on Thursday, December 8. To be eligible for nomination, a student-athlete must have reached sophomore academic standing and have at least a 3.30 cumulative grade point average.

Three OVC Student-Athletes Semifinalist for William V. Campbell Trophy: Three Ohio Valley Conference football student-athletes - Austin Peay's Nick Newsome, Eastern Illinois' Cory Leman and Eastern Kentucky's Emory Attig - finished as semifinalists for the 2011 William V. Campbell Trophy (formerly known as the Draddy Trophy), endowed by HealthSouth. The semifinalists were announced by the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF) and are part of the 2011 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Awards, presented by Fidelity Investments®, a leading provider of not-for-profit workplace retirement savings plans in higher education. The award honors the best and brightest from the college gridiron and is often called the "Academic Heisman." Overall there are 127 semifinalists for the award but Newsome, Leman and Attig are three of only 33 selected from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). Nominated by their schools, which are limited to one nominee each, candidates for the awards must be a senior or graduate student in their final year of eligibility, have a GPA of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale, have outstanding football ability as a first team player or significant contributor, and have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship. The class is selected each year by the NFF Awards Committee, which is comprised of a nationally recognized group of media, College Football Hall of Famers and athletics administrators.

EIU's Leman Named Finalist for ARA Sportsmanship Award: Eastern Illinois senior linebacker Cory Leman is one of 10 finalists for the ARA (Awards and Recognition Association) Sportsmanship Award, which is given to one outstanding NCAA Division I collegiate football player who best personifies the spirit of sportsmanship. Leman, a four-year starter and team captain this season, leads EIU in tackles. To qualify for the award, an athlete must be a starting player or significant contributor on his team; be in good academic standing; demonstrate great respect for competitors, school, teammates and coaches; show an ability to accept victory and defeat graciously; convey a high degree of humility and integrity; and demonstrate commitment in the classroom and to the community.

JSU's Esco Earns Fred Mitchell Award for October: Jacksonville State's James Esco was among 36 players that received the Fred Mitchell Award for excellence on the football field and in the community during the month of October. Esco, a junior from Leesburg, Ga., spent the summer as a volunteer at the Gadsden Museum of Cultural Arts Center, and also routinely speaks to juvenile diabetes patients as a diabetic himself. The recipient of the Fred Mitchell Award will be announced in mid-December based on performance on the field and in the community.

OVC Teams Versus FBS Foes: OVC schools played 10 games against teams from the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) this season, going 0-10 in those games. The closest game involved Eastern Kentucky losing 10-7 at Kansas State as the Wildcats scored the go-ahead touchdown with 1:39 to play. OVC schools are 18-147-1 all-time against FBS foes. Last year the league snapped a 50-game losing streak to FBS opponents when Jacksonville State topped Ole Miss 49-48 in double overtime to begin the season. That victory was one of seven for Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) foes over FBS teams in 2010; so far six FCS teams have topped FBS teams in 2011 (Richmond beat Duke, Sacramento State beat Oregon State, Indiana State topped Western Kentucky, North Dakota State beat Minnesota, Southern Utah beat UNLV and Sam Houston State beat New Mexico).

Brockman Named National Offensive Player of the Week For Second Time This Season (Nov. 21): Murray State junior quarterback Casey Brockman was named the National Offensive Player of the Week by the College Sporting News on Nov. 21. It marked the second time this season he has earned the honor (he also won the award on Sept. 19). In a 35-34 victory over Southeast Missouri Brockman passed, rushed and caught a touchdown pass all in the first half. He finished the day 31-of-44 for 222 yards and two passing touchdowns, rushed 11 times for 77 yards and a 10-yard score and caught a six-yard touchdown pass.

Cullen Named National Special Teams Player of the Week (Nov. 14): Murray State senior kicker Kienan Cullen was honored as the National Special Teams Player of the Week by the Sports Network/Fathead.com on Nov. 14. In the game Cullen was a perfect 5-for-5 on field goal attempts in tying the Murray State single-game record. The senior connected from 37, 33, 41, 30 and 22 yards including hitting field goals on each of MSU's first four offensive possessions of the game. Cullen also converted on five extra points to finish the game with 20 points, just two off the OVC record for points scored by kicking in a game. The senior also completed a 21-yard pass attempt on a fake punt in the fourth quarter, which would set up the Racers final touchdown of the day. He is the first OVC specialist to win National Player of the Week honors this season.

