Others Nominated: T.J. Pryor, Eastern Kentucky; Calvin McNair, Tennessee State; Antonio Robinson, Tennessee Tech.

CO-DEFENSIVE

Jeremy Caldwell, DB • So., 5-10, 172 • Chattanooga, Tenn. • Eastern Kentucky

Caldwell intercepted two passes, including returning one for what proved to be the game-winning score, and forced a fumble to end the game as No. 18 Eastern Kentucky went on the road and topped No. 23 Eastern Illinois to remain perfect in the OVC (3-0). Caldwell picked off a Jake Christensen pass in the third quarter which halted a Panther drive and led to a Colonel score as EKU pulled to within 24-23 with 5:20 to play in the quarter. His most important interception of the day came with 11 minutes to play when he returned the pick 10 yards for a touchdown to notch the game-winning score. With 12 seconds left to go in the game and Eastern Illinois driving for a potential game-winning score, Caldwell forced Christensen to fumble; EKU recovered and took a knee to end the game. He also added seven tackles, a pass break-up and 78 kickoff return yards. Caldwell ranks first nationally in interceptions (1.00/game) and second nationally in passes defended (2.00/game).

CO-DEFENSIVE

T.J. Heath, DB • Jr., 6-1, 170 • Alexandria, Ala. • Jacksonville State

Heath had three interceptions, two of which he returned for touchdowns, in Jacksonville State's 52-7 victory over UT Martin. Heath set the tone early as he picked off UTM quarterback Cade Thompson on the fourth play from scrimmage in the game and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown. Eight plays later Heath picked off another pass and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown, putting Jax State up 14-0 without its offense even running a play. His third pick of the game came early in the fourth quarter. Heath added three tackles and a pass break-up. Heath is the first OVC player with three interceptions in a game this season and his two returned for touchdowns set a Jacksonville State Division I record.

NOTES FROM AROUND THE GRIDIRON

Two of the Longest Tenured Division I Coaches to Square Off on Saturday: When Eastern Illinois travels to Penn State for Saturday's matchup, two of the top five longest tenured coaches with the same school at the Division I level will match up with each other. Penn State coach Joe Paterno is the longest tenured active coach in Division I (at the same school), having been at Penn State since 1966. Eastern Illinois coach Bob Spoo is the fifth longest tenured coach, having been at Eastern Illinois since 1987. The two coaches have combined for 523 victories (387 by Paterno and 136 by Spoo).

Heath Named National Defensive Player of the Week (Oct. 5): Jacksonville State defensive back T.J. Heath was named National Defensive Player of the Week by the Sports Network on Oct. 5 after a three interception performance against UT Martin. On the fourth play from scrimmage, the junior intercepted UT Martin quarterback Cade Thompson and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown. Just eight plays later Heath did the same thing, this time taking it 55 yards for a touchdown making the score 14-0 before Jacksonville State even ran an offensive play from scrimmage. He added his third interception in the fourth quarter and finished the game with three tackles and a pass break-up. The three interceptions was the most by a JSU player in the school's Division I era.

Caldwell Named National All-Star By College Sporting News (Oct. 5): Eastern Kentucky defensive back Jeremy Caldwell was named a National All-Star (Defensive Player of the Week) after his performance in the Colonels road win over nationally-ranked Eastern Illinois. The sophomore intercepted two passes, including returning one for a touchdown in what proved to be the game-winning score, and forced a fumble at the end of the game to preserve the 36-31 victory. Caldwell picked off a pass in the third quarter, an interception that led to an EKU score as the Colonels trimmed the EIU lead to 24-23. With 11 minutes to play in the game, he picked off another pass and returned it 10 yards for a touchdown. With 12 seconds left in the game he forced Panther quarterback Jake Christensen to fumble as EKU recovered and took a knee to end the game. Caldwell added seven tackles, a pass break-up and 78 kickoff return yards in the game.

Eastern Kentucky Wins Battle of Ranked Conference Foes: In the first matchup of OVC ranked foes since Oct. 28, 2006 (when No. 12 UT Martin topped No. 14 Eastern Illinois 15-9), No. 18 Eastern Kentucky went to Charleston, Ill. and topped No. 23 Eastern Illinois 36-31 on Oct. 3. The very competitive game saw EKU lead 16-7 early and EIU come back to take a 24-16 in the third quarter. But the Colonels would eventually pull ahead and hold off a late Panther rally to secure the victory.

Eastern Kentucky Continues OVC Run: With its 36-31 victory over Eastern Illinois on Oct. 3, Eastern Kentucky improved to 3-0 in OVC play this season. The Colonels, who have won the last two OVC Championships, have won 22 of its last 23 OVC games dating back to the end of the 2006 season. The only blemish on that record over that stretch is a 34-20 road loss to then No. 25 Tennessee State in the squad's OVC opener a season ago (Sept. 20, 2008). Since then EKU has rolled off 10 straight Conference victories.

Perrilloux Becomes Mr. Efficient: Jacksonville State quarterback Ryan Perrilloux has a 199.22 passing efficiency this season, which is tops at the Division I level (both FCS and FBS). In his four starts he has completed 53-of-187 passes for 12 touchdowns and no interceptions. He also has the highest touchdown percentage in the nation (13.79) as well as the highest per average completion number (11.50 yards per attempt). His 277.63 passing efficiency rating against UT Martin on Oct. 3 was the highest in the OVC since Jax State joined the league in 2003.