Pryor Named National Offensive Player of the Week (Nov. 7): Eastern Kentucky junior quarterback T.J. Pryor was named National All-Star Offensive Player of the Week by the College Sporting News on Nov. 7 after his efforts against Jacksonville State. Pryor led Eastern Kentucky back from a 24-point fourth quarter deficit to top No. 18 JSU 52-48 on the road and claim sole possession of first place in the OVC. The junior completed 16-of-26 passes for a season-high 282 yards and a school-record five touchdowns and rushed for an additional 20 yards. With his team trailing 48-24 with 7:25 to play in the game, Pryor led the team on drives of 64, 58 and 37 yards over the next 6:01, throwing touchdown passes to Cameron Bailey (60 yards, 6:42 left in the game), Justin Williams (18 yards, 4:14 left in the game) and Tyrone Goard (37 yards, 1:24 left in the game) to complete the improbable comeback. Pryor also had touchdown passes of 29 and 42 yards (both to Goard) in the first half.

Huzzie Named National Defensive Player of the Week (Oct. 31): Murray State sophomore linebacker Qua Huzzie was named National Co-Defensive Player of the Week by Sports Network/Fathead.com on Oct. 31. Huzzie, a transfer from the University of Kentucky, had 13 tackles (8 solo), four tackles-for-loss, two sacks, two forced fumbles and a pass break-up in Murray State's 34-33 home loss to Eastern Kentucky. Both of the sophomore's forced fumbles came in the first half, the second occurring in the ECU end zone which was recovered by teammate Jeremy Brackett for a touchdown.

Carr Named National Offensive Player of the Week (Oct. 10): UT Martin junior quarterback Derek Carr was named the National Co-Offensive Player of the Week by the Sports Network/Fathead.com as well as a National All-Star by the College Sporting News on Oct. 10 after completing 24-of-36 passing for 387 yards and a school record six touchdowns in a 61-23 victory over Austin Peay. Carr had touchdown passes of 51, 13, 16, 15, 10 and 9 yards to tie the record of six passing touchdowns set twice prior in Skyhawk history.

Jackson Named National Defensive Player of the Week (Oct. 3): Jacksonville State sophomore linebacker Clarence Jackson was named the National All-Star Defensive Player of the Week by the College Sporting News on Oct. 3 after his play in a road win over Murray State. Jackson had seven tackles, 2.0 tackles-for-loss, a sack for a loss to 12 yards, forced and recovered a fumble, three pass breakups and blocked a field goal in the win. Jackson was part of the Gamecock defense that held the Racers to just 11 rushing yards on 27 carries, the fewest yards allowed by the team to an OVC opponent since 2008.

Brockman Named National Player of the Week (Sept. 19): For the third time in his career Murray State junior quarterback Casey Brockman has been named National Player of the Week, doing so on Sept. 19 by both the Sports Network and the College Sporting News. The honors came after Brockman completed 45-of-67 passes for 600 yards and seven touchdowns and also caught a 15-yard touchdown pass in Murray State's 58-27 win over Tennessee State. The 45 completions and 600 yards were both OVC records and the seven passing touchdowns tied the OVC mark (already held by Brockman). The 600 passing yards was the fifth-most in Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) history and was just 24 yards short of the all-time record (held by Weber State's Jamie Martin). Brockman threw for 422 yards in the first half, which set a new

OVC OVER THE LAST 9 YEARS

Since the league expanded to include Jacksonville State in 2003, two teams are at the top of the winning list in OVC games in the last nine years. Eastern Kentucky has won 55 conference games, the most in the league over that time period. Below is a list of team's records in Conference games dating back to the beginning of the 2003 season (Austin Peay re-joined the OVC in 2007 after a 10-year period of being away from the league).