Three OVC Student-Athletes Named Semifinalists for Campbell Trophy: Three Ohio Valley Conference student-athletes have been named semifinalists for the 20th Anniversary William V. Campbell Trophy, the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF) announced Thursday. The three student-athletes are Daniel Becker (Austin Peay), Derek Hardman (Eastern Kentucky) and Josh Cain (Jacksonville State). The three are among 154 semifinals for the Campbell Trophy (formerly known as the Draddy Trophy), endowed by HealthSouth, and are three of just 37 candidates from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). Nominated by their respective schools, which are limited to one nominee each, semifinalists must be a senior or graduate student in his final year of eligibility, have a GPA of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale, have outstanding football ability as a first-team player or significant contributor, and have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship. Renamed this fall in honor of Bill Campbell, the chairman of Intuit, former player and head coach at Columbia University and the 2004 recipient of the NFF's Gold Medal, the award comes with a 25-pound bronze trophy and a $25,000 post-graduate scholarship. The NFF Awards Committee will select and announce up to 15 finalists, Oct. 29. Each finalist will be recognized as part of the 2009 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class, receiving an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship. The Campbell Trophy winner, who will have his scholarship increased to $25,000, will be announced live at the NFF's Annual Awards Dinner, Dec. 8 at the prestigious Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. A total distribution of $277,000 in scholarships will be awarded that evening.

OVC Teams Against FBS Opponents: OVC schools are 0-7 this season against Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS, formerly I-A) opponents, although two of those games went down to the wire with a chance for the OVC team to pull off a win. In week No. 1 Eastern Kentucky had the ball on Indiana's 5-yard line before a fumble ended what looked like to be a for-sure scoring drive. IU held on for a 19-13 victory. During week No. 2 Jacksonville State led Florida State 9-7 for most of the contest before the Seminoles came up with two scores in the final 35 seconds to win 19-9. All-time the OVC is 17-128-1 against FBS opponents. The last time an OVC team knocked off a FBS school was during the 2004 season when Eastern Illinois beat Eastern Michigan 31-28. The next game against an FBS school for an OVC team is this week (Oct. 10) when Eastern Illinois plays at Penn State.

NCAA Stat Leaders: In the latest set of NCAA statistical rankings Jacksonville State quarterback Ryan Perrilloux continues to rank first nationally in passing efficiency (199.22), a mark that leads all of Division I (FCS and FBS). He also ranks second in points responsible for (22.5/game) and 14th in total offense (271.5 yards/game). Austin Peay running back/return specialist Terrence Holt is once again first nationally in all-purpose yards (213.00/game) after a big game at Tennessee Tech. Murray State's Derrick Townsel ranks fourth in punt returns (22.29 yards/return) while teammate Austen Lane is eighth in sacks (1.00/game). Eastern Kentucky defensive back Jeremy Caldwell is first nationally in interceptions (1.00/game) and second nationally in passes defended (2.00/game), while Tennessee Tech's Richmond Tooley is also tied with Caldwell in passes defended. Southeast Missouri punter Doug Spada is ninth in punting (43.17 yards/punt), while Jacksonville State's Monte Lewis is second in forced fumbles (0.60/game) and teammate Jawaan Booker is fourth in fumble recoveries (0.60/game) with Southeast Missouri's Maurice Lyles. In national team rankings Jacksonville State is sixth in scoring offense (36.6 points/game), third in turnover margin (+2.00/game), first in fumbles recovered (12), third in interceptions thrown (1), sixth in turnovers gained (15), fourth in kickoff returns (26.61 yards/return) and second in passing efficiency (169.80). Eastern Kentucky is third in rushing defense (52.25 yards/game), seventh in passes intercepted (7), sixth in sacks (3.50/game) and sixth in tackles for loss (8.50/game). Eastern Illinois is ninth in fumbles recovered (8) and fourth in third down conversion percentage (52.38%). Murray State ranks second in punt returns (24.00 yards/return) and fifth in kickoff returns (26.48 yards/game). Tennessee Tech ranks first in fumbles lost (0) and first in fourth down conversion percentage (100%).

Spoos Now Fifth All-Time in OVC Wins: With a victory over Austin Peay on Sept. 26, Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo moved into fifth place on the OVC all-time career Conference victory list. Spoo has won 61 OVC games in his tenure at EIU, which has spanned the school's entire time in the OVC (1996 through the present, although he was not on the sidelines for the 2006 season). Spoo trails only Roy Kidd (207 OVC wins at EKU), Boots Donnelly (102 wins at Austin Peay and Middle Tennessee), Charles Murphy (73 wins at Middle Tennessee) and Jimmy Feix (67 wins at Western Kentucky) on the all-time list.

Large Crowds: Several OVC teams have played in front of large crowds this season. That includes Jacksonville State who played in front of 71,420 fans at Florida State on Sept. 12. That marked the fifth largest crowd to ever see an OVC team play. On the same day Murray State played in front of 55,510 at N.C. State and on Sept. 26 Tennessee State played Florida A&M in front of 51,950 at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. Those games marked the 40th time an OVC team had played in front of more than 50,000 fans. A large crowd is expected when Eastern Illinois plays at Penn State on Oct. 10, when Tennessee Tech plays at Georgia on Nov. 7 and Eastern Kentucky plays at Kentucky on the same day.