1. Eastern Kentucky	55-16
2. Jacksonville State	54-17
3. Eastern Illinois	41-31
4. UT Martin	35-36
5. Tennessee State	29-37

7. Murray State	26-45
8. Southeast Missouri	25-46
9. Austin Peay	13-27

SCORING STREAKS

Jacksonville State currently has a streak of scoring in 123 consecutive games, the longest streak of any OVC school. Eastern Illinois (100) is second followed by Murray State (75) and Austin Peay (73). Below is a list of each OVC school and their current scoring streak; that list is followed by the longest FCS scoring streaks in NCAA history.

FCS single-game record, breaking the old record of 383 held by Marshall's Michael Payton. Brockman was named National Player of the Week on Oct. 10 and Nov. 14 of the 2010 season.

Vance Earns National All-Star Honor from College Sporting News (Sept. 12): Eastern Kentucky sophomore linebacker Ichiro Vance was named a National All-Star (National Defensive Player of the Week) by College Sporting News on Sept. 12 following his performance against Missouri State. Vance had a career-high 19 tackles, two tackles-for-loss and forced a fumble in the win. The 19 stops were the most tackles for an ECU player in a game since Bob Head had 21 against Eastern Illinois during the 1996 season. In the second quarter the sophomore forced a fumble at mid-field that led to the Colonels second touchdown of the game just four plays later (putting the team up 14-0).

EKU's McClellan Earns National All-Star Honor from College Sporting News (Sept. 5): Eastern Kentucky senior Patrick McClellan earned National Defensive All-Star (National Player of the Week) honors from the College Sporting News on Sept. 5 for his performance in ECU's near upset of FBS foe Kansas State. He was part of a defensive unit that forced five Kansas State turnovers and held them to their lowest point total in more than a year as ECU lost 10-7 in the final two minutes of the game. The senior forced two fumbles and recovered one in the third quarter that he returned 18 yards to the 1-yard line which set up ECU's lone touchdown of the night (and the first score of the game by either team). McClellan also had seven tackles (six solo) and 1.5 tackles-for-loss.

Vucic Earns College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 12: Southeast Missouri sophomore punter Joe Vucic earned national honors from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) for his performance in Week 12 of the season. Vucic was named National Punter of the Week after averaging 48.2 yards on four punts, including a long of 58 yards and one punt inside the 20-yard line. In addition to Vucic, seven other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferments in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

Cullen Earns College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 11: Murray State senior kicker Kienan Cullen earned national honors from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) for his performance in Week 11 of the season. Cullen was named National Place Kicker of the Week after converting on 5-of-5 field goal attempts and making five extra points in Murray State's 56-24 victory over Austin Peay. In addition to Cullen, eight other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferments in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

Howell Earns College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 10: Austin Peay sophomore Tee Howell earned national honors from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) for his performance in Week 10 of the season. Howell was named National Punt Returner of the Week after returning a punt 65 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter of its 40-0 victory over Central State. In addition to Howell, 10 other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferments in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

Harris Earns College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 9: Murray State senior running back Mike Harris earned national honors from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) for his performance in Week 9 of the season. Harris was named National Running Back Performer of the Week after rushing for 206 yards on 21 carries (9.8 yards/carry). Harris also had six catches for 66 yards. In addition to Harris, two other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferments in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

Hughes, Chambers and Moseley Earn College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 8: Three OVC players earned national honors from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) for performances in Week 8 of the season. UT Martin junior nose guard Montori Hughes was named National Defensive Performer of the Week and National Defensive Lineman of the Week after recording 10 tackles, a sack, 5.5 tackles-for-loss and forcing and recovering a fumble in a 24-23 victory over Eastern Illinois. Jacksonville State freshman Gabriel Chambers was named National Kickoff Returner of the Week after registering a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Kentucky. Tennessee State punter Matt Moseley averaged 50.8 yards/punt on four punts at Eastern Kentucky, including a school record 73-yard punt and two punts downed inside the ECU 20-yard line. In addition to those three, four other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferments in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