2009 Marks Third Season For Sgt. York Trophy; Second Matchup This Weekend: The 2009 season marks the third season for the Sgt. York Trophy, a challenge trophy which will go to the annual winner of the quadrangular season series between the four OVC institutions in the state of Tennessee (Austin Peay, Tennessee State and Tennessee Tech and UT Martin). In July 2007, the Nashville Sports Council and the Ohio Valley Conference announced the creation of the trophy, which is only the second traveling trophy involving more than two schools nationwide (the other is the Commander in Chief's Trophy). It is named after Sgt. Alvin C. York, a native of Pall Mall, Tenn. and a Soldier who was one of the most honored of World War I. He received the Congressional Medal of Honor after the war and returned to his home state to dedicate his life to improving education and facilitating educational opportunities for children in the state of Tennessee. The trophy goes to the team with the best record against the other schools, and in case of a tie there will be co-champions and the actual trophy will go to the institution that has gone the most seasons without winning the trophy. In 2007, Tennessee State and Austin Peay finished in a tie for the trophy with identical 2-1 records; both shared the award but Tennessee State went home with the hardware due to a 1-point win in the head-to-head meeting during the season. Tennessee State went 3-0 in Sgt. York play in 2009 to claim its second trophy; the Tigers are 5-1 all-time in Sgt. York games. The first Sgt. York contest of 2009 was on Oct. 3 when Tennessee Tech topped Austin Peay 31-23. This week Tennessee Tech will play at UT Martin. The final will be the last weekend of the season (Nov. 21) when Austin Peay plays at UT Martin.

JSU's Perrilloux Named National Weekly All-Star By College Sporting News (Sept. 28): Jacksonville State's Ryan Perrilloux was named a National Weekly All-Star by the College Sporting News on Sept. 28. In the return to his native Louisiana, Perrilloux accounted for five touchdowns (four passing, one rushing) for the second straight week as Jacksonville State pounded Nicholls State 60-10. He finished the game 14-of-22 for 250 yards and four touchdowns (of 17, 44, 14 and 6 yards) and added 58 rushing yards and a score (38 yard rush) to account for 308 total yards of offense in just three quarters of play (he sat out the fourth quarter). He finished with a passing efficiency of 219.09, the third best total in school history. He became the first Gamecock to post

Murray State's Harris Named National Specialist of the Week (Sept. 7): Murray State junior Marcus Harris was honored by The Sports Network on Sept. 7 as the FCS National Special Teams Player of the Week. Harris was honored after becoming the first Racer to return a kickoff and a punt for a touchdown in the same game. He accomplished the task by taking a kickoff back 86 yards with just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter to put the Racers ahead 52-10. After hauling in a 13-yard touchdown reception on the next Racers' possession, Harris fielded a punt on his own 25 and raced untouched up the middle for the 75-yard touchdown. Harris finished the game with 83 yards on two punt returns and 125 yards on two kickoff returns. He added 17 yard receiving and finished the game with 225 all-purpose yards.

The Safety Dance: No we are not talking about the Men Without Hats song, but the Murray State defense. In the Racers season-opening victory over Kentucky Wesleyan, the defense recorded two safeties which tied the OVC (and Murray State) single-game record done three other times (most recently in 1996 by Middle Tennessee). To put it into perspective on how rare that is, only two OVC schools have had two safeties during an entire season over the last four years.

From Navy Pilot to Assistant Coach: Austin Peay's new offensive graduate assistant coach Craig Candeto has spent the last six years in the Navy as a fighter pilot, a member of Strike Fighter Squadron 106 "Gladiators" stationed in Virginia Beach, Va., flying T-34, T-45 and F/A-18 jets. The former lieutenant retired from the Navy earlier this year and now is going from piloting a $57 million Super Hornet aircraft to taking flight as the Governors quarterbacks coach. But before his military career, Candeto was a sports star in his own right who shares an NCAA record. The Deland, Fla., native was a two-sport prep star, earning the 1999 6A Florida State High School Player of the Year award. He earned an appointment to the Naval Academy, where he enjoyed a storied athletic career. It was at quarterback where Candeto achieved his greatest stardom. In 2002, he rushed for six touchdowns in Navy's 58-12 win against Army—those six rushing TDs matched the NCAA record for rushing TDs by a quarterback. In total, he accounted for seven TDs in the game. Candeto is one of just 26 FBS quarterback to have rushed and pass for 1,000 or more yards, respectively. He earned the 2002 and 2003 Rubino Memorial Silver Helmet award as the Outstanding Football Player at the Naval Academy. As co-captain in 2003, he quarterbacked a Navy football team that won three games in the previous three seasons and guided it to an 8-5 record and its first bowl appearance in seven years. That same Navy team led the nation in rushing. Candeto also is a member of the Navy Athletic Hall of Fame.

Eastern Kentucky Tabbed Preseason Favorite: In what was one of the most balanced votes in the history of preseason OVC balloting (five different teams got at least one first-place votes), defending champion Eastern Kentucky was tabbed the preseason favorite by the league head coaches and sports information directors. ECU received 10 of the 18 first-place votes followed by UT Martin (4 first-place votes), Eastern Illinois (2), Tennessee State (1) and Murray State (1). It marks the 17th time that the Colonels have been picked to win the OVC Championship in the preseason poll. But is being picked first in the preseason poll necessarily a good thing? In the past 30 years of preseason polls (all that were available), the preseason predicted champion has only gone on to win the OVC Championship 12 times (40.0%). In each of the last six years, the predicted champion has failed to claim the regular season title. The last time the preseason predicted champion went on to win the title was in 2002 when Eastern Illinois accomplished the feat (EIU also did that same thing in 2001).