Carr, Estelle, Jones and Garlington Earn College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 6: Four OVC players earned national honors from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) for performances in Week 6 of the season. UT Martin quarterback Derek Carr was named National Performer of the Week and National Quarterback of the Week after throwing for 387 yards and tying the school record with six touchdowns in a win over Austin Peay. UT Martin's Kenny Jones was named National Tight End of the Week after catching seven of Carr's passes for 127 yards and two scores in the win over Austin Peay. A third Skyhawk - CJ Estelle - returned a third quarter punt 76 yards for a touchdown and was named National Punt Returner of the Week. He shared the National Punt Returner of the Week award with Tennessee State's Weldon Garlington who returned a punt 91 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter (one week after returning a kickoff 100 yards for a score). In addition to those four, three other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferments in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

Scheible, Barfield, Crawford and Garlington Earn College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 5: Four OVC players earned national honors from the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) for performances in Week 5 of the season. Southeast Missouri State quarterback Matt Scheible was named National Performer of the Week and National Quarterback of the Week after accounting for 291 yards of total offense and all five of his team's touchdowns in a win over Eastern Illinois. Three other players - UT Martin's Kevin Barfield, Eastern Illinois' Tavares Crawford and Tennessee State's Weldon Garlington shared National Kickoff Returner of the Week honors. Barfield returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown against Tennessee Tech (and finished the game with 171 return yards), Crawford returned a kickoff 83 yards for a touchdown against Southeast Missouri (and finished the game with 190 return yards)

while Garlington returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown against Austin Peay (and finished the game with 133 return yards). In addition to those four, four other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferrals in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

Brady Earns Honors From College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 4: Murray State kick returner Duane Brady was named the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) National Kickoff Returner of the Week for Week 4 after his performance against UT Martin. Brady returned five kickoffs for 149 yards including one that saw him break three tackles to return for a 98-yard touchdown (which was one yard short of the school record). In addition to Brady five other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferrals in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

Brockman Earns Honors From College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 3: Murray State junior quarterback Casey Brockman named the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) National Quarterback of the Week for Week 3 after his performance against Tennessee State. Brockman completed 45-of-67 passes for 600 yards and seven touchdowns and also caught a 15-yard touchdown pass in a 58-27 win over Tennessee State. In addition to Brockman five other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferrals in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

Caldwell Earns Honors From College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 2: Eastern Kentucky kick returner Jeremy Caldwell was named the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) National Kick Returner of the Week for Week 2 after his performance against Missouri State. Caldwell returned a kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown to give ECU an 11-point lead. In addition to Caldwell five other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferrals in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

Sandlin Earns Honors From College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) For Week No. 1: UT Martin kicker Cody Sandlin was named the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) National Placekicker of the Week for Week 1 after his performance against nationally-ranked Jacksonville State. Sandlin connected on field goals of 43, 25 and 45 yards in the Skyhawks 24-23 at No. 9 JSU. Sandlin was also a perfect 2-for-2 on extra points and accounted for 11 total points. In addition to Sandlin seven other OVC players earned honorable mention honors for the week. The goal of CFPA is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferrals in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams.

A Look at the Coaches: All nine head coaches from last season return to their schools in the Ohio Valley Conference this season. The Dean of OVC Coaches is Eastern Illinois coach Bob Spoo who is in his 25th and final season with the Panthers in 2011. Jacksonville State's Jack Crowe is the second longest tenured coach in the league (in his 12th season at JSU) while Murray State's Chris Hatcher and Tennessee State's Rod Reed have been at their schools the fewest years, as each are in their second seasons.

Preseason Forecasts: For the third time in the past four seasons Jacksonville State University was picked the favorite in the Ohio Valley Conference football race. The Gamecocks picked up 13 of the 18 first-place votes in the 2011 poll which is a vote of league head coaches and sports information directors. Jacksonville State was one of three schools to receive at least one first-place vote in the poll and the Gamecocks received 123 total points, which was 17 points ahead of second-place Murray State. The Racers received four first-place votes and were tabbed second in the poll (106). Eastern Kentucky (93) was picked third and defending champion Southeast Missouri (81) was picked fourth and received the remaining first-place vote. The poll is rounded out by Tennessee Tech (73), UT Martin (64), Eastern Illinois (57), Tennessee State (33) and Austin Peay (18). Is being picked first in the preseason poll necessarily a good thing? Including this year, in the past 34 years of preseason polls (all that were available), the preseason predicted champion has only gone on to win the OVC Championship 13 times (38.2%). After eight years of not picking the champion right (2003-2010), this season the preseason poll and actual champion (be it by a three-way tie) were the same.