2003	Southeast Missouri	Jacksonville State
2004	Eastern Kentucky	Jacksonville State

Thompson and Lane Headline Preseason All-OVC Team: UT Martin senior quarterback Cade Thompson, the 2008 OVC Offensive Player, was tabbed the Preseason Player of the Year this season after throwing for 2,680 yards and 24 touchdowns as a junior. Murray State senior defensive end Austen Lane was picked as the Preseason Defensive Player of the Year after ranking fourth nationally in both sacks (1.0) and tackles-for-loss (1.83) per game last season. Those two players led the selections of this season's Preseason All-OVC Teams. Murray State had six selections to the team, the most of any OVC school. The Racers were followed by UT Martin who had five selections and Jacksonville State who had four picks. Returning players who were first-team All-OVC picks last season (8 in total) were automatic selections to the preseason team this year. The squad also included nine players who were second-team selections in 2008. Of the 26 total selections, 21 were seniors (including the entire offensive unit), four were juniors and there was one sophomore pick. All nine teams had at least one player appear on the squad.

Head Coaches All Return: For the first time since the 2004 season, every head coach in the OVC returns to coach the same team they did last season. All nine coaches are back including the Dean of OVC Coaches, Bob Spoo of Eastern Illinois. Spoo is beginning his 22nd season on the sidelines with the Panthers in 2009 (23rd season overall after missing 2006 with an illness). Spoo is the fifth longest active tenured head coach at the Division I level (tied with Virginia Tech's Frank Beamer) and trails only Joe Paterno (at Penn State since 1966), Bob Ford (at Albany since 1973), Bobby Bowden (at Florida State since 1976) and Andy Talley (at Villanova since 1985).

Jacksonville State Ineligible for OVC Championship/Postseason Play: In May the NCAA announced the Jacksonville State University received a postseason ban due to an occasion three historic penalty of the APR (Academic Progress Rate). In accordance with OVC by-laws, since Jax State is not eligible for the NCAA postseason, they are also not eligible for the OVC Championship. Jacksonville State will still play a full Conference schedule in 2009 with wins and losses

JSU's Perrilloux on Walter Payton Award Watch List: Jacksonville State senior quarterback Ryan Perrilloux is one of 20 players named to the Preseason Walter Payton Award Watch List. The award is presented to the FCS Offensive Player of the Year. The All-OVC second-team selection last season completed 187-of-297 for 2,318 yards in 2008, which was the third-highest in school history. His 140.88 passing efficiency was ranked 27th nationally and his 244.18 yards of total offense ranked him 28th nationally. The LaPlace, La, native was named OVC Player or Newcomer of the Week seven times during the 2008 season after he led the Gamecocks to an 8-3 record. He enters his senior season as the school's career leader in completion percentage (63.0), passing yards per game (210.7) and total offense per game (244.2). The watch list will be revised in October and again in November before the final ballot is announced. Voting from a panel of FCS sports information directors, writers, broadcasters and other football experts will be conducted after the regular season ends. Three finalists will be announced on Nov. 30 and will be invited to the 23rd annual Sports Network Awards banquet on Dec. 17 in Chattanooga, Tenn., the night prior to the NCAA Division I championship game. The Eddie Robinson Award (top FCS Coach) and Buck Buchanan Award (top FCS Defensive Player) will also be presented that night.

Murray State's Lane on Buck Buchanan Award Watch Lists: Murray State senior defensive end Austen Lane is one of 20 players named to the Preseason Buck Buchanan Award Watch List. The Buchanan Award, established in 1995, honors the best defensive player in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). The award is named after Junious "Buck" Buchanan, the NAIA All-American and Pro Football Hall of Fame, defensive lineman who played for Grambling State from 1959 through 1962. He was selected to the NFL's All-Time Roster, indicative of his standing as one of the greatest football players of all time. Buchanan died of cancer July 16, 1992. His uniform number, 86, was retired by Kansas City in 1992. Lane has garnered national attention after putting together a 2008 campaign that consisted of school records in sacks (12.0) and tackles-for-loss (22.0), both of which ranked among the national leaders. The efforts earned him Sporting News Fabulous 50 All-America honors, as well as Third-Team All-America honors from the Associated Press. Voting from a panel of FCS sports information directors, writers, broadcasters and other football experts will be conducted after the regular season ends. Three finalists will be announced on Nov. 30 and will be invited to the 23rd annual Sports Network Awards banquet on Dec. 17 in Chattanooga, Tenn., the night before the NCAA Division I championship game. The Walter Payton Award and the Eddie Robinson Award will also be presented that night.

Six OVC Schools Have Former FBS Quarterbacks Under Center This Season: This season there are currently six OVC schools with at least one former Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) quarterback competing for the starting job. Three of the quarterbacks are for sure the starter, including Ryan Perrilloux (LSU) starting for the second year at Jacksonville State and 2008 OVC Player of the Year Cade Thompson (South Carolina) starting for the third year at UT Martin. Two other schools have a pair of former FBS signal callers on the depth chart. That includes Eastern Illinois who has Jake Christensen (Iowa) as the starter and Bodie Reeder (Wyoming) as the backup while Tennessee Tech who has Lee Sweeney (Louisville) as the starter with Clint Brewster (Minnesota) on the bench. At Tennessee State Dominic Grooms (Missouri) is in the mix at quarterback while T.C. Jennings (Arkansas State) is the backup at Austin Peay.