Year	Predicted Champion	Actual Champion
2002	Eastern Illinois	Eastern Illinois
2003	Southeast Missouri	Jacksonville State
2004	Eastern Kentucky	Jacksonville State
2005	Jacksonville State	Eastern Illinois
2006	Eastern Kentucky	Eastern Illinois/UT Martin
2007	Eastern Illinois	Eastern Kentucky
2008	Jacksonville State	Eastern Kentucky
2009	Eastern Kentucky	Eastern Illinois
2010	Jacksonville State	Southeast Missouri
2011	Jacksonville State	Jacksonville State/Eastern Kentucky/Tennessee Tech

Murray State's Brockman, Jacksonville State's Lewis and Tennessee State's Council Headline Preseason All-OVC Team: Murray State junior quarterback Casey Brockman was named 2011 Ohio Valley Conference Preseason Offensive Player of the Year while Jacksonville State senior defensive lineman Monte Lewis and Tennessee State senior linebacker Rico Council were tabbed OVC Preseason Co-Defensive Players of the Year in a vote on by the league's head football coaches and sports information directors. Eastern Kentucky led the way with seven selections on the preseason team while Jacksonville State and Murray State had five players apiece on the squad. Each of the league's nine teams had at least one player on the preseason squad. Returning players who were first-team All-OVC selections last season (nine in total) were automatic selections to the preseason team this year. The squad also included 10 players who were second-team selections in 2010. Of the 31 total selections, 21 were seniors, seven were juniors and three were sophomores.

NFL Connections: Currently there are 15 former Ohio Valley Conference players are on NFL rosters (10 active players, 4 practice squad members, one IR). Those players include former Eastern Illinois standout Tony Romo, a three-time Pro Bowl pick, Cortland Finnegan (Samford), who has been a Pro Bowl defensive back selection with the Tennessee Titans and Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, who was a starter for the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII, has been a Pro Bowl selection and is now in his first season with the Philadelphia Eagles. Seven of the nine current OVC football schools have at least one player in the NFL with Eastern Kentucky leading the way with three active players. Several NFL coaches also have connections to OVC schools, including two who went to Eastern Illinois, the "Cradle of NFL Head Coaches." Those coaches include Super Bowl champion Sean Payton (New Orleans) and Mike Shanahan (Washington). UT Martin graduate and former assistant coach Jerry Reese made waves in 2007 when he led the New York Giants to Super Bowl XLII in his first season as General Manager with the franchise.

I-AA No More: Although some people may accidentally still refer to it as I-AA football, the term that represents the level of Division I football in which the Ohio Valley Conference competes has been retired. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game, the term Football Championship Subdivision (or FCS) is to be used. FCS is the only Division I football rank to host a NCAA-sponsored national championship (one of 89 championships the NCAA sponsors). The division formerly known as I-A was changed to Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and those teams compete for the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) national championship. Teams who play at the FCS level can offer a maximum of 63 scholarships (FBS teams can offer 85) and compete in a 20-team playoff at the end of the season to determine the national champion.

OVCsports.TV: For the sixth consecutive year, fans can watch every Conference matchup and all non-conference home contests at OVCsports.TV. The venture with NeuLion (formerly JumpTV Sports) allows fans to access live and on-demand streaming video and audio of all conference matchups on their home computer. The premium Web site was launched in July 2006 and streamed over a thousand events in its first five seasons, including all Conference matchups in football and men's and women's basketball as well as select baseball, soccer, softball and volleyball games and OVC Championship events. Packages are available on a yearly, seasonally, monthly or per-event basis.

SGT. YORK TROPHY

The 2011 season marks the fifth of competition for the Sergeant York Trophy, an award created by the Nashville Sports Council and the Ohio Valley Conference. The trophy is contested between the four OVC schools in the state of Tennessee - Austin Peay, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech and UT Martin - and go to the team with the best combined record versus those schools in a given year.

In the event of a tie, the award will be shared; however, the previous winner will retain the trophy if they are part of the tie. If the tie is between two other institutions, the trophy will go to the institution that has gone the most seasons without winning the trophy.

The award is only the second traveling trophy that involves more than two teams in college sports; the other is the Commander in Chief's Trophy which has been contested between Air Force, Army and Navy annually since 1972. The award is named in honor of Alvin C. York, the most noted Soldier of World War I. Upon his return to the United States in 1919, he was bestowed the Congressional Medal of Honor. Following the war York returned his home in Pall Mall, Tenn. where he dedicated his life to improving education and facilitating educational opportunities for children in the state of Tennessee.

The award will be presented annually at the Nashville Sports Council's Celebration of Champions (held in March of each year).

Tennessee State and Austin Peay shared the inaugural award after compiling 2-1 records in round robin play in 2007. Tennessee State took home the trophy, however, by winning the individual matchup with Austin Peay by one point in overtime. Tennessee State claimed the 2008 trophy after going 3-0 in Sgt. York games while Tennessee Tech won all three of its Sgt. York games to claim the 2009 trophy. UT Martin made it three straight years with the winning team going 3-0, completing the perfect season in 2010 to win its first title.

This season Tennessee State and Tennessee Tech finished in a tie for the Trophy (2-1) and were declared co-champions. Tennessee State, however, will take home the actual trophy since they had gone the most seasons without winning it (2008, compared to 2009 for TTU).

GAME NOTES: Saturday's first round playoff matchup features two squads who have combined for 30 NCAA Division I Playoff appearances and three National Championships. Eastern Kentucky is making its 20th FCS playoff appearance (ranked second all-time behind Montana's 21 appearances) and first since 2008 while James Madison is making its 10th appearance (ranked 13th all-time) and first appearance since 2008. EKU won the 1979 and 1982 National Championship while JMU was the champion in 2004. The winner will move on to face No. 2 nationally seed North Dakota State in the second round.

SCOUTING JAMES MADISON: James Madison, ranked No. 17 in the Sports Network Top 25 poll (the team has been as high as No. 8 nationally this season), earned an at-large bid to the playoffs by finishing 7-4 overall and 5-3 in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA). The Dukes won its final two games of the season, topping Rhode Island at home and winning at Massachusetts. The team's three losses to FCS foes this season all came to CAA opponents who also made the 20-team playoff field (Maine, New Hampshire and Old Dominion). James Madison is tough defensively, ranking 12th nationally in total defense (305.0 yards/game) and 15th in scoring defense (19.27 points/game). The Dukes have had success rushing the ball this season, ranking 10th nationally in rushing offense (233.18 yards/game). Sophomore running back Dae'Quan Scott ranks 18th nationally in rushing (106.0 yards/game) and has scored 12 touchdowns. Sophomore Jordan Anderson is second on the team with 763 yards and seven touchdowns on the ground. JMU head coach Mickey Matthews has been named National Coach of the Year three times, including most recently by the Sports Network in 2008.