FCS Playoffs: For the 13th straight season, the FCS Championship game was held in Chattanooga, Tenn., this year on Friday, Dec. 18 at Finley Stadium/Davenport Field. The playoffs will begin on Saturday, Nov. 28 and continue with second round games on Dec. 5 and semifinal contests on Dec. 11/Dec. 12 before the title game. This will mark the final year under the 16-team playoff format. In April 2008 the NCAA Board of Directors approved a new budget for the Division I Football Championships, which allowed the postseason bracket to expand from 16 to 20 teams beginning in the 2010 season. It marks the first expansion since the playoff field grew from 12 to 16 in 1997. In 2010, the field will be comprised of 10 automatic bids (up from 8 now) and 10 at-large berths (up from 8 now).

FCS Playoffs - Part 2: The OVC will be looking to get multiple teams into the FCS Playoffs for the third time in four years this season. Last year marked the first time since 2005 that just one OVC team (league champion Eastern Kentucky) made the 16-team playoff field. Two other teams (Jacksonville State and Tennessee State) finished with eight Division I victories but did not receive an at-large bid. It marked the first time since the playoffs expanded to 16 teams in 1986 that an OVC team with eight Division I teams did not receive an at-large bid. EKU lost to eventual national champion Richmond in the first round last season.

Eastern Kentucky Searches For 32nd Consecutive Winning Season, 37th Consecutive Non-Losing Season: Eastern Kentucky enters the 2009 season looking for its 32nd consecutive winning season. The team's current streak of 31 consecutive winning season is second in Division I only to the 32-straight by Florida State. Eastern has not had a non-winning season since finishing 5-5 in 1977. The Colonels also have now had 36 consecutive non-losing seasons, as you have to go back all the way to 1972 to find a year EKU had a losing season (they were 5-6 that year, the only time in the last 42 years they have had a losing season). That streak is currently the longest in all of Division I, as the team overtook Michigan who suffered a losing season for the first time in 41 years in 2008.

The 62nd Season of Football: The 62nd season of Ohio Valley Conference football is underway this season. The OVC is made up of nine football-playing schools in 2009. Since its beginning, 14 of the 18 total schools that have played football in the OVC have claimed at least one championship.

A Look Back at the 2008 Season: For the first time in 61 years of competition, the OVC finished the 2008 season with four teams with eight overall victories. The OVC was one of just two FCS conferences to have four or more teams with eight wins (the CAA was the other, who had five teams reach eight or more wins; each of those five CAA teams made the playoffs while only one OVC school made the field). Eastern Kentucky claimed its 20th OVC Championship (the second most crowns in FCS history trailing only the CAA's UMass who has 21; however, EKU's 16 outright conference crowns are the most in FCS history) and second in a row. The Colonels made their 19th

SCORING STREAKS

Jacksonville State currently has a streak of scoring in 94 consecutive games, the longest streak of any OVC school. Eastern Illinois (71) is second followed by UT Martin (51) and Murray State (46). ALL-TIME FCS PLAYOFF APPEARANCES

The FCS playoffs began in 1978, when four teams competed for the national championship. The OVC did not have a team in the playoffs that season but have in 29 years since then. No team has made more playoff appearances than Eastern Kentucky, who won national championships in 1979 and 1982. The Colonels have been in 19 playoffs (tied with Montana). Eastern Illinois is 9th all-time (12 appearances) while Murray State is 31st (5 trips).

CONSECUTIVE WINNING SEASONS

Eastern Kentucky is looking for its 32nd consecutive winning season in 2009. The Colonels have not had a non-winning season since finishing 5-5 overall in 1977 (the second longest streak in Division I). You have to go back to 1972 to find a year they had a losing record (5-6), the program's only losing season in the past 42 years (now the longest streak in Division I after Michigan had a losing season in 2008).

I-AA No More: Although some people may accidentally still refer to it as I-AA football, the term that represents the level of Division I football in which the Ohio Valley Conference competes has been retired. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game, the term Football Championship Subdivision (or FCS) is to be used. FCS is the only Division I football rank to host a NCAA-sponsored national championship (one of 88 championships the NCAA sponsors). The division formerly known as I-A was changed to Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and those teams compete for the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) national championship. Teams who play at the FCS level can offer a maximum of 63 scholarships (FBS teams can offer 85) and compete in a 16-team playoff at the end of the season to determine the national champion.

OVC and SportsUnlimited Announce Launch of OVC Football Magazine: The Ohio Valley Conference has announced the launch and production of "Ohio Valley Conference Football 2009" a full-color, limited edition football magazine that previews the 2009 football season. The venture with SportsUnlimited ships in late August. Detailed feature articles on all nine OVC teams are included in the publication. For the first time, OVC football will be featured in a full-color magazine dedicated to its nine schools and suitable for display on your coffee table year round. To order your copy log onto www.collegesportsmags.com. The cost of the publication is $4.99 plus tax and shipping.

OVC Sports.TV: For the fourth consecutive year, fans can watch every Conference matchup and all non-conference home contests at OVC Sports.TV. The venture with JumpTV Sports allows fans to access live and on-demand streaming video and audio of all conference matchups on their home computer. The premium Web site was launched in July 2006 and streamed over a thousand events in its first three seasons, including all Conference matchups in football and men's and women's basketball as well as select baseball, soccer, softball and volleyball games and OVC Championship events. Packages are available on a yearly, seasonally, monthly or per-event basis.

NFL Connections: As of the start of the 2009 season, 15 former Ohio Valley Conference football players are on NFL rosters for the season (12 active, 2 practice squad members, one IR). Those players include former Eastern Illinois standout Tony Romo, who is the starting quarterback of the Dallas Cowboys and two-time Pro Bowl pick, defensive back Cortland Finnegan (Samford) who was a Pro Bowl selection with the Tennessee Titans last year and Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, who was a starter with the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII in February. There is one player on a NFL roster who played in the OVC last season, Pierre Walters (Eastern Illinois) who is with the Kansas City Chiefs. Javaris Williams (Tennessee State) is also with the Chiefs but as a member of the practice squad to start the season, as is former Tennessee State offensive lineman Cecil Newton who is on the Jacksonville Jaguars practice squad.. Six of nine current OVC schools have at least one player on a NFL roster with Southeast Missouri State leading the way with three. Several NFL coaches also have connections to OVC schools, including two current ones who played at Eastern Illinois - Brad Childress (Minnesota) and Sean Payton (New Orleans). Another EIU alumni - Mike Shanahan - is out of coaching this year but should be back with a team in 2010. UT Martin graduate and former assistant coach Jerry Reese made waves in 2007 when he led the New York Giants to the Super Bowl XLII Championship in his first season as General Manager with the franchise.

SGT. YORK TROPHY

The 2009 season marks the third of competition for the Sergeant York Trophy, an award created by the Nashville Sports Council and the Ohio Valley Conference. The trophy is contested between the four OVC schools in the state of Tennessee - Austin Peay, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech and UT Martin - and go to the team with the best combined record versus those schools in a given year.

In the event of a tie, the award will be shared; however, the previous winner will retain the trophy if they are part of the tie. If the tie is between two other institutions, the trophy will go to the institution that has gone the most seasons without winning the trophy.

The award is only the second traveling trophy that involves more than two teams in college sports; the other is the Commander in Chief's Trophy which has been contested between Air Force, Army and Navy annually since 1972. The award is named in honor of Alvin C. York, the most noted Soldier of World War I. Upon his return to the United States in 1919, he was bestowed the Congressional Medal of Honor. Following the war York returned his home in Pall Mall, Tenn. where he dedicated his life to improving education and facilitating educational opportunities for children in the state of Tennessee.

The award will be presented annually at the Nashville Sports Council's O'Charley's Dinner of Champions (held in March of each year).

Tennessee State and Austin Peay shared the inaugural award after compiling 2-1 records in round robin play last year. Tennessee State took home the trophy, however, by winning the individual matchup with Austin Peay by one point in overtime. Tennessee State claimed the 2008 trophy after going 3-0 in Sgt. York games.

Penn State Last Week: W, 35-17 at Illinois

GAME NOTES: Two legends in coaching will square off this weekend when Eastern Illinois, ranked 25th in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) travels to Happy Valley to take on Penn State, ranked 12th in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). Penn State is led by Joe Paterno, 387-128-3 in his 43rd year at Penn State. He is the longest tenured active coach at one school in Division I. Fifth on that same list is Eastern Illinois head coach Bob Spoo, 136-110-1 in his 22nd season in Charleston, Ill. The teams are meeting for the first time ever. The game should be played in front of the largest crowd ever to watch an OVC team play (which is currently 85,754 when Tennessee Tech played at Auburn in 2007).

SCOUTING EASTERN ILLINOIS: Eastern Illinois suffered its first setback of the season on Saturday, falling to nationally-ranked Eastern Kentucky 36-31 at home. Despite the loss the Panthers slipped just two spots and remained No. 25 in both of this week's FCS Top 25 polls. The game saw a lot of back and forth play with each squad making big plays. Eastern Kentucky jumped out to a 9-0 lead before the Panthers got on the board. After EIU trailed 16-10, quarterback Jake Christensen tossed a pair of touchdowns to put his team on top 24-16 with 11:30 to play in the third quarter. But EKU would score three straight times, including an interception return for a score, to go ahead 36-24 with 11:09 to play. Christensen tossed his third touchdown of the game (a 44-yarder to Kenny Whittaker) with 5:05 to play to cut the score to five, but an EIU drive at the end of the game came up short. Christensen finished the game 21-of-35 for 294 yards and three scores, but did throw two interceptions and was sacked six times. Christensen, a transfer from Iowa, will not be playing at Beaver Stadium for the first time; he played their two years ago as Iowa's starting quarterback. Mon Williams led the rushing attack with 77 yards and a score. Whittaker caught five passes for 82 yards and a touchdown. Defensively Cory Leman had nine tackles and forced and recovered a fumble. The matchup of two nationally-ranked OVC foes was the first time since EIU did it in 2006 against UT Martin (UTM won that contest). That season both of those nationally-ranked teams went on to share the OVC Championship.

SCOUTING PENN STATE: After suffering a home loss to Iowa two weeks ago, Penn State regrouped this past week, topping Illinois 35-17 to improve to 4-1 on the season. The Nittany Lions now have wins over Akron, Syracuse, Temple and Illinois this season. This week's game is the last non-conference tilt of the year for PSU, who will jump back into Big Ten action by hosting Michigan next week. Penn State jumped out to a 28-3 lead over the Illini on Saturday and jumped from No. 15 to No. 12 in the national polls with the victory. Daryll Clark completed 17-of-25 passes for 175 yards and rushed for 83 yards and two scores. Stephon Green led the team with 120 yards and a touchdown. Green is second on the team in rushing this season (38 yards/game), while Evan Royster leads the way with 410 yards (82 yards/game) and four scores. Clark has an efficiency rating of 134.3 and has thrown for 1,133 yards and nine scores in five games this season.