SCOUTING EASTERN KENTUCKY: Eastern Kentucky finished the regular season by winning six of its final seven games to earn an at-large bid to the playoffs. That winning streak came after a bye week in week five following a 1-3 overall start. The key to the Colonels run has been rushing, as the team ranks 22nd nationally in that category (203.0 yards/game). The emergence of Matt Denham following the team's bye week has been important, as he is averaging 193.0 yards/game over his last seven contests including rushing for 142 or more yards in each of those games (no other player at the FCS level has an active streak of seven or more 100-plus yard games). In 11 total games this year Denham is third nationally in rushing (131.36 yards/game). He rushed for 188 yards and the game-winning touchdown with 1:08 to play in last Saturday's victory over UT Martin. Receiver Tyrone Goard caught a touchdown in the victory, the fifth-straight game in which he has scored; he now has 11 touchdowns on the season, the most ever by a Colonel receiver. In that UT Martin game the Colonels forced three Skyhawk turnovers in the fourth quarter, including two fumble recoveries in the final 1:24 of the game. Junior transfer Kevin Hamlin had two interceptions in the game, including one that ended a UTM 17-play drive at the EKU 7-yard line. Hamlin currently ranks 23rd nationally in interceptions (0.36/game). Overall the Eastern Kentucky defense has forced at least three turnovers in six-straight games. With the win over UTM, the Colonels finished in a three-way tie for the OVC Championship, its record 21st championship (most of any FCS team all-time) and first since the 2008 season.

Tennessee Tech Last Week: ..... W, 49-7 vs. Austin Peay

GAME NOTES: Saturday's matchup will be a playoff first for both teams. Tennessee Tech captured its first OVC Championship since 1975 and is making its first NCAA Division I Playoff appearance since the playoffs began in 1978. Central Arkansas completed its reclassification to Division I in 2009 and was first eligible for postseason play last year. The Bears football team is the first UCA athletic program to qualify for any Division I Championship. The teams are two of the seven first-time playoff participants in this year's field. The winner of the game will move on to face No. 4 national seed Montana in the second round.

SCOUTING CENTRAL ARKANSAS: Central Arkansas, ranked No. 15 in the Sports Network poll, enters the playoffs having won seven games in a row, including topping Texas State 23-22 two weeks ago (the team was idle last week). Of the Bears three losses this season, two came against FBS opponents (Louisiana Tech in overtime and Arkansas State), and to Southland champion Sam Houston State who is currently undefeated and ranked No. 1 in the country. Those three teams combined to go 27-6 overall and 19-1 in their respective conferences (as each won their conference championship). Since moving to Division I in 2006, the Bears have had five winning seasons in six years, including a 10-2 season in 2008. This season UCA ranks 16th nationally in passing offense (278.73 yards/game), 20th in scoring offense (33.73 points/game) and 28th in total offense (405.82 yards/game). Senior quarterback Nathan Dick (who started his career at Arkansas) has completed 209-of-333 passes for 2,691 yards and 28 touchdowns against only eight interceptions in 10 games this season; he ranks eighth nationally in pass efficiency (153.59). Junior running back Jackie Hinton leads the team with 579 rushing yards and four touchdowns. Junior linebacker Seth Allison has 94 tackles, including 14.5 tackles-for-loss, on the season. UCA played two OVC teams in 2010, beating both Eastern Illinois and Murray State.

SCOUTING TENNESSEE TECH: After ending its 36-year OVC Championship drought, Tennessee Tech, ranked 20th in the FCS Coaches poll, will be looking to make more history and win its first playoff game in its first-ever appearance. The Golden Eagles finished the regular season with seven victories, the most for the program since winning seven games in 2001. Despite only leading Austin Peay 14-7 at halftime on Saturday, Tennessee Tech added an early third quarter touchdown and then scored three touchdowns in less than four minutes later in the quarter to put the game out of reach. On a windy day, the Golden Eagles racked up a season-high 346 yards on the ground while the TTU defense limited APSU to just 255 yards of total offense. Senior running back Dontey Gay rushed for 192 yards and a touchdown (his school record 15th of the season) in the game to earn OVC Offensive Player of the Week honors. Gay raised his season rushing total to 1,009 yards, becoming just the seventh player in TTU history to reach that milestone. Gay currently ranks eighth nationally in scoring (9.0 points/game). Senior wide receiver Tim Benford, the OVC Offensive Player of the Year, enters the playoffs ranked third in OVC history in both career receptions (210) and receiving yards (3,007). He needs to catch six passes and net 88 yards to move to second all-time in both categories. Now in his fifth season as Tennessee Tech head coach and 27th season overall as a collegiate head coach (at six different schools), Cookeville native Watson Brown earned his first-ever conference championship this season and was named OVC Roy Kidd Coach of the Year for his efforts.