GAME NOTES: Austin Peay and Southeast Missouri are meeting for the 14th time overall and fourth year in a row. The teams did not play between 1997 and 2006 when Austin Peay was not a member of the OVC. Southeast Missouri State won an exciting game in Clarksville last season as Timmy Holloman scored on a 1-yard touchdown run with 14 seconds left to give the Redhawks the three-point win. That capped a 13-play, 60-yard drive that took 3:57 off the clock. In that game Ryan White ran for 8 yards for the Govs while Matt Scheible completed 12-of-24 passes for 195 yards and three touchdowns and ran for 73 additional yards for the Redhawks. The road team has won the last four games in the series and five of six overall. Each of the last two games in the series have been decided by just three points.

SCOUTING AUSTIN PEAY: Austin Peay suffered its second OVC loss of the season on Saturday when they lost 31-23 at in-state rival Tennessee Tech in the first Sgt. York game of the season. In what was a very well played game, neither Austin Peay nor Tennessee Tech committed a turnover as the teams went back and forth. After the score was tied at 17, TTU scored to go ahead 24-17 and Austin Peay scored but had the extra point blocked to still trail by one point with 6:59 to play. The Golden Eagles would score on its next possession to account for the final score. Ryan White ran for 100 yards for Austin Peay while Terrence Holt had 71 yards and two scores. The 100-yard rushing game was the fifth of White's career. Holt also had eight receiving yards, 116 kickoff return yards and 16 punt return yards to finish the game with 211 all-purpose yards. Holt is now first nationally in that category (213.00 yards/game). APSU out-rushed Tech by a 180-70 margin, marking the second game in a row the Govs won the rushing battle but lost the game. Freshman safety Jeremy Ross led Austin Peay with 12 tackles.

SCOUTING SOUTHEAST MISSOURI: Southeast Missouri traveled to Nashville to battle Tennessee State last week, falling 23-17 to the Tigers. The Redhawks accounted for 261 yards of total offense on the night but could never gain the lead over the Tigers. Quarterback Matt Scheible completed just 13-of-34 passes, but did toss two touchdown passes and rush for 61 additional yards. On the defensive side of the ball, junior linebacker Justin Woodlief had a career-high 14 tackles, including 10 solo stops. It marked his third-straight game with 10-plus tackles. He leads the team with 46 total tackles and his 9.2 tackles/game ranks fourth best in the OVC. Junior receiver Miles Edwards moved to sixth on the Southeast career touchdowns list by hauling in a 44-yarder from Scheible during the game.

GAME NOTES: A week after playing the first Sgt. York Trophy game of the season, Tennessee Tech will travel to Martin, Tenn. to play in the second game of the annual quadrangular series between the four OVC schools from the state of Tennessee. The teams have split the last two meetings with TTU winning 13-10 on the road in 2007 and UT Martin claiming a 35-7 victory in Cookeville a year ago. That game was tied at 7-7 in the first quarter before the Skyhawks erupted for 28 unanswered points. Included in that was a 60-yard fumble recovery for a score and an 82-yard touchdown pass by Cade Thompson. Thompson passed for 175 yards and two scores on the night with Roren Thomas pulling in four balls for 118 yards and a score. Brandyn Young led the rushing attack with 107 yards and two touchdowns for UTM. Tennessee Tech was led by Cedric Wilkerson who had 75 yards on the ground.

SCOUTING TENNESSEE TECH: Tennessee Tech began its quest for the Sgt. York Trophy with a 31-23 victory over Austin Peay at home on Saturday. It was the first career win over APSU for head coach Watson Brown, who was the Governors coach from 1979-80. Tech senior quarterback Lee Sweeney was 21-of-29 for 234 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Golden Eagles. The touchdown passes increased his career total to 41, setting a new TTU record. It was his 12th 200-yard passing performance of his career. Sweeney, who ranks sixth in OVC history for career completions (532), now has 6,028 career passing yards, just four yards from 10th in OVC history. Junior receiver Antonio Robinson benefitted the most from Sweeney's big day, as he caught nine passes for 130 yards and two scores. Tim Benford added three catches for 61 yards. In a game that was back and forth throughout, junior Dedrick Miley came up with a key play in the fourth quarter when he blocked an extra point attempt to keep TTU in the lead by one point (24-23). He also added six tackles and a sack. Dustin Dillehay led the way with a career-high 13 tackles. Tennessee Tech did not commit a turnover in the contest and has taken care of the ball all season long. The Golden Eagles have committed only two turnovers in four games, the second best total in all of FCS football.

SCOUTING UT MARTIN: UT Martin ran into a Jacksonville State team on a roll Saturday, falling 52-7 to the No. 20 ranked Gamecocks on the road. That loss snapped a four-game OVC road winning streak dating back to 2007 (Oct. 20, 2007 at EIU was the team's last OVC road loss). The loss also put the Skyhawks at .500 (1-1) in the OVC for the first time since the end of the 2007 season (when the team was 4-4). The 45-point loss was the second largest of the Jason Simpson Era at UTM (trailing only a 49 points loss at nationally-ranked South Florida in 2008). UT Martin was out-gained 501-130 in the game against Jacksonville State. Brandyn Young had 53 rushing yards and a touchdown while Cade Thompson completed 17 passes for 115 yards. Young's rushing touchdown marked the seventh straight game UTM had a rushing score. Junior linebacker Josh Bey had 10 tackles, the fifth double-digit performance of his career and third in five games this season.

GAME NOTES: Jacksonville State and Murray State will play for only the seventh time in each programs history. Each of those meetings occurred after Jacksonville State joined the OVC in 2003. Murray State won the initial meeting (23-17 in overtime) but Jax State has won the last five meetings (by an average margin of 14.8 points) including 31-21 a season ago. In that contest Murray State pulled to within three points with 5:48 to play before the Gamecocks marched down the field and scored the game-clinching touchdown on the next possession. Ryan Perrilloux completed 18-of-20 passes for 189 yards and four touchdowns with Maurice Dupree pulling in five catches for 79 yards and two scores. Murray State was led by Charlie Jordan's 116-yard rushing effort. Saturday is Homecoming for Murray State.

SCOUTING JACKSONVILLE STATE: Jacksonville State won its third straight game on Saturday, topping UT Martin 52-7 in its home and Conference opener. The Gamecocks defense helped JSU get off to a quick start as T.J. Heath picked off two passes in the first 12 plays of the game and returned each for a touchdown. That put JSU up 14-0 before the Gamecocks offense even stepped on the field. Heath added another interception later in the game and was named National Player of the Week by the Sports Network. Ryan Perrilloux was named OVC Offensive Player of the Week for the fourth straight week (an OVC record) after completing 14-of-16 passes for 205 yards and four touchdowns. Perrilloux has accounted for 14 touchdowns in the last three games despite not playing significant minutes in the fourth quarter of any of those contests. Perrilloux's 277.62 passing efficiency for the game was a JSU school record and he currently leads all of Division I (FBS and FCS) in passing efficiency for the season (199.22). James Wilkerson pulled down six of those passes for 133 yards and two touchdowns while Calvin Middleton led the rushing game with 121 yards on 13 carries (9.3 yards/carry). JSU has scored 50 points in back-to-back games for the first time in the program's Division I history. Jax State led 31-0 at halftime, the largest lead at halftime since 1995.

SCOUTING MURRAY STATE: Murray State has had an extra week to prepare for the Gamecocks, as the Racers are coming off a bye week. MSU has not played since Sept. 26 when they host 23-13 to nationally-ranked Eastern Kentucky at home. In that game senior wide receiver Derrick Townsel had 10 catches for 109 yards, the fourth 100-yard game of his career. He now has 132 career receptions which ranks third on the Murray State career list. He and teammate Marcus Harris both rank high on the national all-purpose yardage leader list. Harris is 16th overall (159.25 yards/game) while Townsel is 17th (158.50). Townsel ranks fourth nationally in punt returns (22.29 yards/return) while Harris is 12th nationally in kickoff returns (29.33 yards/return). The Racers used two quarterbacks in that contest with Jeff Ehrhardt completing 13-of-24 passes for 108 yards and Nico Yantko completing 11-of-18 passes for 122 yards and a fourth quarter touchdown.

GAME NOTES: The only two remaining undefeated teams in OVC play (among those who are eligible for the Championship) will square off this Saturday in Richmond when Tennessee State travels to nationally-ranked Eastern Kentucky. Tennessee State won its OVC opener last Saturday to move to 1-0 while Eastern Kentucky won its third OVC game to move to 3-0 on the season. Eastern Kentucky has won 22 of its last 23 OVC games overall dating back to the 2006 season with the only loss coming at the hands of Tennessee State (then ranked 25th nationally) last September. TSU scored on its first possession of that game and never trailed, leading by as many as 14 (27-13) with 4:55 to play in the third quarter and holding on to win by that same margin. ECU was just 3-of-12 on third down during the game. Javaris Williams rushed for 117 yards and a touchdown while Antonio Heffner was 20-of-28 for 314 yards and three scores for the Tigers. ECU ended up with only nine net rushing yards while quarterback Allan Holland was 21-of-37 for 244 yards and two scores. The win by TSU snapped an eight-game winning streak in the series by ECU and marked just the third win for the Tigers in 22 total meetings with the Colonels.

SCOUTING TENNESSEE STATE: Tennessee State snapped a three-game losing streak with a 23-17 victory over Southeast Missouri in its OVC opener on Saturday. The Tigers racked up over 350 yards of total offense in never trailing to the Redhawks. Quarterback Calvin McNairl had a career day, completing 10-of-15 passes for 95 yards and a touchdown and leading Tennessee State in rushing, carrying the ball 20 times for 122 yards and two more scores. McNairl, who has played in the last four games after missing the season opener, leads TSU in rushing on the season, averaging 97.8 yards/game. He had 391 yards (6.6 yards/carry) on 59 carries and has scored four touchdowns.

SCOUTING EASTERN KENTUCKY: Eastern Kentucky went on the road to Charleston, Ill. and topped nationally-ranked Eastern Illinois 36-31 for its third win in a row. Redshirt freshman T.J. Pryor was named OVC Newcomer of the Week after completing 19-of-30 passes for 293 yards and two touchdowns and rushing for 45 yards and another touchdown. Pryor put the Colonels on the board in the first quarter and ECU added a safety to lead 9-0. Eastern Kentucky would eventually fall behind 24-16 before Pryor connected on a 31-yard pass to Orlandus Harris, who made an acrobatic catch in the end zone. That play was setup by an interception by sophomore Jeremy Caldwell. Following a C.J. Walker touchdown run to put ECU up 29-24, Caldwell picked off a pass and returned it 10 yards for a touchdown in what proved to be the game-winning score. ECU added another touchdown and had the ball back at the end of the game, but Caldwell forced the ECU quarterback to fumble, ECU recovered and ran out the clock to secure the victory. ECU was 10-of-16 (62.5%) on third downs on the night after converting only nine third downs in its three previous games. The Eastern Kentucky defense was stout, recording six sacks, five of which came in the second half. On the season ECU has limited each of its first four opponents to less than 100 yards rushing, holding the Panthers to a season-low 44 yards. ECU enters this week ranked third nationally in rush defense (52.25 yards/game).
